Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

At P.S. 132 we believe that creativity must be sparked and fervor for learning must be instilled. We are a school community that embraces change, especially when it can benefit our students. Through authentic literature, not only is a true love of literacy fostered, but meeting the individual needs of our students is paramount. We embrace a hands-on approach to mathematics. Students develop a conceptual understanding of key mathematical concepts within real world context. Our teachers have created safe classrooms in which students engage in rich conversations around all content areas. We believe students learn best when they are provided with activities that are aligned to their ability level. Through teachers' strategic use of intentional groupings, students will develop the ability to learn with one another, independent of direct teaching, through differentiated small group activities with their peers. These multiple entry points will provide access for all learners.
Additionally, we have embraced Reciprocal Teaching as a strategy to increase fluency and vocabulary in all subject areas. We are aware of the importance of the use of technology in today's society. Technology is incorporated in all subject areas, providing learners with various opportunities to discover its many different purposes. All classrooms have Smart Boards in their classrooms to encourage student engagement and interactive learning. The students of P.S. 132 become aware of our community and the world around us as they engage in community service in grades Pre-Kindergarten – Fifth. We believe learning is both meaningful and enjoyable when it is applied to the world in which we live. At P.S. 132, we embrace the opportunity to develop the gifts and talents of all students by providing enrichment opportunities. We provide our students with performing arts residencies and employ a full time Music teacher. We partner with the Salvadori Center to immerse our students in a rich architecture and design program. The implementation of the School wide Enrichment Model, has empowered students to participate in clusters based upon their interests. These clusters are focused on the rich cultural diversity of our school community. We continue to instill the importance of being active and responsible members of our community through rich give back opportunities, through our Service Learning Cluster Program. We hope our students will learn that giving is a lifelong skill connected to happiness. We believe all we do with our students will continue to expose them to the many possibilities and careers of the 21st Century. It is our hope that P.S. 132 becomes a child's home away from home. When you walk through the doors of P.S. 132, we know you will be able to feel its soul and hear its passionate heartbeat.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

P.S. 132 is located in District 14 in Williamsburg, Brooklyn. Our Pre-Kindergarten-Grade 5 elementary school is comprised of a variety of ethnicities & backgrounds. The demographics of the school consist of the following; Asian: 8%, Black: 13%, Hispanic or Latinx: 32% Native American: 1%, Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander: 0%, White: 43%, English language learners: 6%,
Students with disabilities: 14%. Our staff demographics consist of the following ethnicities; Asian: N/A (fewer than 5 teachers)
Black: N/A (fewer than 5 teachers) Hispanic or Latinx: 11% Native American: 0% Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander: 0% and White: 85%. In an effort to hire more Black & Brown teachers, the principal nominated 6 staff members for the Ed Prep NYC, Building a Teacher Pipeline for Our Borough. The staff members nominated have been accepted to the Ed Prep NYC, Building a Teacher Pipeline for our Borough Program and are currently working toward becoming teachers by the Fall. We were fortunate enough to hire two of the Ed Prep students as a Gifted & Talented Teacher and a Special Education. To further ensure our curriculum is culturally responsive and relevant to our student population, P.S. 132 was selected to engage in a CRSE Pilot, including the NYU Metro Tech Score Card. The ILF & Equity team engaged in a PD conducted by NYU Metro Center/CRSE Steam Curriculum Score Card. The team met weekly with a coach to examine current Into Reading curriculum. Thanks to this opportunity, the entire staff is engaging in a Professional Learning Community focusing on the Scorecard, as they analyze the current Literacy curriculum. Throughout the school year, we have formed the following partnerships to further support our diverse families, including LGBTQ+ families; PFLAG, Ackerman Institute, GLSEN & The Center for Racial Justice. The staff has engaged in professional learning with each of the institutions and PFLAG & Ackerman Institute have provided our families with a workshop. It is our hope we can fund the Center for Racial Justice Parent Workshop in the Fall. Throughout the school year, our school community engages in cultural units of study and celebrations, which are planned and organized by staff members who volunteer their time to lead this work, along with parent collaboration. Last year our school celebrated Hispanic
Heritage Month, Native American Heritage Month, Black History Month, Black Lives Matter at School, Women's

History Month, Asian American Pacific Islander Heritage Month, Solidarity Week, World Kindness Day, Lunar New Year, Martin Luther King Jr. Day &
lastly Pride Month. We will continue to infuse these units of study into our curriculum this year, as it is our hope the work is organic and meaningful. In addition to these units of study and celebrations, we launched the following clubs in our school this year to support our diverse student populations & elevate and amplify student voice; LGBTQ+ Alliance, My Brother's Keeper, My Sister's Keeper, Student Advisory Committee & the Debate Club.

Briefly summarize the key initiatives your school will implement this school year.

We plan on implementing the Child Mind Institute Program in all grades to further support Social Emotional Learning in our school, as well as support the Mental Health of the students & staff. We will continue to implement Reciprocal Teaching in Mathematics & Reading, to amplify student voice and raise the level of student conversations around content. We will continue to integrate Cultural Units of Study into all curriculum throughout the school year. In an effort to raise parent engagement, we will continue to implement Classroom Partners. Families are asked to work collaboratively with the administration to act as a liaison between the administration and the families in each class. We will continue to implement Civics For All: SOAP BOX in Grades 4 & 5 to amplify student voice around social issues. The Debate Team will continue to represent the school in district tournaments and the American Debate League. Performing Arts will continue to be at the forefront with our Black Culture Performance and Spring Show.

What are the primary digital and/or print curricula/programs used for ELA and Math:

Indicate the content area, grade band and any adaptations made.

Content Area (Indicate ELA and Math Only)	Grade Band	Digital and/or Print Curricula/Program	Adaptations

Section 5: Priority 1 – All students learn to read well

Priority 1 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
NYC Screener - IReady EOY 66% of students are proficient in ELA	Are the assessments being administered, culturally responsive and relevant to our population. Do all students have access to standard based tasks on a daily basis.	70% of all students need to be proficient in ELA.

Priority 1

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for literacy outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Literacy

- Implement the strategies outlined in NYC Reads, including foundational phonics curriculum for grades K-2
- Implement dyslexia screening, professional learning, and program pilots (as applicable)
- Support literacy development through the integration of culturally responsive-sustaining texts and content

Priority 1 SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
All Students	66	By June, 2026, literacy for All Students will improve, as measured by a 4% Increase, from 66% to 70%, of percentage of students scoring at or above proficiency on the IReady Academic Screener.

Priority 1 Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Identify what your school would expect to see at the end of each period to know if you are on track to reach the identified goal(s). The progress monitoring targets can be a percentage or a number and should reflect a sufficient improvement in outcomes to meet the goal. Priority 5 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
NYC School Survey 2024-2025	4% of the families do not feel their child's culture, ethnicity and background are valued.	96% of our families feel their child's culture, ethnicity and background are valued at school.

NYC School Survey 2024-2025	2% of the families do not feel their child does not belong at the school.	98% of the families feel their child belongs to the school community.
NYC School Survey 2024-2025	The content presented during the family meetings were not relevant to to Black & Hispanic Families.	Increased parent involvement for our Black and Hispanic Families.

Priority 5

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing the school data, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for parent, family, community and system responsiveness outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Focus Areas for System Responsiveness to Parents, Families and Communities

- Engage more deeply with families to understand their needs and plan new, high-quality programs
- Build community trust and bolster engagement, including via improved language access and increased family engagement and participation
- Implement the newly updated NYCPS School Wellness Policy, which provides a framework for all members of the school community, including families and students, to come together and assess and coordinate wellness efforts for their community
- Implement and lead strategies that support community involvement and increase Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (MWBE) utilization

Priority 5 SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
Parents of Hispanic Students	20%	By June 2025, Parent Engagement specifically targeting Hispanic families, will increase 50% from 20% to 70%, as measured by a family survey and attendance taken at the school wide events.

Priority 5 Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Identify what your school would expect to see at the end of each period to know if you are on track to reach the identified goal(s). Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

?? Step 1: Identify & Track
Actions:
Improve Data Collection:

Work with district liaisons to ensure all students in temporary housing are identified accurately (via McKinney-Vento Act criteria).

Use attendance software to flag students missing 10% or more of school days.

Create Attendance Dashboards:

Disaggregate data by housing status, grade level, and reason for absence.

Timeline:
Start of school year, updated monthly.

?? Step 2: Build Trust & Relationships
Actions:
Assign a Consistent Staff Contact:

Designate a school social worker, counselor, or McKinney-Vento liaison to each family.

Home Visits or Phone Check-ins:

Conduct regular outreach to build relationships and understand barriers (transportation, safety, illness, etc.).

Welcome Meetings:

Host a beginning-of-year “Welcome Session” for families in temporary housing to connect them to school resources.

Timeline:
Ongoing, with more frequent contact for students with high absences.

?? Step 3: Reduce Logistical Barriers
Actions:
Transportation Support:

Ensure all eligible students have access to free and reliable transportation via district or McKinney-Vento services.

Flexible Scheduling:

Allow staggered start times or partial-day attendance as an interim measure.

Uniforms & School Supplies:

Provide access to basic needs through school or partner donations.

Timeline:
As soon as student is identified as living in temporary housing.

?? Step 4: Provide Social-Emotional & Academic Support
Actions:
Morning Meet & Greet:

Offer a welcoming space in the morning (with breakfast/snack and SEL support) for arriving students.

Trauma-Informed Practices:

Train staff in trauma-sensitive classroom strategies to support students facing housing instability.

Tutoring & Homework Help:

Offer after-school or in-shelter academic support to prevent falling behind.

Timeline:
Implement by end of first month of school.

?? Step 5: Partner with Community Organizations
Actions:
Coordinate with Shelters & Housing Agencies:

Share attendance expectations and coordinate logistics like transportation and wake-up calls.

Legal & Health Services Referrals:

Connect families to legal aid, medical care, and mental health support.

Weekend Food & Hygiene Kits:

Distribute through school pantry or nonprofit partners.

Timeline:

Quarterly check-ins with partners, support provided as needed.

?? Step 6: Celebrate and Reinforce Attendance
Actions:
Positive Reinforcement Programs:

Offer weekly recognition (stickers, certificates) for improved or perfect attendance.

Student Attendance Champions:

Empower peers or staff to mentor students struggling with absences.

Family Recognition:

Celebrate family efforts with phone calls, newsletters, or events.

Timeline:
Weekly or monthly depending on resources.

?? Step 7: Monitor Progress & Adjust
Actions:
Monthly Attendance Review Meetings:

School staff meets to review data, discuss high-absence students, and adjust plans.

Feedback from Families:

Conduct brief surveys or interviews to understand what's helping and what needs to change.

Report Progress to Stakeholders:

Share outcomes with school leadership, district liaisons, and community partners.

? Success Indicators
25% reduction in chronic absenteeism rates among students in temporary housing.

Improved family engagement metrics.

Increased daily attendance rates.

Positive feedback from students and families.

Root Cause Addressed:

In March 2025, 8 students in Temporary Housing had attendance below 80%. After conducting empathy interviews, we learned these students were having transportation problems due to the location of the housing they were placed in.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
The administration will share the Attendance Policy with the parents/students in the Fall.
The Success Mentors will contact families of the students with poor attendance to conduct empathy interviews.
Track students attendance daily using working class lists, attendance binders, phone logs for absent students and the ATS Attendance Sheets.
A diverse team for outreach has been established to reach out to families of students who are chronically absent. Daily outreach will take place to learn what the families needs are and to provide targeted support.
Through the Every Student Every Day Citywide Initiative, a success mentor has been matched to each chronically absent child.
Classroom teachers will track student attendance daily using working class lists, attendance binder and phone logs for absent students.
The Attendance Outreach team will contact families of the students with Chronic Absenteeism to offer support and assistance.
The guidance counselor will offer at risk counseling for students who are struggling with Chronic Absenteeism.
Lubucks will be distributed to each class when they have 100% attendance. After 5 days of receiving Lubucks, the students can spin the wheel to win a prize.

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Root Cause Addressed:

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

1. Define the Problem Clearly
Chronic Absenteeism Definition: Typically defined as missing 10% or more of the school year for any reason (excused or unexcused).

Baseline Data: Review attendance data for the past year or two to identify:

Total number of chronically absent students

Grade-level trends

Subgroup disparities (ELL, SPED, low-income, etc.)

2. Set Clear, Measurable Goals
Examples:

Reduce chronic absenteeism by 25% by the end of the school year.

Improve attendance rate to 95% among identified at-risk students.

3. Develop Tiered Interventions
Use a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS):

Tier 1 (Universal Supports):

Daily attendance incentives (e.g., class-wide rewards)

Parent communication/education campaigns

School climate initiatives

Tier 2 (Targeted Supports):

Attendance contracts with students/parents

Small group check-ins (mentoring or counseling)

Personalized reminders or transportation support

Tier 3 (Intensive Supports):

Individualized case management

Involvement of social workers or attendance officers

Home visits or referral to community agencies

4. Monitor Data Frequently
Weekly or Biweekly Review:

Attendance tracker (e.g., spreadsheets, SIS reports)

Flags for students approaching chronic status (e.g., 5% absence)

Identify patterns (days of the week, illness, transportation issues)

Data Points to Track:

Total absences and types (excused/unexcused)

% attendance per student

Tier level and interventions assigned

Progress toward individual goals

5. Use Data to Inform Decision-Making
Data Team Meetings (monthly):

Review students not making progress

Adjust interventions (more intensive or different approach)

Celebrate improvements

6. Communicate Progress
To Families: Regular attendance reports, personalized messages, success stories

To Staff: Share data trends during staff meetings, recognize effective strategies

To Students: Positive reinforcement, attendance charts, praise

7. Evaluate & Adjust
At the end of each quarter/semester:

Analyze progress toward school-wide goals

Evaluate the effectiveness of interventions

Identify systemic barriers (transportation, health, etc.)

Revise strategies and reallocate resources if needed

Modes of Assessment:

Direct observation

Student self-assessment

Teacher anecdotal records

Work samples and portfolios

C. Data Analysis

Track individual student growth over time (e.g., rate of improvement).

Compare to benchmarks and peer progress.

Use visual aids like graphs and progress charts to support interpretation.

3. Inclusive Practices in Progress Monitoring
Disaggregated Data: Analyze by disability type, race/ethnicity, language, etc., to detect equity gaps.

Accessible Assessments: Provide accommodations such as extended time, scribing, assistive technology, or alternate formats.

Culturally Responsive Monitoring: Ensure tools and methods are appropriate across diverse backgrounds.

4. Data-Driven Instructional Adjustments

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Family and Community Engagement

Family and Community Engagement

Directions: Indicate the multi-tiered supports (strategies & activities) that will be implemented to support and engage families (including foster parents, birth parents, and families with limited English proficiency) and plans for community collaboration in the implementation of this action plan, surrounding the four priority needs. Include:

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Budget and Resources

Budget and Resources

Directions: Indicate available and anticipated resources that will be leveraged to achieve this annual goal and implement this action plan, including human resources, instructional resources (e.g., curricula, programs), schedule adjustments, other. Use N/A if not applicable and/or indicate other resource needs.

Schools are encouraged to think critically and strategically when considering resources that can support progress towards CEP goals for students with IEPs. This includes utilizing Title I funding for at-risk speech and/or counseling services, all-staff training in supporting students with autism, sensory materials, summer institute geared at the development of executive functioning skills, and/or inclusion coaching support. Schools may also consider utilizing Title II funds to reduce the ratio of students with IEPs to typically developing peers in ICT classes.

Human Resources:

The SBST team will be accessible for SIT Team meetings. The special education liaison will organize and facilitate the SIT Team meetings, as well as the IEP analysis. The ENL Teachers will work collaboratively with the SBST team to assess any ENL students who are referred to special education.,

Instructional Resources

Intervention programs, such as Wilson Fundations and Wilson Reading Systems, and SPIRE and Sound Sensible will be provided and utilized for RTI.

Schedule Adjustments

SIT Team meetings will take place monthly and will need to be scheduled by the Special Education Liaison.

Other Resources Needed

Funds to pay for the intervention teachers and programs.

Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and

Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Directions: Complete the chart and identify Tier 2 or 3 MTSS Academic supports. Any Tier 2/3 interventions should be in addition to the foundational work being done at Tier 1.

Family and Community Engagement Around MTSS

Describe how the school's essential components of MTSS are shared with families.

1. Parent Meetings and Conferences
MTSS is often explained during parent-teacher conferences, especially when discussing academic or behavioral concerns.

Schools may host informational sessions or workshops to introduce MTSS and how it supports student learning and behavior.

2. Written Communication
Schools may send home brochures, newsletters, or flyers explaining the tiers of support, how students are identified for interventions, and what services are provided.

MTSS information will be included in student communication and school websites.

3. Tier-Specific Communication
When a child begins receiving Tier 2 or Tier 3 supports, families are usually notified directly and involved in planning.

Schools may provide progress monitoring data regularly and explain how interventions are adjusted based on student response.

4. Collaborative Decision-Making
Families are often invited to participate in problem-solving teams or intervention planning meetings, especially for students receiving intensive supports.

This collaboration helps ensure interventions are aligned with family insights and home experiences.

5. Use of Clear, Family-Friendly Language
To promote understanding, schools avoid jargon and explain MTSS terms (e.g., Tier 1, data-based decision-making) in simple, practical language.

By using these methods, elementary schools aim to build trust, ensure transparency, and actively engage families in the MTSS process to support each child's success. Let me know if you'd like this information formatted for a presentation, newsletter, or policy document.

Describe how families receive updates on the progress of their child(ren) who receive Tier 2 targeted, or Tier 3 intensive interventions.

Elementary school families of students receiving Tier 2 (targeted) or Tier 3 (intensive) interventions typically receive updates on their child's progress through multiple communication methods designed to keep them informed and engaged. These updates may include:

1. Progress Monitoring Reports
Families receive regular progress monitoring reports, often biweekly or monthly, that detail their child's performance data compared to expected benchmarks.

These reports show trends, growth rates, and areas of improvement or continued need, often using graphs or charts.

2. Parent-Teacher Conferences
Teachers and interventionists schedule parent-teacher conferences—sometimes more frequently than the general school population—to discuss the child's academic and behavioral progress.

These meetings may include explanations of the intervention strategies being used and how families can support at home.

3. Phone Calls and Emails
Staff may contact parents via phone or email to share updates, especially if there are significant changes—positive or concerning—in the child's response to intervention.

4. Written Communication (e.g., Letters, Notes)
Teachers or interventionists may send home written notes or letters summarizing intervention activities, goals, and progress.

5. Student Support Team (SST) or MTSS Meetings
Families may be invited to Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) or Student Support Team meetings, where data is reviewed, goals are set, and interventions are adjusted collaboratively.

6. Online Portals
Some schools use student data management systems or apps (e.g., ClassDojo, PowerSchool, or Seesaw) where parents can view progress updates, assignments, and teacher feedback in real time.

7. Individualized Learning Plans (ILPs) or Intervention Plans
If applicable, families may receive a copy of or be involved in reviewing and revising individualized intervention plans, which outline goals, strategies, and progress metrics.

Schools strive to maintain ongoing, transparent, and collaborative communication with families to ensure interventions are effective and aligned with each student's needs.

Describe how families are involved during decision making regarding the progress of students receiving Tier 3 intensive intervention.

In elementary schools, families play a critical role in decision-making regarding the progress of students receiving Tier 3 intensive interventions within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) or Response to Intervention (RTI) framework. Their involvement is structured, ongoing, and collaborative, typically including the following key elements:

1. Initial Communication and Consent
Informed Consent: Families are notified and their consent is often required before a child begins Tier 3 interventions, especially if the support involves special education evaluation or services.

Explanation of the Process: Educators explain the nature, purpose, and intensity of Tier 3 interventions, including how progress will be monitored.

2. Collaborative Planning Meetings
Problem-Solving Teams (e.g., Student Support Team, IEP Team): Families are invited to participate in meetings with educators and specialists where intervention plans are developed and reviewed.

Sharing Observations: Families provide input about the child's behavior, strengths, and challenges at home, which helps shape personalized interventions.

3. Regular Progress Monitoring and Updates
Frequent Communication: Schools maintain regular contact with families through phone calls, emails, meetings, and progress reports (weekly or bi-weekly).

Data Sharing: Families are shown progress monitoring data, charts, or assessments to help them understand how their child is responding to the interventions.

4. Decision-Making Based on Data
Adjusting Interventions: Based on progress data, the team (including families) discusses whether to continue, intensify, modify, or fade the intervention.

Considering Evaluation for Special Education: If progress is insufficient despite intensive support, families are involved in decisions about referring the child for special education evaluation.

5. Empowerment and Advocacy
Parent Training and Support: Some schools offer training or resources to help parents understand intervention strategies and support learning at home.

Respecting Family Voice: Families are treated as equal partners, and their concerns and goals are incorporated into decisions.

Summary:
Elementary schools involve families in Tier 3 decision-making through transparent communication, collaborative meetings, regular progress updates, and shared decision-making grounded in data. This partnership ensures that interventions are tailored and responsive to the whole child's needs, both at school and at home.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

Number of students in temporary housing who are:

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:
- Living in a hotel/motel:
- Other

*Note: In keeping with established practices regarding personally identifiable information, use the letter "s" to identify a number less than five (5).

8

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

1. Demographic Trends
Findings:

Overrepresentation of students of color, particularly Black and Latino students.

High percentage of English Language Learners (ELLs) and students with disabilities within the STH population.

Younger students (Pre-K–5) are more likely to be in temporary housing than high school students.

Implications:

Services should be culturally and linguistically responsive.

Increase bilingual social work and counseling staff.

Ensure early childhood programs are accessible and trauma-informed to support young learners experiencing instability.

2. Attendance Trends
Findings:

Chronic absenteeism is significantly higher among STH students.

Attendance drops further during cold weather months, holidays, and during shelter transitions.

Students in doubled-up living situations (living with others due to loss of housing) show slightly better attendance than those in shelters.

Implications:

Implement early-warning systems to flag attendance dips.

Provide transportation support, including transit passes and coordination with shelters.

Collaborate with family assistants or liaisons to reduce barriers to regular school attendance.

3. Academic Achievement Trends
Findings:

STH students tend to underperform on standardized assessments in math and ELA.

There is a lag in literacy development for younger STH students.

High school STH students show lower graduation and credit accumulation rates.

Implications:

Increase tutoring and academic intervention programs focused on foundational literacy and numeracy.

Provide extended learning opportunities (after-school, summer programs) with academic and social-emotional components.

Assign academic mentors or case managers to monitor progress and support credit accumulation in high school.

4. Stability and Mobility Trends
Findings:

High mobility rates correlate with disrupted learning and weaker peer/teacher relationships.

Multiple school transfers within a year are common.

Implications:

Implement school stability policies that allow students to remain in their original school when feasible.

Use centralized student records and robust intake procedures to ensure continuity of services during transitions.

5. Social-Emotional and Behavioral Trends
Findings:

Increased reports of trauma-related behaviors and emotional distress.

Students often experience isolation or stigma related to their housing status.

Implications:

Expand access to school-based mental health services.

Train staff in trauma-informed practices.

Create inclusive environments that de-stigmatize homelessness through awareness campaigns and staff PD.

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

Through communication with families, specifically empathy interviews, we ensure both the student and the family have whatever they need to be successful in school. We provide students with school supplies, as needed, backpacks, a metro card to get to and from school, and any other items they may need. Additionally, we will provide the students with items such as clothing, winter jackets, gloves, winter boots etc. Our teachers conduct family check ins at various times throughout the school year to check in with our families. The teachers inquire if they need anything during that time and we will either use the title 1 set aside for STH population or have a community fundraiser to acquire the items we need for the families. We will also provide at risk counseling services if the child is in need by either our guidance counselor or social worker

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

How many students in foster care are currently enrolled at your school? Provide a detailed breakdown of the social-emotional and academic supports available to them.

There are no students in foster care at this time.

What targeted supports are in place for students in foster care, including those newly transitioning into the foster care system? How does your school ensure these students receive the necessary interventions to promote stability and success?

N/A

After analyzing historical demographic, attendance, and achievement data for students in foster care, what trends have emerged? How can these insights be used to improve the services and support provided to this population?

N/A

What specific strategies does your school implement to ensure students in foster care, particularly those in transitional grades, receive targeted Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) support? How do these strategies help address academic and behavioral challenges?

N/A

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the school community. [School Name], in compliance with Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is responsible for creating and implementing a parent and family engagement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. The school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), and Title I Parent Advisory Council as trained volunteers and welcomed members of the school community.

Support for Parents and Family Members of Title I Students

P.S. 132 will support parents and family members of Title I students by:
- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional learning opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of the school community;

Parental Involvement and School Quality

The school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (ML/ELL), and students with disabilities. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, the school will:
- actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage all parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I, 1% set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to the school to supplement parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent and family engagement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional learning, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend the school and will work to ensure that the school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;

Language Allocation Policy Outline

Language Allocation Policy Outline

2025-26 Language Allocation Policy (LAP)

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents. When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

For Stand-Alone Instruction, students are grouped according to grade level as well as NYSESLAT or NYSITELL scores. Students who tested at the Entering and Emerging levels in grades K-5 receive Stand Alone instruction in a separate location for 180 minutes. This works out to 4 periods of 45 minute instruction per week. The ESL Teachers provide stand alone instruction.

Stand-Alone ENL groups are carefully formed to address the individual needs of each student, supporting them in developing language skills effectively. Kindergarteners, for instance, may be grouped based on foundational skills like letter recognition and sound differentiation, or speaking skills to encourage early language use in a supportive setting. For students in other grades, instructional grouping considers the four core language modalities: speaking, reading, listening, and writing.

Groups are often created for students needing focused support in a specific area, such as writing or reading comprehension, allowing for targeted instruction tailored to skill gaps. Home language is also an important factor, as grouping students with a shared home language can foster a sense of community, make instruction more accessible, and support cross-language transfer skills. This approach ensures that each group has a supportive and linguistically appropriate environment, facilitating both language acquisition and confidence-building for students at every level.

Integrated ENL:

Integrated ENL instruction is delivered in the classroom during core content lessons. The ENL teacher reviews lesson plans with the classroom teacher and creates language objectives aligned to the content. Students are grouped based on their classroom teacher, with most classes composed of students at similar proficiency levels. For instance, a third-grade class receiving push-in services may consist of students all at the Transitioning and Expanding levels.

All Integrated English as a New Language services are provided in English Language Arts (ELA) for 180 minutes per week, which translates to four 45-minute periods. Former ELLs receive their ENL support through Integrated ENL during ELA instruction for 90 minutes per week, in accordance with CR Part 154 requirements.

In many classrooms, Integrated ENL is implemented through a station teaching model. During ELA blocks, the ENL teacher pushes in and leads a small group station that targets language development objectives aligned with the lesson. This allows for differentiated support in a smaller setting while ensuring students engage with grade-level content. Students rotate through all stations, and the ENL station provides targeted scaffolds to build vocabulary, language structures, and comprehension skills.

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)

Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

N/A

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs) enrolled in the Italian Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program receive instruction in alignment with CR Part 154 and benefit from both English and Italian language development throughout the school day. These students receive Stand-Alone ENL services through a pull-out model, where instruction is provided in a separate classroom with other ELLs grouped by proficiency level.

For Integrated ENL minutes, students receive in-class support during their ELA or Math blocks. Instruction is delivered by either the DLBE classroom teacher (if certified in TESOL or Bilingual Education) or by a certified ENL teacher. When delivered by a certified DLBE teacher, ENL instruction occurs through small group instruction during the literacy block, typically for four 45-minute sessions per week for students at the Transitioning level. If the DLBE teacher is not TESOL-certified, then the ENL teacher provides the mandated ENL minutes through push-in or pull-out services, depending on the student's level and schedule.

Students follow the school's core curriculum, including Into Reading for ELA and the school's designated Math curriculum. The target language of Italian is integrated into daily instruction through teacher-created materials as well as supplemental resources such as Italian Fairy and In Italiano to support biliteracy and content learning in both languages.

In DLBE classrooms, station teaching is used to support language development. During ELA blocks, the certified teacher or ENL provider leads a targeted language development station, while other students rotate through content-based or language-rich tasks. This model allows for differentiated, small-group instruction that reinforces both English and Italian language proficiency within grade-level standards.

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

For the ENL program model:
Students mandated number of instructional minutes are ensured for Emergent and Enterning ENL students in a pull out model in a separate classroom. for 180 minutes per week:
Students are pulled out in groups based on proficiency level and grade level to the student services classroom and work with the ELL/MLL teacher. For push in services, the ELL/MLL teacher pushes in for 180 min per week. The ELL teacher works with the teacher to infuse ELL appropriate supports for the lessons as well as having the ELL/MLL teacher push into the class and deliver support along side the content area teacher. For ELA lessons, teachers use the small group language supports developed for the into reading curriculum as well as any additional student supports such as translations of materials.

For home language arts for students in the Italian dual language program, students are given instruction in Italian for lessons in reading, writing, math, social studies and science. The language is used 50/50 throughout the school day.

The ENL teachers program the ENL students for the appropriate minutes in STARS. The data used to ensure ELLs are programmed to meet their stand alone or integrated are students NYSITEL and NYSESLAT scores. These scores are found in the RLAT for exam history and scores.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

For ENL pull out model, instructional minutes are delivered to students in the ENL classroom. Small group instruction is lead by a certified ENL teacher and students are grouped according to their grade level and language proficiency level. For English Language Arts, students receive a push in model of instruction. A certified ENL teacher pushes into the general education classroom and works to support the classroom teacher in providing appropriate ENL scaffolding for students.

For the DLBE program, Home Language Instruction is infused with Italian language supports through programs such as inItaliano, the Italian Fairy, and other teacher created materials.

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

The Dual Language model that is implemented is self-contained bilingual education. The day is split 50/50 with half of the day students being taught content in English and the other part of the day students are instructed in Italian. Instruction is translated by teachers into Italian or materials are purchased in the Italian language. It is a one way DLBE model with mostly all English proficient students.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

Each core content area is taught in both English and Italian, with instruction split 50/50 throughout the day. This approach provides students with balanced exposure to both languages across all subjects.

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

Not Applicable

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

The composition of the ELL subgroups at our school is as follows:

The majority of our English Language Learners (ELLs) are Newcomers, making up approximately 85.3% of the program, which equates to 29 students. We currently do not have any Long-Term ELLs. In addition, we have 5 Developing ELLs, representing 14.7% of our ELL population.

Effective instruction for Newcomers differs significantly from instruction for Developing ELLs. Newcomers typically require more targeted support in foundational language skills, including phonemic awareness, phonics, basic vocabulary development, and essential grammar structures. Instruction is often highly visual, repetitive, and focused on building English proficiency and early literacy.

In contrast, Developing ELLs benefit more from instructional strategies that support academic language development within content areas. This includes the use of scaffolds such as sentence frames, graphic organizers, and language objectives aligned to grade-level standards. The focus is on helping students access rigorous curriculum while continuing to build their English proficiency in more complex, academic contexts.

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

Currently, we have 0% Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE) in our school.

However, we are prepared to support potential SIFE students through targeted and scaffolded instruction. Our approach focuses on building foundational skills while addressing individual learning gaps. Key supports include visual aids for language development (such as English alphabet charts and classroom language supports), as well as structured academic resources aligned to early literacy and numeracy skills.

To accelerate learning, we incorporate pre-teaching of essential concepts and utilize the SPIRE program to strengthen phonics, reading comprehension, and writing skills. This structured, multisensory approach ensures students receive consistent, responsive instruction tailored to their needs and prior educational experiences.

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

We currently do not have any Long-Term English Language Learners (LTELLs) in our school.Instruction for ELLs that are Long Term differs from that of Developing ELLs by targeting specific language domains that require further development. While Developing ELLs often need broad support across all four modalities (listening, speaking, reading, and writing), Long Term ELLs typically demonstrate stronger oral proficiency but continue to struggle with academic language, particularly in reading and writing.

Effective instruction for Long term ELLs involves a focused approach such as, emphasizing extended writing tasks, academic vocabulary, and language structures—based on the student's individual language profile. This targeted support helps close persistent language gaps and promotes long-term academic success.

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

The percentage of students who are former English Language Learners (ELLs) is 1.92%, totaling 10 students.

To fulfill mandated instructional requirements, former ELLs receive targeted small group instruction through a station teaching model embedded within the Math and ELA instructional blocks. This integrated approach ensures continued language development while supporting content area learning in a differentiated and inclusive setting.

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

An analysis of at-risk levels affecting ELLs at our school reveals several notable trends.

A significant portion of our ELL population consists of Newcomer students, who require intensive language and academic support as they adjust to a new educational and cultural environment. Additional at-risk indicators include ELLs identified as living in temporary housing, as well as students who did not demonstrate adequate progress in English language proficiency on the 2024 NYSESLAT.

These trends highlight the need for differentiated support systems that address both academic and socio-emotional challenges to ensure equitable access to learning opportunities.

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

At our school, the primary at-risk indicator observed among former English Language Learners (ELLs) is that several former ELLs scored at Level 1 or Level 2 on the most recent state assessments.

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

The home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at my school is Spanish. There is almost one teacher on every grade level that speaks Spanish, all our ENL certified teachers speak Spanish. We have books and materials available to students in Spanish and they are able to be assessed on their reading level in Spanish. All important school documents that are sent home are done so in Spanish and English.
Additionally we have one or two students that speak Ukrainian, Polish, Chinese, or Japanese. We have a bilingual speaking staff (Polish, Spanish, Korean) who help support this population by communicating with parents and speaking with students. For these students and families, interpretation services are relied on heavily. For instance, during parent teacher conferences or any parent meetings over the phone interpretation services are used. Important documents such as IEPs are sent out for translation. Additionally, students are encouraged to share their languages and their culture with their class and school community throughout the year.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

The racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at our school include students that come from Hispanic, Asian , European, and Middle Eastern backgrounds. ELLs cultural background and language are taken into consideration when planning . Our school has adopted the HMH Into Reading Curriculum which has a team that focuses on building and delivering educational materials that reflect and honor the diverse students, educators, and communities served. Teachers also have used the NYU Scorecard to evaluate the current curriculum and make the necessary adjustments to insure that literature and material presented are culturally responsive. As a school we work collaboratively to ensure that students are being represented by giving students both mirrors and windows throughout the curriculum and cultural units of study presented.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

When reviewing the trends of the English Language Proficiency growth at my school, we notice the following: We have 9 students at 40.9% that have not met progress; We have 3 students at 13.6% who have met progress by exiting
ELL status.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

When reviewing the results of the NYSESLAT exam, a few key trends stand out.

The majority of our ELL students scored at the Transitioning level (41.4%), representing 12 students. This is followed by the Expanding level (20.7%) with 6 students, and the Emerging level (17.2%), also with 6 students. The fewest number of students scored at the Entering level (10.3%), totaling 3 students.

Across modalities, students showed the strongest performance in Speaking and Listening. The greatest area of need was in Writing.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

There is a noticeable relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and their performance on other state assessments, such as the ELA and Math exams.

Students who scored at the Commanding level on the NYSESLAT generally scored a Level 2 on both the ELA and Math state assessments. Those at the Transitioning level typically scored a Level 1 on the ELA exam, while students at the Expanding level often scored a Level 2.

In Math, students who were at the Expanding level on the NYSESLAT commonly reached a Level 3 on the Math exam, indicating stronger performance in math compared to ELA for this group.

We do not have any ELL students who have taken the Regents exams.

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

The NYSESLAT results for our ELLs with IEPs show that the 3 students scored in the Transitioning range.

We did not have any Students with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) participate in the NYSESLAT last year.

A possible factor influencing the performance of ELLs with IEPs is continued difficulty with the Writing modality of the exam, which often presents challenges in both language expression and content organization for this subgroup.

10. (For grades 9-12 only) Please review your data in the Insight Tool and STARS to answer the following questions:

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

Our school ensures ELLs receive a high-quality academic experience through the work of our Instructional Leadership Team (ILT), which enhances the existing curriculum to be more culturally responsive. Rather than creating new curricula, we integrate elements that reflect the diverse backgrounds of our multilingual learners (MLs) and ELLs. For instance, we select texts with protagonists from various cultures to better represent our student population and include topics that resonate with the experiences of our students. Additionally, we incorporate instructional scaffolds, such as graphic organizers, to help MLs/ELLs build foundational knowledge and express their understanding of different subjects.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

The school's Instructional Leadership Team (ILT) considers MLs/ELLs in their school's instructional design by using the supports provided by the HMH Into Reading Curriculum. This curriculum provides supports for English development as well as small group support. These materials are provided to classroom teachers as well as ESL teachers.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

Core content is delivered in the stand alone ENL program model through language objectives that build on core convention skills. For instance, students are taught the conventions of academic English while writing on a core content topic such as natural disasters. Additional texts and media that are related to the core content topic are taught to students with a focus on the language objective to recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in verb tense in their writing.

Integrated ENL instruction is delivered in the classroom during core content lessons. The ENL teacher will review lesson plans with the classroom teacher and create language objectives. Additionally, scaffolds are built into the lessons to support all learners in the classroom so they are able to build a foundation on which to learn new materials. A variety of modalities are also introduced into the classroom, such as students viewing a video and taking notes on the topic as way to practice listening skills. Further, the ENL teacher reviews EL/MLL student writing with the content area teacher to analyze for areas that students need additional language development support along side content learning in the classroom

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

Teachers of MLs/ELLs use a number of instructional strategies and grade - level materials to support students in academic content areas and accelerate English Language Development. This includes instructing students on academic thinking maps to help students organize and synthesize academic content in the classroom and in stand alone ENL. Additional instructional strategies include graphic organizers, explicit teaching of vocabulary and word maps, translations of materials where available, and guided academic discussions. Additionally, suplemental materials from the HMH Into Reading curriculum such as English language development and small group support.

b. SIFE

SIFE students need more support in building foundational knowledge in order to engage with grade level content. We do this by developing strong academic skills while allowing students to contribute their own understandings of a topic. Students will have the opportunity to build knowledge through scaffolds such as graphic organizers, texts both digital and in print that are appropriate to students grade level but are also accessible. Additionally, strong RTI support in the classroom with help build student knowledge while also allowing them to engage in the content. Students receive additional Wilsons Fundations curriculum support as well as the SPIRE program to help build their reading skills.

c. Newcomers

Newcomer ML/ELL students will have access to texts used in the content area available in their home languages. This is done by purchasing materials in the students home language such as dictionaries and work books. Additional the google translation app and translation services phone number are used. We also use the Pocketalk translation device which students are provided to use in the classroom. Digital content that students use will also be made available in their home language through translations or for instance close captions in their home language. They will be able to respond to prompts in their home language with support from the teacher or from translation technology. They will also be able to share their expertise in the classroom by sharing books or media that they use for studying a topic.

d. Long Term ELLs

Long Term ELLs will have the opportunity to work in small groups to engage in core content. They will be able to learn from their peers as well as contribute to classroom learning. They can also have teacher support in a small group and can share responses and wonderings on content. They will also use the HMH into reading curriculum supports as previously mentioned.

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

The first step in supporting ELLs with IEPs is a coordination amongst the ENL teacher as well as the other school service providers. This team includes the Speech therapist, Occupational therapist, Physical therapist, SEETS teachers and special education teachers . We make sure to discuss students on an individual level and what supports they would need to reach their IEP goals. We also include the classroom teacher to make sure scheduling of student services is consistent. Additionally, students will receive supports from their services to use in their classroom during regular instruction time. For instance, activities students can use to help self regulate during class. Also, materials such as a folder with common English verbs and phrases to take with them when they are in the classroom. We make sure students have home language supports such as books available in their home language. We monitor student progress in the classroom and deliver more instruction when needed. Students are programed for the mandated minutes and ENL providers work with them for the appropriate mintues per week.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

In ENL Home language support is assessed based on students entering level on the Lab R for spanish speaking students. For students that speaking other languages, families can provide examples of student work in their home language. For younger students, they would draw a picture and provide labels in their home language. For older students, they can write a paragraph as well as read a simple article in their home language and answer questions. They will also speak with staff members that speak the same language as them or through use of translation services to determine their levels. For exams such as MOSL students are given a translated copy of the math exam to complete their work.

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

N/A

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

The systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models are the following: Core content is delivered in the stand alone ENL program model through language objectives that build on core convention skills. For instance, students are taught the conventions of academic English while writing on a core content topic such as natural disasters. Additional texts and media that are related to the core content topic are taught to students with a focus on the language objective to recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in verb tense in their writing.

Integrated ENL instruction is delivered in the classroom during core content lessons. The ENL teacher will review lesson plans with the classroom teacher and create language objectives. Additionally, scaffolds are built into the lessons to support all learners in the classroom so they are able to build a foundation on which to learn new materials. A variety of modalities are also introduced into the classroom, such as students viewing a video and taking notes on the topic as way to practice listening skills. Further, the ENL teacher reviews EL/MLL student writing with the content area teacher to analyze for areas that students need additional language development support along side content learning in the classroom.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

Overall, the annual professional learning plan that ensures that all staff incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs is by having annual meetings to discuss the progress of this student population. The ENL teachers will attend the following PDS for the 2025 - 2026 school year as part of the district 14 multilingual learner institute:

10//25
11//25
12//25
1//25
2//25
3//25
4//25
5//25

After each meeting the information is turn keyed to administration and to the staff to ensure policy and best practices are up to date.

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154 (15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

The first step we will take is to look for CTLE events through our central office Brooklyn North. Our ENL teacher attends the ELL Coordinator Working group monthly. Also, we will look on the NYC DOE learning opportunities and keep our staff in formed of CTLE ELL specific hours. Teachers will also look at the UFT CTLE workshops for ELL specific hours. Also RBern events through NYU and Fordam are also made public for staff to sign up to continue their education. My school will meet the required 15% ELL-specific professional development for all teachers as per CR Part 154.2 by having the ELL teacher email teachers alerting them to ELL specific professional development in the district and online.
My school meets the required 50% ELL-specific professional development for ENL /bilingual teachers as per CR Part 154.2 by having teachers attend UFT , remote, city and district Professional developments.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

Our school uses i-Ready and Acadience as screening assessments to guide instructional planning for our English Language Learners (ELLs).

i-Ready provides comprehensive data on students' reading and math proficiency levels, which helps teachers identify specific areas of need and tailor instruction accordingly.

Acadience is used primarily in the early grades to monitor foundational literacy skills and inform targeted interventions for ELLs at the emergent level.

Together, these tools support data-driven decision-making and differentiation to meet the diverse learning needs of our ELLs.

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

The targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math and other core content will receive support from the special education team. This program will draw on supports from materials such as Wilson's Fundations and the SPIRE intervention programs as well as teacher created materials.

For newcomer ELLs they will receive additional academic vocabulary support in order to build their reading skills in order to access core content. This targeted instruction will utilize students home language in order to help translate or to explore word origins and definitions.

For developing ELLs students in need to intervention will receive Tier 1 RTI support. This will include a special education teacher delivering targeted support using the Focused Intervention program. Students will work collaboratively in small groups to review and enhance classroom content. The aims of this program are to build strong foundational knowledge to help students succeed in the classroom.

For Advanced and commanding ELLs, they will also have the opportunity for Tier 1 RTI support if needed. Additionally, they will engage in small group projects with their classroom teacher with the aim of continuing to develop their language skills.

For ELLs with IEPS students will recieve all entitled services as well as RTI support. They will also be contentiously monitored to increase supports when necessary.

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

Our school utlizes i-Ready, periodic assessments, classroom assessments, performance data etc. as tools to gather comprehensive data on English Language Learners (ELLs) and guide instruction within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Here's how each of these data sources contributes to our instruction:

i-Ready: i-Ready assessments provide valuable insights into students' academic skills and growth in reading and math. By analyzing i-Ready data, educators can identify areas where ELLs may need additional support and tailor interventions accordingly. This data helps inform decisions about which tier of intervention each student should receive. Small groups based on the iReady data are created for end of the day instruction.

Periodic Assessments: Periodic assessments, including benchmark assessments and progress monitoring assessments, allow educators to track ELLs' progress over time. These assessments help identify areas of strength and areas needing improvement, guiding the development of targeted interventions and instructional adjustments.

Classroom Assessments: Classroom assessments offer insights into ELLs' understanding of content and language skills within the regular classroom setting. Teachers can use this data to identify ELLs who may be struggling and adapt their teaching strategies to meet their needs. Classroom assessments also inform decisions about grouping students for small group instruction.

Performance Data: Performance data, such as grades, classwork, and participation, provide additional indicators of ELLs' academic and linguistic development. By analyzing performance data alongside other assessment data, educators gain a holistic understanding of ELLs' progress and areas for growth. This information helps guide instructional planning and differentiation.

By incorporating these data sources we are able to gather a comprehensive picture of ELLs' needs and progress. This enables us to effectively guide small groups and differentiate instruction to meet the diverse needs of ELLs at different proficiency levels.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

The formative assessments that are used for MLs/ELL students include NYC performance tasks that all students complete in class. The ELL periodic Assessments that are given out to the appropriate grade levels. Reading levels will be determined based on the Amira Learning program. Students in grades K-2 were assessments with the Acadience Screener and grades 3-5 were given math and ELA assessments in NWEA program. Teacher created assessments are also created for daily and weekly analysis to inform and drive instruction. Classroom teachers will meet with the ENL teacher and other providers to analyze student work and plan additional supports

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

I will ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home language in a number of ways throughout the year. Students who enter with a home language of Spanish are given the Lab R exam to evaluate their entering level of Spanish. Additionally, student reading levels are evaluated in both English and in Spanish by either the ENL teacher or a Spanish speaking teacher. For student who speak a language other than Spanish, reading materials will be made available in the in their home language to evaluate their appropriate reading level.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

The summative assessments our school uses to evaluate the effectiveness of our ML/ELL programs starts wit h the NYSESLAT exam. The NYSESLAT is analyzed by the ENL teacher and staff to determine our students level of English. Additionally, it is analyzed to find areas where students need additional support. For instance, when students in grade 3 were found to have low scores in the reading section of the NYSESLAT, the focus for grade 4 ENL was to provide additional writing support. Additionally, ELA and Math scores are also used to analyze where our ML/ELL students are in relation to the general student population. Also these scores are used to determine what areas students needed additional supports.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

The NYSESLAT administration plan requires support from the whole school community. The NYSESLAT administration begins with the ENL teacher and the school secretary printing out and sorting the answer documents. Next, the ENL teacher and the designated academic coach and testing supervisor create a plan for the rooms to be used and how students who have testing accommodations are supported. Generally, the staff that administers the NYSESLAT includes the ENL teacher, a first grade teacher with ENL extension, a second grade teacher with bilingual license, a third grade teacher with an ENL license and one to two special education teachers for our students with IEPs. The exam is given over a period of three days with additional days for make up exams. During this time the speaking portion of the exam is given. The ENL teacher will read the exam questions to students and either of our common branch teachers with ENL or bilingual certifications scores the speaking exam. For the scoring of the writing section, a team is made up of three teachers that have either ENL or bilingual extensions a general education teacher and a special education teacher to help score the writing. During this testing period, ELLs still continue to receive their mandated services because the ENL teacher is still able to work with students due to the number of teachers supporting the testing and scoring efforts.

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

Not Applicable

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

The ELL program Orientation occurs within 10 days of students testing in to the ELL program through their results on the NYSITEL Exam. Parents are informed of this orientation through formal letters sent home in their home language, as well as out reach by the ELL teachers through phone and email. The meetings are held both during the school day and after school to provide flexibility for the parents. ELL teachers present information in English and Spanish while phone interpretations services are used for parents who speak other languages. The orientation covers the program goals and requirements.

The school maintains evidence of this required parent orientation through an agenda and an attendance sheet.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note: this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

The ENL teacher holds annual individual meetings with families of ELLs to keep them up to date on student progress and the program. For instance, in the beginning of the year the ENL teacher follows up with families to make sure they understand the NYSITELL and NYSESLAT scores of students. There was also a meeting for families to make sure our families understood google classroom and how students were to turn in work. We also discuss the goals of the ELL program, results of language proficiency assessments and language development needs in all content areas. We also take parent questions.

These workshops include phone calls with the interpretation services for parents who speak languages other than English or Spanish such as our Mandarin speaking families. The ENL teacher also follows up with parents from the parent and administration dinners to make sure all family questions are answered. Families are able to contact the ENL teacher through email, phone, class dojo ect for any additional support. Additionally, teachers also follow up with families and make sure to call interpretation services when needed. We maintain evidence of this meeting through an agenda which we have parents sign, an attendance sheet and note home to parents informing them of the meeting. These forms are also translated into home languages for parents.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

The first step in ensuring families receive all communications and documents in the language they best understand is to look at the language preferences of the parent community is the HLIS form. Parents are asked about their language preferences and given forms and translation support based on their preferences. Next, the ATS report RCPL is run to see what the breakdown of languages is. Additionally, student emergency contact cards are given to students and translated for parents with a language preference other than English or Spanish. Additionally, surveys given to parents also ask what language preferences are needed for student documents.

For languages other than English, we have multiple staff members who speak the following languages: Spanish, Polish, Haitian Creole and Italian. For other languages we use over-the phone interpretations. We ensure that all school communications are available in English and Spanish. For all other languages we use class dojo for translations. In addition, we use this app to speak with families in languages other than English.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

our school is committed to empowering families of Multilingual Learners (MLs)/English Language Learners (ELLs) by ensuring their voices are heard and their needs are met. We determine these needs through home language surveys, family questionnaires, and regular feedback sessions, often conducted in families' home languages. The Parent Association (PA) and School Leadership Team (SLT) play a key role in analyzing data and identifying areas for support, ensuring decisions are informed by the experiences of ML/ELL families. We also partner with community organizations to better support our families.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

Through our monthly parent meetings families of MLs/ELLs are made aware of family leadership opportunities such as Parent Association, School Leardship Team, and Community Education Council. Additionally, family newsletters are center out weekly through email, and class dojo so families can also read about these opportunities in their home languages.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

We currently partner with several culturally and linguistically responsive organizations that support the diverse needs of our school community. Through our collaboration with ArtsConnection, students participate in culturally rooted artistic experiences, including an Afro-Latino drumming program that highlights the rhythms, traditions, and histories of in Latin America. Our CASA grant funds the GRIOT program, which brings storytelling, music, and oral history traditions to our students, allowing them to explore heritage, identity, and community narratives. We also collaborate with local neighborhood businesses and nearby colleges, such as St. John's University's Sensación Latin Dance Team, which exposes students to a variety of Latin dance styles during our Hispanic Heritage Month Unit of Study, enriching their understanding of culture through movement and performance. Additionally, we partner with The Italian Fairy and the Italian Consulate to provide Italian language and cultural experiences for our bilingual students, broadening their global awareness and appreciation for multilingualism. Collectively, these partnerships uplift student identity, celebrate cultural pride, and ensure our school community feels seen, valued, and represented.

Part VII: Additional Information

Additional Information

Include any additional information that is relevant to your LAP and would further explain and highlight how your school supports MLs/ELLs. This form does not allow graphics and charts to be pasted.

Our curriculum integrates multicultural texts, bilingual materials, and identity-affirming projects, allowing students to see themselves reflected in their learning while building academic language. We also offer after-school academic support for MLs/ELLs, providing additional time to reinforce language development and core content in a smaller setting. In addition, we prioritize family engagement through bilingual communication, cultural events, and workshops that welcome and empower families as partners. Together, these practices ensure MLs/ELLs feel supported, valued, and positioned for success.

Part VIII: ELL Identification Attestation and Principal Certification

Identification Plan

For additional information, refer to ELL Identification Attestation Professional Learning Module.

1. What are the titles of the members of your ELL identification team? Note: Members of the ELL identification team must be pedagogues.

The title and members of our ELL identification team are:
Two ELL providers: Dorothy Caldone and Jarisa Santiago
Assistant Principal Ms. Korotz
Grade 5 teachers Ms. K (for Spanish speakers) and Mr. M (Hatiain Creole speakers)
Grade 2 Italian Teacher Jessica DiMieri (For Italian speakers)

2. Describe the structures and process in place for identification of ELLs year-round as required by the NYC DOE Policy & Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, including your school's identification plan for any incoming students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Include:

- How your school proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs,
- Who is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process, and
- School's plan for ensuring ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated instruction.

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the New York City's Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs , the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to and staff are trained on the following:

1. The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).

2. Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined

a. If a student has been in NYS public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.

b. If a student has been outside of NYS public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL

Identification Process as part of reentry.

3. A trained and licensed pedagogue determines the home language of the student.

a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

4. An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.

5. Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.

a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

6. Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.

7. Parent notification letters are sent to the parent in the parent's preferred language.

a. Parents are notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

8. If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish LAB.

9. Student with interrupted/inconsistent formal education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources available on NYSED's website: http://www.nysed.gov/bilingual-ed/schools/students-interruptedinconsistent-formal-education-sife.

10. If a student is an ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.

a. Parent orientation meeting provides parents with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

11. ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.

a. If the ELL program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that program in accordance with DOE transfer policies.

b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a new language and our school keeps track of parent choice so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

12. Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).

13. If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.

14. Copies of letters and parent notifications regarding ELL identification are kept in the students' cumulative files.

Principal Certification

LTI Overview and Part A: Designation of a LAC

Chancellor's Regulation A-663 establishes procedures for ensuring that Limited-English-Proficient (LEP) parents of students enrolled in the New York City public schools are provide with a meaningful opportunity to participate in and have access to programs and services critical to their child's education. To this end, schools must review and complete the annual LTI Plan to address its language assistance needs consistent with the requirements of this regulation.

The LTI Plan requires information on the following:

- Name of person designated as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC).
- Identification and assessment of LEP parent population.
- Identification of Critical Communications and standing, in-person meetings throughout the school year that require language assistance services and how the school plans to respond to these needs.
- Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.
- Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

Methods for the school to solicit and implement feedback on its provision of language assistance services.

Designation of a LAC
Name of person designated and trained as the LAC.
At the start of each school year, each principal is required to designate at least one staff member to serve as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC), responsible for overseeing language assistance services within the school.

We have pre-populated the following information based on our records. Please confirm that the designated staff member(s) are your school's Galaxy-designated LAC(s) and provide the date(s) they attended the OLA Language Access Coordinator Training. Note that this training is in addition to the mandatory asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. If any information is missing, please provide the requested details.

As a reminder, LACs are internal staff designations and are not meant to serve as the primary point of contact for families regarding language access-related matters. The Parent Coordinator, or another designated staff member, should remain the main contact for families regarding all issues, including language access.

Part B: Parents' Preferred Languages

Parents' Preferred Languages

Part C: Parent Communications and Engagement

Parent Communication and Engagement

Identification of written critical communications and in-person meetings throughout the school year that require language assistance services and how the school plans to respond to these needs.

1. List the documents your school typically distributes each year that require translation, along with your plan for translating these documents.

Document Type (e.g. parent flyers, IEPs, etc.)	How do you plan to implement the translation process? Please include procedures and resources to ensure the timely delivery of translated documents to parents.
IEP	sent out to Office of Language Access. If the parents' preferred language is outside of OLA's scope of services or capacity we will send out to one of the OLA partner services for translations.
Parent flyers	translated into Spanish sent out to translation services for other languages
Parent weekly newsletter	translated into Spanish used to translate for parents who speak other languages
classroom welcome letters and school supplies	translated into Spanish sent out to translation services for other languages
Miscellaneous forms such as class trips and other school wide events	translated into Spanish sent out to translation services for other languages

2. List the meetings, both in-person and virtual, that your school typically holds with parents throughout the school year, along with your plans for providing interpretation services at those meetings.

Meeting Type (e.g. parent workshops, PTCs)	How do you plan to offer interpretation services? Please outline the procedures and resources in place to ensure timely access to interpretation for parents.
PTC	teachers who speak the language are used, if we do not have a speaker of the language such as Mandarin , the interpretation services number is used
IEP meetings	interpretation services number is used
ELL parent annual meeting	teachers who speak the language are used, if we do not have a speaker of the language such as Mandarin , the interpretation services number is used
Parent engagement time	translated into Spanish sent out to translation services for other languages

3. Describe the resources and processes your school will use to communicate with parents who speak a language other than English during an emergency (e.g., lockdown, fire, student attendance, nurse/hospital visit, etc.), or when a parent needs to contact the school in an emergency, ensuring communication is in their preferred language.

Our school uses ClassDojo for real-time communication with parents, including translations into their preferred language. In emergencies such as a lockdown, fire, or nurse visit, we send urgent notifications through ClassDojo, as well as through automated text messages, calls, and emails, all with built-in translation options to ensure every family is informed.

If a parent needs to contact the school in an emergency, we provide on-demand interpretation services by phone, and our bilingual staff are available to assist when needed. We are committed to ensuring that all families, regardless of language, can communicate effectively with the school during critical situations

Part D: Staff Awareness

Staff Awareness

Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.

1. Describe how your school will ensure that all staff members complete the required asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform, and are familiar with the Best Practices for When to Provide Translation of Critical Written Communications to Parents and Best Practices for When to Provide Interpretation for Critical Oral Communications with Parents. Additionally, explain how your Galaxy-designated LAC will disseminate future language access resources and updates to all staff members.

Our school ensures that all staff members complete the required asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC platform by setting clear internal deadlines and monitoring completion through administrative reports. School leaders regularly check staff progress on WeLearnNYC and send reminders to ensure 100% participation. Staff are also provided dedicated time during professional development sessions or faculty meetings to complete the training as needed.

Our Galaxy-designated Language Access Coordinator (LAC) plays a key role in supporting this process. The LAC reviews the NYCPS best practices for providing translation and interpretation, and shares key takeaways and updates with staff through email and staff wide PDs. The LAC ensures all new and existing staff are aware of how to access and use language access resources, so that families receive communication in their preferred language in accordance with DOE policy.

Part E: Parental Notification

Parental Notification

Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

1. Describe how your school will inform parents about available language assistance services in their preferred language. Include any of the following:

- Translated signage
- Brochures, flyers, or letters shared with parents
- Parent engagement events where language assistance services are highlighted (e.g., PTA meetings, international parents' night, etc.)
- Messaging applications

- Language Access for NYC Public Schools Families brochure

Our school will inform parents about available language assistance services in their preferred languages in the following ways:

Having large signs in front of the school safety agents with information about language services that are provided with cards for them to take with further information.
In the main office we will also have additional literature for parents to take that informs the of the available language assistant services
All flyers and letters that go home to parents will be given in English and Spanish with the option to translate in the parents preferred language
All in person meetings will give families the opportunity to use the translation hotline to facilitate communication

Part F: Monitoring

Monitoring

Methods for soliciting and implementing feedback on language assistance services.

1. In addition to the feedback received from parents via OLA's Translation & Interpretation Feedback Survey, describe the methods your school will use to gather feedback from parents regarding the language assistance services they receive in their preferred language.

In addition to the Office of Language Access's (OLA) Translation & Interpretation Feedback Survey, our school uses multiple methods to gather parent feedback on language assistance services. We regularly distribute school-created surveys in families' preferred languages, asking about their experiences with translated materials and interpretation during meetings. During parent engagement events, such as PTA meetings and parent-teacher conferences, bilingual staff or interpreters assist families in providing verbal or written feedback about the language services they receive.

Our parent coordinator also conducts check-ins with families to gather informal feedback, especially from those who primarily speak a language other than English. We provide a multilingual suggestion box in a central location and monitor parent comments through messaging apps like class dojo, which offer insights into how communication is being received. These combined efforts ensure that parent voices are heard, and the feedback is used to strengthen the quality and accessibility of our language assistance services.

2. How has your school worked to improve its language assistance services? Share any feedback results and outline your plans for further improvements in the upcoming school year.

Over the past year, our school has worked to strengthen language assistance services by increasing the availability of translated materials and ensuring interpretation support at key events. We made sure that important letters, flyers, and announcements were translated into the primary languages spoken by our families. We also prioritized having interpreters present during parent-teacher conferences, PTA meetings, and other family engagement events, which helped improve parent participation and comfort. Our staff has become more proactive in identifying families' language preferences and offering support when needed.

Feedback gathered from parent surveys and in-person conversations indicated that families appreciated receiving information in their home language and felt more welcomed during school events. However, some parents shared that they were not always aware of how to request interpretation services ahead of time. To address this, we plan to improve signage throughout the school in multiple languages, distribute the "Language Access for NYC Public Schools Families" brochure more widely, and provide a short presentation on language access at our fall family night. We will also introduce a brief feedback form after major events to help us monitor and continuously improve our language assistance efforts.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

Title III ELL Summary

Provide a summary of each program funded under Title III ELL for SY 25-26: For each program, describe:

- When the program takes place (i.e., after school, before school, Saturday academy)

- Activities ELLs will engage in and how these activities will enhance instructional opportunities for ELLs
- How ELLs will be grouped for instruction and specify the number of student groups. Include total number of student groups and total number of ELLs in each group, for each program
- How instruction will be delivered (e.g., team teaching, parallel teaching, etc.)
- How the program will be supervised and whether this will be funded by Title III ELL. Please note: If supervision will be funded using Title III ELL funds, you must include the supervisor's regular work day hours and the hours the supervisor will get paid per session.

Students who are in need of additional support will have the opportunity to attend after school. The Title III program will be based on student scores from iready and acadience diagnostics. From this data we will work to create targeted small group interventions using sound sensible, SPIRE programs, and math intervention.

The after-school Title III LEP program will begin in November 2025 and will end in May 2026, from 2:35 - 4:05 PM. The total number of sessions will be 45. There will be three groups paid from the Title III funds. The groups will be K&1 (6 students) 2&3 (10 students) 4&5 (16 students) totaling to 32. The students will be rotated based on if they need more support in decoding or comprehension or math. The cost of the title III LEP Per session is 1 teacher X $73.07 Per hour X 1.5 hours a session X 45 sessions X 3 teachers = $14,796.67

Remaining:

$5,203.33

Some supplies and materials will be purchased using Title III LEP funds:

SPIRE 4th Ed. Multi-Level Teacher Set - Print and Digital - Levels 1 to 3
$1,183.49 Consumer Price x 2 = $2,366.98

Sound Sensible:

SPIRE Foundations: Sounds Sensible 3rd Edition Teacher Set
$528.99 Consumer x 2 = $1,057.98

$3,424.96

remainder $1,778.37 will be spent on consumables for the program.

purchased materials will only be used for Title III ELL after school program and not during instructional day. The materials will be stored in the ENL teachers classrooms in a secure closet.

Attendance will be recorded during each session and will be maintained in an attendance folder. Progress will be monitored using formative assessments in the SPIRE and Sound Sensible programs.

. By maintaining small group sizes, the ENL teacher can give individualized attention, provide immediate feedback, and adapt lessons to each group's language proficiency level. This approach helps ensure that each student receives the targeted support they need to grow confidently in their language abilities.

Rationale for Title III ELL Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III ELL funded program. For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

In order to support ELLs/MLLs in language development as well as academic support. Students will receive the opportunity to work with teachers in small groups based on their language learning needs. Providing students with additional learning time after school helps to give students opportunities to learn concepts they find challenging in class and build a stronger foundation.

The data analysis conducted to support the program rationale includes data taken from iReady and acadience screeners. Teacher feedback and recommendations from the classroom and ESL teachers will also be taken into consideration.

Based on NYSESLAT scores, ELLs need more support in writing which we will focus on with our NYSESLAT test books. In addition, in the classroom our ELLs need more foundational support in reading. Including our recent arrival students who are not yet familiar with the English alphabet. This is where we will use our literacy building programs such as SPIRE and the secret stories program to build up literacy skills.

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

For each Title III ELL funded program, describe the students that will be served. Include:

- Total number of ELLs for each program,
- Grade levels for ELLs in program, and
- ELL Subgroups (e.g., Newcomer) and/or proficiency levels (e.g., Entering, Emerging, etc.).

The program will serve all sub groups of ELL students.

Schedule and Duration

For each Title III ELL funded program, include:

- Start and end dates/months,
- Total number of sessions,
- Days of the week the program will be offered, and
- Time and duration of sessions.

The program will run every Wednesday, and Thursday from 2:35 - 4:05. The program will begin in November of 2025 and run until approximately May 2026 for 45 sessions.

Language of Instruction

For each Title III ELL funded program, include language of instruction and how home language support is provided.

Each Title III ELL-funded program primarily uses English as the language of instruction to support English language acquisition. However, home language support is integrated through various methods. Bilingual staff are available to assist students, especially in clarifying complex concepts in their native languages. Additionally, students have access to home language resources, such as translated materials, bilingual dictionaries, and culturally relevant books, to help bridge understanding between their native language and English. Family engagement activities also promote language support at home, encouraging the use of students' home languages in a way that complements their English learning.

Number and Types of Certified Teachers

For each Title III ELL funded program, include number and type(s) of certified teachers (e.g., ESOL, bilingual, content area):

2 ENL certified teachers (at cost to Title III funds) and 1 content area teacher

Types of Materials

For each Title III ELL funded program, include:

- Types of materials,
- Titles and publishers of main supplemental materials,
- Location where purchased materials will be stored, and
- Whether materials will be purchased using Title III ELL funds. Please note: If materials are purchased using Title III ELL funds, they cannot exceed 20% of the total allocation.

Implementation Plan and Maintaining Records

- Describe your school's plan for implementation (e.g. when and how parents/guardians will be notified about the program(s)).
- Describe how your school will maintain records of your school's Title III ELL funded program, including evidence of parent notification in their preferred languages, student attendance records, evidence of teacher certifications for teachers supporting the program, record of parent engagement activities, records of professional development activities, purchase orders and invoices to date. For additional information, please refer to the Title III ELL FAQ.

Families of ELL students will be informed about the program through a bilingual (English and Spanish) permission slip, which will be sent home with students. Program details will also be shared in the principal's weekly newsletter, available in Spanish, and through Class Dojo, which offers translation into multiple languages. Collected permission slips will be stored in the main office.

Student progress will be monitored using benchmark assessments administered during regular school hours. After-school teachers will analyze these assessments to identify areas where students need additional support, alongside tracking iReady scores and other in-class benchmarks.

Part C: Professional Development

Professional Development Summary

Provide a summary of your school's plan for professional development under your Title III ELL program. Please make sure to describe:

- Professional development to be provided,
- Activities that teachers will engage with by topic, and
- Whether the professional development provided will be funded by Title III ELL funds. Please note: If PD will be funded by Title III ELL funds, vendor cost is calculated as part of OTPS and must not exceed 20% of the total allocation; teacher per-session is calculated as part of PD and must not exceed 10% of the total allocation.

The professional development program for Title III program teachers for 2025-2026 includes the D14 Multilingual Learners Institute
The dates for this professional development are as follows:

MLL Institute Dates:
10/27/25:
11/17/25
12/22/25
1/12/26
2/9/26
3/23/26
4/20/26 -
5/11/26 -
6/8/26 -

These PDs will be at no cost to Title III ELL funds.
The rationale for this training is to allow for ELL the ELL instructors to be up to date on ELL policies, and compliance as well as to connect with ELL coordinators on problem solving and best practices.

The rationale of attending these trainings is to learn additional strategies to implement in the classroom and for the Title III program. The teacher (s) in attendance will then turn key the information to all teachers the following week after the workshops.

Rationale for Professional Development

Describe the rationale for the professional development to be provided. For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., patterns and trends identified) that support the need for the professional development, and
- Data sources (e.g., school survey teacher responses, in-house teacher surveys, teacher observation data) used to justify the professional development.

The purpose of attending these training sessions is to acquire new strategies for implementation in the classroom and the Title III program. All acquired information will be shared with administration and teaching staff. This training is designed to ensure that ELL Coordinator Dorothy Caldone and ENL teacher Jarisa Santiago stay informed about the latest ELL policies and practices while facilitating collaboration with other ELL coordinators for problem-solving and sharing best practices.

Moreover, trends in ELL student performance, including iReady scores and state test results, indicate that our ELL population requires additional support in the classroom. Students need to achieve greater progress on their NYSESLAT exams. These professional development opportunities will enable ELL teachers to analyze data collaboratively and develop effective solutions with their colleagues.

Teachers to Receive Professional Development

Include information on the teachers to receive professional development. Please specify how all teachers working in the Title III ELL program will receive ongoing professional development related to the Title III ELL program.

Dorothy Caldone and Jarisa Santiago our ENL teachers. Additionally, if it is topic specific to a grade or subject , general and special education teachers with high populations of ELLs/MLLs will be invited.
