Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

Mission: To transform the lives of all children through learning experiences that integrate real-world problem-solving in a welcoming school that partners with the community and families to prepare students for a productive future.

Vision: Students are the leaders, advocates, innovators and problem-solvers of our global community.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

About the PS132M Community – P.S. 132 M Juan Pablo Duarte has been serving the Washington Heights community for over 118 years. It is affectionately known as "the little school with the big heart." Juan Pablo Duarte is the first school named after a Dominican in New York City, the founding father of the Dominican Republic.

P.S. 132 offers several integrated STEM learning opportunities including Lego robotics, Spike Prime, Computer programming through Scratch or Code.org, real-world project based learning for integrated STEM via our hydroponics lab. Harmony program provides music education. Our students engage an additional period of math daily. All students have classes in our STEM lab twice per week. We believe NYC is our classroom and provide students with field experiences as much as possible. As a result, our students have visited several museums, performance centers, zoos, and parks to enrich their learning. All teachers have ongoing job-embedded coaching and professional learning opportunities through Teaching Matters for math instruction and literacy instruction in alignment with our student data, school-wide goals, and next generation learning standards. Through our partnership with Dominican Writers, we host a story time reading program with various children's book authors. Our goal is to expose students to diverse books by exposing them to authors and offering them programming where they can read and write their own stories.

Relationships are at the core of our community. Our teachers believe in the power of developing trusting relationships with students and their families. Our team encourages students to take action, to make a difference as the leaders, problem-solvers, advocates and innovators of our global community. This is best exemplified by the many ways our students take on leadership roles as members of our student council (PAC), Brain Power Wellness student leaders, innovation and design our school murals, arts studio, mindfulness room, and hydroponics lab.

Our school was the first school in district six to install a washer and dryer for students and families. In the winter of 2023, we opened a food pantry for our students and their families. As such, we provide emergency food and supplemental groceries weekly. Through our partnership with Urban Arts Partnership- we provide additional mental health services via Counseling in Schools. We partner with New York Presbyterian and house a mental health clinic on site. P.S. 132 partners with Brain Power Wellness, and Wellness in the Schools (WITS), to promote healthy bodies and minds for our students.

We are a community school and work with Urban Arts Partnerships to support family and community engagement, mental health services, and expanded learning time. Through Story Studio, our students work closely with a teaching artist and published 5  poetry books: I am (2018), I am Because We Are (2019), I am Quarantined  (June 2021). I am Inspired (2023) and I am the Future (2024)., I am Ubuntu (2025). CC/Alianza provides after school programming for our students including:tutoring, recreational, and enrichment opportunities 12 months per year. Beyond their after-school programming, they collaborate with the school on major school-wide initiatives including our JPD Cares initiative, our equity centered approach to meeting the needs of the whole child. They have been key collaborators for our laundry room, care packages with clothing and school supplies, wellness packages with toiletries and other essentials) .CC/Alianza is an integral part of supporting our school's Fall Festival, connecting families to vital community resources. In addition, they also cultural celebrations in our school such as Juan Pablo Duarte Day- a celebration of leaders at school and in our community.

Briefly summarize the key initiatives your school will implement this school year.

EL Literacy Curriculum: We implement Expeditionary Learning literacy curriculum. A curriculum that centers instruction on rich and rigorous texts and engages students in cycle of reading, research, discussion, and writing about real-world topics.  The EL literacy curriculum immerses students in shared texts and builds deep knowledge about topics within each module.

Orton Gilligham Based literacy, MaxScholar uses research based methods to support students to learn to read well, we will provide students with this resource when they are in need of extra support.

Enhanced Mathematics Instruction - Our students will have two periods of math instruction daily using complimentary curriculum with a focus on conceptual fluency and mathematical language routines to increase access, accuracy and strategy for students to solve word problems. Part of daily math instruction will include station teaching to ensure that students can receive targeted instructional support as part of their Tier 1 instruction.

Illustrative Math: We will continue strategically use our math curriculum that will support students in building deeper conceptual understanding and strengthen problem solving skills.

Enhanced Expanded learning time: 30% of our students are housing insecure. We will provide additional learning opportunities that are accessible to students. We will align our expanded learning instructional guides to Tier 1 Next Generation Learning Standards (NGLS).

Parent University:  We build on our success of our parent university by creating series of connected workshops in order for families to have options for "majors." By the end the 2025-26 school year, we will graduate 6 cohorts. Over the course of two semesters (Fall/Spring)  family participants will learn how to support math and literacy at home, learn about attendance policies, and engage in activities that help families promote healthy physical, mental, and emotional well-being. As part of our Parent University we will offer financial literacy workshops.

Hydroponics Lab: In alignment with our school's mission and vision, we will introduce hydroponics to our students with our brand new lab. Our students will continue to learn about sustainability and urban farming in our school-based lab.

Story Studio: We will open a story studio classroom, a space where the intersection or speaking, writing, and technology will provide students with the opportunity to tell stories via podcasting, digital animation, journalism, and videos.

What are the primary digital and/or print curricula/programs used for ELA and Math:

Indicate the content area, grade band and any adaptations made.

| Content Area (Indicate ELA and Math Only) | Grade Band | Digital and/or Print Curricula/Program | Adaptations |
|---|---|---|---|

| ELA | K-2 | Heggerty | N/A |
| Math | K-5 | Illustrative Math | Incorporating weekly instructional spirals to provide opportunities to reteach content, practice problem-solving, and build deep conceptual knowledge and through centers- based learning. |

Section 5: Priority 1 – All students learn to read well

Priority 1 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

| 1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year) | 2. Root Cause(s) | 3. Priority Needs |
|---|---|---|
| Below grade level proficiency in phonics (57% of students on grade level K-5) - iReady May 2025 | While we are teaching foundational skills with fidelity, we need to focus on the application of the skills in connected texts. | Improve students foundational phonics skills through application in connected decodable texts to support improved reading fluency and comprehension |
| Our students are demonstrating gaps in comprehension and text analysis. Grade 3- Key Ideas & Details: 8.3 / 14 points (~59%). 4th | While teachers are focusing heavily on standards R2 and R3, they need to support students reading for meaning and tracking information across longer and more complex texts with explicit strategies. | Improve reading comprehension through explicit instruction in longer, complex texts to fully develop the strategic reading behaviors necessary for deep comprehension. |

| Grade-Key Ideas & Details: 11 / 17 points (~65%). R2, R3 ( NYS 2025 ELA, June Instructional Report) | | |
| Our students are underperforming in comprehension and text analysis. Grade 3: Craft & Structure: 7 / 12 points (~58%). Grade 4:R5 6.9 / 11 points (~63%) ( NYS 2025 ELA, June Instructional Report) | Instruction lacks consistent and explicit teaching of figurative language, text structures, and author's purpose. These language and analysis skills are not systematically embedded in all instructional areas across our school or spiraled throughout the year, limiting students' ability to understand and analyze how texts are constructed. | Students need regular, explicit instruction and practice with academic vocabulary, figurative language, text structure, and author's purpose, along with consistent opportunities to engage in close reading, respond to text-dependent questions, and write using evidence. These skills are essential for strengthening their ability to analyze how texts are constructed and to comprehend complex ideas. |

Priority 1

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for literacy outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Literacy

- Implement the strategies outlined in NYC Reads, including foundational phonics curriculum for grades K-2
- Implement dyslexia screening, professional learning, and program pilots (as applicable)
- Support literacy development through the integration of culturally responsive-sustaining texts and content

Priority 1 SMART Goal(s)

| Target Population | Baseline Data | SMART Goal |
|---|---|---|
| All Students | 31% | By June, 2026, literacy for All Students will improve, as measured by a 10% Increase, from 31% to 41%, of percentage of students scoring at or above proficiency on the NYS ELA exam results . |
| English Language Learners (ELL) | 42% | By May, 2026, literacy for English Language Learners (ELL) will improve, as measured by a 10% Increase, from 42% to 52%, of percentage of students scoring at or above proficiency on the iReady Reading Standards Mastery results. |

Priority 1 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Lever for Success: Linking teaching and learning
Evidence based practices: core instructional program (EL), high leverage teaching strategies,  and formative assessments to tailor instruction.
Supporting structures: instructional coaches, professional learning, standards-based grading.

Root Cause Addressed:

Instruction lacks consistent and explicit teaching of figurative language, text structures, and author's purpose. These language and analysis skills are not systematically embedded in all instructional areas across our school or spiraled throughout the yea, limiting students' ability to understand and analyze how texts are constructed.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

| --- |
| August 2025-Improve instructional coherence: STEM, Art, PE, and related service providers align instruction to EL curriculum module goals improving expanding opportunities for all students to acquire vocabulary, answer text dependent questions, engage in close reading, analyze text structure and author's purpose. Collaborate with district six Supervisor of Speech to leverage EL curriculum strategically. |
| Beginning in September 2025, school will provide common planning time for grade teams + Art, STEM, PE, and related service providers to co-plan. |
| Beginning in September 2025, students will engage in close reading daily as part of small group instruction designed |

| to provide them opportunities to collaborate with peers using collaborative strategic reading (CSR) and in teacher facilitated small group instruction. Close reading will leverage short, complex texts across genres (narrative, informational, poetry) and structure reading to help students get the gist (1st reading), analyze vocabulary, structure, and author's craft (2nd reading), answer text dependent questions using sentence frames for craft, structure, and purpose -3rd read. : |
| Teaching Matters instructional coaches will lead cycle on high leverage teaching strategies to support close reading, comprehension and analysis of complex texts. |
| Assessment calendar will include windows for progress monitoring R4, R5, R6. Teacher teams engage in data analysis protocols track progress using data. |

Priority 2 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?

Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Physical and Emotional Safety

- Develop safety infrastructure and systems, including staff training, collaboration with external partners, and implementation of safety and security best practices
- Expand social emotional and mental health supports via restorative justice, Project Pivot, screeners, and other district or school-based initiatives (as applicable)
- Expand implementation of physical and mental wellness supports, including Physical and Health Education that meets NYSED requirements and related initiatives

Priority 2 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

A continued partnership with RethinkED, including individualized coaching for teacher and paraprofessional leaders that will turnkey professional learning during the special education team, wellness committee, and during grade team meetings. Staff will deepen their knowledge and enhance their skillsets through plan, do, study, act cycles that are grounded in the evidence-based learning from RethinkED modules. We will especially focus on studying modules to set up classroom environments and teach the competencies that will prevent minor altercations between students through a focus on a calming and secure classroom and recess environment and explicit instruction (modeling, practice, reflection) of conflict resolution and self-regulation techniques.

Root Cause Addressed:

Teachers are growing in their knowledge base and capacity to support students with transitions, emotional regulation strategies, and conflict resolution skills.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

May 2026 - Track impact of learning and share OORS data trends with staff. Begin cycle 4, with a focus on the taking stock in our impact and determining needs for students in the coming year.

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

In partnership with Harmony Academy, strengthen our implementation of the social emotional learning curriculum, and begin to integrate within academic periods across our school day, especially in grades 3-5. Crosswalk with the civics and ethical people competencies highlighted in the EL Education Literacy Curriculum, and align to our vision of students that are leaders, advocates, innovators and problem solvers. Throughout this process, participate in intervisitations during social emotional learning periods and share curriculum maps to align our practices in social emotional learning, and shift the mindset of all staff to embrace challenging behavior in students as opportunities for social emotional learning.

Root Cause Addressed:

We need to deepen staff understanding of social emotional learning needs and competencies, as well as strategies to develop those and measure progress in students social emotional development.

| In 3rd through 5th grade students had the furthest to grow overall in the "Number and Operations - Fractions" and "Measurement and Data" strands of standards based on the raw score data from the 2025 NYS assessments in mathematics. Most of the missing points were found in constructed response questions worth multiple points. | Students require further instruction to support their comprehension of word problems with constructed responses required, with particular attention to access to mathematical vocabulary, making visual representations or retelling math problems in their own words, and accurate strategies for solving. | Develop teacher capacity to improve student comprehension of single and multi-step word problems and measure through their capacity to restate/visually represent the problems that they are grappling with. |

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Cycles of coaching from Teaching Matters

As aligned to our instructional vision, we will collaborate with teaching matters to provide cycles of coaching for teachers focused on strengthening student access to word problems, strategy in solving them, and accuracy in response. Coaching will focus on planning for productive struggle that builds student stamina and independence, clear and consistent protocols across classrooms, and explicit instruction to enhance student competence in target standards (especially measurement and data as well as fractions). Teaching Matters coaching will include co-planning with teachers, active coaching and co-teaching of lessons, and action-oriented debriefs with follow up visits.

Furthermore, teaching Matters will support school leaders through engaging in a whole school walk through with a supportive tool to capture teacher needs and progress.

Root Cause Addressed:

Students require further instruction to support their comprehension of word problems with constructed responses required, with particular attention to access to mathematical vocabulary, making visual representations or retelling math problems in their own words, and accurate strategies for solving.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

| September 2025 - School leaders will present the instructional focus. All teachers will attend this mandatory meeting. |

During the meeting, teachers will be grouped together to unpack the instructional focus for the year. Teachers will work to address what this instructional focus looks like in practice and how it sounds. As a team, we will create norms for continuing this learning throughout the year in grade band meetings.

September 2025 - June 2026 - Teaching Matters consultant: supporting teacher teams with curricular alignment to priority standards, data analysis, and planning for centers.

September 2025 - Baseline math data review by teacher teams to identify instructional next steps October 2025 - Principal and AP engage each teacher in 1:1 iReady data chats every six weeks to review student progress toward meeting grade level benchmarks and school-wide goals. Action plans are developed in collaboration with teachers.

September 2025 - June 2026 - School schedule modified to include an additional math period for explicit instruction and practice with word problem solving as well as maintaining the effective spiral review focused on word problems. Time for students to engage in iReady lessons and for teachers to lead small group instruction based on iReady data and common planning time for teacher teams to analyze student work.

October 2025 - May 2026 - Ready Toolkit purchased to provide supplemental instruction to students for Math at various grade levels to support learning to support small group instruction. This will be our primary tool for instruction during our instruction during after school and Saturday Academy.

By December 2025 - School leaders conduct 40 non-evaluative class visits to teachers to provide written feedback and next steps with a focus on academic centers, the use of math language, instructional protocols, and explicit instruction and feedback to support student access, accuracy and strategy with math word problems.

Tier 2 and Tier 3 small group instruction to address the needs of conceptual fluency skills for students with disabilities. Pull out instruction with the use of iReady toolkit.

Through frequent formative assessments through iReady Standards Mastery as well as Illustrative Mathematics Cool Downs, teachers plan to address the needs of students through priority strands of standards in OA, NBT and NF. This will be maintained in trackers where formative assessments are logged are disaggregated by disability status and ELL status.

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

During the math centers block, teachers in primary grades will engaged students in an "applied math" rotation, where students will apply their understanding of numbers in base 10 as they analyze data in time, pictographs, line plots and more. This collaborative and exploratory work will address a key need that unfolds over time, and provide the opportunity for our students to engage with analyzing complex data sets in a low stakes way as they work together in groups during math centers. Teachers will measure student progress over time using spiral assessments.

Root Cause Addressed:

Teachers of students in primary grades need further development in how to support students with the progression from concrete to visual to abstract in order to support their place value understanding (a core understanding for Numbers and Operations) as well as explicit instruction on interpreting and analyzing data in time, longitude, area, volume, etc. through various graphs and charts.

| October 2025 - May 2026 - Ready Toolkit purchased to provide supplemental instruction to students for Math at various grade levels to support learning to support small group instruction. This will be our primary tool for instruction during our instruction during after school and Saturday Academy. |
| By December 2025 - School leaders conduct 40 non-evaluative class visits to teachers to provide written feedback and next steps with a focus on academic centers, the use of math language, instructional protocols, and explicit instruction and feedback to support student access, accuracy and strategy with math word problems. |
| Tier 2 and Tier 3 small group instruction to address the needs of conceptual fluency skills for students with disabilities. Pull out instruction with the use of iReady toolkit. |
| Through frequent formative assessments through iReady Standards Mastery as well as Illustrative Mathematics Cool Downs, teachers plan to address the needs of students through priority strands of standards in OA, NBT and NF. This will be maintained in trackers where formative assessments are logged are disaggregated by disability status and ELL status. |

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

By the time teachers meet weekly with their grade team, they will have entered and be ready to analyze trends in data from a weekly spiral assessment. This will focus their effort on identified needs for students and guide them in addressing a particular mathematical need in access, accuracy or strategy. In addition to this frequent progress monitoring, we will have benchmark level data to check for greater progress over time and plan strategically at the beginning, middle and end of year. Using this data, teachers will plan for differentiated instruction in 1 of 4 math centers periods or 1 of 5 mathematics periods using the illustrative mathematics curricula. By grouping students based on their expressed need, teachers will be able to more frequently measure their impact on student learning.

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Data-informed decision making will guide how we respond to low attendance rates for specific student demographics.

Root Cause Addressed:

Attendance education only occurred at the start of the school year, which resulted in low attendance for students who enrolled after the first two months of school. This led to a harder time teaching school attendance expectations after a trend had already been set.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

| --- |
| Attendance team will identify tiered interventions for students at risk of chronic absenteeism. This will include thresholds based on the number of absences based on time spent at the school. |
| Attendance team will organize attendance workshops at enrollment for all new families throughout the year. |
| The attendance team will re-establish role and responsibilities to create a more seamless workflow. This will include identifying family-specific attendance champions, a tiered meeting and calling schedule, and a proactive response plan. |
| Increased outreach specifically to families living in temporary housing, in shelters, students in foster care or with grandparent caregivers will take place and be more intentional to address barriers. |

| We will modify daily attendance outreach texts based on last years attendance trends. This will allow us to identify which initiatives were the most successful and replicate the engagement. |
| Engage staff in professional learning on the role teachers play in improving attendance |
| Engage students in 1:1 meetings to understand barriers to attendance |
| Pilot a walking bus initiative to connect families with others within the school community to encourage collaboration to improve attendance. |
| Build in known incentives during key months to keep attendance up. |

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Identify students who were on the chronically absent list the pervious year and be proactive in instilling good attendance habits.

Root Cause Addressed:

Many of the students on the chronically absent list have poor attendance year after year. The problems begins early in September and needs to be addressed right away rather than wait until the absences add up.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

| Goal setting meetings will be arranged at the start of the year for families of students who have historically been on the chronically absent list to tackle attendance trends early. This will include discussions about incentives for both parents and students. |
| The attendance team will re-establish role and responsibilities to create a more seamless workflow. This will include identifying family-specific attendance champions, a tiered meeting and calling schedule, and a proactive response plan. |
| Increased outreach specifically to families living in temporary housing, in shelters, students in foster care or with grandparent caregivers will take place and be more intentional to address barriers. |
| We will modify daily attendance outreach texts based on last years attendance trends. This will allow us to identify which initiatives were the most successful and replicate the engagement. |
| Engage staff in professional learning on the role teachers play in improving attendance |

Engage students in 1:1 meetings to understand barriers to attendance

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

The attendance team, which comprises of the principal, school counselors, main office staff, parent coordinator and CBO partner will meet weekly to discuss campaigns, individual student cases and analyze data trends to inform our actions week-by-week. The data we will use include New Visions and Insight data, which we will use for temperature checks to then alter our path forward.

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism Family and Community Engagement

Family and Community Engagement

| 08/25/2025 | 09/04/2025 | Before school begins we will host a welcome back event and orientation for new families. During this event we will focus on establishing a school culture that values attendance and communicates clearly the expectation for the year. This will also help forge relationships between parents to build community and support networks. | Urban Arts |
| 08/29/2025 | 09/04/2025 | We will launch a text message campaign in the days and weeks before school begins to ensure all families are prepared to start the year with good attendance. | Urban Arts |
| 09/08/2025 | 06/26/2026 | The attendance team will meet weekly to analyze data points, discuss specific cases, identify trends and plan for how to address attendance challenges. | Urban Arts |
| 09/08/2025 | 06/26/2026 | This year we will further develop our tiered system of various checkpoints based on the number of absences within a certain time frame. This system establishes systems that will activate once a student surpasses a certain benchmark in order to proactively address the issue. This also includes assigning each person on the attendance team an action based on the tier. | Urban Arts |
| 09/30/2025 | 06/26/2026 | At the end of the month we will offer a special incentive for students who attended 100% of the days that month. By solidifying this tradition, students take a more active role in their attendance journey. | Urban Arts |
| 09/30/2025 | 06/26/2026 | We will continue to build upon our initiative Parent University by recruiting new parents and encouraging them to attend workshops and events, including weekly virtual principal chats, monthly breakfast with the principal, and family Friday in order to build a culture surrounding the value of being present and having good attendance. | Urban Arts |
| 09/15/2025 | 06/26/2026 | The attendance team will send daily texts to parents reminding them to bring their child to school in addition to monthly letters | Urban Arts |

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Action Plan

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Have IEP-Writing Clinics to norm what a high-quality, well-aligned IEP looks like. The staff will meet weekly to address different aspects of writing quality IEPs, such as: alignment of needs and strengths stated in the PLOP with the goals and the recommended supports and services, developing appropriate rigorous standards-aligned annual goals, how to progress monitor each goal, and how to include specially designed instruction (SDI) into the present levels of performance (PLOP) of the IEP. The goal is to build the special education team's capacity so that our school has high-quality, rigorous and well-written IEPs and that the IEP is implemented and progress monitored with fidelity to truly be able to gauge the educational impact on the student. The goal is to develop a system where the teachers organically progress monitor without having to be reminded by the administration or the special education liaison to do so.

Root Cause Addressed:

Teachers and related service providers need to become knowledgeable about the anchor state standards and what a student is expected to do at each grade level. Students should be held to high expectations and should receive grade appropriate goals with the necessary supports and scaffolds in order to bridge the gap between where the student is currently and where the student should be (SDI). Teachers and related service providers need more training on how to write a high quality IEP. Moreover, that IEP should be implemented with fidelity and this should be monitored via the SESIS progress monitoring reports that are provided by the D6 ASEs, Phillip Konig and Virginia Rodriguez, as well as a school co-created tracker to keep everyone accountable.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

| The special education team will meet at the beginning of the year to discuss Chapter 408s and to discuss the goals and expectations for the 2025-2026 school year. We are aiming to have a transformative school year. |
| The special education team will meet weekly to have IEP writing clinics where several topics will be covered throughout the school year, such as writing quality present levels of performance (PLOP) which aligns with standards-based rigorous goals, and the recommended special education supports and services, Specially Designed Instruction (SDI), progress monitoring timeliness, RTI, etc. |
| The Special Education Liaison will turnkey professional learning on BIPs, quality IEP writing, Specially Designed Instruction, Progress monitoring. The lead paraprofessional will turnkey professional learning on behavior management and deescalation strategies from RethinkEd. |

| The special education team will brainstorm and come up with an effective way of holding everyone accountable for progress monitoring the IEP goals in a timely manner (such as an IEP Goals progress monitoring tracker). Deadlines for progress monitoring in SESIS will be implemented prior to the time when report cards are issued to the families. |
| The special education team will receive training on anchor standards for each grade level (possibly from our partnership with Teaching Matters) in order to set goals that are rigorous and aligned to the state expectations for each grade level. |
| Teachers and related service providers will have a professional learning session provided by a representative from Goalbook to explain how to utilize this platform to develop appropriately rigorous standards-based annual goals. |

In order to progress monitor the implementation of key strategies and action steps, the assistant principal and the special education liaison will do the following:

IEP Reviews to check for the following:
- alignment of needs and strengths with the IEP goals
- alignment of needs and strengths with the recommended special education supports and services
- inclusion of rigorous, standards based SMART IEP goals
- inclusion of a progress monitoring criteria and schedule that makes sense for the goal being assessed and for the student's present level of performance

Monthly reviews of IEP goals tracker (co-created by the special education team) by the assistant principal and special education liaison to make sure that everyone is tracking the students' progress or lack thereof in a timely manner.

Monthly reviews of SESIS progress monitoring reports sent by the district's ASEs Phillip Konig and Virginia Rodriguez.

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Family and Community Engagement

Family and Community Engagement

Directions: Indicate the multi-tiered supports (strategies & activities) that will be implemented to support and engage families (including foster parents, birth parents, and families with limited English proficiency) and plans for community collaboration in the implementation of this action plan, surrounding the four priority needs. Include:

1) a description of the school's supports and processes for students with disabilities;
2) a coherent mechanism is implemented for updating families on their child's progress towards measurable annual and post-secondary transition goals;
3) a procedure to ensure families are involved during decision-making for IEP development and implementation.

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Budget and Resources

Budget and Resources

Directions: Indicate available and anticipated resources that will be leveraged to achieve this annual goal and implement this action plan, including human resources, instructional resources (e.g., curricula, programs), schedule adjustments, other. Use N/A if not applicable and/or indicate other resource needs.

Schools are encouraged to think critically and strategically when considering resources that can support progress towards CEP goals for students with IEPs. This includes utilizing Title I funding for at-risk speech and/or counseling services, all-staff training in supporting students with autism, sensory materials, summer institute geared at the development of executive functioning skills, and/or inclusion coaching support. Schools may also consider utilizing Title II funds to reduce the ratio of students with IEPs to typically developing peers in ICT classes.

Human Resources:

Special education administrator, special education liaison, special education teachers, related service providers, paraprofessionals, partnership with NYPH clinician, partnership with RethinkEd, partnership with Teaching Matters, partnership with ALIANZA Catholic Charities, partnership with Urban Arts, the school's Parent Teacher Association, parents

Instructional Resources

Goalbook, SESIS, New York State Next Generation Learning Standards

Schedule Adjustments

The special education pedagogues and related service providers will need to be provided with some weekly planning time in their schedule where everyone can come together and work towards the common goal of raising the bar on the quality of the writing of our IEPs and the fidelity of implementation of the IEPs.

Other Resources Needed

PLOs for pedagogues on varying topics, such as LRE, SDI, writing quality IEPs, utilizing platforms (i.e., SESIS, Goalbook, MaxScholar, iReady, etc.)

Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and

Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Directions: Complete the chart and identify Tier 2 or 3 MTSS Academic supports. Any Tier 2/3 interventions should be in addition to the foundational work being done at Tier 1.

Family and Community Engagement Around MTSS

Describe how the school's essential components of MTSS are shared with families.

Essential components of MTSS will be shared with families through the family handbook as well as being presented at our curriculum night in September.

Describe how families receive updates on the progress of their child(ren) who receive Tier 2 targeted, or Tier 3 intensive interventions.

Families will receive updates on tier 2 targeted and tier 3 intensive interventions at the same time that report cards are provided.  Their child's progress will be discussed at parent teacher conferences, and parents will receive a printout of their progress so far based on progress monitoring through Acadience.

Describe how families are involved during decision making regarding the progress of students receiving Tier 3 intensive intervention.

Family members will be involved in decision making through an initial conference with the interventionist where they will discuss their child's strengths and areas of need, and come to a mutual agreement about how our Tier 3 programming can address those needs with their child.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

Number of students in temporary housing who are:

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:
- Living in a hotel/motel:
- Other

*Note: In keeping with established practices regarding personally identifiable information, use the letter "s" to identify a number less than five (5).

Our school currently serves 60/199 (30%) students in temporary housing.

13/60reside in shelters
47/60 doubled up

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

Our students in temporary housing attendance data show the following:

-Chronic absenteeism rate is 2% (15 vs 13%) Also, higher than all students (Insight Beta, 2025)
-For students living in shelters chronic absenteeism is 38%

Our students have the following needs:
-access to timely transportation, frequent hotel/shelter changes impact student attendance.
-access to mental health supports

We survey all our students and assess their needs for supports such as uniforms, after school programming, and academic support. We use this information to help us align resources to our students' needs.

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

We plan to provide the following:

- Access to an on-site washer and dryer in our school building with provided detergent.
- Access to a food pantry with regular distributions.
- Items of clothing and shoes necessary for participation in classes.
- Personal school supplies such as backpacks, notebooks, and remote learning devices such as internet and/or laptop/tablet.
- Counseling services related to housing issues that are impeding learning.
- Extended learning time (before and after school, Saturday, summer)
- Parent workshops and planned involvement. Flexible opportunities for parents to connect with school leadership and teachers.

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

How many students in foster care are currently enrolled at your school? Provide a detailed breakdown of the social-emotional and academic supports available to them.

What targeted supports are in place for students in foster care, including those newly transitioning into the foster care system? How does your school ensure these students receive the necessary interventions to promote stability and success?

Each student is connected to a family Liaison- to be a point of contact for the family.
Students data is reviewed and interventions are scheduled
We review data such as attendance, OORs, and assessment data to match students to the intervention necessary.

After analyzing historical demographic, attendance, and achievement data for students in foster care, what trends have emerged? How can these insights be used to improve the services and support provided to this population?

A significant increase and improvement in attendance over the last two years. Access to transportation and mental health supports have contributed to academic success. and improvements in overall physical health.

Collaboration between school nurse, mental health team, attendance team, family liaison led to targeted intervention and ultimately academic success.

What specific strategies does your school implement to ensure students in foster care, particularly those in transitional grades, receive targeted Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) support? How do these strategies help address academic and behavioral challenges?

Daily SEL time integrated into instruction. Counselor supports our students in foster care with self regulation strategies. Students know how to use calming corner and the school's mindfulness room as a space for regulating or coregulating to increase instructional time.

Expanded Learning Time (ELT) Support

The ELT program aligns with Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) and will be offered to all eligible students who are considered at-risk of not meeting state standards. Note: Receivership schools must commit to 200 student contact hours of ELT.

Describe how your school will utilize ELT to offer opportunities for enrichment and additional learning before, during, after school, on weekends and/or during the summer to actively address the unique learning needs and interests of all types of students, especially those who may benefit from approaches and experiences not offered in the traditional classroom setting.

Through ELT, we will ensure that students have access to additional mathematics and literacy needs as identified by diagnostics administered throughout the year. During the expanded learning time, teachers will utilize Heggerty, Fundations, ELEducation Skills Block, Illustrative Math, iReady and Max Scholar curricular materials to reteach and accelerate student learning by building on the learning that is happening during the school day.

Teachers will utilize the same small group station rotation model used during literacy and math centers during the day in order to provide students with more personalized instruction (tailored to student interest and need) and allow them to have time to practice independently of the teacher in collaboration with their peers. This style also allows for increased movement in the classroom as students physically transition between centers and autonomy as they take responsibility over their own learning and materials management.

Describe how your school will meet the requirement of ensuring that ELT instruction is delivered under the supervision of a teacher who is NYS certified in that content area.

Our school will offer Saturday Academy, After School Tutoring, and a Language Development through STEM academy (Title III). We will offer flexible options include remote service for those students that benefit from remote instruction or are unable to take advantage of in person services due to lack of transportation services on Saturday and after school. Leveraging our Lego robotics program, we will develop student's language proficiency across modalities. Our after-school programs will offer additional math and ELA instruction. We will hire our ENL certified teachers as well as Bilingual certified, and Special Education teachers to ensure that ELT is delivered by highly qualified teachers.

Describe how your school will meet the requirement of ensuring the alignment of ELT instruction with core academic subject area instruction offered during the regular school day.

Our school will ensure alignment by leveraging the resources students use during the instructional day (iReady, EL and IM) we will tailor the expanded learning time instruction to the needs of each student based on their assessment/diagnostic data. Our robust assessment and curriculum maps center student data and also identify focus standards in core subject areas that will inform the scope, sequence, and pacing of our ELT instruction. We have aligned our key focus standards in ELA and Math to the instruction during the ELT.

Provide a description of the materials purchased to support implementation of ELT.

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the school community. P.S. 132, in compliance with Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is responsible for creating and implementing a parent and family engagement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. The school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), and Title I Parent Advisory Council as trained volunteers and welcomed members of the school community.

Support for Parents and Family Members of Title I Students

Parental Involvement and School Quality

The school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (ML/ELL), and students with disabilities. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, the school will:
- actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage all parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I, 1% set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to the school to supplement parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent and family engagement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional learning, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend the school and will work to ensure that the school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;
- conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;

- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., ESSA/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, School Quality Report, Quality Review Report, NYC School Survey Report;
- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent and family engagement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1116 and other applicable sections under ESSA;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed.

Encouraging School-Level Parental Involvement

The school will further encourage school-level parent and family engagement by:
- hosting educational family events/activities during Parent-Teacher Conferences and throughout the school year;
- encouraging meaningful parent participation on School Leadership Teams, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council;
- supporting or hosting Family Day events;
- establishing a Parent Resource Center/Area or lending library; instructional materials for parents;
- encouraging more parents to become trained school volunteers;
- providing written and verbal progress reports that are periodically given to keep parents informed of their children's progress;
- developing and distributing a school newsletter or web publication designed to keep parents informed about school activities and student progress;
- providing school planners/folders for regular written communication between /teacher and the home in a format, and to the extent practicable in the languages that parents can understand.

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

Title I Program Information

Part 1: Title I Program Type

Title I Requirements and Strengthening Title I Parent Involvement: Under USDOE's Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Title I schools are required to address professional learning and parent and family engagement in the Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP). To strengthen parent leadership in Title I schools, and increase the involvement of all parents of Title I eligible children in improving students' academic outcomes, all Title I schools are required to establish a Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) that will serve as the consultative and representative body for all Title I parents in the school to provide voice into the spending of Title I funds.

The SLT is responsible for facilitating consultation with the Title I Parent Advisory Council regarding the joint development of the CEP, Parent and Family Engagement Policy, School Parent Compact (SPC) and the use of the 1% parent involvement set-aside in Title I schools. The Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) Chairperson (or alternate) is expected to attend all regular meetings of the School Leadership Team (SLT). Title I parents, as represented by the Title I PAC Chairperson, must be consulted regarding the use of the Title I 1% set-aside for parent and family engagement. The Title I 1% set-aside funding is used to supplement parent and family engagement activities as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and must be aligned with student achievement goals as outlined in the CEP. For additional guidance on the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC), go to the Protocols and Timeline for Title I Parent and Family Engagement Activities document.

Directions:

- All schools must indicate their Title I status in Part 1.
- All elements of the All Title I Schools section must be completed in Part 2.
- All Targeted Assistance (TA) Schools must also complete the TA Schools Only section in Part 3.
- All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools must also complete the SWP Schools Only section in Part 4.
- If a required component is addressed elsewhere in this plan, you may refer to the section or Priority where the response can be found.
- For additional information, visit the Title I Program Description (US Department of Education).

Part 2: All Title I Schools

High Quality and Ongoing Professional Learning: Please list below the Priority or section(s) that indicate strategies and activities for high quality professional learning for teachers, principals, staff, and paraprofessionals to enable all students to meet state standards.

Our instructional focus for the 2025-26 school year will be "leveraging explicit instruction to accelerate learning for every child"

-There will be 4 cycles of learning led by teacher leaders where we seek continuous improvement centered on enhancing explicit instruction. These will be informed by best practices in data analysis including looking at student protocols from the school reform initiative, and will be reinforced by frequent inter-visitation amongst staff.
-Teaching Matters: Provide staff with literacy planning support, resources, and demonstrations to improve pedagogical practices. Will target early literacy in grades K-2 and literacy routines in grades 3-5.
-Teaching Matters: Math Professional Development
-Small Group Instruction (UDL) - Planning for accelerating learning through centers based instruction
- Harmony Social and Emotional Learning
-Brain Power Wellness
-The Fundamentals of Behavior Support: Conflict Cycle De-escalation PD
-Co-teaching strategies

Part 4: Schoolwide Program (SWP)

Transition Plans to Assist Preschool Children (Elementary Schools Only): Describe the transition plans used to assist preschool children from early childhood programs to the elementary school program (e.g. aligned curriculum, joint PD & parent involvement activities, sharing of records/information, early intervention services, etc.).

We will host a meet and greet for families of entering kindergarten students in August of 2025 where they can meet lower grades teachers and learn about our curriculum and the flow of the day for our classes.

In August of 2025, we will host a playdate for new families to meet each other, build parent leadership capacity, and connect families to strengthen attendance.

Beginning in September and continuing throughout the year, we will pair new kindergarteners with a big brother/big sister in 5th grade to help them at recess and get acclimated to their new school.

Part 5: "Conceptual" Consolidation of Funds in SWP Schools

Directions: All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools in NYC are conceptually consolidating their Federal, State, and Local funds, even though the Galaxy system reports the allocations in separate accounting codes1. To be eligible for the flexibility consolidation of Federal funds, a Schoolwide Program school must identify in its Schoolwide plan (CEP) which programs are included in its consolidation and the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool. Additionally, the school plan must document that it has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated2. On the chart below, indicate which Federal, State, and/or local Tax Levy program funds that are consolidated in your school's Schoolwide Program, the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool, and verification that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated.
For the last two columns of this table: Place an (X) in Column A below to verify that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated. Indicate in Column B, the Priority or section that references where a related program activity has been described in this plan.

Explanation/Background

1. Explanation/Background:

Title I Schoolwide Program schools are expected to use the flexibility available to them to integrate services and programs with the aim of enhancing the entire educational program and helping all students reach proficient and advanced levels of achievement. In addition to coordinating and integrating services, Schoolwide Program schools may combine most Federal, State and local funds to provide those services. By consolidating funds from Federal, State, and local sources, a Schoolwide Program school can address its needs using all its available resources. This gives a school more flexibility in how it uses available resources to meet the identified needs of all its students.

Consolidating funds in a Schoolwide Program means that a school treats the funds it is consolidating like they are a single "pool" of funds. In other words, the funds from the contributing programs in the school lose their individual identity and the school has one flexible pool of funds. The school uses funds from this consolidated Schoolwide pool to support any activity of the Schoolwide Program without regard to which program contributed the specific funds used for a particular activity – so long as the use of funds meets the intent and purposes of the programs from which the funds originate. To consolidate funding in a Schoolwide Program, the school does not literally need to combine funds in a single account or pool with its own accounting code. Rather, the word "pool" is used conceptually to convey that a Schoolwide Program school has the use of all consolidated funds available to it for the dedicated function of operating a Schoolwide Program without regard to the identity of those funds.

Consolidating Federal funds in a Schoolwide Program has the following additional advantages:

- Consolidating Federal funds eases the requirements for accounting for funds from each specific program separately, because a Schoolwide school is not required to distinguish among funds received from different sources when accounting for their use.
- A school that consolidates Federal funds in its Schoolwide Program is not required to meet most of the statutory and regulatory requirements of the specific Federal programs included in the consolidation (e.g., semi-annual time and effort reporting for Title I). However, the school must ensure that it meets the intent and purposes of the Federal programs included in the consolidation so that the needs of the intended beneficiaries are met.

2. The intent and purposes of the Federal programs indicated on the chart above (Part 4c of this section) are as follows:

- Title I, Part A – Schoolwide Programs: To upgrade the entire educational program in the school in order to improve the academic achievement of all students, particularly the lowest-achieving students. This includes provision of services for Students in Temporary Housing (STH).
- Title I 1003(a), School Improvement: Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI), Additional Targeted Support and Improvement (ATSI) and Targeted Support and Improvement (TSI) Funding:

Support implementation of school improvement plans that aims to improve instruction and address the identified needs

Title II, Part A: Supplementary funding to improve student academic achievement by reducing class size in grades K, 1, 2, and 3, with an emphasis on grades with an average register greater than 20. If space is not available to form additional classes, funds may support push-in teacher(s) to supplement the instructional program. For schools that choose to reduce class size, priority must be given to reducing class size in general education settings and must demonstrate the following:

- Reduce class sizes to 15-18 students or fewer (including the use of co-teaching and floating teachers that bring the student to teacher ratio to one teacher per 15-18 students);
- Be accompanied by a rigorous curriculum, effective teachers, and a sustained, job-embedded professional development plan.

- Title III, Part A: To help ensure that children with limited English proficiency become proficient in English, develop high academic attainment in English, and meet the same challenging State academic content and achievement standards in the core academic subjects that all other children are expected to meet. Another purpose of this program is to increase the capacity of schools to establish, implement and sustain high-quality language instruction programs and English language development programs that assist schools in effectively teaching students with limited English proficiency. Title III, Part A is also designed to promote the participation of parents and communities of limited English proficient children in English language instruction programs.
- Title III Immigrant: Supplementary and enhanced services to immigrant students, in the areas of English language acquisition and content area achievement. Immigrant children and youth are defined as individuals who are aged 3 through 21, have not been attending school in any one or more states for more than three (3) full academic years, and were not born in any state. "State" means the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Children born to U.S. citizens abroad, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or any other U.S. territory that is not D.C. or Puerto Rico are to be considered immigrants.
- Title IV, Part A: Title IV funds are for schools that are among those with the greatest needs, have the highest numbers of students from low-income families, are identified for CS, ATSI or TSI, or are identified as persistently dangerous public schools. Allowable uses of funds under well-rounded education, safety and health, and educational technology include direct services for students, professional development for teachers and administrators, and supplemental educational resources. School allocations have been provided for well-rounded education, social emotional learning, cultural responsiveness awareness, professional development to support implementation of technology and blended learning environments, and community coordinators in schools with high rates of students in temporary housing

- Students in Temporary Housing (STH): Schools must describe their use of Title I STH funds in their consolidated application.

Important Note: The following funds may not be consolidated:

- Title I Parent Involvement Set-aside: Title I, Part A funds must support parent involvement activities and programs. Chancellor's Regulation A-655 requires School Leadership Teams to consult with Title I parent representatives regarding the Title I program and the use of these funds. Parent involvement activities funded through Title I must be included in the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and aligned with student achievement goals in the school comprehensive educational plan.
- IDEA: To ensure that all children with disabilities have available to them a free appropriate public education designed to meet their individual needs.
- Grant funds awarded via a competitive process: These funds must be used for the purposes specified by the Grantor, as described in the school's approved grant application.

Community Schools

Community School Partners

NYC Community Schools are committed to advancing equity by organizing resources and sharing leadership with community partners to support the whole child. Each Community School is different and reflects the strengths and needs of its students, families, and local community. The most successful Community Schools share common features, which are integrated into the fabric of the school and drive student learning. These features are Collaborative Leadership and Practice, Family and Community Engagement, Expanded Learning Time (ELT), and Wellness and Integrated Supports. Embedded throughout the work is a focus on incorporating anti-racist practices and differentiating supports, including attendance supports, for special populations. Since all school operations and actions are in service of improving the academic and non-academic achievement of its students, the annual schoolwide goals should be informed by the students, their achievement, and the opportunities provided to them. The school should develop these goals after a realistic and comprehensive analysis of its data, paying specific attention to the achievement of its subgroups and disproportionality.

Directions: Identify the partnerships with Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) that will support the achievement of annual goals through implementation of the Community School Core Features: Collaborative Leadership and Practice, Family and Community Engagement, Expanded Learning Time (ELT), and Wellness and Integrated Supports. Identify the target student population(s), provide a summary of the scope of the services and indicate the Priority or section(s) of the plan.

Implementation of Community School Core Features & Components

Collaborative Leadership and Practice: Describe how the CBO will share leadership and engage in collaborative planning with the Community School to achieve the school's annual goals.

Our CBO engages in collaborative planning by having our community director be a member of the School Leadership Team (SLT). They continuously monitor progress towards our school goals and makes adjustments to our action plan based on data. Our CBO conducts weekly school check-in's to plan school events, identify community resources, align school instructional initiatives with Story Studio and other integrations. They also attend weekly attendance meetings and has a hand in helping reduce chronic absenteeism and student/parent engagement. CBO provides Story Studio which is an arts integration program focused on improving literacy, expanding the students knowledge of technology, they support family and community engagement, and arranges student experiences out in the field beyond the classroom that connects to learning. In addition, they also help with coordinating Career Friday efforts, art and music integrations, and incorporating STEM-focused project based learning, such as introducing podcasting and a new Minecraft Education curriculum to introduce programming, coding and computer science basics. To support expanded learning time, the CBO also supports our Saturday Academy, after school programs, and both winter and spring break camps.

Family and Community Engagement: Describe how your Community School will develop authentic school-family partnerships, and create the conditions for families and community members to participate in decision-making, hold leadership roles that drive school change, and serve as partners in students' holistic development.

Our school fosters authentic school-family partnerships by hosting impactful events throughout the year to forge community such as our annual Fall Festival, our Juan Pablo Duarte Day celebration that is open to families and other important community members, and showcases of student work. Monthly we invite families into the building for Family Friday, which is a time when parents can spend time in their child's classroom and experience what it is like as a student. We also have a monthly parent breakfast with the principal that is formatted as a roundtable discussion so parents always have a platform to ask questions, raise concerns, and make suggestions for how to improve the school community. This event is a great way to give parents decision-making power and to build trust between staff and families, in addition to receiving consistent feedback. Another way we collect feedback is by giving school surveys to give parents and families a voice in the way our school operates and future changes. Parents hold leadership roles such as class parent which keeps hem involved in the school community.

We are also entering the third year of our family engagement program called "Parent University." So far we have successfully graduated four cohorts of parents who have consistently attended school programing and events. This initiative encourages families to be involved in the school and engage with helpful workshops across a variety of topics ranging from health and wellness, how to support their student's academic success, in addition to programing on how to improve economic stability and mobility. Workshops have been secured through partnerships with New York Presbyterian and other local businesses and organizations.  In order to level-up for this next school year, we plan to strengthen the program by introducing re-ocurring Family Literacy & Math Nights to provide parents with tools to help their students grow both in and out of the classroom.  This will include guided read aloud events and materials for continued summer learning.

Finally, our school values our community and listens to their needs based on surveys and candid conversations. In response to barriers certain parents spoke of, we opened a laundry room that is free to use. After finding out 72% of our families are food insecure, we worked to open a pantry that provides food to families living in a variety of conditions. Last year we expanded our partnership with NYC Love Kitchen and have been able to consistently stock our pantry and supply our families with healthy food on a weekly basis. Moving forward, we want to strengthen this partnership in order to have a pantry distribution once a week throughout the year. As a Community School we will continue to build on these resources and form partnerships with our families.

Implementation of Community School Core Features & Components

Wellness and Integrated Supports: Describe how your Community School will address out-of-school barriers to learning through partnerships with social and health service agencies and providers to help students attend school regularly and engage in learning through the provision of programs such as social emotional learning, conflict resolution training, and restorative justice.

Our school addresses out-of-school barriers through a variety of social and health services/providers. Our partnership with the Ryan Center has helped many of our students and families seek medical and health care services that are located near the school. We also partner with Brain Power Wellness to bring workshops to both students and families throughout the year help with social emotional learning, conflict resolution, stress management/mental health, and more. Counseling in the Schools has provided us with a counselor that many of our students use as a resource who is able to work with our community on restorative justice, conflict resolution, and trauma support. Our students also take part of an Upstander Anti-Bullying/Anti-Violence program to provide valuable education, tools, and resources. Through a partnership with New York Presbyterian, our community has access to health workshops, health screenings, hospital resources, and autism support for families. For our families that are food insecure, Love Kitchen NYC, Catholic Charities/Alianza, and Urban Arts have all contributed tremendously to help us maintain a sustainable and consistent food pantry. Last year we were also selected as a flagship school of the Wellness In The Schools (WITS) program. Through this initiative our students have participated in movement breaks, exercise events, cooking classes to learn healthy recipes, and an upgraded lunch menu featuring delicious and healthy food options. We plan to continue to strengthen these relationships and bring valuable resources and workshops to our students and families.

Every Student, Every Day: Describe how your Community School will work with CBO partners to meet weekly and use data from DOE systems and New Visions for Public Schools to monitor trends in attendance, assign personalized interventions–including Success Mentors–to chronically absent students, and draw on community resources for support with removing barriers to attendance.

For support, you may access strategies here.

Our CBO partner attends all weekly attendance team meetings and stays up-to-date on trends in attendance. Using this data, the CBO works with school leaders to formulate a game plan on how to improve attendance and decrease chronic absenteeism. Our CBO plays a large role in organizing attendance incentive activities at the end of each month to encourage students to come to school. They also support in the distributions of attendance letters and the upkeep of daily text reminders to parents. The CBO actively works with attendance team members to discuss barriers to attendance and focus on specific case management for chronically absent students. Next school year we will will expand our initiative to assign a learning/attendance champion to students in need to extra support when it comes to attendance. It is then the staff members responsibility to conduct check-in's with each student/family to uncover barriers to good attendance and to also celebrate their wins/successes. Through bringing programming to the school, the CBO encourages a boost in attendance and draws on community partnerships to keep students engaged and interested in the various opportunities and experiences offered.

Special Populations: Describe how your Community School will work with your partners to ensure students receive differentiated and culturally responsive supports. Describe how your Community School's systems and structures will be optimized to work for all students, including students in temporary housing, Multilingual Learner/English Language Learner (ML/ELL), and Students with Disabilities.

Our Community School partners with organizations to ensure differentiated and culturally responsive supports, such as our relationship with the Dominican Writers Association, which provides ELL support through providing a story time reading events with diverse books and programming for students to read and write their own stories. For all of our students, we offer remote support, so despite barriers to coming into the school building our students have access to their teachers and materials and will not fall behind. For our students facing economic challenges and our students in temporary housing, we provide uniforms and clothing, food pantry access, laundry room access, and we work to connect them with supports within the community based on individual needs. Our Students with Disabilities also receive support from a liaison with New York Presbyterian.

Expanded Learning Time (ELT)

Describe how your Community School will offer opportunities for enrichment through after-school, weekend, and summer programs, as well as additional instruction, individualized academic support, and enrichment activities that emphasize real-world learning and community problem solving.

Refer to the Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) section of the CEP for the ELT program description indicating how the school's ELT program is offered to all eligible students considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards.

Submission Assurances

Submission Assurances

- ☐ The Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) has been developed in consultation with parents, school staff, and others in accordance with the requirements of Shared-Decision Making (CR 100.11) to provide a meaningful opportunity for stakeholders to participate in the development of the plan and comment on the plan before it is approved.
- ☐ As part of the root cause analysis process, the school reviewed inequities, including resource inequities within the school, and investigated areas of low performance to identify strategies to address inequities within the school and promote improved student outcomes.
- ☐ The CEP School Leadership Team (SLT)/Stakeholder Signature Page will be printed, scanned, and submitted with the signatures of those that participated in the development of the CEP. DocuSign may also be used to secure electronic signatures for the CEP SLT/Stakeholder Signature Page. If the school was unable to obtain a signature of an individual that participated in the development of the CEP, the school has written “Addendum Attached” and provided supplemental documentation to explain why the school was unable to obtain the individual’s signature.
- ☐ The CEP will be implemented no later than the beginning of the first day of regular student attendance.
- ☐ Professional development will be provided to teachers and school leaders that will fully support the strategic efforts described within this plan.

Language Allocation Policy Outline

Language Allocation Policy Outline

2025-26 Language Allocation Policy (LAP)

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents.  When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

For our Stand Alone ENL, we use the pull-out model. ELL students are blocked and heterogeneously grouped by language proficiency and grade bands. Students are grouped as follows...

Kindergarten (entering and emerging) - Vilma Acosta, TESOL certified, provides stand-alone services
First grade (entering and emerging) - Fidelina Lozano, TESOL certified, provides stand-alone services
Second (entering and emerging) - Gabriella Colon, TESOL certified, provides stand-alone services
Third-Fourth grade (entering and emerging) - Fidelina Lozano, TESOL certified, provides stand-alone services
Fifth grade (entering and emerging) - Fidelina Lozano, TESOL certified, provides stand-alone services

Integrated ENL:

Integrated classes are co-taught by general or special education teacher and an ENL teacher, or by bilingual certified teacher, in a general education or ICT classroom. Students are heterogeneously grouped.

Grade K - Vilma Acosta, TESOL certified, provides integrated services
Special Class K/1 - Awilda Estrella, TESOL certified, provides integrated services
Grade 1 - Diana Villa, Bilingual Education Extension, provides integrated services
Grade 2 - Gabriella Colon, TESOL certified, provides integrated services
Special Class 2/3 - Awilda Estrella, TESOL certified, provides integrated services
Grade 3 - Joanna Estades, Bilingual Education Extension, provides integrated services
Grade 4 - Jodai Newball, Bilingual Education Extension, provides integrated services
Special Class 4/5 - Awilda Estrella, TESOL certified, provides integrated services
Grade 5 - Awilda Estrella, TESOL certified, provides integrated services

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)
Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

N/A

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

Our school offers a Dual Language program in grades K and 1. Teachers in the Dual Language program are dually certified (bilingual extension and common branch licenses) and engage in a 70/30 model of instruction in English and Spanish, supporting the development of both languages. ENL services are provided by the classroom teacher in the following classes: L. Martes (Kindergarten - Bilingual Education Extension), M. Custodio (First Grade-Bilingual Education Extension). The ELLs in the Dual Language program are grouped heterogeneously and blocked with their grade level. Integrated services are provided by the Dual Language classroom teacher during the literacy block.

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

Once teachers report back to school in September, ENL teacher, Awilda Estrella, and AP, Ryan Berry, review the NYSESLAT data and print the RLAT to determine the number of mandated minutes required for each ELL student. After gathering data, ENL teacher creates a spreadsheet with student names, proficiency levels, stand-alone vs integrated minutes, subject area, and any other pertinent information that may impact the ELL services for each student.

Entering and Emerging students are programmed for a total of 360 instructional minutes a week. 180 of those minutes are delivered in a Stand-Alone component. The last 180 minutes are delivered through Integrated instruction. Transitioning and Expanding students are programmed for a total of 180 instructional minutes a week. These are delivered through integrated instruction. All instructional minutes are provided during Literacy block or during science instruction. Commanding / Former ELLs receive 90 minutes of integrated instruction per week.

We have a Dual Language program that follows a 70/30 model in Kindergarten and an 50/50 model in grade 1, where most of the day is taught in the ELLs target language of Spanish. ENL students who are enrolled in the Dual Language program are given English supports through the program and taught by a teacher who has a Bilingual Extension license. Within the classroom, small group and differentiated instruction is delivered to meet learning needs of all students.

The process of programming ELL students in STARS begins at the start of school year in collaboration between Ryan Berry, Assistant Principal, and Awilda Estrella, ENL Coordinator. Ryan, the STARS programmer collaborates with Ms. Estrella to review NYSESLAT and NYSITELL data in order to ensure that students are programmed correctly. This process happens each time we enroll a new student throughout the year.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

ENL core content will be delivered in English using the EL Education curricula, aligned with next-generation learning standards, for a total of five 50-minute periods (250 minutes per week). During module lessons, students will engage with grade-level texts to develop listening, reading, writing, and speaking skills appropriate for their grade level. In literacy centers, students will be grouped homogeneously and receive individualized explicit instruction tailored to their unique literacy and language needs for a total of four 50-minute periods (200 minutes per week). Additionally, during these centers, students will have opportunities to practice and reinforce explicitly taught language and skills.

ELA instruction will be delivered through explicit instruction by the teacher, encompassing whole-class instruction, small group activities, independent reading and writing time, discussions, and assessments such as quizzes and exams. Additionally, a blended learning model will be employed, where ELs receive instructional minutes through a combination of explicit instruction and online learning using tools like Max Scholar. This approach allows students to engage in online reading and writing activities.

ELA instructional minutes will be seamlessly integrated into interdisciplinary projects. These projects will require students to conduct research, analyze information, and effectively communicate ideas through writing, presentations, and other forms of expression. ELA skills will be developed and reinforced as students work on authentic, real-world tasks.

Furthermore, ELA instructional minutes will be embedded across the curriculum, incorporated into instruction across all subject areas. Educators will infuse reading, writing, speaking, and listening activities into their lessons to support students in developing literacy skills while mastering content in subjects such as science, social studies, and mathematics.

Integrated ENL services is provided during Integrated Literacy through a co-teach model with an ENL certified teacher and Common Branch teacher. ENL stand-alone instruction is delivered through a pull-out model during Literacy Centers by a bilingual certified teachers.

HLA will be taught in the Dual Language program using Estrellitas for Phonics, Heggerty for Phonemic Awareness, Home Language Arts will be taught using a translated version of EL Education.  Estrellitas and Spanish Heggerty will be taught daily and Home Language Arts will alternate.

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

In our one way sequential dual language program, ELL students will start as Kindergarteners with a 70:30 ratio with 70% of instruction being in Spanish and 30% of instruction being in English. Students will transition into a 50:50 dual language model by the end of first with gradual transitions by each semester. This class will be taught by one bilingual certified teacher and students will be heterogeneous by language proficiency level. Grade K - Teacher - Dual Language One Way.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

Language Arts: English and Spanish
Mathematics: Spanish
Science: English and Spanish
Social Studies: English and Spanish

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

N/A

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

There are 101 Newcomers, 91.8%

The instructional strategies that our school uses are the Gradual Release Model (with the modification to allow students with grapple time to build independence) as well as small group instruction. We are  using the EL Education literacy curriculum which has targeted supports for English Learners and considerations to support teachers in planning for the needs of students with disabilities. Specifically, during literacy centers, teachers will leverage differentiated resources accessed through the EL curriculum to meet the needs of ELLs, students below grade level, students at grade level and students exceeding grade level expectations. Newcomers will also be invited to participate in our Saturday academy in which teachers focus on language development through activities that teach into all four language modalities.  During centers time, teachers are providing data informed lessons to homogenous groups of students to address the missing foundational skills in literacy and mathematics. During our academic recovery after school, our teachers focus on language development through activities that teach into all four language modalities.
Instruction is monitored through the use of both formative and summative assessments.  As well as, formal and informal observations

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

There are 4 Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education, 4.6%.

The instructional strategies that our school uses are the Gradual Release Model (with the modification to allow students with grapple time to build independence) as well as small group instruction. We are using the EL Education literacy curriculum which has targeted supports for English Learners and considerations to support teachers in planning for the needs of students with disabilities. Specifically, during literacy centers, teachers leverage differentiated resources accessed through the EL curriculum to meet the needs of ELLs, students below grade level, students at grade level and students exceeding grade level expectations.

Beyond the aforementioned strategies for ELLs with an IEP, students that have been identified as SIFE will also receive targeted tier 3 intervention through the use an interventionist. During centers time, teachers are providing data informed lessons to homogenous groups of students to address the missing foundational skills in literacy and mathematics.
SIFE identified students will also be invited to participate in our Saturday academy and Academic Recovery in which teachers focus on language development through activities that teach into all four language modalities.

Instruction is monitored through the use of both formative, weekly formative and summative assessments.  As well as, formal and informal observations.

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

There are 0 Long-Term ELLs, 0%.

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

There are 14 former ELLs, 6.9%.

Our former ELLs are scheduled to receive 180 minutes of integrated instruction during core instruction as well as all testing accommodations during state and local assessments.

Additionally, during centers time, students will receive differentiated instruction to further extend their language development.

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

The at-risk indicators impacting the greatest number of ELLs are: Newcomer ELLs with less than 3 years of ELL services (91.8%), ELLs in Temporary Housing (48.25), and ELLs not demonstrating sufficient ELP progress (17.3%). When comparing the data to the one from the previous school year (2023-24 vs 2024-25), we can say that: The % of Newcomer ELLs in PS 132 has increased by 1.5% points (90.3% to 91.8%). The % of ELLs in Temporary Housing has decreased by 1.4% (49.6% to 48.2%). The % of ELLs not demonstrating sufficient ELP progress has decreased by 5.7% points (23% to 17.3%).
When it comes to "state test related" at-risk indicators, the % of ELLs scoring at level 1 or 2 in SY23-24 ranges from 16% to 21% (16.% in ELA and 20.9% in Math). However, this % decreases by 0.3% when considering two consecutive school years of performance.

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

The at-risk indicators impacting the former ELLs are: Former ELLs who scored 1 or 2 in SY22-23 (7.1%) and SY23-24 in Math (7.1%), ELLs in Temporary Housing (7.1%).
When comparing the data to the one from the previous school year (2023-24 vs. 2024-25), we can say that: The % of former ELLs who scored a 1 or 2 on Math in the SY23-24 has decreased by 17.9% points (25% to 7.1%).

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

For two consecutive years, the top 3 students' home languages in PS 132 are Spanish (93%), Arabic (3.6%), and Soninke (1%). It is important to note that in SY 2024-25, there was an increase in Arabic-speaking students (approximately, from 0% to 4%) amongst grades K and 3.
Our school employs multilingual support staff to assist students and families. When school staff are not available, we use the Office of Language and Translation to support written and verbal communication. We have systems for translation and interpretation, and our signage reflect the home languages of our community. Teachers are encouraged to integrate students' linguistic backgrounds into lessons, and we hold regular multicultural events to celebrate and value linguistic diversity.

Translation and interpretation services: Key documents, newsletters, and parent communications are translated; interpreters are available for meetings.
Multilingual signage and displays: School signs, posters, and classroom materials include multiple languages to reflect the diversity of the community.
Bilingual or multilingual teachers and aides: Teachers or education assistants who speak students' home languages help bridge communication between home and school.
Professional development: Teachers receive training on multilingual education, culturally responsive teaching, and strategies to support students from diverse linguistic backgrounds.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

As per information provided by families during the enrollment process, 91% of our current ELL families identify themselves as Hispanic ELLs. Within the Hispanic ELLs, the top 3 categories in the 2024-25 Ethnicity Breakdown are: 42% Hispanic American Indian; 32% Hispanic White; and 11% Hispanic Black. This is similar to the top 3 in the ethnicity breakdown in SY2023-24 with 40.2%, 34.6%, and 12.1% of Hispanic American Indian, Hispanic White, and Hispanic Black respectively. The top 2 in the ethnicity breakdown of the Non-Hispanic ELLs in SY2024-25 are: 60% Non-Hispanic Black and 20% Non-Hispanic White. This is different from the top ethnicity of Non-Hispanic ELLs in the SY 2023-24 Ethnicity Breakdown with 100% Non-Hispanic Black.
In our school, ELLs are central to planning and delivering Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education. Their voices and experiences inform curriculum choices, classroom materials, and community events. Teachers design lessons that affirm cultural identities and support language development. During instruction, students use their home languages as resources, engage in culturally relevant projects, and see themselves reflected in what they learn. This approach ensures that ELLs are not only supported but celebrated as vital contributors to the learning community.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

As per NYSESLAT 2023 and 2024 results, the % of ELLs exiting their ELL status has more than doubled (from 9.3% to 18.9%). The % of ELLs meeting annual growth targets increased by 2.3% points from 27.9% to 30.2%. Almost eight times more ELL students made ELP progress by meeting safe harbor cumulative targets - an increase by 12.8% points from 2.3% (SY2023) to 15.1% (SY2024). The number of ELL students who did not meet ELP progress by any of the three methods has decreased by 24.7%, from 60.5% to 35.8%.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

The % of students exiting their ELL status has increased by 6.1%, from 5.4% in NYSESLAT 2023 to 11.5% in NYSESLAT 2024. Additionally, expanding level ELLs (28.7%) and entering level ELLs (13.8%) are the groups with the highest and lowest representation in PS 132, respectively. While the % of students scoring at the transitioning level (28.4% to 20.7%) and the entering level (27% to 13.8%) has decreased, the % of students scoring at the expanding level (13.5% to 28.7%) has increased in our school. The % of students scoring at the emerging level has stayed the same (approximately, 25.7% in NYSESLAT 2023 and 25.3% in NYSESLAT 2024). The proportion between expanding level and entering level ELLs has changed from NYSESLAT 2023 to NYSESLAT 2024. Based on 2023 NYSESLAT results, the % of entering level ELLs doubled the % of expanding level ELLs (27% vs 13.5%), while 2024 NYSESLAT results indicate that the % of expanding level ELLs more then doubled the % of entering level ELLs (28.7% vs 13.8%).

2024 NYSESLAT results indicate that 5.7% (5) of the expanding level ELLs were between 1 to 10 points away from scoring commanding while 16% (14) were less than 20 points away from scoring commanding and exiting their ELL status. These are the students that are closer to reaching English proficiency and exit their ELL status. Additionally, 4.5% (4) of the ELL students who scored at the transitioning level were 10 or less points away from scoring expanding.

Based on the 2024 NYSESLAT results, 32.1% of the ELLs in our school scored HIGH (90% of more questions correctly) in the speaking modality, which is similar to the % of ELLs scoring HIGH in the listening modality (25.2%). This is almost three times the % of ELLs scoring HIGH in reading (10.3%). Writing continues to be the area where fewer ELLs can answer 90% or more of the questions accurately. Overall, based on "modalities of strength" data, grade 4 had the highest percentage of ELL students answering 90% or more of the questions correctly across modalities. Contrarily, grades 2 and 3 had the lowest percentage of ELL students answering 90% of more of the questions correctly across modalities.

As per the NYSESLAT results, 35.6% of ELLs in our school scored LOW in writing. Although speaking is the modality with the largest % of ELLs scoring HIGH, it is also the second modality with the largest % of ELLs scoring LOW. As per 2024 NYSESLAT, 22.9% of ELLs answered 15% or less questions in this modality correctly. Grades 2, 4 and 5 have the largest numbers of ELLs scoring LOW in the speaking modality.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

ELA
48% of all of the ELLs, including those scored commanding on the 2024 NYSESLAT, scored a 1 in the 2024 ELA state exam. This is 38 percentage points less than the % of ELLs who scored a 1 in the 2023 ELA state test (86.6%). 28% of all of the ELLs, including those who scored commanding on the 2024 NYSESLAT, scored a level of 3 in the 2024 ELA state exam. This is 22% more than the % of ELLs who scored proficient in the 2023 ELA state test (6%).

Math
0% of the ELL students who took the 2024 MATH state test, including those who scored commanding and expanding on the 2024 NYSESLAT, scored a 1 on this test. However, 21% (8) of the ELL students who took the 2024 MATH state test, including those who scored commanding and expanding on the 2024 NYSESLAT, scored a 2 in this test. This is approximately 10 percentage points more than the % of ELLs who scored a 2 in the 2023 MATH state test (11.1%, 3). We still have 15.7% of ELL students scoring far below grade level at an entering, emerging or transitioning level, with a score of 1 on the 2024 MATH state test. More ELL students scored proficient (levels 3 or 4) in the 2024 MATH state test, going from 7.4% in 2023 to 36.8% in 2024. This means that almost 30% of ELLs across all proficiency levels, including those who scored commanding in the 2024 NYSESLAT.

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

In the NYSESLAT 2024, 32% of ELLs had an IEP. This is an increase by approximately 7 percentage points compared to NYSESLAT 2023 (25.7%).
7%, 25%, 21%, and 35% of ELLs with IEP scored at the entering, emerging, transitioning, and expanding proficiency level respectively in the 2024 NYSESLAT exam.
11% of the ELLs with IEP scored commanding in the 2024 NYSESLAT exam.

2% of ELLs are SIFE. There has been no change when compared to 2024 NYSESLAT. As per NYSESLAT 2024 results, 100% of the SIFE ELLs scored at the entering level, which was the same compared to 2023 NYSESLAT.

10. (For grades 9-12 only) Please review your data in the Insight Tool and STARS to answer the following questions:
a. How many ELLs are on-track towards graduation?

b. How many ELLs in grades 11-12 have a documented postsecondary plan in STARS or ATS?

c. What targeted strategies and interventions are in place to support ELLs who are currently off-track to graduate in four years?

d. What specific strategies, engaging approaches, and interventions are implemented to support and retain students who are not on track to graduate within four years, ensuring they remain enrolled and are guided towards a successful graduation in the future?

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

Core content will be delivered in English only using the EL Education curricula, which follows next generation learning standards. During EL module lessons, students will interact with grade level text to address listening, reading, writing and speaking competence as is expected for their grade level. During literacy centers, students will be grouped homogeneously and will receive individualized explicit instruction to meet their unique literacy and language needs. Furthermore, during centers, students have opportunities to practice and therefore reinforce, explicitly taught language and skills. Co-teaching partnerships for integrated ENL plan together on Monday afternoons as part of our ENL team. Additionally, co-teaching partnerships strategically plan for ELLs to increase access to grade-level content in a variety of ways. First, co-teachers ensure that ELLs build background knowledge sufficient to access new academic and domain specific vocabulary through visual supports and application of cognates with their home language. There is an opening lesson to build schema for each unit, and there is time dedicated at the start of each lesson as well. Consistently, co-teaching partners consider how to leverage home language to access new vocabulary words through the use of Frayer Models and other word mapping tools. Finally, students develop understanding of mathematics, writing strategies, etc. in their language of dominance and are then able to apply this in English with direct coaching from 1 or both of the coteachers depending on the model.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

Since ELLs comprise more than 50% of our student populations, they are a major part of consideration when choosing instructional materials, designing programs and making pedagogical decisions.

This year our instructional focus has been on language development (academic and social). Specifically, we developed student capacity to use speaking and writing to describe and explain across content areas. Moving forward, we will focus on how to best use formative assessments to meet the evolving needs of all students. For ELLs, this looks like leveraging instructional activities through our EL Education curriculum that will help teachers assess students in each of the four modalities (listening, speaking, reading and writing). With this assessment data, teachers will make more agile decisions in their classroom to respond to the needs of their students. In mathematics, we will focus on leveraging math language routines that will simultaneously give students more opportunities for input and output of academic and social language, while allowing teachers informal opportunities for language assessments.

Additionally, our standalone pedagogues will have access to student assessment data as well as thematic units of curriculum to ensure alignment between our integrated classroom and standalone ENL instruction. This instruction will happen during literacy centers in which students are already homogeneously in order to address their language needs.

Our ILT promotes the view of home and community dialects, and language and cultures as assets within the core instruction in several ways. First, we embrace the ideologies of UDL in order to see learners as "variable" with an array of strengths including their home language and culture. Furthermore, through centers-based instruction, we leverage the strengths of student language and culture with heterogeneous groupings where each student can contribute their schema for the betterment of the group's learning. Our ILT has, and continues to, lead initiatives in UDL through centers for our entire school.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

ENL

Core content will be delivered in English only using the EL Education curricula, which follows next generation learning standards. During module lessons, students will interact with grade level text to address listening, reading, writing and speaking competence as is expected for their grade level. During literacy centers, students will be grouped homogeneously and will receive individualized explicit instruction to meet their unique literacy and language needs. Furthermore, during centers, students have opportunities to practice and therefore reinforce, explicitly taught language and skills.

Co-teaching partnerships for integrated ENL plan together on Monday afternoons as part of our ENL team. Additionally, co-teaching partnerships strategically plan for ELLs to increase access to grade-level content in a variety of ways. First, co-teachers ensure that ELLs build background knowledge sufficient to access new academic and domain specific vocabulary through visual supports and application of cognates with their home language. There is an opening lesson to build schema for each unit, and there is time dedicated at the start of each lesson as well. Consistently, co-teaching partners consider how to leverage home language to access new vocabulary words through the use of Frayer Models and other word mapping tools. Finally, students develop understanding of mathematics, writing strategies, etc. in their language of dominance and are then able to apply this in English with direct coaching from 1 or both of the co-teachers depending on the model.

Dual Language

Core content will be delivered in English and Spanish using the EL Education curricula (translated for Spanish), which follows next generation learning standards. During module lessons, students will interact with grade level text to address listening, reading, writing and speaking competence as is expected for their grade level. During literacy centers (all Spanish for year one and bilingual in year 2 and beyond), students will be grouped homogeneously and will receive individualized explicit instruction to meet their unique literacy and language needs. Furthermore, during centers, students have opportunities to practice and therefore reinforce, explicitly taught language and skills.

Bilingual teachers consider how to leverage home language to access new vocabulary words through the use of Language Dives, Frayer Models and other word mapping tools. Additionally, students develop understanding of mathematics, writing strategies, etc. in their language of dominance and are then able to transfer this to English with direct coaching from the teacher by year 2 in the progression towards 50:50.

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

The instructional strategies that our school uses are the Gradual Release Model (with the modification to allow students with grapple time to build independence) as well as small group instruction. We are transitioning to begin using the EL Education literacy curriculum which has targeted supports for English Learners and considerations to support teachers in planning for the needs of students with disabilities. Specifically, during literacy centers, teachers will leverage differentiated resources accessed through the EL curriculum to meet the needs of ELLs, students below grade level, students at grade level and students exceeding grade level expectations.

Technology will be fully integrated within our instructional program as students utilize iReady, Lexia, and MaxScholar in order to provide an individualized learning path that can address prerequisite needs. During science instruction, students frequently utilize technology to engage in coding as well as other STEM activities.

ELLs with an IEP that are also identified as 2 or more years below grade level in reading will also receive targeted tier 3 intervention through the use of MaxScholar and an interventionist.

Teachers tailor instruction to support ELLs' with IEPs language and literacy supports as indicated in their IEP in the present levels of performance section. In referring to information on the intersection of language and disability in the IEP, and progress monitoring student progress towards annual goals, teachers modify instruction in order to provide access to students by including simplified directions in their home language, stems to complete writing tasks in their preferred language, and more.

b. SIFE

The instructional strategies that our school uses are the Gradual Release Model (with the modification to allow students with grapple time to build independence) as well as small group instruction. We are transitioning to begin using the EL Education literacy curriculum which has targeted supports for English Learners and considerations to support teachers in planning for the needs of students with disabilities. Specifically, during literacy centers, teachers will leverage differentiated resources accessed through the EL curriculum to meet the needs of ELLs, students below grade level, students at grade level and students exceeding grade level expectations.

Beyond the aforementioned strategies for ELLs with an IEP, students that have been identified as SIFE will also receive targeted tier 3 intervention through the use of MaxScholar and an interventionist.

During centers time, teachers are providing data informed lessons to homogenous groups of students to address the missing foundational skills in literacy and mathematics.

SIFE identified students will also be invited to participate in our Saturday academy in which teachers focus on language development through activities that teach into all four language modalities.

As mentioned prior, through centers-based instruction, we leverage the strengths of student language and culture with heterogeneous groupings where each student can contribute their schema for the betterment of the group's learning. Additionally, students are encouraged to activate prior knowledge and share schema with their peers for learning across content areas through collaborative learning models (collaborative strategic reading, centers, partner work, etc.).

c. Newcomers

Newcomers, 82% of our ELL population, will be supported with the following instructional strategies.

The instructional strategies that our school uses are the Gradual Release Model (with the modification to allow students with grapple time to build independence) as well as small group instruction. We are transitioning to begin using the EL Education literacy curriculum which has targeted supports for English Learners and considerations to support teachers in planning for the needs of students with disabilities. Specifically, during literacy centers, teachers will leverage differentiated resources accessed through the EL curriculum to meet the needs of ELLs, students below grade level, students at grade level and students exceeding grade level expectations.

Teachers effectively plan for Newcomer ELLs to access grade-level content through intentionally placed scaffolds that target instructional goals by considering the profile of student using a triangulation of language assessment data, classroom-level assessments conducted weekly, and benchmark data (iReady, Acadience, etc.). From this information, teachers prepare explicit vocabulary instruction, targeted word-banks/glossaries, listening activities to build schema, discussion prompts with structured language routines, and chunked text in order to provide access to grade level content.

Newcomers will also be invited to participate in our Saturday academy in which teachers focus on language development through activities that teach into all four language modalities.

During centers time, teachers are providing data informed lessons to homogenous groups of students to address the missing foundational skills in literacy and mathematics.

During our academic recovery after school, our teachers focus on language development through activities that teach into all four language modalities.

d. Long Term ELLs

N/A
Based on 2024 NYSESLAT results.

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

Special educators, in partnership with ENL and bilingual licensed pedagogues, will collaboratively plan for individualized instruction aligned with IEP goals to occur during literacy centers or mathematics centers time. Special educators will then progress monitor students growth in this domain in order to make instructional adjustments as necessary.

Curricular supports include EL Education, Fundations, Heggerty, MaxScholar, Lexia, iReady and Illustrative Math.

With scheduling flexibility, we will ensure that students receive standalone or integrated ENL instruction during literacy centers. This makes it so that students receive individualized instruction based on their needs during the same blocks of time as their Non ELLs peers.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

ENL

Home language is leveraged through our literacy and math instruction by explicitly coaching students to utilize their knowledge of grammatical structures, cognates, and vocabulary in their home language. Home language is assessed through writing pieces and topic assessments.

Teachers strategically plan to leverage and promote transfer of knowledge and skills across languages by considering the profile of student using a triangulation of language assessment data, classroom-level assessments conducted weekly, and benchmark data (iReady, Acadience, etc.). Using this information teachers are able to make individualized and small group level supports.

DLBE

Home language will be assessed with translated EL unit assessments, Estrellitas assessments, Acadience Benchmark assessments and mathematics assessments. Furthermore, students will be able to take iReady for Spanish Language Arts and Mathematics in Spanish for iReady.

All ELLs students with Spanish home language are assessed using the Spanish Lab as part of the initial registration process.

ELLs students in grades 3-5 are also assessed using the Multilingual Literacy Screener, if applicable. This assessment includes reading comprehension, vocabulary, and mathematics. Assessment is given in students' home language, when available .

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

N/A

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

Co-teaching partnerships for integrated ENL plan together on Monday afternoons as part of our ENL team. Additionally, co-teaching partnerships strategically plan for ELLs to increase access to grade-level content in a variety of ways. First, co-teachers ensure that ELLs build background knowledge sufficient to access new academic and domain specific vocabulary through visual supports and application of cognates with their home language. There is an opening lesson to build schema for each unit, and there is time dedicated at the start of each lesson as well. Consistently, co-teaching partners consider how to leverage home language to access new vocabulary words through the use of Frayer Models and other word mapping tools. Finally, students develop understanding of mathematics, writing strategies, etc. in their language of dominance and are then able to apply this in English with direct coaching from 1 or both of the co-teachers depending on the model.

DLBE will be taught in a self-contained setting without a partner teacher until an ICT program is warranted.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

The professional learning that incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs are;
-Trauma Informed Social Emotional Learning professional development
-Sanford Harmony Social and Emotional Learning
-Teaching Matters: Provide staff with literacy planning support, resources, and demonstrations to improve pedagogical practices.
-Teaching Matters: Math Professional Development
-Brain Power Wellness
-RE-Think ED: Fundamentals of Behavior Support: Conflict Cycle De-escalation PD
-Co-teaching strategies
-FACIL - Planning for increasing student independence in learning through centers based instruction
-Financial Literacy Professional Development
-Center for Autism Training

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154 (15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

Our ENL teachers participate in district level professional development sessions for MLL Lead teachers. During this time teachers engage in integrating cross-linguistic connections in both bilingual and Stand-alone ENL instruction. This series will provide participants with practical strategies and insights to foster ML/ELL biliteracy and bilingualism, creating inclusive and affirming learning environments for our multilingual learners.

Professional Learning Communities- Every three weeks the MLL team meets to analyze school-wide data, trends, and patterns to adjust curricula, school-wide practices,  and instruction accordingly. The team will examine curriculum and materials to support a knowledge-building approach through critical reading, writing, modeling, listening, and speaking with rich, meaningful culturally responsive grade level content.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

The screening assessments that are used to guide instructional planning for our ELLs is a Acadiance which looks at students' knowledge of letter naming, phoneme segmentation, oral reading fluency, nonsense word fluency, and comprehension. In addition, we use iReady. This data provides teachers with information to plan lessons and small group instruction.

During centers time, teachers are providing data informed lessons to homogenous groups of students to address the missing foundational skills in literacy.

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

MaxScholar
MaxScholar is a research-based software based on the Orton-Gillingham approach. It offers a blended learning environment for improving reading, writing, comprehension, vocabulary, and more.
Math Centers - 99Math and iReady
Teachers design and implement interventions that are grounded in student data.

All intervention services are offered in English.

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

We implement a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) framework to guide instruction for English Language Learners (ELLs) across grades K-5. Our approach is informed by the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and the MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs, which provide valuable strategies and resources for supporting ELLs' academic and language development.

Firstly, we collect comprehensive data on ELLs' language proficiency, academic performance, and social-emotional needs using a variety of assessments, including (NYSITELL) language proficiency tests and other local assessments, formative assessments, and behavior observations. This data is analyzed regularly by our collaborative grade teams, composed of teachers, administrators, and support staff, to identify ELLs who may require additional support and to inform instructional decision-making.

Within our MTSS framework, we offer a range of targeted interventions and supports to meet the diverse needs of ELLs at different levels of language proficiency and academic achievement. These interventions are delivered through differentiated instruction, small group instruction, co-teaching models, and pull-out support programs such as ENL, all of which are designed to provide ELLs with the scaffolding and support they need to succeed academically.

Our school's MTSS plan for ELLs is dynamic and responsive, with ongoing data analysis driving continuous improvement and refinement of our instructional practices. We prioritize collaboration and communication among educators, families, and community stakeholders to ensure that ELLs receive holistic support that addresses their academic, linguistic, and socio-emotional needs.

By integrating the principles of the Instructional Leadership Tool and the MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs into our school's plan for ELLs, we are able to provide high-quality, data-driven instruction that maximizes the learning outcomes for all ELLs across all grades.

Assessment Data Analysis: Analyzing assessment data, such as standardized test scores, formative assessments, and language proficiency assessments,  help us understand ELs' current levels of proficiency in English and academic content areas. This information allows us to meet students at their levels and guide instructional planning and intervention strategies.

Progress monitoring through formative assessments helps track ELs' growth over time, informing adjustments to instructional strategies and the development of personalized learning plans. Collaborative grade teams facilitate the sharing and analysis of data among educators, fostering a deeper understanding of ELs' needs and the implementation of effective instructional practices across grade levels. By leveraging data effectively, educators can ensure that ELs receive culturally and linguistically responsive instruction that supports their language development and academic success.

Language Proficiency Data/ Data Analysis: The data we received  from language proficiency assessments helps us track ELs' language development over time and tailor instruction to meet their linguistic needs. This then allows educators to scaffold instruction appropriately and provide targeted and authentic language support.

Collaborative Data Teams:  Our school’s collaborative grade team data enables us to share and analyze data collectively amongst grade levels. This collaborative approach fosters a deeper understanding of ELs' needs and allows teachers to brainstorm effective interventions and instructional strategies that promote learning at various grade levels.

Parent Communication and Engagement:  Our school shares data with parents/guardians to help them understand their child's progress and how they can support learning at home. Providing resources and strategies for language development and academic support strengthens the home-school partnership and promotes ELs' success.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

The formative assessments that are used to inform and drive instruction in literacy are iReady, Acadience Reading assessments, EL Education entrance / exit tickets and unit assessments, Benchmark writing pieces, early reading assessments, and the Fundations unit tests. In mathematics, we use Cool-Downs, unit tests and section checkpoints. These assessments are used to inform and drive instruction.

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

Initially, home language is assessed during the ELL Identification Process for newly arrived students. This evaluation is conducted by our ELL coordinator or assistant principal, in collaboration with a special education teacher for instances of students that have a disability.

Home language is leveraged through our literacy and math instruction by explicitly coaching students to utilize their knowledge of grammatical structures, cognates, and vocabulary in their home language. Home language is assessed through writing pieces and topic assessments.

In the DLBE program, curriculum based assessments will also be administered to evaluate progression in home language.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

The summative assessments that are used to evaluate the effectiveness of our ML/ELL programs are NYSESLAT, EL Module Assessments, and iReady. This data helps drive instruction and plan accordingly for our small groups as well as whole group instruction.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

NYSESLAT will be administered to all ENL students. ENL and Bilingual licensed teachers will administer the speaking component. Classroom teachers will administer the listening, reading, and writing component.
A team made up of common branch, bilingual, and ENL teachers will score the assessments.
All ELLs, and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated services during the testing period.
As per CR-Part 154 integrated classes will be taught in collaboration with Common Branch and ENL teachers.
Stand-Alone services will be taught by an ENL licensed teacher.
Bilingual licensed teachers will teach monolingual classes which ensures ELL students will continue to receive mandated services.

Staff and teachers are informed of NYSESLAT administration through internal documents (testing memos and assessment plan), as well as testing meetings in order to prepare for effective administration.

Families are notified through school calendars, and multiple in-person and remote meetings with the principal and assistant principal focused on testing.

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

Our ELL and former ELL students receive the following accommodations;
Time extension (all exams),
Separate Location (all exams),
Bilingual dictionaries and/or glossaries,
Third reading of Listening Selection (ELA exams only),
Assessments in their Native Language (Mathematics and Science)

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

ELL Program Orientations are continuously offered throughout the school year. The orientations are conducted in the families preferred language. Our ENL teacher conducts the meetings in English, and Spanish, and/or French with the support of a French speaking school aide. When necessary the Office of Language Access is used. Two initial orientations are scheduled for early and mid September. After that, orientations are conducted as needed.

During each orientation families watch the Parent Orientation Video: English Language Learner (ELL) Programs in New York State. Our ENL teacher discusses the goals of each program as well as, the programs available at our school. Our ENL teacher discusses our families' rights. Our ENL teacher also discusses NYSESLAT administration, results, and how ENL Units of Study Requirements are provided. Our ENL teacher also maintains records of the agenda and attendance, as well as other documentation shared with families. Finally, families are provided with time to ask questions.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note: this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

Our classroom teachers, in conjunction with our ENL teachers, reach out to parents and meet virtually , over the phone, or in person to provide updates regarding their child's English language development and language needs. Our Annual Individual Meetings take place during the second half of October 2025 through January 2026. Each classroom teacher and ENL teacher is responsible for keeping attendance, an agenda, an artifact of data shared. Once all of those documents are completed, they are shared with the ENL coordinator to maintain a copy for the school's binder. The goal of these conferences are to discuss goals of the chosen EL program, the student's language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. During the meeting, teachers use NYSESLAT results in all four modalities to discuss student's language development, as well as strategies that will be used throughout the year to further develop language acquisition.

Meetings are conducted in the parents' preferred language. For languages that are not spoken by staff members within the building, teachers use over the phone interpretation services for all NYC schools. Also, teachers are provided with weekly office hours where they can meet with parents to discuss student progress.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

We ensure all schools communications and documents are provided in the families preferred language. We use our bilingual staff, (Spanish/ English & French/ English) to communicate verbally or translate documents. For languages that are not spoken by staff members within the building, teachers use over the phone interpretation (OPI) services for all NYC schools. We use ATS reports to ensure that we know parents' preferred languages.

We will send flyers via backpack, post on Class Dojo, send via text and robo-call on One Call. We also post on Social Media in our students' home language. Documents will be translated by staff or via translation features on ClassDojo and One Call. Families come in-person or use Class Dojo to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

Our school determines the need for our community through NYCPS school surveys and school created surveys. Informal data is collected at monthly principal chats and Parent Association meetings. Our parent engagement activities are focused on parents and families in the various aspects of school life by creating a culture of collaboration that supports their child's language acquisition and overall well-being.

In collaboration with our CBO we will host family workshops on attendance, community resources, and family nights where families and students can learn alongside each other. We believe this will help empower parents as partners.

Our parents expressed the need for support with stress management and behavior. For this reason, we are partnering with Brain Power Wellness to provide bimonthly wellness sessions. Brain Power provides bilingual workshops for parents.

One of the specific activities our school offers to foster empowerment for families of MLLs/ELLs is to provide free ESL classes to parents. In addition to ESL classes, we will continue a Parent University to better support families in all areas. This Parent University features a wide variety of workshops ranging from attendance, mental health and stress management, leveraging technology to support student learning, storytelling to build early literacy and healthy living/eating to lessons from classroom teachers on how to work on materials with their child outside the classroom. Parent University not only helps ELL parents better support their child’s education, but it builds a community among families and form strong networks as well as provide an open flow of communication and information between school staff/administration and parents. Throughout the school year we will also continue hosting virtual weekly parent meetings with the principal and monthly in-person events, such as Family Friday, so parents can take a more active role in the school, have their questions answered, and voices/opinions heard.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

We ensure that our families are aware of our PA, SLT, and CEC by making announcements of these events in their preferred language. We post information on our social media, flyers, text messages, ensuring that all families are aware of all information pertaining to the school. We use this same system to request volunteers for all school activities.

Our PA co-presidents are Miosotis Perez and Juana West, both of which are parents of ELL's. One of our SLT Members is also a parent of an ELL.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

Our UAP partnership is our community based organization. Their programming supports mental health, expanded learning time, and family and community engagement. -Mental health services- counseling in schools, brain power wellness, and Wellness in the Schools (WITS), -Attendance - Support the attendance team initiatives to educate parents and reduce chronic absenteeism.
CC/Alianza is our after school provider. They provide after school programming for our students in person. Beyond their after school programming, they have hosted weekly food pantries providing food for over 150 families. They collaborate on major schoolwide initiatives including our JPD Cares initiative (laundry room, care packages with clothing and school supplies, wellness packages with toiletries and other essentials, Food Pantry). They are an integral part of supporting cultural celebrations in our school. JPD also sponsors our Fall Festival. Through our partnership with Dominican Writers, we host a storytime reading program with various children's book authors. Our goal is to expose students to diverse books by exposing them to authors and offering them programming where they can read and write their own stories. Our partnership with Wellness in the schools supports our wellness initiatives by: A chef hosts cooking/nutrition classes for our students with multicultural recipes. All recipes are shared in English & Spanish. We partner with harmony music to bring bucket drumming to students in grades K-5. Through our NY Presbyterian partnership we have an on-site clinic to provide mental health services to our students. We also partner with NDI in our Kindergarten and First Grade to encourage the performing arts.

Continuing ELL students are programmed to receive their mandated minutes in accordance with their NYSESLAT scores. Former ELLs are programmed to receive 180 minutes of integrated ENL instruction. Current and former ELLs in the Dual Language program will have mandated instruction met through their program. Mr. Ryan Berry, Assistant principal, does all STARS and STARSadmin programming.

Principal Certification

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, I, attest that the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to, and staff are trained on the items listed below.

- The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).
- Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined:
  a. If a student has been in New York State public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.
  b. If a student has been outside of New York State public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL Identification Process as part of reentry.

- The home language of the student is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue.
  a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

- An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.
- Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.
  a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

- Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.
- Notification letters are sent to the parent/guardian in their preferred language.
  a. Parent is notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

- If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish Language Assessment Battery (LAB).
- Student with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources.
- If a student is a newly identified ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.
  a. The parent orientation meeting provides parents/guardians with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents/guardians are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

- ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.
  a. If the bilingual program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that bilingual program in accordance with NYC DOE transfer policies.
  b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a New Language and our school keeps track of parent selection so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

- Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).
- If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.
- Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in the students' cumulative files.

Additionally, explain how your Galaxy-designated LAC will disseminate future language access resources and updates to all staff members.

We will provide time during professional learning at the beginning of the school year for teachers to access and complete the required asynchronous training.

Furthermore, we will review the best practices during this time, share with all staff, and revisit during professional learning time throughout the school year.

Our school has continued to work to improve our language assistance services over time by introducing the use of pocket translators, increasing the amount of translated IEPs provided to 100% of those requested, and increasing our use of the office of language access translation services for parents with preferred languages other than those spoken by staff in our school.

We will continue to maintain the percentage with translated IEPs, and we will ensure translation services at major events in our school community including, but not limited to, graduations and family workshop nights.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

Title III ELL Summary

Provide a summary of each program funded under Title III ELL for SY 25-26: For each program, describe:

- When the program takes place (i.e., after school, before school, Saturday academy)

- Activities ELLs will engage in and how these activities will enhance instructional opportunities for ELLs
- How ELLs will be grouped for instruction and specify the number of student groups. Include total number of student groups and total number of ELLs in each group, for each program

Our Title III program will support English Language Learners (ELLs) in achieving higher levels of academic achievement in core academic content areas through language development in all modalities. Our goal is to increase students' proficiency in reading and writing based on results from our iReady assessments that revealed only 31% of ELLs were reading at proficient levels. Also, our NYSESLAT data revealed that only 10.3% of ELLs scored HIGH on the Reading modality. Our supplemental Title III program will target 70 immigrant students in grades 1-5. Our goal is to provide an enrichment program that is aligned to our school's instructional focus using formative assessments to monitor student learning and inform teacher practice to improve student outcomes. Students will receive instruction in English, with our work anchored in the CRSE framework. Students will participate over the course of twenty-three Saturdays from October 2025 - May 2026. We will use digital and print materials from the EL literacy curriculum and Illustrative Mathematics. Additionally, we will leverage the iReady Toolkit and Lexia to target the differentiated needs of ELLs with disabilities. We will also incorporate Project Based Learning components engaging students in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics experiences that will promote critical thinking and vocabulary development. These will be aligned to our literacy curriculum. Our Title III program will be the only program running on Saturdays, and 1 administrator will supervise and serve as the instructional lead for the program from 8:30am-12pm. They will facilitate professional learning for staff. Professional learning will coincide with our benchmark assessments so that it is responsive to the needs presented for student learning. Instruction will be provided as follows: Students will rotate through centers with a unique focus on each of the 4 modalities embedded in content.

Rationale for Title III ELL Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III ELL funded program. For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

Students in grades 1- 5 show the greatest needs in the area of writing based on NYSESLAT and EL literacy data. Our data analysis also shows that only 31% of our ELL students are proficient. This indicates that 68% of our ELLs are 1-3 years behind based on our June iReady data. Based on parent and student interviews we learned that students enjoy hands-on learning opportunities. Knowing this, we will plan to integrate STEM focused literacy activities aimed at accelerating student language growth.

The % of students exiting their ELL status has increased by 6.1%, from 5.4% in NYSESLAT 2023 to 11.5% in NYSESLAT 2024. Additionally, expanding level ELLs (28.7%) and entering level ELLs (13.8%) are the groups with the highest and lowest representation in PS 132, respectively. While the % of students scoring at the transitioning level (28.4% to 20.7%) and the entering level (27% to 13.8%) has decreased, the % of students scoring at the expanding level (13.5% to 28.7%) has increased in our school. The % of students scoring at the emerging level has stayed the same (approximately, 25.7% in NYSESLAT 2023 and 25.3% in NYSESLAT 2024). The proportion between expanding level and entering level ELLs has changed from NYSESLAT 2023 to NYSESLAT 2024. Based on 2023 NYSESLAT results, the % of entering level ELLs doubled the % of expanding level ELLs (27% vs 13.5%), while 2024 NYSESLAT results indicate that the % of expanding level ELLs more then doubled the % of entering level ELLs (28.7% vs 13.8%).

2024 NYSESLAT results indicate that 5.7% (5) of the expanding level ELLs were between 1 to 10 points away from scoring commanding while 16% (14) were less than 20 points away from scoring commanding and exiting their ELL status. These are the students that are closer to reaching English proficiency and exit their ELL status. Additionally, 4.5% (4) of the ELL students who scored at the transitioning level were 10 or less points away from scoring expanding.

Based on the 2024 NYSESLAT results, 32.1% of the ELLs in our school scored HIGH (90% of more questions correctly) in the speaking modality, which is similar to the % of ELLs scoring HIGH in the listening modality (25.2%). This is almost three times the % of ELLs scoring HIGH in reading (10.3%). Writing continues to be the area where fewer ELLs can answer 90% or more of the questions accurately. Overall, based on "modalities of strength" data, grade 4 had the highest percentage of ELL students answering 90% or more of the questions correctly across modalities. Contrarily, grades 2 and 3 had the lowest percentage of ELL students answering 90% of more of the questions correctly across modalities.

As per the NYSESLAT results, 35.6% of ELLs in our school scored LOW in writing. Although speaking is the modality with the largest % of ELLs scoring HIGH, it is also the second modality with the largest % of ELLs scoring LOW. As per 2024 NYSESLAT, 22.9% of ELLs answered 15% or less questions in this modality correctly. Grades 2, 4 and 5 have the largest numbers of ELLs scoring LOW in the speaking modality.

ELA
48% of all of the ELLs, including those scored commanding on the 2024 NYSESLAT, scored a 1 in the 2024 ELA state exam. This is 38 percentage points less than the % of ELLs who scored a 1 in the 2023 ELA state test (86.6%). 28% of all of the ELLs, including those who scored commanding on the 2024 NYSESLAT, scored a level of 3 in the 2024 ELA state exam. This is 22% more than the % of ELLs who scored proficient in the 2023 ELA state test (6%).

Math
0% of the ELL students who took the 2024 MATH state test, including those who scored commanding and expanding on the 2024 NYSESLAT, scored a 1 on this test. However, 21% (8) of the ELL students who took the 2024 MATH state test, including those who scored commanding and expanding on the 2024 NYSESLAT, scored a 2 in this test. This is approximately 10 percentage points more than the % of ELLs who scored a 2 in the 2023 MATH state test (11.1%, 3). We still have 15.7% of ELL students scoring far below grade level at an entering, emerging or transitioning level, with a score of 1 on the 2024 MATH state test. More ELL students scored proficient (levels 3 or 4) in the 2024 MATH state test, going from 7.4% in 2023 to 36.8% in 2024. This means that almost 30% of ELLs across all proficiency levels, including those who scored commanding in the 2024 NYSESLAT,

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

For each Title III ELL funded program, describe the students that will be served. Include:

- Total number of ELLs for each program,

Part C: Professional Development

Professional Development Summary

Provide a summary of your school's plan for professional development under your Title III ELL program. Please make sure to describe:

- Professional development to be provided,
- Activities that teachers will engage with by topic, and
- Whether the professional development provided will be funded by Title III ELL funds. PD for Title III Teachers
We will focus on the following professional learning topics to ensure that instruction is directly targeting student needs and supports teachers in effectively maximizing the use of instructional materials selected for the program.

Developing a Student Needs Analysis Plan- Teachers will engage in data based protocols to analyze NYSESLAT, iReady, NYSITELL, and baseline writing samples to develop learning goals for students' language development. This PD will be ongoing for 3 cycles. Session will be facilitated by Assistant Principal.

Teachers of English Language Learners
We will provide ongoing professional learning opportunities based on interests and areas of identified needs. We will assess the need for ongoing professional learning based on Advance data and our school-wide walkthroughs. Our data shows teachers need more support with Danielson 1e and 3c.

Our team will continue to focus on UDL strategies to create access to all learners. This work is ongoing and sustaining the work we began during the 2025-2026 school year.

Teachers will meet in  lesson study teams to design and implement lessons using the HILL framework. We will continue our partnership with Teaching Matters and teachers will participate in 12 sessions across the year with teachers of ELL students attending calendar days with a specific focus on literacy development for ELLs.

We will continue to leverage our district and city professional learning offerings for Teachers of ELLs.

Rationale for Professional Development

Describe the rationale for the professional development to be provided. For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., patterns and trends identified) that support the need for the professional development, and
- Data sources (e.g., school survey teacher responses, in-house teacher surveys, teacher observation data) used to justify the professional development.

Data that supports our decision.  Based on an internal school survey, teachers noted that they require further professional learning on how to meet the needs of our special populations (students with disabilities and ELLs). Additionally, teacher observation data showed trends that teachers were not fully prepared to meet the individualized needs of students in their classroom.  Furthermore, through a school wide lesson plan analysis, it was noted that teachers were using infrequent data collection to adjust groupings to address the needs of students.

Developing a Student Needs Analysis Plan- Teachers will engage in data based protocols to analyze NYSESLAT, iReady, NYSITELL, and baseline writing samples to develop learning goals for students' language development. Furthermore, we will strengthen our practices of explicit reading and writing instruction (especially being able to identify and use pronouns, as well as write in complex sentences with tier 2 and tier 3 vocabulary). This PD will be ongoing for 3 short cycles. Session will be facilitated by Assistant Principal. Understanding student's current levels of performance (through frequent formative assessment) will help teachers deliver instruction that meets students needs.

Teachers will have the chance to engage in the hands-on learning experience their students will participate in to explore all the cross-subject opportunities for learning. Title III teachers will have the opportunity to collaboratively plan instruction.

Part D: Family Engagement Activities

Family Engagement Summary

Provide a summary of your school's family engagement activities under your Title III ELL program. Describe the activities that families of ELLs will engage with by topic. Please make sure to include whether the activities will be funded by Title III ELL funds.
Please note: If family engagement activities will be funded by Title III ELL funds, vendor cost is calculated as part of OTPS and must not exceed 20% of the total allocation; teacher per-session is calculated as part of family engagement and must not exceed 10% of the total allocation.

Our parent engagement activities are focused on parents and families in the various aspects of school life by creating a culture of collaboration that supports their child's language acquisition and overall wellbeing.

In collaboration with our CBO we will host family workshops on attendance, community resources, and family nights where families and students can learn alongside each other. We believe this will help empower parents as partners.

Our Title III committee, made up of 3 teachers, 3 parents, and 1 administrator. Parents will be invited to attend via our one call platform (text, robocall, and email), ClassDojo, and social media and website. The workshops and activities offered to parents and families will be facilitated by teachers, parents, school leaders, and the parent coordinator. All communication to parents will be translated by bilingual staff, OPI, or using translation features built into ClassDojo and One Call.

Our parents expressed the need for support with stress management and behavior. For this reason, we are partnering with Brain Power Wellness to provide bimonthly wellness sessions. Brain Power provides bilingual workshops for parents.

We host a Parent University to better support families in all areas. This Parent University features a wide variety of workshops ranging from attendance, mental health and stress management, leveraging technology to support student learning, storytelling to build early literacy and healthy living/eating to lessons from classroom teachers on how to work on materials with their child outside the classroom. Parent University helps ELL parents better support their child's education, and builds a community among families and form strong networks as well as provide an open flow of communication and information between school staff/administration and parents. Throughout the school year we will also continue hosting virtual weekly parent meetings with the principal and monthly in-person events so parents can take a more active role in the school, have their questions answered, and voices/opinions heard.

Rationale for Family Engagement Activities

Describe the rationale for the family engagement activities to be provided: For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., reasons for topics, time activities will be offered), and
- Data sources (e.g., parent survey responses, in-house parent surveys, PTA/PA request, etc.) used to justify the need for activities.

Our school determines the needs and interest for our families through DOE school surveys and school created surveys (administered monthly). Informal data is collected at monthly principal chats and Parent Association meetings. Our parent engagement activities are focused on parents and families in the various aspects of school life by creating a culture of collaboration that supports their child's language acquisition and overall well-being.

Our parents need more familiarity with our curriculum and how to support learning and language development at home. Our goal is to help families understand how they can support oral language development. We will host bimonthly literacy/math nights for families to learn more about the curriculum based on feedback from our weekly parent meetings. Our parents also expressed the need for behavior and stress management. As such, we have partnered with Brain Power Wellness to support our parents.

Rationale for Title III Immigrant Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III Immigrant funded program:

For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and

Knowing this, we will plan to integrate STEM focused literacy activities aimed at accelerating student language growth.

After School Intervention:

Immigrant students in grades 1-5 show the greatest needs in the area of writing based on NYSESLAT, iReady and NYS test data. This indicates that 81% of our immigrant students are 2-3 years behind based on our November iReady data. Based on parent and student interviews we learned that immigrant students enjoy hands-on learning opportunities. Describe the activities that families of immigrant students (including ELLs) will engage with by topic. Please make sure to include whether the activities will be funded by Title III Immigrant funds.
Please note: If family engagement activities will be at funded by Title III Immigrant funds, vendor cost is calculated as part of OTPS and must not exceed 20% of the total allocation; teacher per-session is calculated as part of family engagement and must not exceed 10% of the total allocation.

Based on feedback from parents and our insights from the 24-25 and 23-24 school years, our immigrant parents would like hybrid options for parent engagement. Therefore, our parent engagement activities are focused on parents and families in the various aspects of school life by creating a culture of collaboration that supports their child's language acquisition and overall wellbeing.

In collaboration with our CBO we will host family workshops on attendance, community resources, and family nights where families and students can learn alongside each other. We believe this will help empower parents as partners.

Our Title III Immigrant Students committee, made up of 3 teachers, 3 parents, and 1 administrator. Parents will be invited to attend via our one call platform (text, robocall, and email), ClassDojo, and social media and website. The workshops and activities offered to parents and families will be facilitated by teachers, parents, school leaders, and the parent coordinator. All communication to parents will be translated by staff or using translation features built into ClassDojo and One Call.

Our parents expressed the need for support with stress management and behavior. For this reason, we are partnering with Brain Power Wellness to provide bimonthly wellness sessions. Brain Power provides bilingual workshops for parents.

One of the specific activities our school offers to foster empowerment for immigrant families is to provide free ESL classes to parents. In addition to ESL classes, starting in the fall we will begin a Parent University to better support families in all areas. This Parent University will feature a wide variety of workshops ranging from attendance, mental health and stress management, leveraging technology to support student learning, storytelling to build early literacy and healthy living/eating to lessons from classroom teachers on how to work on materials with their child outside the classroom. Parent University will not only help immigrant parents better support their child's education, but it will build a community among families and form strong networks as well as provide an open flow of communication and information between school staff/administration and parents. Throughout the school year we will also continue hosting virtual weekly parent meetings with the principal and monthly in-person events so parents can take a more active role in the school, have their questions answered, and voices/opinions heard.

Rationale for Family Engagement Activities

Describe the rationale for the family engagement activities to be provided:

For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., reasons for topics, time activities will be offered), and
- Data sources (e.g., parent survey responses, in-house parent surveys, PTA/PA request) used to justify the need for activities.

Our immigrant students' parents need more familiarity with our curriculum and how to support learning and language development at home. Our goal is to help families understand how they can support oral language development. We will host bimonthly literacy/math nights for families to learn more about the curriculum based on feedback from our weekly parent meetings. Our parents also expressed the need for behavior and stress management. As such, we have partnered with Brain Power Wellness to support our parents.
