Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

PS9 will provide a welcoming, inclusive environment that honors and affirms our students' identities while cultivating their passion for learning and exploration. We will empower our students to develop their creative and artistic gifts alongside their academic abilities through culturally responsive and sustaining experiences that support their academic and social-emotional growth. Our students will be confident, culturally competent, and committed to making the world a better place.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

PS 9 is a 3-K through grade 5 elementary school of approximately 800 students in the Prospect Heights neighborhood in Brooklyn. % of students identify as Black, % percent of students identify as Hispanic, % identify as White, % identify with Asian, and % identify as other. % of students are identified as Students with Disabilities, while % of students are English Language Learners.

At PS 9, we believe in educating the whole child and offer ample opportunities for students to engage in creative, athletic, and community service pursuits. We maintain a vibrant arts program that includes Art, Grow Lab, and Technology, Physical Education.

Priority 1 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
I-Ready, Acadience Data for BOY, MOY, EOY 24-25 school year, 24-25 NYSED ELA Data	Transitioning away from balance literacy and moving more to science of reading, teacher require additional support to plan for all learners.	Data informed small group instruction
Advance Data/Growth Explorer shows teacher scored lowest in Domain 3b Questioning and Discussion Techniques and 3d Assessment	As we dive deeper into transdisciplinary teaching with the IB Framework with D13 curriculum (EL) integration, teachers require additional support with high leverage instructional practices (HLIP) There was varied competency levels and capacity among teachers in the implementation of the HLIP. Priority 1 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Additional IB training - Level 2 for conceptual understanding/implementation
Continued Professional Development in Expeditionary Learning (EL) focusing on the 4 High Leverage Practices

Root Cause Addressed:

Transitioning away from balanced literacy, teachers require additional support in the science of reading and using data to plan small group instruction. Additional support needed for full integration of EL curriculum with IB Framework

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Teacher Professional Development in Level 2 IB Framework
Teacher Professional Development in EL focusing on the 4 High Leverage Practices

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Identify what your school would expect to see at the end of each period to know if you are on track to reach the identified goal(s). The progress monitoring targets can be a percentage or a number and should reflect a sufficient improvement in outcomes to meet the goal. Note that all schools are required to enter results in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) on the iPlan Portal.

Schools are encouraged to think critically and strategically when considering resources that can support progress towards CEP goals for students with IEPs. This includes utilizing Title I funding for at-risk speech and/or counseling services, all-staff training in supporting students with autism, sensory materials, summer institute geared at the development of executive functioning skills, and/or inclusion coaching support. Schools may also consider utilizing Title II funds to reduce the ratio of students with IEPs to typically developing peers in ICT classes.

Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and

Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Directions: Complete the chart and identify Tier 2 or 3 MTSS Academic supports. Any Tier 2/3 interventions should be in addition to the foundational work being done at Tier 1.

Family and Community Engagement Around MTSS

Describe how the school's essential components of MTSS are shared with families.

Family information sessions, beginning with Curriculum Night in September are utilized to shared information about the curriculum and the MTSS framework, including its tiers of support (academic, behavioral, and social-emotional). PS9 will host grade level "Bridge to Learning" parent engagement events to support the home school connection. Teachers teach families how to support their children at home. Information is also shared in family newsletters, which are translated to accommodate all families. Parent-teacher conferences that include discussions about MTSS interventions and student progress also happen during Student Led Conferences in November and March. Additional information is shared with progress reports in January. Parents are also included as part of the IEP process/progress monitoring check in where they can provide input on the types of supports their child receives.

Describe how families receive updates on the progress of their child(ren) who receive Tier 2 targeted, or Tier 3 intensive interventions.

Parents receive updates through report cards 3 times a year (November, March, June) and mid-year progress reports in January. Screener data/reports are also shared at these intervals to ensure BOY, MOY, and EOY results can be utilized in developing interventions. Students receiving afterschool or before school services also receive updates at 6-8 week intervals.

Describe how families are involved during decision making regarding the progress of students receiving Tier 3 intensive intervention.

Collaborative planning and reciprocal communication are essential. Families are invited to participate in team meetings where educators and specialists review the student's progress and discuss the need for intensive supports. These meetings often involve analyzing diagnostic data together to understand why a student may not be responding to previous interventions.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

Number of students in temporary housing who are:

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:
- Living in a hotel/motel:
- Other

*Note: In keeping with established practices regarding personally identifiable information, use the letter "s" to identify a number less than five (5).

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

The Guidance Counselor, Social Worker, Parent Coordinator, and Transportation Coordinator/Pupil Personnel Secretary will serve as the liaison for students in temporary housing. They will work closely with shelter staff and the school community to identify and address the needs of families affected by temporary housing situations, They will build a strong rapport with families through ongoing outreach, helping families feel comfortable to express challenges they are facing and allowing the school to support in ways that are meaningful. They will connect families to resources based on their needs. Resources include food pantries, rental assistance programs, food assistance programs, healthcare services, IEP services, legal services, childcare services, transportation, etc. They will schedule meetings (phone or in-person) with families of students with 3 or more consecutive absences to learn ways the school can support and develop a plan to meet the family's needs and improve attendance. There will be ongoing outreach to parents of STH with 3 (reaching excessive absences) - 17 (reaching chronic absences) to express the importance of daily attendance and discuss attendance expectations.

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

The Guidance Counselor, Parent Coordinator, and Transportation Coordinator/Pupil Personnel Secretary will serve as the liaison for students in temporary housing. They will work closely with shelter staff and the school community to identify and address the needs of families affected by homelessness. They will build a strong rapport with families through ongoing outreach, helping families feel comfortable to express challenges they are facing and allowing school to best support. PS 9 has also accepted asylum seeking students into its school community who are living in temporary housing and we are supporting them in various capacities including food support, and clothing support.

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

How many students in foster care are currently enrolled at your school? Provide a detailed breakdown of the social-emotional and academic supports available to them.

What targeted supports are in place for students in foster care, including those newly transitioning into the foster care system? How does your school ensure these students receive the necessary interventions to promote stability and success?

After analyzing historical demographic, attendance, and achievement data for students in foster care, what trends have emerged? How can these insights be used to improve the services and support provided to this population?

What specific strategies does your school implement to ensure students in foster care, particularly those in transitional grades, receive targeted Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) support? How do these strategies help address academic and behavioral challenges?

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the Sarah Smith Garnet, Public School 9, school community. In compliance with Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), PS 9 is responsible for creating and implementing a parent and family engagement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and families. The school's policy is designed to establish parents as partners by actively engaging them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are actively engaged in co-planning on the School Leadership Team, decision-making and funding allocation on the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Organization), and as trained volunteers, class leads and committee members supporting classrooms and the schoolwide community.

Support for Parents and Family Members of Title I Students

PS 9 will support parents and family members of Title I students by:
- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become engaged in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings, opportunities, and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional learning opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents, staff and all stakeholders of the school community.

Parental Involvement and School Quality

The school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of Multilingual Learners/English as a New Language Learners (ML/ENL), and students with disabilities. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Organization), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent engagement and school quality, the school will:
- actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage all parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I, 1% set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to the school to supplement parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent and family engagement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Organization) and Title I Parent Advisory Council. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional learning, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend the school and will work to ensure that the school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office;
- conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, equity and social justice conversations, International Baccalaureate (IB) framework and student learner profiles, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;

- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., ESSA/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, School Quality Report, Quality Review Report, Learning Environment Survey Report;
- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent and family engagement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1116 and other applicable sections under ESSA;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed.

Encouraging School-Level Parental Involvement

The school will further encourage school-level parent and family engagement by:
- hosting educational family events/activities during Parent-Teacher Conferences and throughout the school year;
- encouraging meaningful parent participation on School Leadership Teams, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Organization) and Title I Parent Advisory Council;
- supporting or hosting Family Day events;
- establishing a Parent Resource Center/Area or lending library; instructional materials for parents stored in Konstella Forms Library;
- encouraging more parents to become trained school volunteers, class leads and lunchroom/recess volunteers;
- providing written and verbal progress reports that are periodically given to keep parents informed of their children's progress;
- developing and distributing curriculum letters, principal newsletter, weekly updates and school calendar via our Konstella schoolwide communication platform, to keep parents informed about school activities and student progress;
- providing school planners/folders (fish folders) for regular written communication between teachers and families in a format, and to the extent practicable, in the languages that parents can understand.

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

PS 9, in compliance with the Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is implementing a School-Parent Compact to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. Staff and parents of students participating in activities and programs funded by Title I, agree that this Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff and students will share responsibility for improved academic achievement and the means by which a school-parent partnership will be developed to ensure that all children achieve State Standards on assessments.

I. School Responsibilities: High Quality CurriculumI. School Responsibilities: High Quality Curriculum

Provide high quality curriculum and instruction consistent with State Standards to enable participating children to meet the State's Standards and Assessments by:

- using academic learning time efficiently;

Language Allocation Policy Outline

Language Allocation Policy Outline

2025-26 Language Allocation Policy (LAP)

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents. When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

If submitted before the 2025-26 school year begins, this should be the anticipated number of classrooms based on anticipated enrollment. Each language and program model--Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE)--is considered a separate program. In the second column, please indicate if the program is General Education (GE), Integrated Co-Teaching (ICT) special education, Special Class (SC), or Mixed-Group Class (MGC) special education. If a classroom bridges two grades, list as 0.5 classrooms for both grades.

Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

Stand-alone English as New Language students are pulled out of the classroom and provided with small group instruction. Students are grouped homogeneously within two grade bands in accordance with CR Part 154. The certified ENL provider delivers ENL instruction.

Entering and Emerging level students; 180 minutes are ENL and 180 of the minutes are integrated with ELA. Transitioning-level and expanding-level students receive 180 minutes per week of ENL instruction, broken down by 90 minutes of stand-alone ENL and 90 minutes of integrated ENL minutes. Expanding level ENL students receive 180 minutes of integrated ENL services as per the CR Part 154. For students that score at the commanding level, they receive 90 minutes of integrated ENL support.

Our ENL freestanding program incorporates content area learning using ENL methodology. Guided Reading, Shared Reading, Independent Reading, Shared Writing, Independent Writing and Word Study are used to make content areas comprehensible, with hands-on activities to assist the English Language Learner. All lessons for ELLs are aligned with New York City, State, and Common Core Learning Standards.

In stand-alone ENL instruction, ELLs receive targeted English language instruction separate from their mainstream classes. This dedicated time focuses on developing the foundational language skills in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Students are often grouped homogeneously based on their English proficiency levels to provide tailored instruction that meets their specific language needs. This model allows for intensive language development and ensures compliance with CR Part 154 by providing specialized instruction to accelerate English language acquisition.

Integrated ENL:

Integrated ENL instruction involves the ENL teacher working alongside classroom teachers to support ELLs within the mainstream classroom. The certified ENL provider provides ENL and ELA instruction within the classroom for 90-180 minutes. This co-teaching model ensures that language development is embedded within content instruction, allowing ELLs to engage with grade-level curriculum while receiving language support. Students are typically grouped heterogeneously, mixing different proficiency levels to foster peer learning and collaboration. This approach adheres to CR Part 154 by ensuring that ELLs receive language instruction in the context of content learning, enhancing both their language skills and academic knowledge.

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)
Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

There is currently no transitional bilingual education program at PS 9.

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

Dual Language:
PS 9 currently has 6 Spanish Dual Language classes. Each class is delivered DL instruction for the full course of the day by 1 teacher. Instruction is taught daily 50% in English and 50% in Spanish. Students within the classes are of mixed proficiency level.

Instruction is designed so that both languages support each content area. Academic vocabulary and skills are taught with the use of visuals such as pictures and charts, read alouds, groupwork and assessments.

The DLBE program aims to develop bilingualism and biliteracy for both ELLs and English-proficient students by providing instruction in both English and the partner language (e.g., Spanish). Students receive instruction in both languages, typically on an alternating schedule (e.g., one day in English, the next in the partner language). This program model groups students heterogeneously, allowing ELLs and native English speakers to learn from each other and develop language skills in a collaborative environment. The DLBE program ensures that students maintain and develop their home language while acquiring English, fostering a balanced bilingual and bicultural education.

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

The school works with the ENL provider to create a schedule that ensures that each student is programmed for the mandated instructional minutes as per the CR Part 154. The schedule and programming are updated frequently throughout the school year to ensure the mandated minutes are being met.

According to Part 154-2, English As a New Language Units of Study and Staffing requirements, three hundred sixty (360) minutes total of ENL instruction is provided to all Entering and Emerging level students; 180 minutes are ENL and 180 of the minutes are integrated with ELA. Transitioning-level and expanding- level students receive 180 minutes per week of ENL instruction, broken down by 90 minutes of stand-alone ENL and 90 minutes of integrated ENL minutes.

Expanding level ENL students receive 180 minutes of integrated ENL services as per the CR Part 154. For students that score a t the commanding level receive 90 minutes of integrated ENL support.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

In our school, instructional minutes for ENL, English Language Arts (ELA), and Home Language Arts (HLA) are delivered through structured program models to ensure comprehensive language development and academic achievement for ELL students.

English as a New Language (ENL) Program

- Stand-alone ENL Instruction: ELLs receive dedicated ENL instruction focused on developing English language skills in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. This instruction is provided by certified ENL teachers and typically includes a minimum of 180 minutes per week.

- Integrated ENL Instruction: ENL support is integrated into the content areas, where ENL teachers co-teach with classroom teachers. This ensures that ELLs receive language support while engaging with grade-level curriculum. Integrated ENL instruction also typically includes a minimum of 180 minutes per week.

English Language Arts (ELA) Instruction
- General ELA Instruction: ELLs participate in the standard ELA curriculum alongside their peers, receiving instruction from their classroom teachers. This instruction aligns with state standards and typically includes 300 minutes per week.

- Differentiated ELA Support: Classroom teachers differentiate instruction within the ELA block to address the specific needs of ELLs, incorporating strategies to support language development and comprehension.

Home Language Arts (HLA) Instruction

- Dual Language Bilingual Education Program: In our dual language program, students receive HLA instruction in their home language. This instruction aims to develop literacy skills in the home language while reinforcing content knowledge. HLA instructional minutes are typically aligned with ELA minutes, ensuring balanced bilingual literacy development.

- Scheduling and Coordination: The instructional minutes for ENL, ELA, and HLA are carefully scheduled to ensure that ELLs receive comprehensive support without any overlap or gaps in their learning. The ENL teacher, classroom teachers, and bilingual teachers work collaboratively to plan and deliver these instructional minutes effectively.

- Ongoing Assessment and Adjustment: The instructional minutes and delivery models are regularly reviewed and adjusted based on ongoing assessments of student progress. This ensures that the instructional needs of ELLs are met and that they are making adequate progress in both language development and academic achievement.

By delivering instructional minutes through these structured program models, we ensure that ELLs receive the necessary language support and academic instruction to succeed in school.

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

PS 9 currently offers self-contained Spanish Dual Language programs (Pre-K, Kindergarten, 1st-5th s grade) Students in the Dual Language program who are also ENL students are provided with 100% integration within the DL program.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

English and Spanish are taught in each core content area (Reading, Writing, Math, Social Studies, and Science)

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

We do not have a Transitional Bilingual Education program at PS9.

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

At 13K009, there are 34 Current ELLs and 2 Former ELLs. Among Current ELLs:
- 97.1% are Newcomers (0–3 years)
- 2.9% are Developing ELLs (4–5 years)
- 0% are Long-Term ELLs
- 0% are flagged as SIFE

The vast majority of ELLs are Newcomers, highlighting the need for instruction that goes far beyond basic English and initial social integration.

Effective instruction for Newcomers (and all ELLs) must include:

- Comprehensive academic language support across content areas, not just survival English.
- Systematic literacy strategies to build reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills.
- Explicit vocabulary development, academic discourse (both oral and written), and high expectations for all four language modalities.
- Differentiated support tailored to time in the U.S. school system and current proficiency while ensuring access to rigorous grade-level content.
- Opportunities for Newcomers to engage with grade-level texts using scaffolds, visuals, and supports, but with clear pathways to independence and full participation in academic discussions.
- Strategies that prepare students for state assessments and academic writing demands, such as modeling written responses, using graphic organizers, and providing targeted feedback.
- Culturally responsive practices that honor students' backgrounds and build on their existing knowledge.

Instructional planning must deliberately incorporate both foundational supports and robust academic literacy development for all ELLs, ensuring equity of access and high expectations regardless of time in the U.S.

In contrast, Developing and Long-Term ELLs will require additional scaffolding for advanced academic language, with strategies for analyzing complex texts, writing essays, structured oral academic discussions, and argument development. However, Newcomers too should have access to these structures, with entry points matched to their current language proficiency.

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

0% of Current ELLs are flagged as SIFE.

SIFE instruction would involve literacy intervention, background knowledge acceleration, and trauma-sensitive practices.

Structures are in place for potential future SIFE enrollment.

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

0% of Current ELLs are Long-Term ELLs. No immediate need for a Long-Term ELL instructional plan this year.

If present, instruction would focus on writing, text analysis, and vocabulary development.

Focus should be on:

High-impact literacy strategies (argumentative writing, evidence-based reading).

Structured oral academic discussion.

Scaffolding for complex test analysis.

Intentional vocabulary development

Higher order questioning.

Reducing dependency on oral supports to build independent writing.

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

0.2% are Former ELLs.

Mandated instruction for former ELLs includes:
- Monitoring academic performance for two years after exiting ELL status.
- Providing push-in ENL support or additional academic interventions if needed.
- Ensuring access to enrichment opportunities, not just remediation or intervention.

At PS 9, instruction and monitoring for Former ELLs are also provided, in part, through SIP (Student Intervention Period) sessions. During SIP periods, former ELLs receive targeted academic support and continued language development as appropriate. Their progress is regularly reviewed to ensure they remain successful in mainstream classes.

Push-in ENL and SIP period supports are designed to address any emerging needs and help Former ELLs fully access the grade-level curriculum. Collaboration between ENL and classroom teachers during SIP ensures that interventions are intentional and responsive. Former ELLs are encouraged to participate in both academic and enrichment activities as part of their continued development.

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

Based on the Spring 2025 ELL Data Analysis Tool, our school (13K009 – P.S. 9) currently has 34 ELLs, of whom 97% are newcomers (0–3 years in the program). A majority of these students are at risk due to low academic and language proficiency outcomes.

Specifically:

33 out of 34 ELLs (97.1%) are classified as Newcomers, meaning they have been receiving ELL services for 0–3 years. This indicates a high concentration of students who are still in the early stages of English language development.

38.2% of ELLs scored Level 1 or 2 in ELA, for two consecutive years

35.3% did not meet sufficient English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth on the 2024 NYSESLATT. hese low scores indicate that many students are struggling academically in both language and content areas.

14.7% of ELLs have IEPs, which indicates that they have both language acquisition needs and special education needs, requiring coordinated supports.

11% scored Level 1 or 2 in Math for two years

No ELLs are classified as long-term ELLs or Students with Interrupted or Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE). The data shows that while the population is mostly new to ENL services, many are already showing early signs of risk factors that may hinder progress if not addressed.

These trends suggest a need for:

- Strengthened ENL instruction targeting foundational literacy
- Increased progress monitoring for ELP growth
- Targeted interventions for newcomers struggling with early literacy
- Close collaboration between ENL and special education staff to support dually identified students

To mitigate these risks, our LAP will prioritize early intervention, data-driven ENL supports, and professional development around co-teaching and scaffolding strategies.

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

There are only 2 former ELLs at the school. Both of them are flagged with 1 at-risk indicator. Specifically, both former ELLs scored Level 1 or 2 on the ELA State Exam in both the 2022–23 and 2023–24 school years. This suggests ongoing difficulty in mastering grade-level literacy skills, even after exiting ELL status. No other risk indicators were present for former ELLs none are overaged, under-credited, or have histories of being held back. The trend shows that while the number of former ELLs is small, 100% of them are still struggling with ELA performance.

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

Spanish is the dominant home language. Other languages include Arabic, Russian, Serbo-Croatian, Bengali, Burmese, Haitian Creole, Japanese and Albanian

Since Spanish is the dominant home language for our ELLs, effective practices are already in use.

Staff:

Bilingual ENL teachers or Spanish-speaking paraprofessionals available to support instruction and communication.

Parent Coordinators or Family Liaisons who are fluent in Spanish (and possibly Arabic, Haitian Creole) to assist families.

Structures:

Translated communication: Flyers, newsletters, report cards, and important notices translated into Spanish (and other major home languages as needed).

Bilingual workshops: Family workshops, curriculum nights, and conferences are available in Spanish.

Dual Language is offered to support biliteracy development.

Processes:

Use of interpretation services for meetings, such as IEP meetings, parent-teacher conferences, or orientation sessions.

Valuing multilingualism: Celebrations like Hispanic Heritage Month, and school displays that honor students' home languages.

Instructional strategies: Teachers use home language supports in the classroom, like allowing bilingual dictionaries, peer translation, or previewing content in the home language before lessons.

Supports include translated communication, bilingual staff, multicultural events, and bilingual instructional strategies.

Culture sustaining practices should continue to focus heavily on Spanish speaking families while addressing other growing language groups.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

At P.S. 009, the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs demonstrate significant diversity:
41.2% of ELLs are Hispanic
36.4% are Black
8.7% are Asian
8.7% are White
5.9% are Multiracial
5.9% are American Indian or Alaskan Native

This demographic profile reflects the school's commitment to serving a racially and ethnically diverse multilingual population, with Hispanic and Black students representing the majority (77.6%) of ELLs.

ELLs are systematically included in the planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE) through multiple strategic approaches aligned with the NYSED CR-S Education Framework:

Welcoming and Affirming Environment:

- Multilingual signage and displays celebrating students' home languages and cultures throughout the school
- Hispanic Heritage Month and multicultural celebrations that elevate ELL students' cultural contributions
- Bilingual family engagement workshops conducted in Spanish and other home languages
- Cultural asset mapping to identify and leverage students' linguistic and cultural strengths

High Expectations with High Support:

- Differentiated instruction that maintains grade-level content expectations while providing language scaffolds
- Co-teaching models between ENL and content area teachers to ensure rigorous academic engagement
- Use of students' home languages as resources for learning, including bilingual dictionaries and peer translation
- Culturally relevant texts and materials that reflect students' identities and experiences

Inclusive Curriculum and Assessment:
- Integration of diverse perspectives and voices in curriculum content across all subject areas
- Incorporation of students' cultural knowledge and experiences into lesson planning
- Multiple assessment formats that allow ELLs to demonstrate knowledge through various modalities
- Project-based learning opportunities that connect to students' lived experiences and communities

Ongoing Professional Development:
- Teacher training on culturally sustaining pedagogies and asset-based approaches to ELL instruction
- Collaborative planning sessions between ENL and content teachers to embed CR-SE practices
- Regular review of instructional materials for cultural relevance and representation

Family and Community Engagement:
- Translated communication materials in Spanish, Arabic, and other home languages
- Bilingual parent coordinators who serve as cultural bridges between school and families
- Community partnerships that reflect the diverse backgrounds of ELL students
- Family workshops that honor and build upon home cultural practices

Data-Driven Decision Making:
• Disaggregated data analysis by race, ethnicity, and language to identify gaps and monitor progress
• Student voice surveys to understand ELL experiences and inform program improvements
• Regular assessment of CR-SE implementation effectiveness through student outcomes

These strategies ensure that ELLs are not merely recipients of services but active participants in an educational environment that values their cultural and linguistic assets while providing rigorous academic opportunities for success.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

At PS 9, a total of 12 English Language Learners (ELLs) were eligible for English Language Proficiency (ELP) progress evaluation based on the Spring 2024 NYSESLAT results.

• 1 student (8.3%) exited ELL status by meeting the Commanding level with required ELA performance.
• 2 students (16.7%) met the annual ELP progress target.
• 0 students met Safe Harbor cumulative growth criteria.
• 9 students (75.0%) did not meet sufficient ELP progress.

This data indicates that while a few students are progressing, the majority (three out of four) did not meet the expected yearly growth. This signals a need for targeted instructional supports especially in academic language, comprehension, and writing.

The majority of ELLs with sufficient data did not meet expected language proficiency growth:75% 9 out 12 of eligible students did not make sufficient progress. Only 3 students showed any growth, and not students qualified under the safe harbor growth method. Additionally, a large number of students 13 out of 34 either had not valid 2024 NYSESLAT proficiency level or lacked prior exam data, making it difficult to measure progress for over a third of the students. These trends suggest the need for stronger instructional supports, better progress monitoring, and more consistent NYSESLAT data tracking. Also, focus needed on writing and speaking development to accelerate ELP growth, especially for Newcomer students.

9 students did not meet ELP student progress criteria, representing 75% of the students with valid comparison data.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

The Spring 2024 NYSESLAT results reveal clear modality trends among ELLs at PS 9. A major strength continues to be listening and speaking, especially in grades 1–2. For example, in Grade 2, several students scored high in listening and speaking, with fewer students achieving similar success in reading and writing.

In contrast, the greatest areas of need are reading and writing, particularly in Grades 2–5. In Grade 5, for instance, three students showed need in writing and four in speaking, while only one student showed strength in writing. This suggests that while students are developing oral language skills, their literacy-based academic English remains a challenge.

Additionally, only a small percentage of students (8.3%) met exit criteria by scoring Commanding and just 16.7% met annual growth targets; 75% of students did not meet sufficient ELP progress, which is a significant concern for long-term language development and instructional planning.

Overall, the data indicates that while students are making gains in reading, there is a continued need for targeted instruction and scaffolding in writing, listening, and speaking to support language growth across all domains.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

Several ELLs flagged at-risk for ELA and Math.

ELLs struggling in NYSESLAT are also flagged for poor performance in ELA and Math

Language development impacts academic achievement. Integrating ENL strategies across all content areas is critical.

The data suggests a general correlation between students' English proficiency levels on the NYSESLAT and their performance on other state assessments like the ELA, and Math exams. Several students who scored at the Emerging or Transitioning levels on the NYSESLAT also scored Level 1 or 2 on the ELA and Math exams. This indicates that limited English proficiency is impacting their ability to demonstrate academic content knowledge, particularly in reading and writing intensive assessments.

Students who scored at the Expanding or Commanding levels on the NYSESLAT were more likely to perform better on the ELA exam, as they demonstrate stronger academic language skills required for grade level content assessments. Conversely, students at the Entering or Emerging levels typically struggled on the ELA exams, likely due to limited English proficiency impacting their ability to access and demonstrate knowledge on those assessments. This relationship highlights the importance of continued language development support to improve academic achievement across content areas.

No students at PS 9 take the English Regents exam, but this pattern aligns with district wide trends showing that students who are not yet proficient in English often struggle with state assessments due to language barriers rather than conceptual understanding.
This highlights the importance of continued ENL support even for students at mid proficiency levels, and the need for scaffolded content instruction that bridges language and content simultaneously.

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

The NYSESLAT results indicate that most ELLs in the Newcomer subgroup scored at the lower proficiency levels (Entering, Emerging, and Expanding), showing they are still developing their English language skills. For ELLs with IEPs, two students participated one scored at the Emerging level and the other at Expanding suggesting that learning or processing challenges may affect their performance on language-based assessments like NYSESLAT. No SIFE (Students with Interrupted or Inconsistent Formal Education) were enrolled this year. Overall, limited time in U.S. schools, learning needs, and gaps in foundational education may be key factors impacting the progress of these subgroups.

In addition, the data shows that ELLs with IEPs at PS 9 face considerable challenges in advancing English language proficiency. Of the five ELLs with IEPs, only one student achieved the Expanding level, while most remained at Entering or Emerging levels. This pattern suggests these students are struggling to make adequate yearly progress.

Key factors likely contributing to this trend include:

- Dual demands of special education needs and second language acquisition, requiring more targeted supports.

- Possible gaps in scaffolded instruction or co-teaching practices that address both IEP and ENL goals.

- A need for closer collaboration between ENL and special education teams for progress monitoring, goal alignment, and differentiated instruction.

Notably, PS 9 has no students currently identified as SIFE, so subgroup analysis for SIFE is not applicable at this time.

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

Our school provides English Language Learners (ELLs) with a high-quality academic experience through a multifaceted approach that ensures deeper learning. We implement comprehensive language support programs, such as dual language classes in Spanish from K-5 and English as a Second Language (ENL) classes, to address the diverse linguistic needs of our students. Our curriculum includes the International Baccalaureate (IB) program, which promotes critical thinking and global awareness. We also emphasize phonics for reading to build strong foundational literacy skills. Teachers receive ongoing professional development to adopt effective ELL teaching strategies and foster cultural competence. Instruction is differentiated and scaffolded to meet individual student needs, ensuring access to a rigorous and inclusive curriculum. We employ formative assessments to monitor progress and provide constructive feedback. Engaging families and leveraging community resources further support our ELLs, while technology integration enhances their learning experience. Additionally, we offer tutoring, mentoring, and counseling services to address both academic and social-emotional needs. This comprehensive approach ensures that ELLs achieve academic success and deeper learning outcomes.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

PS 9 insures that students are given sufficient background knowledge by front loading vocabulary, using photos, videos shown with audio at a slower pace and closed captions, KWL charts (bilingual as well) so the lessons are accessible. The learning target is translated so students understand their goals. Also language objectives are added so students have the needed scaffolding and vocabulary to express ideas, write key concepts and understand the most important elements of the lesson. Lessons are designed so students have partner that help them understand the material.

PS 9 provides instruction to support ELL's by designing a curriculum that provides students with an opportunity to engage in all ENL modalities. On a daily basis students work with a variety of texts, such as printed text, digital texts and visual text, at different levels across all content providing exposure to vocabulary and reading comprehension. The texts will expose ELL's to relatable content that will help with their English acquisition. During book studies, to the best extent possible, ELL's will be provided with the text in their home language. Students will be provided with texts books in their own language for Math and Social Studies when available. To support ELL's with speaking and listening, ELL's are provided with multiple opportunities to engage in conversations throughout the course of the day. Teachers make a conscious effort to have them participate and share during SEL. During SEL students will also have an opportunity to write and draw pictures. ELL students will also have folders with sight words, and other words accompanied with pictures. The ENL provider will provide all ELL students with a flashcard study set of high-utility vocabulary to master language and knowledge. Students are given links to websites that have digital flashcards that they can use or make their own. In addition, the ENL provider will also provide an opportunity for students to be able to listen and speak at the beginning of all pull out sessions.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

All core content is delivered in English. Whenever possible, key vocabulary and concepts are introduced in the student's home language to support comprehension. Teachers use visual supports, digital flashcards, sentence starters, and anchor charts to scaffold understanding of grade-level content.

Instruction is guided by the Next Generation Learning Standards Scaffolding Guide and the Blueprint for ELL/MLL Success. Teachers implement research-based ENL strategies, including Language Dives, interactive read-alouds, shared writing, and frontloading of vocabulary. Students are regularly engaged in academic conversations through think-pair-share, partner talk, and collaborative group work.

Videos are shown with captions and slowed playback to support listening comprehension. Texts are adapted as needed, and language objectives are included alongside content objectives. Students are supported in all four domains listening, speaking, reading, and writing—through structured routines.

ENL teachers co-plan with classroom teachers to align instruction and provide both push-in and pull-out supports tailored to individual student language levels. Instruction is differentiated to meet the needs of newcomers, students with IEPs, and progressing ELLs.

Learning targets will be put in students' home language as well when possible as well as English. Students will be given sentence starters for writing and speaking. Students will be given an abridged version of text with the key information in a simpler version. New essential vocabulary will be introduced and pretaught with definitions in home language. Students will be supported with web resources to learn and practice vocabulary such as Quizlet.

Students receive math textbooks in their home language. To make word problems more comprehensible, students will be asked to imagine themselves in the word problem and use friends or families' names instead of names in the problem to make it easier to understand. Cognates will be pointed out for comprehension. The difference between the metric system and the US customary system will be explained. Students will be given glosses for keywords in their home language. Students will be taught to underline, highlight and circle important words in problems and to use a gloss to make sure they understand them.

For science students will be taught to study the pictures with captions in books first to learn the vocabulary before reading. Students will be taught with diagrams with pictures and videos and songs to make academic language and content more accessible. Diagrams in native language with glossaries will be used. Students will be given a bilingual lab partner when available to help them with language and procedures.

For social studies students will be given text in home language and English with gloss. Students will work on group projects with bilingual students partners to make language accessible. Students will learn and research about famous people from their culture and the US. Students will use online resources like Newsela in home language and English so content is accessible and they can strengthen their English vocabulary.

For ELA, students will be given a trained partner to do a book walk with them through a picture book before they start reading. Students are taught how to read by the pictures being used to scaffold the decoding words, but if students don't know how to say what's in the picture in English this is ineffective. Students will be given a buddy to make sure the ELLs know how to read the title, what it means, and then teach their buddy what all the pictures are in English so ELL can use the pictures to read the words. When students can decode in English but have to grow their vocabulary, students will be taught to use picture books to learn new English words by reading the words underneath them. Books on websites that read aloud to the students will be used as well to advance pronunciation. Also, Students will use the Newsela websites that have articles translated in other languages and at various reading levels.

For writing students will be given checklists with pictures to understand their writing goals. Students will be given sentences starter and use of computers for google translate and use of predictive text to help them with writing. Students will be given a list of questions to prompt ideas on what to write as scaffolding, and then learn how to make up their own. Students will use graphic organizers to a greater degree than non-ELLs to support their writing process. Students are encouraged to use higher level vocabulary words that are cognates to express themselves and strengthen their writing. Students will compare and contrast the alphabet of their home language with the English alphabet to help with reading and spelling, and pronunciation.

Dual Language:

Instructional Approaches and Methods

1. Content-based Instruction: Core subjects like math, science, and social studies are taught in both languages using academic vocabulary and subject-specific terminology. Teachers integrate language objectives into content lessons to support both subject matter understanding and language development.

2. Language Immersion: Students are immersed in Spanish for part of their day, with the goal of fostering natural language acquisition through meaningful use in academic contexts. They learn academic concepts while simultaneously developing their Spanish language skills.

3. Translanguaging: Students are encouraged to use both languages as resources for learning. They may read a text in English, discuss it in Spanish, or solve problems using both languages, allowing them to strengthen cognitive skills and deepen content understanding.

4. Scaffolding: Teachers use visual aids, modeling, and sentence frames to support comprehension in both languages. This helps students understand complex concepts while developing language proficiency.

5. Collaborative Learning: Students work in pairs or groups to engage in discussions, problem-solving, and projects in both languages. Peer interaction in English and Spanish supports social language development and academic content mastery.

By using these methods, the program fosters biliteracy while ensuring that students meet the Next Generation Learning Standards, particularly in literacy, mathematics, and critical thinking skills.

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

For MLs/ELLs, including those with IEPs, a variety of instructional strategies, materials, and technology are used to ensure access to grade-level content and accelerate English language development. Here's a breakdown of strategies tailored to different ELL subgroups, especially ELLs with IEPs:

1. Instructional Strategies:

Scaffolding and Differentiation: Teachers use scaffolding techniques like visual aids, graphic organizers, sentence starters, and model texts to help ELLs understand complex concepts. Differentiation ensures that activities are adjusted according to the student's language proficiency and cognitive needs.

Language Dives: Students analyze complex sentences from content texts to build syntactic awareness and academic vocabulary..

Collaborative Learning: Pairing ELLs with proficient English-speaking peers for group work fosters communication in authentic settings and builds language skills. Group discussions and peer learning also allow ELLs to practice speaking and listening in a supportive environment.

Translanguaging: Encouraging students to use their home language as a tool for learning helps ELLs bridge their understanding of complex academic content in English. This is especially helpful for ELLs with IEPs who may benefit from dual-language support.

Universal Design for Learning (UDL): This strategy offers multiple means of engagement, representation, and expression, allowing ELLs with IEPs to access the curriculum in ways that accommodate their unique needs, such as using visual, auditory, or tactile learning aids.

Visuals: Charts, labeled diagrams, and real-world objects are embedded into lessons to reinforce comprehension.

Interactive Read-Alouds and Shared Writing: Used across K–5 to model fluent academic language, inferencing, and text structure.

Oral Language Routines: Daily use of turn-and-talk, think-pair-share, and structured discussions to develop speaking and listening skills.

Collaborative Learning: Small-group tasks and peer partnerships are used to support both language output and academic dialogue.

Grade-Level Materials:

Language Supports in Core Content Areas:

Math: Use of visual math tools (e.g., manipulatives, number lines) and step-by-step instructions.

Science: Use of bilingual glossaries, visual aids, and hands-on experiments to connect abstract concepts to real-life experiences. Platforms like BrainPOP ESL offer videos in multiple languages, helping scaffold difficult science content.

ELA: Incorporation of leveled readers (e.g., Raz-Kids or Reading A-Z) that match students' reading proficiency levels. Teachers use graphic organizers, read-alouds, and shared reading strategies to build comprehension while focusing on language development.

Social Studies: Simplified texts with visuals, timelines, and maps to help make content more accessible. Interactive tools such as Newsela allow for adjusting reading levels and providing content in both English and Spanish.

3. Technology Integration:

Translation and Speech-to-Text Tools: Technology like Google Translate or Microsoft Immersive Reader helps ELLs with IEPs access content in their home language while improving comprehension. Speech-to-text tools allow students to express themselves without the barrier of writing skills.

Learning Management Systems (LMS): Platforms such as Google Classroom or Seesaw allow for differentiated assignments, providing ELLs with multimedia content tailored to their proficiency level. Teachers can post videos, interactive lessons, and assignments that cater to the diverse needs of ELLs, including those with IEPs.

Translation Tools: Google Translate and TalkingPoints help bridge home-school communication and clarify instructions in home languages.

Specific Considerations for ELLs with IEPs:

Special Education Services and Language Supports: ELLs with IEPs benefit from a combination of special education strategies and language supports. This includes frequent use of visuals, hands-on activities, and real-world examples to reinforce language acquisition alongside meeting their individualized educational goals.

Co-Teaching Models: ENL and special education teachers often collaborate through co-teaching models to ensure that instruction meets both the language development needs and the specific accommodations outlined in a student's IEP.

Hands-on and Real-Life Contexts: Activities are grounded in concrete examples to reinforce comprehension and functional language use.

Progress Monitoring: Frequent checks for understanding using modified rubrics, visuals, and small-group conferencing to track IEP goals and language development.

In summary, teachers use a combination of scaffolding, differentiation, and technology tools, paired with specialized supports for ELLs with IEPs, to provide access to grade-level academic content and promote English language development. The integration of digital resources, content-specific strategies, and individualized approaches ensures that all ELLs, regardless of their subgroup, can succeed academically.

b. SIFE

Students will be part of the school's phonics program, where they learn phonics two periods a week to improve their literacy skills. Also, students will be given extra SEL support by receiving weekly counseling sessions with the district social worker. In addition, students will be provided with computerized education programs that analyzes student skill acquisition and strengthens skills in the needed areas.

Students will be provided with technology to support translation when communicating throughout the day, visual aids and engineered texts to access literature in a responsive method.

c. Newcomers

Newcomers will be provided with small group instruction in ELA. Small group instruction will be provided by the ENL provider in ELA and Math. The classroom teacher will provide small group instruction in ELA and Math. Both the ENL provider and the classroom teacher will provide visual supports in Social Studies and Science to support language acquisition. Support will vary based on the students needs. Students with similar needs will be grouped together. Students will be also be provided with support with their non ELL peers within the classroom. Support will be provided based on the students NYSELAT scores and English Proficiency Level. To the best extent possible, support and scaffolds will be provided in the child's home language.

Listening to text for reading and listening comprehension, picture dictionaries, use of internet website such as reading A-Z are things used to support our newcomers, which are ways we differentiate instruction for each of the ELLs in our school. Amira is an online technology program that newcomers will have access to too for support in the English language development while also supporting their home language.

The Free Store is a resource for many of our new families to support socially and emotionally. Families can set up discreet times to obtain supplies from children's toys to canned goods.

d. Long Term ELLs

Long-term ELLs require instructional strategies beyond those used for newcomers, with a focus on advancing their academic language and literacy. At PS 9, Long-Term ELLs receive:

- Small group instruction in ELA, targeted by both the ENL provider and classroom teacher, as well as in Math.
- Visual supports and scaffolds in Social Studies and Science, provided by both the ENL provider and classroom teacher.
- Differentiated instruction based on NYSESLAT scores and English proficiency level, as well as grouping students with similar needs.
- Integration with non-ELL peers for collaborative learning and peer modeling.

In addition, the following specialized strategies are used for Long-Term ELLs to address their unique needs:
- Explicit instruction in Tier 2 and Tier 3 vocabulary to extend academic word knowledge and enable access to complex texts across subjects.
- Focus on complex sentence structures through sentence combining, modeling, and explicit grammar instruction helping students construct and comprehend academic language.
- Frequent extended writing and discussion opportunities including argumentative writing, evidence-based responses, text analysis, and structured academic discussions; these build advanced literacy skills and oral academic proficiency.
- Opportunities for structured peer and group discussions that promote use of academic language, critical thinking, and higher-order questioning.
- Regular feedback and targeted support on extended writing, with graphic organizers and scaffolds to support planning and revision.

- Use of technology programs (such as Amira and Reading A-Z) that provide continued language exposure and support advanced comprehension.

By systematically embedding these strategies, we support Long-Term ELLs in reaching grade-level expectations, developing advanced academic language, and becoming confident, independent learners.

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

Service providers work together when developing schedules in order to compliment each other and push-in to the classrooms to service the students.

The school is now using the International Baccalaureate (IB) framework throughout kindergarten to fifth grade where students partake in inquiry based, transdisciplinary learning while they learn autonomy as well as collaboration. IB is used throughout the curriculum. Students have flexibility to use computers with accessibility features such as Microsoft Accessibility Technology for reading, writing, research and presentation. This offers the flexibility to ELLs with IEP needed to meet their language acquisition and goals, because it supports so many modalities.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

Home language (HL) assessment at PS 9 is a multi-step process for all program models—including English as a New Language (ENL), Dual Language, and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE). We ensure that all Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs), regardless of their home language, are appropriately assessed using the following approaches:

- Initial Identification for All Languages:
Every student's home language is identified through the Home Language Survey (HLS) completed upon enrollment. This survey is available in multiple languages and helps us determine if further proficiency assessment is necessary.

- Initial Proficiency Assessment:
All ELLs, regardless of home language, take the New York State Identification Test for English Language Learners (NYSITELL) to determine their English proficiency.

- Home Language Proficiency for Other Languages:
  - For Spanish speakers, we use Spanish Lab, running records, and MAP assessment in Spanish to determine proficiency and guide instruction.
  - For languages other than Spanish, we use available NYCDOE and state resources, such as translated assessments, HLA rubrics, and running records (when available) in high-incidence languages (e.g., Bengali, Russian, Arabic, Haitian Creole, Mandarin). We consult NYCDOE's HLA guidance, which provides home language arts assessments, rubrics, and tools in world languages.
  - When formal assessments are unavailable, we gather information through parent/guardian interviews, teacher observations, and student work samples (oral, written, digital) to build a comprehensive language profile.
  - The ELL/MLL coordinator and staff regularly leverage interpretation services or the NYCDOE Language Access team for accurate assessment in less common languages.
  - Where possible, bilingual staff or DOE-approved interpreters assist in assessment and parent meetings for accurate HL evaluation.

- Ongoing Monitoring:
Throughout the year, we use periodic assessments, teacher-created tasks, and formative checks—including adapted tasks in the student's home language when possible to track progress and adjust supports.

- Communication:
HL assessment results are communicated to parents in their home language. Families are engaged in the planning process for instructional services and supports.

This comprehensive system ensures that students in all program models, and with any home language, receive equitable assessment and instructional planning that honors and supports their linguistic assets.

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

n/a

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

At our school, systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers in all ELL program models are well-established and integral to our approach. We employ integrated co-teaching models where the ENL teacher and content area teachers collaboratively plan and deliver instruction, ensuring that language development and content mastery are seamlessly integrated. In our dual language programs, partnerships between bilingual education teachers are fostered through regular co-planning sessions and shared professional development opportunities, allowing for consistent instructional strategies and alignment of curriculum goals. Weekly team meetings provide a platform for teachers to discuss student progress, share best practices, and address challenges collectively. Additionally, we utilize digital collaboration tools to facilitate communication and resource sharing among teachers. Mentorship programs pair experienced teachers with those new to ELL instruction, promoting continuous professional growth and effective teaching practices. These structures ensure that our co-teaching and collaborative efforts are coherent, sustained, and focused on enhancing the educational experiences of our ELL students.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

During the overall professional learning for the staff, they discuss the research-based strategies that support student learning. This includes co-teaching strategies, transdisciplinary instruction through the International Baccalaureate framework, and integrating language and content instruction into lessons.

There is professional learning related to the social-emotional needs of ELLs at PS 9. Specifically, our school utilizes the Harmony Stanford program and Brain Power to address these needs. These programs focus on fostering emotional intelligence, building positive relationships, and supporting the overall well-being of students, which is crucial for ELLs as they navigate both academic and language learning challenges.

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154 (15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

Our school's professional development plan to meet the mandated CTLE hours for certification renewal, as per CR Part 154, includes the following components:

District 13 Superintendent's Team:

The ENL provider will attend professional development sessions offered by the District 13 Superintendent's Team, which is an approved CTLE provider.

These sessions, called ELL Coordinator Working Groups, are held monthly for an entire school day. During these sessions, ENL teachers learn best practices, strategies, and protocols to enhance instruction in reading, writing, speaking, and listening.

The knowledge gained from these sessions will be used by the ENL provider to lead on-site professional development for general education and bilingual teachers, focusing on ENL best practices.

Staff Development and Dissemination:

The ENL provider will take the lead in sharing strategies and tools with the broader school staff to ensure all teachers are equipped to support ELLs. This includes collaborative sessions with general education and bilingual teachers to align practices and enhance instructional support for ELLs.

Other Professional Development Opportunities:

Additional professional development opportunities that meet CTLE requirements will be communicated to staff through email as they become available.

UFT Workshops: The United Federation of Teachers (UFT) also offers workshops focused on supporting ELLs, which count toward CTLE credits. Teachers will be encouraged to attend these workshops to further enhance their knowledge and meet their CTLE requirements.

This plan ensures that both the ENL provider and other certified staff receive the ELL-specific professional development necessary to fulfill their CTLE obligations and improve outcomes for multilingual learners.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

The screening assessments that are used include Acadience (K-2 ELA), iReady Reading (3-5 ELA), and iReady Math (K-5).

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

Our school offers targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas across all grades. Academic Intervention Services (AIS) are provided to all ELL subgroups (entering, emerging, transitioning, expanding, and commanding) primarily in English, with support in their native languages. In ELA, we use programs like iReady, Phonics for Reading, Reading Futures, Orton Gillingham, and intensive phonics instruction. For Math, we offer after-school tutoring, and bilingual interactive math software. Additionally, our ENL provider give extra instruction to support ELLs in Social Studies and Science, integrating language development with content learning. These interventions are coordinated with classroom teachers, regularly assessed for effectiveness, and supported by ongoing professional development for staff.

Academic Intervention Services are offered to all entering, emerging, transitioning, expanding and commanding ELL's, to support with ELA and Math instruction. AIS is offered primarily in English, with support in the students native language. In addition, the ENL provider offers additional minutes of instruction to all ELL student's to support them with Social Studies and Science instruction.

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

At our school, we use data systematically to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) framework, ensuring that all students receive the appropriate level of support to meet their academic and social-emotional needs. Our approach is informed by the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and the MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs, which provide a structured method for data-driven decision-making and instructional planning.

Tier 1: Universal Instruction
In Tier 1, all ELLs receive high-quality, research-based instruction in the general education classroom. We collect and analyze data from universal screenings, formative assessments, and standardized tests, such as iReady assessments administered three times a year. This data helps us identify students who are meeting grade-level expectations and those who need additional support. Teachers use this information to differentiate instruction and incorporate language development strategies into their lessons, ensuring that ELLs receive comprehensive support within the core curriculum.

Tier 2: Targeted Interventions
For ELLs who require additional support beyond the universal instruction, we provide targeted interventions in Tier 2. These interventions are informed by ongoing progress monitoring data, including running records in Spanish, formative assessments, and classroom observations. Data teams, consisting of general education teachers, ESL specialists, and instructional coaches, meet regularly to review student progress and adjust intervention plans as needed. Interventions might include small group instruction focused on specific language skills, additional ESL support, or targeted literacy interventions in both English and the students' home languages.

Tier 3: Intensive Interventions
In Tier 3, we provide intensive, individualized support for ELLs who continue to struggle despite Tier 2 interventions. This tier involves more frequent progress monitoring and a higher level of instructional intensity. Data from comprehensive assessments, including state-mandated assessments for potential Students with Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE), informs the development of individualized learning plans. These plans are tailored to address the unique needs of each student, incorporating specialized instructional strategies, one-on-one tutoring, and possibly referrals to external support services.

Continuous Data Review and Professional Development
Our MTSS framework emphasizes the importance of continuous data review. Data teams engage in regular cycles of assessment, analysis, and action to ensure that instructional strategies are effective and responsive to the needs of ELLs. We also provide ongoing professional development for teachers and staff on data-driven instruction, culturally responsive teaching practices, and effective interventions for ELLs. This professional development helps build capacity for using data to inform instruction and improve student outcomes.

Collaboration and Communication
Effective collaboration and communication are key components of our MTSS implementation. We involve all stakeholders, including administrators, teachers, specialists, and parents, in the data-driven decision-making process. By maintaining open lines of communication and fostering a collaborative culture, we ensure that all ELLs receive the support they need to succeed academically and socially.

By leveraging data within our MTSS framework, we create a responsive and supportive learning environment for ELLs, ensuring that instructional decisions are informed, targeted, and effective.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

At PS 9, the following formative assessments are used to inform and drive instruction, and this is true for both general students and ELLs, with Spanish available for math assessments and end-of-unit assessments:

Envision Math Assessments: These provide insight into students' math understanding, with Spanish versions available for ELLs to support their language needs.

End of Unit Assessments and Projects within the IB Unit of Study: These assess content knowledge and critical thinking skills, and Spanish versions are provided for ELLs when needed.

Phonics for Reading Assessment: This tool assesses foundational reading skills and is used to guide targeted instruction.

Beginning of the Year Assessment: Helps establish a baseline for students' academic abilities, guiding personalized instruction from the start of the school year.

Lexia and Lexia English: Lexia monitors reading progress, while Lexia English supports ELLs in developing English language skills, adapting to their language proficiency.

Fundations End of Unit Assessments: Tracks progress in foundational literacy skills, ensuring targeted support for reading and writing development.

These assessments ensure that instruction is informed and tailored to meet the academic and language development needs of all students, including ELLs.

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

To ensure that Multilingual Learners (MLs) and English Language Learners (ELLs) are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year, we implement several key strategies and structures:

Home Language Surveys and Initial Assessments
At the beginning of the school year, we conduct Home Language Surveys (HLS) to identify students' primary languages. Based on the survey results, students undergo initial assessments in their home languages to establish baseline proficiency levels and inform instructional planning.

Ongoing Formative Assessments
We use ongoing formative assessments to monitor students' progress in their home languages. These assessments include language proficiency tests, running records, and performance-based tasks, ensuring that we capture a comprehensive picture of their language development.

Spanish Lab and Running Records
For Spanish-speaking students, we provide additional support through the Spanish Lab, where they receive instruction and assessment in Spanish. Running records are regularly conducted in Spanish to track reading fluency and comprehension, allowing for targeted interventions as needed.

MAP Assessments
We administer the MAP (Measures of Academic Progress) assessment in Spanish three times a year. This assessment evaluates students' literacy skills, providing valuable data on their progress and areas needing improvement. The results guide instructional adjustments and support.

Assessments for Potential SIFE Students
All ELLs identified as potential Students with Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE) undergo further testing via the state's website. These assessments help determine the specific academic and linguistic support required to address gaps in their education.

Collaborative Evaluation Processes
Teachers and specialists collaborate to review assessment data and adjust instructional plans accordingly. This collaborative approach ensures that evaluations are comprehensive and inform meaningful instructional decisions.

Communication with Families
We communicate assessment results to parents in their home language, involving them in their child's educational journey. This ensures transparency and allows parents to support their child's learning at home effectively.

Professional Development
Our staff receives ongoing professional development on culturally responsive assessment practices and the use of home language assessments. This ensures that all teachers are equipped to evaluate MLs/ELLs accurately and effectively.

By implementing these strategies, we ensure that MLs and ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year, supporting their academic growth and language development.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

At PS 9, we use the New York State ELA and Math State Assessments and the NYSESLAT to evaluate the effectiveness of our ML/ELL programs. These summative assessments provide critical data on student performance and language proficiency. We analyze this data using the ELL Data Analysis Tool to identify trends and areas needing improvement. This analysis informs our instructional design and curricular decisions, leading to targeted interventions, curricular adjustments, and professional development for teachers. By continuously evaluating and responding to assessment data, we ensure our programs effectively support the academic and language development of our ELLs

PS 9 uses the following summative assessments:
-NYS ELA and Math State Assessment
-NYSESLAT

Using the scores and indicators of the summative assessments, the curriculum is updated and designed to support the areas in greatest need. The curriculum map will outline what supports and scaffolds are provided to meet the needs of ELL students within each unit of study.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

For the NYSESLAT administration plan at our school:

Test Administration:

The ENL provider will administer the listening, reading, and writing portions of the NYSESLAT exam.

A certified pedagogue (General Education teacher) will be responsible for administering the speaking portion.

Scoring:

The exam will be scored in-house by a team of certified teachers, including a bilingual teacher, IB coach, Special Education teacher, a cluster teacher, IP teacher, and General Education teacher. This ensures the scoring process is accurate and efficient.

Coordination and Family Communication:

The administration team and the ENL provider will coordinate the testing, ensuring it runs smoothly, and they will be responsible for notifying families about the test dates and providing relevant updates.

Mandated Instruction:

During the NYSESLAT testing period, we will ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive their mandated instruction. Testing will be staggered to avoid conflicts with regular classes, and collaboration with classroom teachers will ensure ELLs do not miss essential instructional time.

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

Our school ensures that current and former ELLs receive the necessary accommodations for state assessments, through a structured and comprehensive approach.

Identification and Planning

- Assessment of Needs: At the beginning of each school year, we review the needs of current and former ELLs to identify the specific accommodations they require for state assessments. This involves collaboration between ESL teachers, and classroom teachers.

- Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) and 504 Plans: For ELLs with IEPs or 504 Plans, accommodations are clearly outlined and regularly updated to reflect any changes in their needs.

Accommodations Provided

- Extended Time: ELLs are given extended time to complete assessments, allowing them additional time to process the language and content of the test.

- Bilingual Dictionaries and Glossaries: Students are permitted to use bilingual dictionaries and glossaries during assessments to aid in understanding and translating test materials.

- Translation and Interpretation Services: For specific assessments, instructions and some test items are provided in the student's native language, and interpreters are available as needed.

- Separate Testing Locations: ELLs can take their assessments in a separate, quieter location to minimize distractions and help them focus better.

-ELLs are placed in a Dual Language Classes so they can have proper support

Training and Communication

- Staff Training: Teachers and staff receive training on the specific accommodations ELLs are entitled to and how to implement them effectively during assessments.

- Parental Involvement- We communicate with parents in their preferred language to inform them about the accommodations available to their children and involve them in the planning process.

- Regular Monitoring: The implementation of accommodations is regularly monitored to ensure compliance and effectiveness, with adjustments made as needed based on student feedback and performance.

By systematically identifying, planning, and implementing these accommodations, our school ensures that current and former ELLs are supported during state assessments helping them to perform to the best of their abilities.

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

At our school, we ensure that families of newly identified ELLs receive a comprehensive ELL Program Orientation. Here's how we manage this:

Scheduling and Facilitation:

We schedule one-to-one orientation meetings with families at various times, including evenings, to accommodate different schedules and maximize attendance. We also schedule group orientation meeting during parent engagement virtually and in person.

Translation and interpretation services are provided in the family's home language to ensure full engagement and understanding of the program information.

Content of the Orientation:

The orientation covers the goals and requirements of all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education, and English as a New Language.

We also provide detailed information on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for ELLs.

Maintaining Evidence:

To maintain evidence of the required orientation, we use sign-in sheets to record attendance, along with maintaining detailed records of the meetings, including agendas and distributed materials, as per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note: this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

For the Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, and language needs, we will follow this structure:

Meeting Purpose: The focus of this meeting is to individually review the student's progress in language development, discuss their proficiency assessment results (such as NYSESLAT or other relevant assessments), and identify any language development needs across all content areas. This meeting is distinct from the mandatory ELL program orientation and the DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

Agenda: Goals of the Program: We will discuss the overall goals of the ELL program, including fostering bilingualism, biliteracy, and meeting academic standards in both English and the student's home language (for dual language programs).

Language Development Progress: Review the student's progress in English language development based on assessments and classroom performance in listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Assessment Results: Discuss the student's latest NYSESLAT or other language proficiency assessment results, including strengths and areas for improvement.

Language Needs in Content Areas: Identify how the student is performing in key content areas (math, science, social studies, etc.) and discuss how language barriers might be impacting their understanding. Develop strategies or supports to address these needs.

Participants: This meeting will include the parent(s) or guardian(s), the ENL teacher, and potentially a content area teacher if necessary. The goal is to provide a comprehensive overview of the student's progress and needs, with input from multiple perspectives.

Follow-up: After the meeting, we will document the discussed goals and strategies and set up follow-up plans or interventions to ensure ongoing support for the student's language and academic development. Any concerns or additional supports required will be addressed in the follow-up meetings.

This approach allows for focused, individualized discussions on the student's development and ensures alignment between the ELL program's goals and the student's academic success.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

Ensuring Families Receive School Communications in Their Preferred Language

Our school's designated Language Access Coordinator is Derrell Charmaine Jacobs. Derrell Charmaine Jacobs plays a key role in ensuring all families receive communications and support in the language they best understand. The Language Access Coordinator:
- Oversees and coordinates all translation and interpretation services, working closely with the central DOE Language Access office.
- Ensures that all major school documents, notices, and meeting information are translated and distributed in families' home languages.
- Serves as the point of contact for families who need interpretation or additional support, whether for in-person meetings, phone calls, or written correspondence.
- Trains and supports staff on communication best practices and ensures compliance with NYC DOE Language Access policies.
- Maintains records of translated communications and supports, and periodically surveys families to ensure their language needs are met.

By having a dedicated Language Access Coordinator, our school fosters effective, inclusive, and equitable communication with all families, empowering them to participate fully in their children's education.

Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, our school ensures that families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand by utilizing translation services and bilingual staff to translate newsletters, notices, and other important documents. Families can respond or initiate communications in their preferred language through bilingual staff members or by using interpretation services provided by the school.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

Developing Activities to Empower Families of MLs/ELLs

To foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs, we develop activities such as workshops on navigating the education system, parent advocacy training, and cultural celebrations that involve the whole community. We determine the needs of our community through regular surveys, feedback sessions, and direct communication with families, ensuring that the activities and support we provide are relevant and responsive to their specific needs and preferences.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

Our school actively ensures that families of MLs/ELLs are aware of and encouraged to participate in family leadership opportunities such as the Parent Association (PA), and the School Leadership Team (SLT)Information about these opportunities is communicated through newsletters, school website updates, and direct communication during meetings, all of which are available in the families' home languages. We hold information sessions to explain the roles, responsibilities, and benefits of participating in these leadership opportunities, and provide necessary support, such as translation services and flexible meeting times, to facilitate their involvement. By maintaining records of communication efforts and participation, we ensure compliance with NYC DOE policies and continuously improve our family engagement strategies, fostering a collaborative school community.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

Our school has established several culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships that support the diverse needs of our school community. These partnerships provide enrichment opportunities and foster an inclusive environment that values cultural diversity and promotes student engagement.

Community and Enrichment Partnerships
1. Travel con Lola: This program offers students cultural immersion experiences that celebrate and explore different cultures, enhancing their global awareness and appreciation for diversity.

2. Music and Rhythm with Marquis Studio: Through this partnership, students engage in music and rhythm activities that reflect various cultural traditions, helping them connect with their own cultural heritage and learn about others.

3. Percussion with Marquis Studio: This program introduces students to different percussion instruments and rhythms from around the world, fostering an appreciation for global music traditions and enhancing their musical skills.

4. Art with Brooklyn Museum: Our collaboration with the Brooklyn Museum provides students with access to diverse art collections and educational programs, enriching their understanding of cultural history and artistic expression.

5. Puppetry with Marquis Studio: This partnership allows students to explore storytelling and performance through puppetry, incorporating cultural narratives and traditions into their creative projects.

7. City Center and Ailey II: Our partnership with City Center and Ailey II brings professional dance performances and workshops to our school, exposing students to the rich cultural heritage of dance and encouraging their own artistic expression.

These partnerships not only provide enriching experiences for our students but also support their cultural and linguistic development. By collaborating with these organizations, we ensure that our programs are responsive to the diverse backgrounds of our students and foster a more inclusive and engaging learning environment.

- How your school proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs,
- Who is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process, and
- School's plan for ensuring ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated instruction.

At our school, we strictly follow the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for Multilingual Learners/ELLs (2025–2026) for the identification of English Language Learners (ELLs) year-round.
The following structures and processes are in place:
Dedicated ELL Identification Team:
We maintain a designated ELL Identification Team that includes:
The ENL teachers (licensed and trained pedagogues)
The School Secretary (for document intake and ATS updates)
School Administrator (Assistant Principal or Principal) overseeing compliance.
Special Education Staff for students with IEPs (where needed)
Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) and Individual Interviews:
Upon new enrollment, a qualified pedagogue administers the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) in person.
A mandatory individual interview is conducted with the student and family in their preferred language to verify home language use and educational history.
NYSITELL Administration:
Based on HLIS results, students who have a home language other than English are assessed with the New York State Identification Test for English Language Learners (NYSITELL) within 10 school days of enrollment.
If the student has an IEP, the Language Proficiency Team (LPT) convenes to determine NYSITELL eligibility. For IEP students, the timeline extends to 20 school days.
Immediate Parent Notification:
Families receive NYSITELL results and program placement notifications in their preferred language.
The ELL Parent Survey and Program Agreement is completed with families during the orientation.
Program Placement:
Students identified as ELLs are immediately programmed into either Integrated ENL or Stand-Alone ENL services, based on their grade level and English proficiency level.

Spanish-speaking students are additionally assessed with the Spanish LAB to support bilingual programming considerations, if necessary
Data Management:
All identification steps and outcomes are accurately entered into ATS (Automate The Schools) systems by clerical or administrative staff.
Copies of the HLIS, NYSITELL scores, Spanish LAB scores (if applicable), and parent agreements are placed into the student's cumulative record.
Proactive Planning to Avoid Disruption of Mandated Instruction
Our school proactively plans for the identification of new ELLs by:
Maintaining Availability of the ELL Identification Team Year-Round:
Our team is scheduled and available throughout the school year (not only in September) to identify new entrants swiftly.
Separate Staff for Identification vs. Instruction:
To avoid disrupting instruction for current ELLs, we have designated ENL teachers and administrative staff for testing and enrollment tasks separate from ENL instructional responsibilities.
Advanced Preparation of Materials:
Copies of HLIS forms, translated parent letters, NYSITELL testing materials, and Spanish LAB materials are always on-hand to avoid any delay.
Monitoring Enrollment Daily:
New enrollments are checked daily, and students flagged for potential ELL identification are immediately scheduled for assessment.
Support for Students with IEPs:
Special Education and ENL staff collaborate through the Language Proficiency Team (LPT) to ensure that students with IEPs are identified properly without delaying their special education and ENL services.
Roles and Responsibilities for Each Step of the ELL Identification Process
Intake Enrollment -School Secretary
HLIS Administration and Parent/Student Interview -ENL Teacher or Bilingual Pedagogue
NYSITELL Eligibility Review (for students with IEPs) -Language Proficiency Team (LPT)
NYSITELL Test Administration - Licensed ENL Teacher
Spanish LAB Test (if applicable) - Licensed ENL Teacher
ATS Data Entry and Updates- ENL Teacher, School Secretary and Administrator oversight
Parent Notification and Program Agreement Collection- ENL Teacher and Administrator
Placement into ENL or Bilingual Program - ENL Teacher and Administration
Ongoing Monitoring - ENL Teacher and Administrator
Plan for Ensuring Continued Mandated Instruction for Current, Former, and Potential ELLs
Current ELLs:
Continue receiving mandated ENL units of study based on their grade and English proficiency level (per CR Part 154)
Instruction is delivered through Integrated ENL within content areas and/or Stand-Alone ENL classes, depending on needs.
Former ELLs:
Receive at least 90 minutes weekly of Integrated ENL support for two years after exiting services.
Are monitored for academic progress and have access to testing accommodations as entitled.
Incoming Students/Potential ELLs:
Are immediately assessed within 10 school days (or 20 days for students with IEPs).
Are provisionally scheduled into general education classes with supports until the NYSITELL results determine final placement.
Monitoring and Compliance:
The ENL Coordinator maintains tracking spreadsheets of all Current, Former, and Newcomer ELLs to ensure services are never interrupted.
Regular internal audits are conducted to verify that all students receive appropriate services.
In conclusion, the ENL teachers and administration team collaboratively ensure that every newly enrolled student is identified properly, placed swiftly into an ENL program as needed, and that mandated services for both current and former ELLs are provided without interruption throughout the school year, in strict compliance with NYC DOE policy.

Principal Certification

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, I, attest that the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to, and staff are trained on the items listed below.

- The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).
- Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined:
  a. If a student has been in New York State public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.
  b. If a student has been outside of New York State public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL Identification Process as part of reentry.

- The home language of the student is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue.
  a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

- An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.
- Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.
  a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

- Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.
- Notification letters are sent to the parent/guardian in their preferred language.
  a. Parent is notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

- If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish Language Assessment Battery (LAB).
- Student with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources.
- If a student is a newly identified ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.
  a. The parent orientation meeting provides parents/guardians with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents/guardians are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

- ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.
  a. If the bilingual program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that bilingual program in accordance with NYC DOE transfer policies.
  b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a New Language and our school keeps track of parent selection so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

- Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).
- If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.
- Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in the students' cumulative files.

LTI Overview and Part A: Designation of a LAC

Chancellor's Regulation A-663 establishes procedures for ensuring that Limited-English-Proficient (LEP) parents of students enrolled in the New York City public schools are provide with a meaningful opportunity to participate in and have access to programs and services critical to their child's education. To this end, schools must review and complete the annual LTI Plan to address its language assistance needs consistent with the requirements of this regulation.

The LTI Plan requires information on the following:

- Name of person designated as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC).
- Identification and assessment of LEP parent population.
- Identification of Critical Communications and standing, in-person meetings throughout the school year that require language assistance services and how the school plans to respond to these needs.
- Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.
- Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

Methods for the school to solicit and implement feedback on its provision of language assistance services.

Designation of a LAC
Name of person designated and trained as the LAC.
At the start of each school year, each principal is required to designate at least one staff member to serve as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC), responsible for overseeing language assistance services within the school.

We have pre-populated the following information based on our records. Please confirm that the designated staff member(s) are your school's Galaxy-designated LAC(s) and provide the date(s) they attended the OLA Language Access Coordinator Training. Note that this training is in addition to the mandatory asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. If any information is missing, please provide the requested details.

As a reminder, LACs are internal staff designations and are not meant to serve as the primary point of contact for families regarding language access-related matters. The Parent Coordinator, or another designated staff member, should remain the main contact for families regarding all issues, including language access.

If Other was selected, describe the resource here:

To assess the language preferences of the parent community for written and oral communication, data is collected from:

1. Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) Part III: Parents specify their preferred communication language when their child enrolls.

2. Automate The System (ATS) Reports: A data management system that tracks and reports language preferences.

3. School-Conducted Surveys: Periodic surveys gather updated information on parents language preferences for various types of communication.

4. Student emergency contact cards- via Operoo; digital office program, allows parents to indicate the "Parent's Preferred Language of Communication, Written and Oral."

Data from these sources is compiled, cross-referenced, and analyzed to identify trends and ensure accurate and effective communication with parents.

2. We have pre-populated the following information from the Parent's Preferred Language Report (RCPL) in ATS. Part C: Parent Communications and Engagement

Parent Communication and Engagement

Identification of written critical communications and in-person meetings throughout the school year that require language assistance services and how the school plans to respond to these needs.

1. List the documents your school typically distributes each year that require translation, along with your plan for translating these documents.

Document Type (e.g. parent flyers, IEPs, etc.)	How do you plan to implement the translation process? Please include procedures and resources to ensure the timely delivery of translated documents to parents.
Monthly Curriculum Letters (3K- 5th Grade)	Curriculum letters get translated at the beginning of each month by in house bilingual staff. Curriculum letters will be translated at the beginning of each school year and reviewed periodically to accommodate updates.
School Wide Event Announcements	Konstella is our school wide communication tool which serves to translate announcements for events such as open houses, student-led conferences, and school celebrations in specific target languages. Procedures/Resources: Announcements will be translated immediately upon their creation, leveraging in-house bilingual staff for quick turnaround.
Parent Workshop Flyers	Plan to Translate: Translate workshop flyers as soon as they are created, using a combination of in-house bilingual staff and translation tools. Partner CBOs and our Spanish parent committee also assist with translations of meeting and event flyers. Some of our workshop partners provide live translators at specific meetings. Procedures/Resources: Notices and event flyers will be translated into Spanish and posted alongside the English version. A bilingual staff member will oversee the accuracy of translations.

Part D: Staff Awareness

Staff Awareness

Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.

1. Describe how your school will ensure that all staff members complete the required asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform, and are familiar with the Best Practices for When to Provide Translation of Critical Written Communications to Parents and Best Practices for When to Provide Interpretation for Critical Oral Communications with Parents. Additionally, explain how your Galaxy-designated LAC will disseminate future language access resources and updates to all staff members.

Our school ensures staff awareness and compliance with Chancellor's Regulation A-663 through comprehensive training, resource distribution, and continuous support:

1. Staff Training and Awareness:
- Initial Training: Annual training at the start of the school year on the goals and procedures of Regulation A-663.

- Ongoing Professional Development: Additional workshops and refresher courses throughout the year.

2. Designated Language Access Coordinator (LAC):
- Role: The LAC is the primary contact for language access issues and responsible for ensuring compliance.
- Turnkey Training: The LAC will train all staff on language access resources and procedures.

3. Communication and Resources:
- Resource Distribution: Comprehensive language access resource packets provided to all staff.
- Bulletin Board: Dedicated space in the staff room with important language access information.

4. Compliance Audits:
- Periodic Reviews: LAC conducts audits to ensure adherence to Regulation A-663, addressing any issues with further training and support.

These strategies ensure all staff members are informed and equipped to meet language access requirements, promoting an inclusive environment for parents and students.

Part E: Parental Notification

Parental Notification

Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

1. Describe how your school will inform parents about available language assistance services in their preferred language. Include any of the following:

- Translated signage
- Brochures, flyers, or letters shared with parents
- Parent engagement events where language assistance services are highlighted (e.g., PTA meetings, international parents' night, etc.)
- Messaging applications

- Language Access for NYC Public Schools Families brochure

At our school, we are committed to ensuring that limited-English proficient (LEP) parents are fully aware of their right to receive information in their preferred language. Here are the steps we take:

1. Translated Signage

- We have clear, translated signage throughout the school in multiple languages, indicating that parents have the right to request information in their preferred language.

2. Brochures, Flyers, and Letters

- At the beginning of the school year and throughout the year, we distribute brochures, flyers, and letters in various languages. These materials explain parents' rights to language access and how to request translated documents and interpretation services.

3. Parent Engagement Events

- During PTA meetings, International Parent's Night, and other parent engagement events, we explicitly inform parents of their language access rights. We also provide information on how they can request language support services.

4. Messaging Phone Applications

- We utilize messaging phone applications like Konstella to send reminders and notifications in multiple languages. This ensures parents regularly receive updates about their rights to language access and available resources.

5. Parent's Guide to Language Access

- We distribute the Parent's Guide to Language Access, available in multiple languages, which outlines how parents can request information and services in their preferred language.

6. Home Language Survey

- At the time of enrollment, parents complete the Home Language Survey. This helps us identify LEP parents and ensure they receive communication in their preferred language from the start.

7. Pocket Translators

- We provide staff with pocket translators to facilitate immediate communication with LEP parents, ensuring they receive necessary information without delay.

By using these methods, we ensure that all LEP parents are well-informed about their rights to receive information in their preferred language, promoting an inclusive and supportive school environment.

Part F: Monitoring

Monitoring

Methods for soliciting and implementing feedback on language assistance services.

1. In addition to the feedback received from parents via OLA's Translation & Interpretation Feedback Survey, describe the methods your school will use to gather feedback from parents regarding the language assistance services they receive in their preferred language.

1. Mechanisms for Collecting Feedback

At our school, we prioritize gathering feedback from limited-English-proficient (LEP) parents to continually improve our language services. Here's how we ensure their voices are heard:

. Parent-Teacher Conferences (Student-Led Conferences)

- During parent-teacher conferences (SLC), we offer an opportunity for LEP parents to provide feedback on the language services they receive. We ensure bilingual staff or interpreters are present to facilitate these conversations.

Messaging Applications

- Through messaging applications like Konstella, we send out periodic reminders and share the ways for parents to contact staff with questions, to provide information about their child, or to offer feedback in parents' preferred languages. This ensures that parents can easily engage with school staff at their convenience.

Direct Communication

- Our bilingual staff and Language Access Coordinator are available for direct communication. LEP parents can contact them to share their feedback verbally or in writing, in their preferred language.

By using these mechanisms, we ensure that LEP parents can provide valuable feedback on our language services in a comfortable and accessible manner, helping us to continuously enhance the support we offer.

2. How has your school worked to improve its language assistance services? Share any feedback results and outline your plans for further improvements in the upcoming school year.

At our school, we take feedback from limited-English-proficient (LEP) parents seriously and use it to enhance our language services. Here's how we've implemented feedback and our plans for the next school year:

1. Translated Communications

- Based on parent feedback, we have translated curriculum letters and important notifications into the preferred languages of our parents. This includes information about special events, meetings, and other crucial updates.

2. Special Events and Meetings

- We ensure that all information about special events and meetings is translated and communicated in multiple languages, making it accessible to all LEP parents.

3. Pocket Translators for Staff

- All staff members now have access to pocket translators. This improvement was made to facilitate immediate and effective communication with LEP parents, addressing their feedback about the need for better on-the-spot translation.

Feedback Results and Future Plans:

- Feedback Summary: Parents appreciated the translated materials and the availability of bilingual staff. However, they requested more timely translations and better accessibility to interpretation services during impromptu visits.

Future Improvements:

- Enhanced Translation Timeliness: We plan to establish a more efficient process for translating materials quickly to ensure parents receive timely information.

- Increased Interpreter Availability: We will increase the availability of interpreters, particularly during peak times such as parent-teacher conferences and special events.

- Regular Feedback Collection: We will continue to gather feedback regularly to identify areas for ongoing improvement and ensure our language services meet the needs of all LEP parents.

By implementing these feedback-driven improvements, we aim to provide more effective and accessible language services, fostering better communication and engagement with all our parents.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

Title III ELL Summary

Provide a summary of each program funded under Title III ELL for SY 25-26: For each program, describe:

- When the program takes place (i.e., after school, before school, Saturday academy)

- Activities ELLs will engage in and how these activities will enhance instructional opportunities for ELLs
- How ELLs will be grouped for instruction and specify the number of student groups. Include total number of student groups and total number of ELLs in each group, for each program
- How instruction will be delivered (e.g., team teaching, parallel teaching, etc.)
- How the program will be supervised and whether this will be funded by Title III ELL. Please note: If supervision will be funded using Title III ELL funds, you must include the supervisor's regular work day hours and the hours the supervisor will get paid per session.

In the school year 2025-2026, Title III ELL funds will be used as part of the English Saturday Academy focused on developing language modalities for ELLs. Our target population will be ELLs.

The "ENL Saturday Academy" is strategically scheduled for families on Saturday mornings to align with students' existing academic timetables. This program offers a suite of dynamic activities, including interactive language workshops utilizing Lexia English as a core instructional resource, peer tutoring sessions, and cultural exchange activities, all designed to enhance the language abilities of our students, foster a nurturing educational atmosphere, and promote their successful integration within the school's social fabric.

Lexia English will serve as a primary digital learning platform throughout the Saturday Academy sessions. Students will engage with Lexia English for personalized language instruction targeting their specific proficiency levels. The platform will be used for vocabulary development, reading comprehension, listening skills, and speaking practice. Students will work individually on Lexia English modules for approximately 45 minutes per session, followed by collaborative activities where teachers facilitate discussions about the content and skills practiced.

We will group our ELL students for small group instruction of 5-7 students per group for a total of 21 ELL students in the entire program to ensure that our instructors can provide each student the attention necessary for their language development. There will be a maximum of 3 groups of students grouped by grade bands. Group 1 will be K-1, Group 2 will be 2-3, and Group 3 will be 4-5. Each group will consist of ELLs at the entering, emerging, and/or transitioning levels of English Language Proficiency. Within each group, students will be further paired based on their Lexia English diagnostic results to ensure appropriate challenge levels and peer support.

Instruction will be delivered in a stand-alone model by a certified ENL or Dual-Language Teacher. Teachers will use Lexia English data and progress reports to inform their instruction and provide targeted support during face-to-face activities. The expected outcomes include improved English language proficiency across all four domains (listening, speaking, reading, writing), increased student engagement through technology integration, and measurable progress tracked through Lexia English assessments and traditional language proficiency measures.

Oversight of the "ENL Saturday Academy" will be supervised by the Assistant Principal that supervises ENL. This role entails comprehensive curriculum management, the upholding of instructional standards, and communication with the school's administrative bodies. Progress monitoring will be built into the model of this program through both Lexia English analytics and teacher observations. The program will be supervised at cost, per session.

These components collectively address the requisites outlined by our funding entities and educational overseers, illustrating the purposeful application of Title III funds to empower our student community. The Assistant Principal supervising the ENL Saturday Academy will be compensated at a rate of $75.57 @ 12/6 hours with fringe benefits to oversee the program.

Rationale for Title III ELL Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III ELL funded program. For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

Qualitative Analysis: Interviews with teachers and feedback from ELL families have revealed that students are facing challenges in language acquisition, which impacts their academic performance and integration into the school community.

Quantitative Analysis: School data indicates that a significant majority of ELL students are performing below grade level in reading and writing English. Most students are at the entering level as indicated on the NYSEITEL. Additionally, our district has seen an increase in the enrollment of ELL students over the past years, indicating a growing need for specialized language support programs.The rationale for the "New Beginnings Language Initiative" is supported by academic performance records showing English proficiency levels, enrollment statistics demonstrating the increase in ELL student population, surveys from ELL families expressing the need for additional language support, local community demographic studies forecasting continued growth in ELL populations, and research linking English proficiency to academic success and social integration.

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

For each Title III ELL funded program, describe the students that will be served. Include:

- Total number of ELLs for each program,
- Grade levels for ELLs in program, and
- ELL Subgroups (e.g., Newcomer) and/or proficiency levels (e.g., Entering, Emerging, etc.).

We will have 1 Saturday Program with a total number of 21 students. This number ensures that we can provide high-quality, focused instruction and support to each student while maintaining manageable class sizes for effective learning experiences. There will be 3 groups of 5-7 students in each group. Group 1 will be K-1. Group 2 will be 2-3. Group 3 will be 4-5. Each group will consist of ELLs at the entering emerging, and/or transitioning levels of English Language Proficiency.

Instruction will be delivered in a stand-alone model by a certified ENL or Dual-Language Teacher. This range encompasses the foundational years of education where support for language acquisition can be particularly impactful, setting the stage for future academic success.

Subgroup of ELLs included in these programs: Within our population of English Language Learners (ELLs), we cater to various proficiency levels. These subgroups will include the following:

Entering: Students who are new to English and are in the initial stages of language acquisition.

Emerging: Students who have developed a basic level of English and can understand and use simple phrases.

Transitioning: Students who can understand and speak English with some fluency and are developing reading and writing skills.

Schedule and Duration

For each Title III ELL funded program, include:

- Start and end dates/months,
- Total number of sessions,
- Days of the week the program will be offered, and
- Time and duration of sessions.

The program will commence on January 3, 2026, and run for 12 weeks of sessions until April 25, 2026. These dates are chosen to align with the academic calendar, allowing students to settle into their regular school routine before starting the program and completing it before the end of the semester.

The program consists of 12 sessions, each 3 hours long, for 3 teachers. Teachers will be paid for 3 hours per session for each of the 12 sessions.

This number of sessions is designed to provide substantial instructional time while also fitting within a manageable timeframe for both students and educators.

The supervisor will be present for 3 hours on each of the 12 Saturdays. (6hrs for planning and teacher meetings)

Teacher allocation: 12 sessions x 3 hours x 3 teachers x $73.07 (teacher rate with fringe) = $7,891.56 for teachers.

Supervisor allocation: 12 sessions x 3 hours x $75.57 (supervisor rate with fringe) = $2,720.52 for supervisors.

Language of Instruction

For each Title III ELL funded program, include language of instruction and how home language support is provided.

For each Title III ELL funded program, include language of instruction:
Primary Language of Instruction: English. As these programs are designed to support English Language Learners (ELLs), English will be used as the primary medium of instruction. This will facilitate immersion in the language, which is essential for effective language acquisition and proficiency.

Supportive Language Use: Depending on the linguistic backgrounds of the students, supplementary materials may be provided in students' native languages to aid comprehension and support their transition to English proficiency. However, the main focus will be to strengthen English language skills, as this is the primary goal of Title III programs.

The instructional strategies will include visual aids, bilingual resources, and context-rich environments to ensure that all students, regardless of their current level of English proficiency, can access the curriculum and participate fully in the learning process.

Lexia English will be a key instructional tool used during both Saturday Academy and regular ENL instruction. This adaptive language learning program supports English learners in developing academic English proficiency through engaging, personalized activities.

During Saturday Academy, students will use Lexia English to reinforce language skills in a small-group setting. While students work independently on the platform, teachers will provide targeted support, monitor progress, and facilitate extension activities aligned with students' learning goals.

In regular ENL instruction, Lexia English will be integrated into the literacy block to differentiate instruction and provide additional practice in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Teachers will use Lexia's data reports to inform instruction and tailor support to individual student needs.

Funding: Lexia English licenses and related instructional support will be funded by Title III ELL funds ($2,130.67), and a stipend will be use to cover the remining balance in alignment with program goals and allowable expenses.

In the school year of 2025–2026, our school will offer multiple parent events for all families, including those of English Language Learners (ELLs), to strengthen the home-school partnership and support student achievement. These activities are designed to promote cultural awareness, literacy development, and active family involvement in students' academic growth.

These events will serve as platforms for cultural celebration and mutual understanding. Families will be invited to share their traditions and learn about others through interactive showcases.

Highlights include:
Hispanic Heritage Month
Black History Month
Asian American & Pacific Islander Heritage Month
Winter Holidays Around the World

On the first Friday of each month, we will host a themed cultural exchange event, followed by a related literacy activity to promote reading and language development across home languages. Families may participate by reading books, sharing stories, and leading hands-on cultural activities in the classroom.

End-of-Year Celebration
To conclude the academic year, we will host a multilingual end-of-year celebration recognizing students' achievements in English language development, bilingualism, and academic progress. Families will be invited to celebrate with awards, student performances, and community-building activities.

Set learning goals
Learn practical strategies to support learning at home

These sessions will be scheduled at consistent, predictable times to encourage regular participation and build trust between families and educators.

No cost to Title III funding

By offering these engagement opportunities at no cost to families and scheduling them consistently, we aim to maximize participation and build strong, lasting partnerships between our school and the families we serve. In the school year of 2025-2026, our school will offer multiple parent events for all families, including those of English Language Learners (ELLs), to strengthen home school partnership and support student achievement.

Rationale for Family Engagement Activities

Describe the rationale for the family engagement activities to be provided: For each activity, include:

They are intended to foster an inclusive educational environment that values the contributions of all cultures and supports family involvement in students' academic lives. The timing of these activities, such as the read-aloud events on the first Friday of each month, is chosen based on data suggesting that families are more likely to participate in school-related activities at the end of the week, which can often serve as a bridge to community-building on the weekends. Data sources include PTO request and in-house parent surveys.
Various community providers will be utilized (TBD). Invitations, Agenda and Sign in sheets are maintained as part of Parent Coordinator logs in the Parent Coordinator's office.

This program offers a suite of dynamic activities, including interactive language In the workshops, peer tutoring sessions, and cultural exchange activities, all designed to enhance the language abilities of our students, foster a nurturing educational atmosphere, and promote their successful integration within the school's social fabric.

We will group our Immigrant students for small group instruction of 5-7 students per group for a total of 20

Rationale for Title III Immigrant Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III Immigrant funded program:

For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

Qualitative Analysis: Interviews with teachers and feedback from immigrant families have revealed that students are facing challenges in language acquisition, which impacts their academic performance and integration into the school community.

Quantitative Analysis: School data indicates that 100% of immigrant students are performing below grade level in reading and writing English. Most students are at the entering level as indicated on the NYSEITEL. Additionally, our district has seen an increase in the enrollment of immigrant students over the past years, indicating a growing need for specialized language support programs.

The rationale for the "New Beginnings Language Initiative" is supported by the following data sources: Academic performance records showing English proficiency levels of immigrant students. Enrollment statistics demonstrating the increase in immigrant student population. Surveys conducted among immigrant families expressing the need for additional language support. Local community demographic studies forecasting continued growth in immigrant populations. Research studies linking English proficiency with academic success and social integration.

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

For each Title III Immigrant funded program, describe the students that will be served:

Include:

- Total number of students for each program,
- Grade levels for students in program, and
- If ELLs are also included in these programs, (e.g., Newcomer).

We will have 1 Saturday Program with a total number of 20 students. This number ensures that we can provide high-quality, focused instruction and support to each student while maintaining manageable class sizes for effective learning experiences. There will be 3 groups of 5-7 students in each group. Each group will consist of immigrant students, with newcomer ELLs as the focus subgroup.

Instruction will be delivered in a stand-alone model by a certified ENL or Dual-Language Teacher. This range encompasses the foundational years of education where support for language acquisition can be particularly impactful, setting the stage for future academic success.

Schedule and Duration

For each Title III Immigrant funded program, include:

- Start and end dates/months,
- Total number of sessions,
- Days of the week the program will be offered, and
- Time and duration of sessions.

The program will commence in January 2026, and run in 14 weeks of sessions until April 2025. These dates are chosen to align with the academic calendar, allowing students to settle into their regular school routine before starting the program and completing it before the end of the semester.

This number of sessions is designed to provide substantial instructional time while also fitting within a manageable timeframe for both students and educators.

The program will be held on Saturdays from 9am - 12 pm for 4 sessions.

The supervisor will be present for 4 hours on each of the 4 Saturdays.

Language of Instruction

For each Title III Immigrant funded program, include language of instruction and how home language support is provided:

Primary Language of Instruction: English. As these programs are designed to support immigrant students, English will be used as the primary medium of instruction. This will facilitate immersion in the language, which is essential for effective language acquisition and proficiency.

Supportive Language Use: Depending on the linguistic backgrounds of the students, supplementary materials may be provided in students' native languages to aid comprehension and support their transition to English proficiency. However, the main focus will be to strengthen English language skills, as this is the primary goal of Title III programs.

The instructional strategies will include visual aids, bilingual resources, and context-rich environments to ensure that all students, regardless of their current level of English proficiency, can access the curriculum and participate fully in the learning process.

Number and Types of Certified Teachers

For each Title III Immigrant funded program, include number and type(s) of certified teachers.

There will be 3 certified teachers - 1 ENL and 2 Common Branch with Bilingual Extension

Resources such as bilingual dictionaries, ENL practice journals, and interactive language games provide differentiated instruction that addresses varying proficiency levels. These materials promote vocabulary acquisition, phonemic awareness, and interactive learning, while NYSESLAT preparation books ensure alignment with state standards. All resources directly support Title III Immigrant program goals by enhancing language skills and cultural integration, ensuring students can access grade-level content effectively.
