Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

Section 4: School Summary

Accountability Status

Accountability Status: LSI

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

PS 503 believes in educating for a just world, empowering all of our community (students, families & educators) to be advocates, innovators & change-makers. P.S. 503 is a safe and courageous place where all members of our diverse community learn side by side with one another. Social-emotional intelligence is taught, practiced, valued, and infused into our culture. It is our mission to welcome and celebrate all peoples and to nurture them to be more reflective, cooperative and kind-hearted.

It is our expectation that all P.S. 503 members: staff, families, and students, will grow academically and gain the skills to help solve social, environmental, economic, and political world problems.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

PS 503 is a large community school, serving a diverse immigrant population in Sunset Park Brooklyn. In recent years the number of proficient students in ELA and math has doubled as a result of a focus on making core instruction more rigorous. Specific data accountability for each teacher with a focus on maintaining or growing the number of students on or above grade level in his/ her class annually, as well as ensure one year's growth for all students has been communicated through bi-monthly data progress meetings with each team. PS 503 is a collaborative community, all services are provided through a push in model, utilizing the various co-teaching models of instruction. This allows for services and interventions to be fluid and aligned with the strong instructional core and for students to receive targeted instruction. This model also requires high levels of trust and communication. In order to support our collaborative structure, we have a focus on social emotional learning and intelligence. We hope to empower adults in their interactions and to support the high levels of students who have had traumatic experiences.

Briefly summarize the key initiatives your school will implement this school year.

In alignment with our instructional focus, we focusing on implementing new reading & writing curriculum while still holding true to the values of our school community. We are going to continue to work on scaling CRSE/ CRT while furthering instructional cohesion with existing curricula, and creating cohesion with newly adopted reading & writing and math curricula. Doing this while maintaining an integrated asset based approach that infuses social emotional learning throughout academic subjects AND centers student voice and social justice, is our challenge/ instructional focus. We will be doing this by:

If the principal provides access to a wide range of high quality professional development opportunities aligned to data analysis and observation and feedback cycles, teachers will be able to: engage in asset based integrated teaching that promotes equity through centering students' identities and passions; implement new inclusive curricula and assessment (Into Reading, Bridges math); embed social emotional supports throughout academic subjects explicitly teach language (structure, phonics, grammar, academic vocabulary); & analyze data and adapt instruction based on student needs.

so that students can:
develop agency and advocacy in their own learning that is action oriented; develop the skills they need to question, analyze, and apply knowledge for the purposes of meaning making and problem solving; develop optimistic thinking and goal directed behavior that results in greater emotional regulation, stronger relationships & more on task behavior; develop stronger communication skills improve academic performance as evidenced by verbal and written participation; & make progress and produce higher performance on state test scores and formative assessments.

What are the primary digital and/or print curricula/programs used for ELA and Math:

Indicate the content area, grade band and any adaptations made.

Content Area (Indicate ELA and Math Only)	Grade Band	Digital and/or Print Curricula/Program	Adaptations
ELA	K-5	Into Reading	professional development & adoption
Math	K-5	Bridges Mathematics Curriculum	professional development and adoption

Section 5: Priority 1 – All students learn to read well

Priority 1 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
students in K-2 have not reached grade level automaticity bechmarks (EOY Acadience data 24-25)	need for adjusted phonics instruction to meet the needs of MLLs and SWD students	improve phonics instruction
students in gr 2-5 have not reached grade level reading comprehension (Acadience, I-Ready EOY data 24-25)	instructional approaches need additional differentiation to give/maintain access to grade level texts while also providing targeted differentiated instruction	improve reading comprehension

Priority 1

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for literacy outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Literacy

- Implement the strategies outlined in NYC Reads, including foundational phonics curriculum for grades K-2
- Implement dyslexia screening, professional learning, and program pilots (as applicable)
- Support literacy development through the integration of culturally responsive-sustaining texts and content

Priority 1 SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
All Students	40	By June 2026, the percentage of all students in grades K-2 performing on or above grade level will increase from 40% to 41% as measured by EOY Acadience reading screener data.

Priority 1 Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Identify what your school would expect to see at the end of each period to know if you are on track to reach the identified goal(s). Priority 1 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Analyze student data regularly (periodic data meetings, progress monitoring) to determine needs and next steps for instruction.

Root Cause Addressed:

Differentiated instruction based on student need

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Periodic data meetings
Implementation of secondary screener
Differentiated instruction based on progress monitoring
After school enrichmment and remediation for ENL & SWD subgroup
Really Great Reading as a supplemental tier 1 phonics program used in grade 3
Tier 2 phonics instruction in grades 4 & 5

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Provide ongoing professional learning for teachers in phonics instruction and science of reading in order to better meet the needs of students in reading instruction.

Root Cause Addressed:

Teacher content knowledge in phonics instruction and science of reading

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Core curriculum development through outside staff developer
Continued expansion of optional PD offered in areas of expertise -- ENL, dual language, SWD, etc. as related to subgroups

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

Our primary structures to monitor implementation of this goal are the periodic grade level data meetings and well as the Monday professional development time with teachers. We will monitor student outcomes using the data platforms and we will monitor teacher growth through professional goal development and instructional feedback.

Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Physical and Emotional Safety

- Develop safety infrastructure and systems, including staff training, collaboration with external partners, and implementation of safety and security best practices
- Expand social emotional and mental health supports via restorative justice, Project Pivot, screeners, and other district or school-based initiatives (as applicable)
- Expand implementation of physical and mental wellness supports, including Physical and Health Education that meets NYSED requirements and related initiatives
- Improve supports and outcomes for socially vulnerable student populations (Students in Temporary Housing, Students in Foster Care)

Priority 2 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

School wide professional development around social emotional learning and the PS 503 Social Emotional Learning Philosophy.

Root Cause Addressed:

lack of understanding of various marginalized groups/ personal trauma and ways to respond to students.
teacher expertise with conflict resolution and restorative justice practices

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Continued partnership with outside organizations to provide SEL, social justice and equity instructional expertise to teachers (Morningside, Reveye)
Teacher Inquiry/study groups around best practices in SEL instruction and integration--using professional literature, SEL curriculum review

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Targeted Tier 2 and Tier 3 instruction and interventions for students with greater social-emotional needs.

Root Cause Addressed:

childhood trauma

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Assessment of student need through the RTI process / DESSA screener
Continued partnerships with Child Mind Institute, CFL/SBES, NYU Health

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

Through the implementation of professional development, review of student interaction logs data, implementation of tier 1, 2, and 3 instruction, we will monitor student interactions and non-punitive staff responses for supporting students in resolving conflict.

Priority 4 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

We will continue to implement strategies from school year 2024-2025, which netted an increase of 3% (we moved from 92% to 95% from June 2024 to June 2025). In the 2025-2026 school year, what will be different is increasing the "visibility" of College and Career Readiness throughout the year and with all stakeholders, making explicit the connection of what we are doing now to how it can impact students' future paths:

Initiatives include:
-We hold a Career Day for Grade 5 students in the Spring. During the 2025-2026 school year, we will integrate discussions of careers earlier in the year, connected to specific units of study.
-NEW--The instructional leadership team will integrate career connections within units of study. For example, for a text about a veterinarian within the curriculum, there will be opportunities to build authentic connections to this career.
-NEW--A focus of the cluster team will be to highlight careers, especially in the realms of STEAM. We will focus on career paths of individuals whose backgrounds reflect those of our students.
-NEW--We will partner with NYU and other universities to invite speakers/graduate students in to offer extension opportunities to our science curriculum, and use the partnerships as an opportunity to discuss career paths.
-We will continue to hold a College Day event, which will continue to be part of Respect for All Week.
-NEW--The Family Engagement team will continue to enroll K-2 students for the NYC Kids Rising Save for College Program. As of July 22, 2025, our completion of Building Block 1 is at 60%. We will progress monitor over the school year to increase this percentage from 60% to 70%.
-We will continue to work with student stakeholders by involving them in civic participation, including with the Gr 4 senior t shirt design to promote entrepreneurship and through student council initiatives - participatory budgeting, allyship.
-NEW--We will integrate career connections to the four required bulletin boards within Cluster and Science Departments.

Root Cause Addressed:

These strategies and initiatives address the lack of exposure to formal education structures/ processes and to the wide variety of career options that are available. Making the connection with what we are doing now and how it impacts students' futures helps all families begin the process of thinking about the pathways to college and career that are available to their children.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

We will assess our initiatives in December, March, and June to see if we are making gains. That will look differently for each initiative. For example, for the following two initiatives, implementation monitoring will look like reflections by members of the ILT.

-We hold a Career Day for Grade 5 students in the Spring. During the 2025-2026 school year, we will integrate discussions of careers earlier in the year, connected to specific units of study.
-NEW--The instructional leadership team will integrate career connections within units of study. Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing the school data, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal aligned to our systemwide focus on improving attendance and reducing chronic absenteeism.

Systemwide Focus Area for Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism: Develop and implement strengthened practices to improve attendance, combat chronic absenteeism and center equity. Note: For ESSA accountability purposes, NYSED will replace the Chronic Absenteeism indicator with the Attendance indicator, beginning in the 2025-26 school year. Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Directions: Complete the chart and identify Tier 2 or 3 MTSS Academic supports. Any Tier 2/3 interventions should be in addition to the foundational work being done at Tier 1.

Family and Community Engagement Around MTSS

Describe how the school's essential components of MTSS are shared with families.

We have a multi-prong plan as follows:

-We communicate via email, Remind to reach all families.
-We provide ongoing communication about student progress, school activities, and MTSS initiatives through email, Remind, and in person communication. PTCs area an opportunity to discuss student progress from a strength-based lens.
-At our Saturday Academy program, we provide families student data, focusing on strengths-based feedback.
-We ensure all communication regarding MTSS is translated to accommodate our families' diverse home language needs.
-Virtual meetings are provided for families who cannot attend in-person events. Our monthly CWP slidedecks are translated in a timely manner and shared with families so they can access the material discussed.
-The heart of our plan is partnership with families. This is accomplished when we invite families to participate in school events, such as open houses, family engagement nights, and cultural fairs, to foster a sense of community.

Describe how families receive updates on the progress of their child(ren) who receive Tier 2 targeted, or Tier 3 intensive interventions.

-We communicate via email, Remind to reach all families on the progress of their children who receive Tier 2 or Tier 3 interventions.
-We provide ongoing communication about student progress, school activities, and MTSS initiatives through email, Remind, and in person communication.

Describe how families are involved during decision making regarding the progress of students receiving Tier 3 intensive intervention.

-We invite families as partners to work with us and to be part of the decision-making process for students receiving Tier 3 intensive intervention. The Admin team has an open door policy and we are committed to addressing family concerns or questions that come up during the school year, with transparency about what supports best serve the needs of the student.
-Members of the clinical team regularly communicate with these families to ensure they are part of the process of understanding the interventions.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

Number of students in temporary housing who are:

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:
- Living in a hotel/motel:
- Other

*Note: In keeping with established practices regarding personally identifiable information, use the letter "s" to identify a number less than five (5).

140

Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing): 139 students
Living in a shelter or transitional shelter: 1 students
Living in a hotel/motel: 0 students
Living in a car, bus, or train: 0 students
Living in a park or public place: 0 students
Living in an abandoned building 0 students

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

The majority of our students in temporary housing (98%) have the status "doubled up"; we have very few students in shelters or considered other housing statuses.

The majority of these students experience relative security related to housing. However many of these students have needs related to food insecurity and clothing insecurity. This is an indication that these families need support related to food, clothing and any other additional expenses.

Students in temporary housing are also a group of students with greater chronic absenteeism that the rest of the school population. This indicates a need for support with regular school attendance.

Students in temporary housing overwhelmingly come from families whose home language is not English--the majority of students in temporary housing have families who have been in the country for less than 4 years. This indicates a need for social service support.

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

Students in temporary housing receive priority for counseling, and social service resources. We run a food pantry from the school in collaboration with Grandma's Love. Students in temporary housing are provided with a Success Mentor who supports them and their families with attending school consistently. Attendance is celebrated and a morning physical activity program before school is provided to incentivize coming to school. Basic need items are provided as needed. Adult ESL classes are offered for priority enrollment with CBO partners (CFL after school, preventative service, and NYU). Most recently, we partnered with SES this past school year to create a Care Closet on site. The Care Closet contains basic clothing and hygiene items that can support STH families.

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

How many students in foster care are currently enrolled at your school? Provide a detailed breakdown of the social-emotional and academic supports available to them.

What targeted supports are in place for students in foster care, including those newly transitioning into the foster care system? How does your school ensure these students receive the necessary interventions to promote stability and success?

n/a

We do not have any students in foster care.

After analyzing historical demographic, attendance, and achievement data for students in foster care, what trends have emerged? How can these insights be used to improve the services and support provided to this population?

n/a

We do not have any students in foster care.

What specific strategies does your school implement to ensure students in foster care, particularly those in transitional grades, receive targeted Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) support? How do these strategies help address academic and behavioral challenges?

n/a

We do not have any students in foster care.

Expanded Learning Time (ELT) Support

The ELT program aligns with Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) and will be offered to all eligible students who are considered at-risk of not meeting state standards. Note: Receivership schools must commit to 200 student contact hours of ELT.

Describe how your school will utilize ELT to offer opportunities for enrichment and additional learning before, during, after school, on weekends and/or during the summer to actively address the unique learning needs and interests of all types of students, especially those who may benefit from approaches and experiences not offered in the traditional classroom setting.

Pending budget, we will offer students an early morning health & exercise program to ensure they have a healthy start to their day. Enrichment clubs (Chess, Ambassadors Club, Basketball Team, NDI Dance, etc.) will also be offered to the students who may need additional incentives and support to meet state standards.

Saturday Academy has been a very successful program in our school that also provides students with additional academic support. A Family Academy accompanies the program as families learn how to best support their children in reading, writing and math.

The Summer Rising Program is the primary vehicle that our school will offer families to provide academic support and along with social emotional strategies to build a bridge to the fall academic school year. Our goal is to partner with our CBO, The Center for Family Life, to integrate academic rigor, mental health support as well as various fun activities to ensure that students are ready to meet the challenges of the 2024-2025 school year.

Describe how your school will meet the requirement of ensuring that ELT instruction is delivered under the supervision of a teacher who is NYS certified in that content area.

Per session postings with outlined criteria along with alternative schedules will be ways

Describe how your school will meet the requirement of ensuring the alignment of ELT instruction with core academic subject area instruction offered during the regular school day.

Teachers will be provided collaboration time and we will use the triad model to ensure no interruption in services and a seamless day.

Provide a description of the materials purchased to support implementation of ELT.

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the school community. PS503, in compliance with Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is responsible for creating and implementing a parent and family engagement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. The school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), and Title I Parent Advisory Council as trained volunteers and welcomed members of the school community.

Support for Parents and Family Members of Title I Students

PS503 will support parents and family members of Title I students by:
- providing materials and workshops to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional learning opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of the school community;

Parental Involvement and School Quality

The school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (ML/ELL), and students with disabilities. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, the school will:
- actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage all parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I, 1% set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to the school to supplement parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent and family engagement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional learning, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend the school and will work to ensure that the school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;
- conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;

- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., ESSA/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, School Quality Report, Quality Review Report, Learning Environment Survey Report; DESSA Data support
- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent and family engagement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1116 and other applicable sections under ESSA;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed.

Encouraging School-Level Parental Involvement

The school will further encourage school-level parent and family engagement by:
- hosting educational family events/activities during Parent-Teacher Conferences and throughout the school year;

- providing regular school email communication between school and families as well updates on school website. Families and teachers to communicate regularly over the REMIND system of communication which translates all communication to the language of the family and in a format, and to the extent practicable in the languages that parents can understand.

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

PS503, in compliance with the Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is implementing a School-Parent Compact to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. Title I Program Information

Part 1: Title I Program Type

Title I Requirements and Strengthening Title I Parent Involvement: Under USDOE's Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Title I schools are required to address professional learning and parent and family engagement in the Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP). To strengthen parent leadership in Title I schools, and increase the involvement of all parents of Title I eligible children in improving students' academic outcomes, all Title I schools are required to establish a Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) that will serve as the consultative and representative body for all Title I parents in the school to provide voice into the spending of Title I funds.

The SLT is responsible for facilitating consultation with the Title I Parent Advisory Council regarding the joint development of the CEP, Parent and Family Engagement Policy, School Parent Compact (SPC) and the use of the 1% parent involvement set-aside in Title I schools. The Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) Chairperson (or alternate) is expected to attend all regular meetings of the School Leadership Team (SLT). Title I parents, as represented by the Title I PAC Chairperson, must be consulted regarding the use of the Title I 1% set-aside for parent and family engagement. The Title I 1% set-aside funding is used to supplement parent and family engagement activities as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and must be aligned with student achievement goals as outlined in the CEP. For additional guidance on the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC), go to the Protocols and Timeline for Title I Parent and Family Engagement Activities document.

Directions:

- All schools must indicate their Title I status in Part 1.
- All elements of the All Title I Schools section must be completed in Part 2.
- All Targeted Assistance (TA) Schools must also complete the TA Schools Only section in Part 3.
- All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools must also complete the SWP Schools Only section in Part 4.
- If a required component is addressed elsewhere in this plan, you may refer to the section or Priority where the response can be found.

Part 5: "Conceptual" Consolidation of Funds in SWP Schools

Directions: All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools in NYC are conceptually consolidating their Federal, State, and Local funds, even though the Galaxy system reports the allocations in separate accounting codes1. To be eligible for the flexibility consolidation of Federal funds, a Schoolwide Program school must identify in its Schoolwide plan (CEP) which programs are included in its consolidation and the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool. Additionally, the school plan must document that it has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated2. On the chart below, indicate which Federal, State, and/or local Tax Levy program funds that are consolidated in your school's Schoolwide Program, the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool, and verification that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated.
For the last two columns of this table: Place an (X) in Column A below to verify that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated. Indicate in Column B, the Priority or section that references where a related program activity has been described in this plan.

Explanation/Background

1. Explanation/Background:

Title I Schoolwide Program schools are expected to use the flexibility available to them to integrate services and programs with the aim of enhancing the entire educational program and helping all students reach proficient and advanced levels of achievement. In addition to coordinating and integrating services, Schoolwide Program schools may combine most Federal, State and local funds to provide those services. By consolidating funds from Federal, State, and local sources, a Schoolwide Program school can address its needs using all its available resources. This gives a school more flexibility in how it uses available resources to meet the identified needs of all its students.

Consolidating funds in a Schoolwide Program means that a school treats the funds it is consolidating like they are a single "pool" of funds. In other words, the funds from the contributing programs in the school lose their individual identity and the school has one flexible pool of funds. The school uses funds from this consolidated Schoolwide pool to support any activity of the Schoolwide Program without regard to which program contributed the specific funds used for a particular activity – so long as the use of funds meets the intent and purposes of the programs from which the funds originate. To consolidate funding in a Schoolwide Program, the school does not literally need to combine funds in a single account or pool with its own accounting code. Rather, the word "pool" is used conceptually to convey that a Schoolwide Program school has the use of all consolidated funds available to it for the dedicated function of operating a Schoolwide Program without regard to the identity of those funds.

Consolidating Federal funds in a Schoolwide Program has the following additional advantages:

- Consolidating Federal funds eases the requirements for accounting for funds from each specific program separately, because a Schoolwide school is not required to distinguish among funds received from different sources when accounting for their use.
- A school that consolidates Federal funds in its Schoolwide Program is not required to meet most of the statutory and regulatory requirements of the specific Federal programs included in the consolidation (e.g., semi-annual time and effort reporting for Title I). However, the school must ensure that it meets the intent and purposes of the Federal programs included in the consolidation so that the needs of the intended beneficiaries are met.

2. The intent and purposes of the Federal programs indicated on the chart above (Part 4c of this section) are as follows:

- Title I, Part A – Schoolwide Programs: To upgrade the entire educational program in the school in order to improve the academic achievement of all students, particularly the lowest-achieving students. This includes provision of services for Students in Temporary Housing (STH).
- Title I 1003(a), School Improvement: Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI), Additional Targeted Support and Improvement (ATSI) and Targeted Support and Improvement (TSI) Funding:

Support implementation of school improvement plans that aims to improve instruction and address the identified needs

Title II, Part A: Supplementary funding to improve student academic achievement by reducing class size in grades K, 1, 2, and 3, with an emphasis on grades with an average register greater than 20. If space is not available to form additional classes, funds may support push-in teacher(s) to supplement the instructional program. For schools that choose to reduce class size, priority must be given to reducing class size in general education settings and must demonstrate the following:

- Reduce class sizes to 15-18 students or fewer (including the use of co-teaching and floating teachers that bring the student to teacher ratio to one teacher per 15-18 students);
- Be accompanied by a rigorous curriculum, effective teachers, and a sustained, job-embedded professional development plan.

- Title III, Part A: To help ensure that children with limited English proficiency become proficient in English, develop high academic attainment in English, and meet the same challenging State academic content and achievement standards in the core academic subjects that all other children are expected to meet. Another purpose of this program is to increase the capacity of schools to establish, implement and sustain high-quality language instruction programs and English language development programs that assist schools in effectively teaching students with limited English proficiency. Title III, Part A is also designed to promote the participation of parents and communities of limited English proficient children in English language instruction programs.
- Title III Immigrant: Supplementary and enhanced services to immigrant students, in the areas of English language acquisition and content area achievement. Immigrant children and youth are defined as individuals who are aged 3 through 21, have not been attending school in any one or more states for more than three (3) full academic years, and were not born in any state. "State" means the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Children born to U.S. citizens abroad, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or any other U.S. territory that is not D.C. or Puerto Rico are to be considered immigrants.
- Title IV, Part A: Title IV funds are for schools that are among those with the greatest needs, have the highest numbers of students from low-income families, are identified for CS, ATSI or TSI, or are identified as persistently dangerous public schools. Allowable uses of funds under well-rounded education, safety and health, and educational technology include direct services for students, professional development for teachers and administrators, and supplemental educational resources. School allocations have been provided for well-rounded education, social emotional learning, cultural responsiveness awareness, professional development to support implementation of technology and blended learning environments, and community coordinators in schools with high rates of students in temporary housing

- Students in Temporary Housing (STH): Schools must describe their use of Title I STH funds in their consolidated application.

Important Note: The following funds may not be consolidated:

- Title I Parent Involvement Set-aside: Title I, Part A funds must support parent involvement activities and programs. Chancellor's Regulation A-655 requires School Leadership Teams to consult with Title I parent representatives regarding the Title I program and the use of these funds. Parent involvement activities funded through Title I must be included in the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and aligned with student achievement goals in the school comprehensive educational plan.
- IDEA: To ensure that all children with disabilities have available to them a free appropriate public education designed to meet their individual needs.
- Grant funds awarded via a competitive process: These funds must be used for the purposes specified by the Grantor, as described in the school's approved grant application.

Community Schools

Community School Partners

NYC Community Schools are committed to advancing equity by organizing resources and sharing leadership with community partners to support the whole child. Each Community School is different and reflects the strengths and needs of its students, families, and local community. The most successful Community Schools share common features, which are integrated into the fabric of the school and drive student learning. These features are Collaborative Leadership and Practice, Family and Community Engagement, Expanded Learning Time (ELT), and Wellness and Integrated Supports. Embedded throughout the work is a focus on incorporating anti-racist practices and differentiating supports, including attendance supports, for special populations. Since all school operations and actions are in service of improving the academic and non-academic achievement of its students, the annual schoolwide goals should be informed by the students, their achievement, and the opportunities provided to them. The school should develop these goals after a realistic and comprehensive analysis of its data, paying specific attention to the achievement of its subgroups and disproportionality.

Directions: Identify the partnerships with Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) that will support the achievement of annual goals through implementation of the Community School Core Features: Collaborative Leadership and Practice, Family and Community Engagement, Expanded Learning Time (ELT), and Wellness and Integrated Supports. Identify the target student population(s), provide a summary of the scope of the services and indicate the Priority or section(s) of the plan.

CBO Partners	Target Population	Scope of Service	Priority/section(s) and Annual Goal
Center for Family Life	Working families, temporary housing, single parents, special ed, general population	after school, counseling, neighborhood center	arts, academics, social development, counseling

Implementation of Community School Core Features & Components

Collaborative Leadership and Practice: Describe how the CBO will share leadership and engage in collaborative planning with the Community School to achieve the school's annual goals.

The CBO director will work closely with school leadership through attending monthly School Leadership Team Meetings, in person meetings & phone calls with school leaders as well as virtual family meetings as needed. Through the various communication modes, the CBO director will become familiar with the school's annual goals, progress monitoring and action plans for the year. This will foster allow alignment and cohesion between Ps 503 and the after school program that our students attend.

Family and Community Engagement: Describe how your Community School will develop authentic school-family partnerships, and create the conditions for families and community members to participate in decision-making, hold leadership roles that drive school change, and serve as partners in students' holistic development.

PS 503 values and promotes family engagement. We communicate daily with our families during morning arrival, dismissal, phone outreach and most especially our PS 503info email where families receive responses to their daily questions from the parent engagement team. Moreover, we have family meetings every month with families where a principal's report shares the latest most up to date information about school safety protocols, curriculum, and other school related topics.

Our families are invited to participate in the School Leadership Team where there is shared decision making and open discussions as a team to tackle problems that have arisen in the school community. Furthermore, parent members of the SLT present information to families on any given topic that was discussed at SLT meetings, providing transparency to families on how the team arrives at decisions including budgeting, curriculum, safety and the all important CEP goals.

PS 503 encourages all members of our school community to join the PTA where parents run for office and give their time to ensure that families are represented and empowered to become school leaders on behalf of families. The PTA Executive Board works closely with administration, building solid relationships of mutual respect and collaboration.

We are excited to invite families to cohost or host a topic of their choice connected to the theme during our monthly Virtual Family Nights. Families join breakout rooms and participate in activities, games and discussions led by staff members, most notably teachers and parent volunteers. Students are also encouraged to host/cohost breakout rooms as leaders and share their knowledge.

Implementation of Community School Core Features & Components

Wellness and Integrated Supports: Describe how your Community School will address out-of-school barriers to learning through partnerships with social and health service agencies and providers to help students attend school regularly and engage in learning through the provision of programs such as social emotional learning, conflict resolution training, and restorative justice.

The Center for Family Life's school based Social Workers work directly with PS 503's Clinical team to refer families to their Sunset Park based Family and Community support programs that include a comprehensive range of integrated services aimed to sustain and nurture families and to create a supportive community from which children can emerge as confident, capable adults.

The Community Services program offers support in times of crisis with services that address basic needs. Our school psychologist and school social worker have created student support groups providing Tier 2 social emotional interventions that address the needs outlined by the DESSA SEL administration. Students and families are referred for support based on needs assessment as discussed during our weekly special ed administration meeting. The team members include the clinical team, the IEP Teacher, a special ed specialist and the admin team.

Our families with food insecurity are urged to fill out a food pantry form that will allow them to pick up food from our pantry weekly. Grandma's Love Food Program donates bags of fresh vegetables and canned goods that serve our community and which many families have come to rely on to help feed their families every week. The services offered by our community school combines a food pantry with the resources of a Benefits Access Program and Advocacy Clinic to help families move toward stability. CFL's Benefits Access Program, our Health Insurance Enrollment Program, and our Action NYC Immigration Legal Services Program. Additionally, CFL's Social Workers work with the Clinical Team to identify families in need of additional supports such as Family Counseling, English as a Second Language Classes, Employment Services, and more.

Every Student, Every Day: Describe how your Community School will work with CBO partners to meet weekly and use data from DOE systems and New Visions for Public Schools to monitor trends in attendance, assign personalized interventions–including Success Mentors–to chronically absent students, and draw on community resources for support with removing barriers to attendance.

For support, you may access strategies here.

PS 503 has a very proactive approach to student attendance. We have an attendance team consisting of various stakeholders, including the school social worker, guidance counselor, various school aides and an admin who serves as the lead. Each member of the attendance team is assigned student cases as Success Mentors. The Success Mentors build strong relationships with students and families and support them in attending school consistently. The weekly attendance meetings are an opportunity to look closely at student attendance reports, school wide attendance trends and to track student attendance improvement or decline.

The District Attendance Liaison/Teacher Attends our attendance team meetings regularly and shares the latest updates with the team on how to best improve student attendance. She also shares resources and provides hands on guidance and support with chronic absenteeism and hard to reach students who have attendance challenges. We collaborate often with the District Support Person to ensure that we are accessing all of the support that is available to us in order to reduce absenteeism. She makes calls to special needs families when a chronic absentee problem is escalated often resulting in resolution of the problem.

The Center for Family Life provides additional staffing support to conduct outreach to families and provide targeted workshops for families.

Special Populations: Describe how your Community School will work with your partners to ensure students receive differentiated and culturally responsive supports. Describe how your Community School's systems and structures will be optimized to work for all students, including students in temporary housing, Multilingual Learner/English Language Learner (ML/ELL), and Students with Disabilities.

Our Community School partners with neighbor-hood based CBO Center for Life in Sunset Park (CFL) to enrich the lives of the families in our community and provide culturally responsive supports to all students by providing well-attended and impactful afterschool and summer camp programs that engage children and youth in consistent group and community-building activities that promote social, physical, academic and artistic development during out-of-school hours. Center for Family Life's school based multigenerational Neighborhood Center provides social and recreational activities for children, youth and adults in the evening and on weekends. Activities, classes, events and performances for parents, families and community members make our Beacon sites hubs of enriching, intergenerational programming for all ages.

In all of its youth-serving programs, Center for Family Life hires staff that reflect the community, cultures, and native languages of the students that we serve in the diverse neighborhood of Sunset Park, Brooklyn. Of CFL's school-based staff, 63% are Hispanic, 17% are White, 9% are Black, 6% are Asian, and 5% identify as other; 85% are community residents.

CBO staff also work together to develop participant activities and materials based on a culturally responsive pedagogy in which students' unique cultural strengths are identified and nurtured to promote achievement and a sense of well-being about students' cultural place in the world. We recognize the importance of including students' cultural references in all aspects of learning and design our youth development services accordingly. In addition, program and organizational leadership regularly participate in and contribute to coalitions working on racial justice in education, including the Coalition for Community School Excellence, among others.

Expanded Learning Time (ELT)

Describe how your Community School will offer opportunities for enrichment through after-school, weekend, and summer programs, as well as additional instruction, individualized academic support, and enrichment activities that emphasize real-world learning and community problem solving.

Refer to the Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) section of the CEP for the ELT program description indicating how the school's ELT program is offered to all eligible students considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards.

Language Allocation Policy Outline

Language Allocation Policy Outline

2025-26 Language Allocation Policy (LAP)

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents. When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

ENL coteachers pull Entering and Emerging students in one grade level for Standalone instruction. Language instruction is based on the current HMH unit theme or content (i.e. Plants, Cultures, Weather, Citizenship). This is extremely supportive for Newcomer ELLs because they are provided with additional language support within the context of grade level curriculum. When students return to the classroom for the literacy block they can utilize the language support received in Standalone to better access grade-level content. The ENL coteachers coplan with the classroom teacher to identify ENL needs and plan for ENL stand-alone instruction.

Integrated ENL:

Instruction for our English Language Learners is done through a wide-scale push-in model on all grade levels. We have 20 ENL coteachers delivering instruction, mainly in the literacy block. One ENL certified coteacher services 2-3 classes. This means that the one teacher splits their day, usually half with one class and half with the other class. All students are grouped in heterogeneous classes. When the ENL coteacher is in the classroom, they provide integrated ENL instruction in both heterogenous and homogenous small groups. ELLs receive targeted instruction in vocabulary acquisition, literacy skills such as reading and writing, and social language development based on their proficiency levels. ENL Coteachers plan with classroom teachers to identify scaffolds needed in other areas of the day to make content comprehensible to the ELLs in that room. ENL teachers also model the ways to incorporate language instruction into all instruction, content support and materials to help expedite their transition into English. Each class is heterogeneously mixed with students representative of English speakers, students who met the commanding proficiency level of the NYSESLAT, and ELLs who are at the Entering, Emerging, Transitioning and Expanding levels of language development. Since instruction is provided according to student need the students are often grouped and regrouped according to the lesson and their abilities. The school's triad model of one ENL teacher for 2 classrooms allows for greater flexibility in grouping and providing targeted heterogeneous block instruction or homogeneous block instruction as needed.

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)
Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

n/a

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

ENL instruction is provided within our Dual Language Spanish program using the triad model as well. The program is self-contained with approximately half native English speaking students and approximately half native Spanish speaking students. The ENL students in the class are of mixed proficiency levels. The bilingual teacher provides instruction in all academic areas in a simultaneous manner according to the language of the day. Additionally, each Dual Language classroom has a half time coteacher who is either bilingually certified or TESOL certified and fluent in Spanish. Students are grouped based on need--either heterogeneously or homogeneously. Sometimes students are flexed from one DL grade to another depending on their academic level and needs.

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

We exceed our mandated integrated minutes through our triad model of push-in co-teaching in Kindergarten through 5th grade. Since our triad model pairs one ENL certified teacher with 2-3 classes on a grade they create their schedules to accommodate the ENL teacher being in each class during the literacy block. The ENL teachers push in and co-teach with the classroom teachers, teaching English Language Arts through a variety of English as a New Language approaches and with materials designed to scaffold instruction and foster understanding for ELL students. With the above described model of servicing, we are able to service kindergarten through 5th grade students for a total of 125 minutes per day for a total of 625 minutes per week. This exceeds the mandated 360 minutes/week for entering and emerging students and the mandated 180 minutes/week for transitioning and expanding students. Instruction involves language rich, integrated content activities based on individual student need. Students are grouped according to data; groups are fluid and students are continuously reassessed and moved into different reading groups based on TCRWP reading levels. This structure also makes it easier for ENL teachers to find time for Standalone instruction sicne they are only pulling students from 2-3 classes rather than an entire grade or cross-grade groups.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

see above answer

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

Our Dual Language model is self-contained and English proficient students and ELLs are integrated for 100% of instruction and non-instructional time.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

English & Spanish

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

N/A

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

81.4% of our students are Newcomers. We utilize the following supports for our Newcomers:

-Support students' literacy skills using the phonics program Really Great Reading
-Targeted vocabulary instruction
-Offer more scaffolded lessons via HMH's Multilingual Instructional supports in Core Literacy curriculum
-Include students in Saturday Academy, a program to support struggling learners prepare for state assessments
-Include in Newcomer ELLs club in the Spring

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

We currently have three SIFE students (.9% of the school population). Along with the supports all newcomers get, we also differentiate instruction by:
-Utilizing results from the Multilingual SIFE Screener to inform instruction
-Intensifing support in Stand Alone and ELA core instruction
-Including as a priority in Newcomer ELLs club in the Spring

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

We are a K-5 school so we will never have long-term ELLs (ELLs with 7 or more years of service).

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

12% of our students are former ELLs. Due to our unique triad model for supporting ELLs (in which one ENL teacher services 2 classes), we provide at least 45 minutes of integrated literacy instruction daily for these students.

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

Our most common risk factor is students who are newcomers (81.4%) and have had 0-3 years of ELL services. Our second most common risk factor is ELLs who did not demonstrate ELP progress (41%). We also have many students in temporary housing (29.1%).

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

Again, many of our former ELLs are in temporary housing (22.1%) Another risk factor is former ELLs who scored a 1 or 2 on the ELA exam (16.2%).

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

The largest representation of home languages at our school are Spanish, Mandarin, and Arabic. We have two parent coordinators who speak Spanish and Mandarin who are the point people in supporting family communication. We also prioritize hiring staff members (teachers, paras, school aides, support staff) who are bilingual so that we can offer families personal translation for all meetings and students have almost always have access to a staff member who speak their native language. We also use the communication app Remind, which translates messages, for all written communication with families.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

We have 263 Hispanic ELLs in our school and 81 non-Hispanic ELLs. Our non-hispanic ELLs are Asian. We celebrate our students racial and ethnic backgrounds through our SEL work. All students participate in a schoolwide family event in which we learn about each others' cultures. We also have additional family events throughout the year celebrating our students unique backgrounds (Lunar New Year Celebration, Hispanic Heritage Month, Eid Celebration). We use the HMH curriculum's texts to highlight and celebrate differences in racial and ethnic backgrounds to support our CRSE goal of an inclusive curriculum. Also, the ILT created a checklist for staff to use to ensure they are meeting CR-SE standards. The checklist includes components for a welcoming and affirming environment and setting rigorous standards for all students. During IPCs, each staff member includes one CRSE goal in their professional goal and admin supports them in meeting this goal for ELLs.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

36% of our students met ELP sufficient progress. Of those students, 16.4% exited ELL status, 15% met annual progress target, and 3.6% met safe harbor cumulative growth. 64% of our students did not meet ELP sufficient progress.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

In grades 2-5 our students' strongest modality is Speaking. In grade 1 our students' strongest modality is Listening. In grades 2-5 our students' greatest need is Writing and in grade 1 our students' greatest need is Speaking.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

87% of our Commanding level ELLs received scores of 3 or 4 on the ELA and Math assessments. The ELLs who received scores of 1 or 2 on the ELA and Math assessments were levels Entering, Emerging, Transitioning, or Expanding. Our Commanding ELLs who received scores of 1 or 2 were dually designated.

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

The majority of our dually designated students scored Emerging and Transitioning levels on the NYSESLAT. Many of our students with IEPs have Speech and Language classifications so this may be impacting the students' ability to display language proficiency.

10. (For grades 9-12 only) Please review your data in the Insight Tool and STARS to answer the following questions:
a. How many ELLs are on-track towards graduation?

b. How many ELLs in grades 11-12 have a documented postsecondary plan in STARS or ATS?

c. What targeted strategies and interventions are in place to support ELLs who are currently off-track to graduate in four years?

d. What specific strategies, engaging approaches, and interventions are implemented to support and retain students who are not on track to graduate within four years, ensuring they remain enrolled and are guided towards a successful graduation in the future?

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

The PS 503 Theory of Action (TOA) is to provide students with explicit teaching of language & high utility vocabulary embedded in rich content with a focus on Culturally Responsive & Sustaining Education to center students' identities. The team has elaborated on the TOA as follows:

"Struggling readers & writers (predominantly ELLs and MLs) are not advancing at the rate we want them to, and those students who are advancing have discrepancies amongst their literacy assessments. We believe that if we explicitly teach the structures of language (vocabulary, phonics, grammar) and give students multiple opportunities to practice that language, embedded in rich content, language and overall literacy will improve." For the past four years, we have integrated Really Great Reading (RGR) K-2. Really Great Reading is a foundational literacy skills program that provides ELLS and MLs with preventative first-instruction, reading interventions, and revolutionary visual vocabulary to support language learners.

Embedding the theory of action within a framework of Integrated Curriculum & Learning is another aspect of instructional design: Integrated Curriculum with a focus on language acquisition & methods in ESL/ SPED to meet the needs of all students through the co-teaching models - fostering COHERENCE has been the long term instructional focus.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

The Instructional Leadership Team's Theory of Action (TOA) is to provide students with explicit teaching of language & high utility vocabulary embedded in rich content with a focus on Culturally Responsive & Sustaining Education to center students' identities. The team has elaborated on the TOA as follows:

"Struggling readers & writers (predominantly ELLs and MLs) are not advancing at the rate we want them to, and those students who are advancing have discrepancies amongst their literacy assessments. We believe that if we explicitly teach the structures of language (vocabulary, phonics, grammar) and give students multiple opportunities to practice that language, embedded in rich content, language and overall literacy will improve." For the past two years, we have integrated Really Great Reading (RGR) K-2. Really Great Reading is a foundational literacy skills program that provides ELLS and MLs with preventative first-instruction, reading interventions, and revolutionary visual vocabulary to support language learners.

Embedding the theory of action within a framework of Integrated Curriculum & Learning is another aspect of instructional design: Integrated Curriculum with a focus on language acquisition & methods in ESL/ SPED to meet the needs of all students through the co-teaching models - fostering COHERENCE has been the long term instructional focus.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

Instruction for our English Language Learners is done through a wide-scale push-in model on all grade levels. Our triad model of instruction allows one ENL certified teacher to work with only two classes. This affords teachers the flexibility to create schedules allowing the ENL teacher to be in each room during the literacy block. The literacy block follows the HMH Into Reading curriculum and all lessons are aligned to the Common Core Learning Standards. In addition, many ENL teachers co-teach social studies with the classroom teachers. Teachers co-plan all lessons with the ENL teacher providing input as to best approaches to provide instruction, such as the use of KWL charts, scaffolded discussion prompts and graphic organizers. This includes planning for lessons presented in the absence of the ENL teacher, thereby allowing the classroom teacher to use best ENL practices to present instruction. Visual word walls and charts to scaffold progress and actively support instruction. We believe experiential learning is critical for all children, especially ELLs. Through hands-on, visual learning, ELLs are exposed to materials and experiences that allow them to utilize a variety of modalities in both English and their native language. While instruction is presented in English, native language is incorporated into classroom instruction whenever possible to expedite the students' transition into English. Student materials, such as writing checklists, are translated into native language to support those students literate in their own language. Lessons are previewed in native language to support understanding of content and facilitate students' participation in whole class less ons. As per the common core standards, students are expected to access information and demonstrate understanding, critical analysis and evaluation of material as appropriate for their stage of development. All students are expected to respond, orally and in written form, to inform and to demonstrate understanding. Students are expected to compare and contrast texts, in all content areas and to make inferences and draw conclusions. They provide evidence and cite examples to support their conclusions. Scaffolded discussions, sentence prompts, charts with transitional words are a few of the supports provided to help foster students' acquisition of language and help them meet these standards and expectations.

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

We use a variety of instructional strategies to access and accelerate learning among ELLs/SWDs. Some of these strategies are shared experiences, visual thinking strategies, kinesthetic learning opportunities, immersion in literary genres and provision of hands-on manipulatives. Sign language, music and hand motions are aligned to word work to provide students with sensory experiences to support acquisition of English letters and words. Music, songs and physical movement incorporated into learning activities allow students to access multiple modes of learning as they need. Content materials are adapted and scaffolded as appropriate to the students' academic needs, regardless of grade level. High interest, low ability books are used to provide students access to grade level content even if they read below grade level. Student word walls, strategy cards and vocabulary charts are individualized according to student needs. Differentiated charts are present in all classrooms to provide students with visual supports best suited to them. Use of UDL strategies and approaches, such as information provided orally, visually and in written form, offer students various pathways to understanding. Native language previews of lessons and explanations of materials help students understand lessons and how to use the materials. We make use of technological appliances through the use of bilingual software and web-based programs such as Lexia, Raz-Kids and Brainpop ENL, which offer visual and auditory language learning opportunities. Mandated services are recorded in service provider logs. We employ bilingual speech providers and counselors and have alternative placement paraprofessionals to support students in native language.

Also, teachers of MLs/ELLs use HMH Into Reading materials to support learners' needs. IEP teachers and ENL teachers work together to ensure ELLs with IEPs have access to all instruction. Within each HMH Literacy lesson, there are proposed supports for ELLs, including table-top charts, targeted small group instruction lesson plans, and talk prompts and sentence starters. Students receive vocabulary instruction daily and use vidoes, definitions, role-playing, and vocabulary semantic webs to interact with the words. Core instruction includes rich culturally responsive read alouds, with student access to online to listen to read alouds for a second time. Padlet, Jamboard, and station teaching are also methods used to support students' needs.

b. SIFE

We use a variety of instructional strategies to access and accelerate learning among ELLs, SWDs, and SIFE students. Some of these strategies are shared experiences, visual thinking strategies, kinesthetic learning opportunities, immersion in literary genres and provision of hands-on manipulatives. Sign language, music and hand motions are aligned to word work to provide students with sensory experiences to support acquisition of English letters and words. Music, songs and physical movement incorporated into learning activities allow students to access multiple modes of learning as they need. Content materials are adapted and scaffolded as appropriate to the students' academic needs, regardless of grade level. High interest, low ability books are used to provide students access to grade level content even if they read below grade level. Student word walls, strategy cards and vocabulary charts are individualized according to student needs. Differentiated charts are present in all classrooms to provide students with visual supports best suited to them. Use of UDL strategies and approaches, such as information provided orally, visually and in written form, offer students various pathways to understanding. Native language previews of lessons and explanations of materials help students understand lessons and how to use the materials. We make use of technological appliances through the use of bilingual software and web-based programs such as Lexia, Raz-Kids and Brainpop ENL, which offer visual and auditory language learning opportunities. Mandated services are recorded in service provider logs. We employ bilingual speech providers and counselors and have alternative placement paraprofessionals to support students in native language.

c. Newcomers

We use a variety of instructional strategies to access and accelerate learning among ELLs, SWDs, and SIFE students. Some of these strategies are shared experiences, visual thinking strategies, kinesthetic learning opportunities, immersion in literary genres and provision of hands-on manipulatives. Sign language, music and hand motions are aligned to word work to provide students with sensory experiences to support acquisition of English letters and words. Music, songs and physical movement incorporated into learning activities allow students to access multiple modes of learning as they need. Content materials are adapted and scaffolded as appropriate to the students' academic needs, regardless of grade level. High interest, low ability books are used to provide students access to grade level content even if they read below grade level. Student word walls, strategy cards and vocabulary charts are individualized according to student needs. Differentiated charts are present in all classrooms to provide students with visual supports best suited to them. Use of UDL strategies and approaches, such as information provided orally, visually and in written form, offer students various pathways to understanding. Native language previews of lessons and explanations of materials help students understand lessons and how to use the materials. We make use of technological appliances through the use of bilingual software and web-based programs such as Lexia, Raz-Kids and Brainpop ENL, which offer visual and auditory language learning opportunities. Mandated services are recorded in service provider logs. We employ bilingual speech providers and counselors and have alternative placement paraprofessionals to support students in native language.

d. Long Term ELLs

As stated earlier, we support our newcomer students that fall in the less than three year categories through small group instruction in the literacy block and co- planning with the classroom teacher to implement scaffolds that help these students in the content areas. We support their preparation for the ELA test through the literacy block. Students at ELA test grade levels practice the skills that they will see on the ELA and understand the process of taking a test. Students are instructed at their level, so our plan looks like small group instruction that is targeted to the needs of the students. We have also implemented a newcomer program at individual grade levels. These students meet with ENL certified teachers and work in small groups targeted at their language and educational needs. Our ELL's that have been serviced between 4 to 6 years pose different issues to the ENL and classroom teacher. Their needs are addressed through co-planning, where the ENL teacher is helping the classroom teacher differentiate and understand their growth and needs as they are transitioning toward English proficiency. They are also monitoring if the student seems to stagnate and they look at interventions to try to move them through that stage. Students demonstrating difficulty with writing are given additional support on essay expansion and development. We collaborate through co-planning between all support people and the classroom teacher on how to support these students. Long term ELLs are assessed in literacy and the results are compared to their NYSESLAT results to determine possible areas of overlap that can be supported to help them improve academically. ENL teachers and special education teachers meet through co-planning with the classroom teacher. ENL teachers are aware and have access to the Individualized Education Plan and are able to communicate with the special education teacher on how to best support the IEP as well as ENL issues. Students are assessed formally and informally on a regular basis in both ELA and Math. Individualized intervention plans are designed for students performing below grade level. All of the following intervention services are provided in English with native language support (through a bilingual teacher or paraprofessional) as necessary. Student progress is recorded through conference notes, small group observation sheets, checklists, and formal interim assessment tools. If a student's academic needs more closely align with a different grade-level, students are then invited to join a classroom on that grade-level for academic instruction. Since students receive math instruction in English with native language support, we make sure to support students who are taking the State Math test in their native language to ensure that they are prepared to demonstrate their understanding of the content in their native language. Several weeks prior to the test, teachers and/or paraprofessionals work with students to review math vocabulary in students' native language and to familiarize them with the testing language. In addition, translated information and teaching tools are sent home to parents. For any subgroup, the targeted interventions that we provide directly correspond to the instruction that all students receive during the school day. Teachers collaborate with colleagues across the grades to appropriately target instruction. For example, a 4th grade teacher will work with a 1st grade teacher to plan and implement an emergent guided reading lesson. All teaching is directed by student need and is not bound by grade level. Our Science program is Amplify, where students are immersed in an in-depth, hands-on program that is differentiated through co- planning between the ENL coordinator and the Science teachers. One of our lower grade science teacher is ENL certified. Paraprofessionals support the curriculum and content through native language use. In addition, native language texts are available for student use. There is a clear ENL component in the program with differentiation for lessons and vocabulary development. Teachers responsed to the lack of picture support for targeted vocabulary by creating their own visuals. Reading and writing components are always included in the lessons and are directly related to the hands-on activities for easier acquisition of words and understanding of content. UDL approaches of presenting information orally, visually and in written form allow students multiple pathways to understanding. Our Social Studies program allows opportunities for students to work in heterogeneous groups to create group projects. ENL teachers co-teach social studies with the classroom teachers using ENL practices and native language support when appropriate to present information. Topical books are provided to children on their individual reading levels in both English and their native language. In addition, topical books in English, scaffolded according to reading level, allow students of differing abilities to access information on the same grade level topic. We believe experiential learning is critical for all children, and especially ELLs. Through hands-on, visual learning, ELLs are exposed to materials and experiences that allow them to utilize a variety of modalities in both English and their native language. Bilingual staff provide native language support to students requiring such support.

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

Instruction for our English Language Learners is done through a wide-scale push-in model on all grade levels. We have 22 ENL co-teachers delivering instruction, mainly in the literacy block. One ENL certified co-teacher services two classes. This means that the one teacher splits their day, half with one class and half with the other class. The ENL co-teachers co-plan with the classroom teacher to identify ENL needs and plan for ENL stand-alone instruction. Additionally, co-planning includes identifying scaffolds needed in other areas of the day to make content comprehensible to the ELLs in that room. ENL teachers also model the ways to incorporate language instruction into all instruction, content support and materials to help expedite their transition into English. Each class is heterogeneously mixed with students representative of English speakers, students who met the commanding proficiency level of the NYSESLAT, and ELLs who are at the Entering, Emerging, Transitioning and Expanding levels of language development. Since instruction is provided according to student need the students are often grouped and regrouped according to the lesson and their abilities. The school 's triad model of one ENL teacher for 2 classrooms allows for greater flexibility in grouping and providing targeted instruction.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

Families are included in the decisions for language support for each individual family through the emergency contact form and the home language surveys. New arrivals to our school are interviewed and their families are asked their home language preference form. Thereafter, the family receives all communication in the home language of their preference.

We believe native language is an integral part of our differentiation in the classroom. The ENL teachers have a library of native language materials to help fill in any gaps cross grade levels. Many of our ENL teachers are bilingual in languages represented at our school. This is helpful to aide in translation of content and materials. We also use co-planning between the ENL teacher and the classroom teacher to create intentional groupings (a non-speaker paired with a bilingual student, or put in a triad). Bilingual teachers help to deliver content area instruction in native language where needed and bilingual paraprofessionals are also available to help support students. In math, these bilingual paras help to deliver content instruction in the students' native language, as needed. In addition, students have access to math bilingual dictionaries that they can use to help them translate math specific vocabulary. Students who need it receive in class and homework assignments in their native language. In ELA, the bilingual teachers and paraprofessionals work with students to develop their English Language reading and writing skills by providing the necessary translation to access the content. A newcomer toolkit has been created that includes translated documents such as reading logs, math sheets, and writing explanations. The translated materials that explain classroom routines are available for teachers to access as needed. These items include visuals as well as native language support. Small group math test prep occurs in native language. All materials sent home are translated. In the Dual Language program instruction and assessment is provided in both English and Spanish according to the language of the day. Reading assessments are completed in both languages.

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

n/a

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

Our school's unique triad model for co-teaching supports collaboration among teachers for Stand-alone ENL, Integrated ENL, and Dual Language. One ENL co teacher supports two classrooms in both Stand-alone and integrated instruction. This allows the ENL coteacher to truly know each ELL and gives ample planning time with the classroom teachers. We have the same structure for our DL teams.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

All teachers, ENL, general education and special education, participate in professional development at school and outside of the school. There are various types of professional development offered in house and outside the school. Regardless of the teachers' certification our student population is primarily ELLs, therefore the emphasis of most of our professional development for all staff is focused on ELL support. Every teacher participates in a 80 minutes weekly professional development with other colleagues on their grade, facilitated by an ENL certified teacher. These groups select topics based upon the needs of their students, primarily focusing on language acquisition in terms of comprehensible input and output. Topics include: MSV for ELLs, Inferential Comprehension, Engagement Methods and Language Acquisition, Strategies for Supporting ELLs. In addition they address best practices in co-teaching methods and incorporating content in language instruction. Through their study of the topic and through classroom observations, teachers develop strategies and routines and then implement them within their classrooms. HMH Into Reading staff developers have been hired to provide literacy based professional development to all our teachers, including ENL teachers. All of this professional development on curriculum design is aligned to the Common Core Standards. Our focus is on active engagement and accountable talk in conjunction with language acquisition. This focus is particularly relevant to our ELLs since informal assessments and teacher observations have shown a lack of active engagement on behalf of many of our ELLs. Also, our literacy and RTI coaches provide ample professional development to all teachers on various topics within reading and writing. They also provide individual coaching based on teacher/student need. All bilingual staff members receive professional development in dealing with ELL students and their parents with regard to supporting them as translators. Non-pedagogues receive professional development in understanding and translating academic language

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154

(15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

ENL certified teachers are provided professional development through various structures.
Topic PD: Teacher facilitated PD that addresses are areas of instruction surrounding language acquisition, comprehension, engagement, universal design, modification of instruction, ENL best practices and content integration and assessment of understanding. Agendas, attendance sheets, artifacts, materials and Google docs with meeting notes serve as record of the various professional development activities.
Agency-based PD: Through various professional development organizations--Advancing Literacy, Teaching for Biliteracy--ENL certified teachers are offered ELL-specific PD opportunities to attend PD outside of the school building.
Our ENL Instructional lead will also share District- and Union-led professional development opportunities.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

The following assessments are used as screeners 3 times per year:
Acadience Reading (Gr K-2)
I-Ready Reading (Gr 3-5)
I-Ready Math (Gr K-5)
Estrellita: A supplemental, phonics based, accelerated beginning Spanish reading program that provides multi-sensory instruction in phonemic awareness, phonics and fluency and incorporates visual cues, chanting, kinesthetic activities and whole language strategies. In addition we look at trends of student progress, across grades as well as individually, to determine if we need to focus on a particular area of language literacy.

Really Great Reading (RGR) Assessments K-3: These phonics assessments are administered 3 times per year to inform teachers about what students are able to do with more support as these assessments are untimed--versus Acadience screeners which are timely and provide data around fluency and mastery.

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

We use the data derived from our formal and informal assessments to drive our instruction for all our students. We strive to provide universal designs for learning to our students thereby offering all students an appropriate pathway to understanding of content, and language acquisition, be it English language for the ENL student, specific content language or academic language for all students. Within the RTI framework all of our students receive instruction as per Tier I.

Our focus for ELLs is primarily on language acquisition, especially on oral language development, as this is linked to greater reading comprehension and abilities at higher levels of study. Those students who are seen to be struggling, as indicated by assessments and observation are offered interventions best deemed to provide support in the areas of difficulty (Tiers II and III). We use HMH Multilingual Supports for students who need more support in HMH. We also will provide Tier III foundational skill support using SPIRE. Carefully targeted instruction is provided and consistently reviewed and analyzed to determine if the difficulties are the natural development of language acquisition or if they indicate a learning disability, often confused with behaviors presented by students learning a second language. It is only when, after carefully structured and scaffolded, high-quality instruction is provided for ample time with little or slow result evident in student learning that a student is considered to require an individual education plan and receives a formal evaluation (Tier IV).

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

Using screener assessments and end-of-unit RGR assessments, teachers review data for students each marking period to determine Tier III small group needs. Teachers will also progress monitor every two weeks using the SPIRE assessments. The Instructional Leadership Team then meets biweekly to review MTSS data with the MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs as guidance.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

We evaluate the success of our programs for ENL students through school-based assessments. We use HMH weekly assessments, HMH Module Performance tasks, Bridges Math end-of unit assessments, and Really Great Reading phonics assessments to drive our instruction as well as to evaluate all programs. We look to see if our ENL students are progressing, even within a constant proficiency level, and if the intensive scaffolds and small group instruction is working. In our Dual Language K-2 classes Estrellita is used for phonics and reading readiness assessment of all students. Estrellita is a supplemental, phonics based, accelerated beginning Spanish reading program that provides multi-sensory instruction in phonemic awareness, phonics and fluency and incorporates visual cues, chanting, kinesthetic activities and whole language strategies.

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

When a Spanish-speaking student enters PS 503 and does not pass the NYSITELL we administer the Spanish Lab to the student to determine the extent of the student's receptive and expressive language in Spanish. In addition we use Fountas and Pinnell's Sistema de Evaluacion de la Lectura to determine the student's literacy level in Spanish. Since there is no equivalent to the Spanish LAB in other languages we utilize informal assessments. These take the form of book discussions and conferences in native language with students using books in the student's language. In all areas of study, we continually assess, in English, to determine student understanding and the next steps of instruction. We use the same process in native language with staff members, who speak the same language as the students, conferencing with students to determine their understanding of content. In the Dual Language program students are assessed in both languages. Reading assessments (running records) are conducted in English and Spanish. Math assessments are administered according to the language of the day.

Our Dual Language students are assessed informally both in English and Spanish throughout the year to plan small group instruction and targeted 1:1 instruction for students. They are also formally assessed in English and Spanish to inform reporting tools to families such as report cards and progress letter.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

We evaluate the success of our programs for ENL students through NYSESLAT assessments, ELA/Math State assessments, and formal school-based assessments. Data drives our instruction as well as our evaluation of all programs. We currently evaluate our success through examining our periodic RGR, Acadience, and Into Reading Module Assessment data. We look to see if our ENL students are progressing, even within a constant proficiency level, and if their intensive scaffolds and small group instruction is working. In our Dual Language K-2 classes Estrellita is used for phonics and reading readiness assessment of all students. Estrellita is a supplemental, phonics based, accelerated beginning Spanish reading program that provides multi-sensory instruction in phonemic awareness, phonics and fluency and incorporates visual cues, chanting, kinesthetic activities and whole language strategies.

By analyzing improvements in NYSESLAT scores over years we identify trends that are reflective of the procedures implemented each year. The increase in the scaffolds in K-2 instruction directly correlates to the increase in advancement in proficiency in those grades. The increase in the number of students who achieve the commanding level of proficiency indicates that the structures and supports we have put in place are supporting their language acquisition. As students demonstrate proficiency, scaffolds are removed to allow students more independence as there is need for less support.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

The assistant principal in charge of ENL and the ENL coordinator create a plan to administer the NYSESLAT to 62% of students. They plan the PD and training for teachers, creates groups of testing and non-testing students, and create a schedule for administration. Certified teachers then administer the NYSESLAT across multiple days. Due to our school's large staff, we are able to pace NYSESLAT testing in a way that allows students to still receive mandated services during the testing period. Former ELLs receive their services from a teacher while current ELLs are taking the NYSESLAT test. Teachers also alter their class schedules during testing so that when students have finished testing, ELLs receive targeted core instruction.

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

The assistant principal in charge of ENL and the ENL coordinator create a plan to administer the all state exams. Because they are familiar with the ELL subgroup, they ensure that all students receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including ELA, Math and NYSESLAT. IEPs are reviewed and ELL status is reviewed. During practice test days, teachers provide ENL/testing coordinator with notes about student needs and accommodations are made based on these needs.

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

At the beginning of each year, the Family Engagement team, AP in charge of ENL/testing and ENL/testing coordinator collaborate to plan for ELL Program Orientations for Incoming Kindergarten families and other new admits. Multiple meetings dates are offered to families in the evening in order to accommodate working families to ensure that meetings are held within the first 10 days of school (20 days for students with IEPs). All meetings are translated in home language using interpretation equipment. Families are provided with information about ELL Programs through the NYSED video and via question and answer protocol with our Family Engagement team. School staff support families in completing the ELL Program Choice Agreement. Any family that is interested in a program that is not offered at our school is provided with resources about which schools may have those programs and PS 503 staff conduct outreach to those schools to support families in enrolling at other schools if necessary.

After the beginning of the year, the ENL coordinator coordinates with the Family Engagement Team to schedule appointments, and the family's convenience, for ELL Program Orientations within 10 days of registering at PS 503.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note:

this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

Annual Individual Meetings are held with families of students who are ELLs in between November PTCs and March PTCs. This interim meeting with families ensures that students who are ELLs receive additional attention and support. During this meeting, teachers, in home language, review critical data related to student reading and mathematics progress. Teachers explain strategies for families to support students at home with English Language Acquisition. We also create a ELL Proficiency Report that explains each student's ELL Level, strengths and weaknesses in language modalities, and language supports that can be used at home.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

All communication to families is now shared digitally in 2 ways:

Email: All school wide communication is shared via email to families regularly. This email is translated into the 3 home languages in our school--Spanish, Chinese and Arabic. Families may respond to these emails in home language and our Family Engagement Team reviews and responds to emails daily.

Remind: All families are invited to the Remind app and can communicate with teachers in their home language, as translation is automatic via this app. Teachers use their family engagement time to conduct outreach to families, answer questions, etc.

Additional translation:

Report Cards: We provide families with translated paper copies of the Report Card template to ensure that they understand student grading items. We also provide a report card letter explaining the report card line items and district grading policy. We also provide a report card workshop to explain to families what the line items and grades mean and how they can use this information to best support thier children at home.

IEPs: We are working on a protocol to ensure that families of students with IEPs can access the information in IEPs in home language.

We also ensure to advertise all school meetings and events on our social media accounts and via physical posters hung at all entrances that families can see during arrival and dismissal.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

Through our community schools partnership with Center for Family Life, we review survey data to determine the needs of all families in our school. This survey data impacts how CFL in partnership with PS 503 provides opportunities for families--including the need for English Language classes that are held at the school, social services support and immigration services support.

As a school community, we have also moved to all digital forms which can seem overwhelming to some of our families who are at risk. Our family engagement team plays a special role in support families with completing forms digitally, getting access to NYCSA, and accessing Remind and Zoom. In doing so, families are better able to access their child's information, communicate with school staff and attend regular school meetings.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

All school wide communication, including PTA & SLT elections notices, is shared via email to families regularly. Emails are translated into the 3 home languages in our school--Spanish, Chinese and Arabic. Families may respond to these emails in home language and our Family Engagement Team reviews and responds to emails daily.

We also ensure to advertise all school meetings and events on our social media accounts and via physical posters hung at all entrances that families can see during arrival and dismissal.

Our family engagement team and often members of our PTA Executive Board are also present during arrival and dismissal to recruit families to these possible leadership opportunities. We often recruit volunteers for our many family events as a first tier to help families best understand leadership opportunities at PS 503 and get to know our school community from this perspective.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

Teaching for Biliteracy - The Center for Teaching for Biliteracy supports and advocates for the education of developing bilinguals: English learners/emergent bilinguals and all students in language development programs. This work is accomplished through the implementation of the biliteracy mindset and biliteracy systems.

Reveye - an education consultancy and a global community that designs and facilitates culturally sustaining, healing-centered, spiritually grounding, and trauma-responsive personal and professional development experiences. We provide educational opportunities, curricular design, transformative coaching, workshops, keynotes, strategic planning.

We also partner with:
Center for Family Life
Sunset Spark
Child Mind Institute
NYU Community School Partnership

Part VII: Additional Information

Additional Information

Include any additional information that is relevant to your LAP and would further explain and highlight how your school supports MLs/ELLs. This form does not allow graphics and charts to be pasted.

NA

Part VIII: ELL Identification Attestation and Principal Certification

Identification Plan

For additional information, refer to ELL Identification Attestation Professional Learning Module.

1. What are the titles of the members of your ELL identification team? Note: Members of the ELL identification team must be pedagogues.

The ENL Teacher/ELL Coordinator and two ENL Teachers

2. Describe the structures and process in place for identification of ELLs year-round as required by the NYC DOE Policy & Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, including your school's identification plan for any incoming students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Include:

- How your school proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs,
- Who is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process, and
- School's plan for ensuring ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated instruction.

At the end of each school year, our ELL Identification Team outlines and revises the ELL identification process steps to ensure ELLs are correctly identified and teachers understand steps and roles. When we schedule a registration, the ELL Coordinator is responsible for identifying an ENL teacher to interview the student and administer the HLIS. The ELL Coordinator chooses an ENL teacher based on the grade level of the child and the schedule of the ENL teacher. Once the HLIS and student interview are completed by the ENL teacher, the ELL Coordinator completes the following steps:
-Identifies possible ELL students based on HLIS and student interview
-Gathers the LPT if student has an IEP
-Prepares NYSITELL & Spanish LAB-R (if applicable) tests and answer documents and gives them to grade level ENL teacher to administer
-Scans tests and determines ELL status
-Plans and completes ELL Orientations
-Programs student based on Parent Choice and inputs choice in ELPC

The ELL Coordinator has a part time schedule so she is able to complete all of these steps without interrupting mandated ENL instruction. One of our ENL teachers who is a member of the ELL Coordination Support Team and the ELL Identification Team has also been trained to complete all above steps if the ELL Coordinator is not available. This teacher is also in charge of creating all relevant ELL letters and maintaining student records.

Principal Certification

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, I, attest that the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to, and staff are trained on the items listed below.

- The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).
- Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined:
  a. If a student has been in New York State public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.
  b. If a student has been outside of New York State public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL Identification Process as part of reentry.

- The home language of the student is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue.
  a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

- An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.
- Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.
  a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

- Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.
- Notification letters are sent to the parent/guardian in their preferred language.
  a. Parent is notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

- If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish Language Assessment Battery (LAB).
- Student with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources.
- If a student is a newly identified ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.
  a. The parent orientation meeting provides parents/guardians with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents/guardians are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

- ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.
  a. If the bilingual program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that bilingual program in accordance with NYC DOE transfer policies.
  b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a New Language and our school keeps track of parent selection so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

- Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).
- If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.
- Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in the students' cumulative files.

LTI Overview and Part A: Designation of a LAC

Chancellor's Regulation A-663 establishes procedures for ensuring that Limited-English-Proficient (LEP) parents of students enrolled in the New York City public schools are provide with a meaningful opportunity to participate in and have access to programs and services critical to their child's education. To this end, schools must review and complete the annual LTI Plan to address its language assistance needs consistent with the requirements of this regulation.

The LTI Plan requires information on the following:

- Name of person designated as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC).
- Identification and assessment of LEP parent population.
- Identification of Critical Communications and standing, in-person meetings throughout the school year that require language assistance services and how the school plans to respond to these needs.
- Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.
- Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

Methods for the school to solicit and implement feedback on its provision of language assistance services.

Designation of a LAC
Name of person designated and trained as the LAC.
At the start of each school year, each principal is required to designate at least one staff member to serve as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC), responsible for overseeing language assistance services within the school.

We have pre-populated the following information based on our records. Please confirm that the designated staff member(s) are your school's Galaxy-designated LAC(s) and provide the date(s) they attended the OLA Language Access Coordinator Training. Note that this training is in addition to the mandatory asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. If any information is missing, please provide the requested details.

As a reminder, LACs are internal staff designations and are not meant to serve as the primary point of contact for families regarding language access-related matters. The Parent Coordinator, or another designated staff member, should remain the main contact for families regarding all issues, including language access.

Part C: Parent Communications and Engagement

Parent Communication and Engagement

Identification of written critical communications and in-person meetings throughout the school year that require language assistance services and how the school plans to respond to these needs.

1. List the documents your school typically distributes each year that require translation, along with your plan for translating these documents.

Document Type (e.g. parent flyers, IEPs, etc.)	How do you plan to implement the translation process? Please include procedures and resources to ensure the timely delivery of translated documents to parents.
All Communication to Families from Administration and Teachers	Translation Protocol in Family Communications document. (All communication is drafted in English in the Family Communications shared document. Once the draft is approved, it is translated into Spanish, Chinese, and Arabic by our internal team of translators. The Family Communications document is reviewed on a daily basis to update it with the latest documents that require translation
Flyers	Fliers are drafted and shared in Canva and translated into Spanish, Chinese, and Arabic.
Social Media	All social media is translated into Spanish, Chinese, and Arabic. The social media committee meets on a bimonthly basis to determine a schedule of social media posts that will go out in the subsequent weeks. Once social media posts are finalized, they are shared with our internal team of translators into the respective languages of our families.
Surveys	All school surveys are translated by our internal team of translators.
Report Cards	All report cards are translated into families' preferred languages. We maintain a Report Card Comment Bank with translations in our families' preferred languages. The Report Card comment bank is an ongoing work in process and allows for us to update comments as well
PTA Notices	All PTA information is translated into families' preferred languages.

2. List the meetings, both in-person and virtual, that your school typically holds with parents throughout the school year, along with your plans for providing interpretation services at those meetings.

Meeting Type (e.g. parent workshops, PTCs)	How do you plan to offer interpretation services? Please outline the procedures and resources in place to ensure timely access to interpretation for parents.
Monthly PTA Meetings & Monthly Principal Meetings	We have a family engagement team consisting of our Parent Coordinator, Parent Liasion, and a School Aide who provide interpretation for all formal face-to-face group meetings in Spanish, Mandarin, and Arabic respectively. At family events, our families are given headphones to access synchronous interpretation services. Headphones are regularly maintained to ensure there is sufficient hardware, switched to the appropriate language channel, to allow families to access interpretation services.
Parent Workshops	We have a family engagement team consisting of our Parent Coordinator, Parent Liasion, and a School Aide who provide interpretation for all formal face-to-face group meetings in Spanish, Mandarin, and Arabic respectively. At family events, our families are given headphones to access synchronous interpretation services. Headphones are regularly maintained to ensure there is sufficient hardware, switched to the appropriate language channel, to allow families to access interpretation services
Parent Teacher Conferences	Roughly two weeks ahead of formal PTCs that occur in November and March, we create a Translation Request spreadsheet for teachers to request translators. We staff the requested number of translators to ensure there is interpretation for families. We utilize our partnerships with CBOs to ensure interpretation needs are met.
IEP Meetings and Teacher/Family Requested Meetings	We have an internal Translation Request document that all PS503 members can edit to request translation support from our Family Engagement team or other bilingual school staff. The document is monitored on a daily basis and translators are assigned.

3. Describe the resources and processes your school will use to communicate with parents who speak a language other than English during an emergency (e.g., lockdown, fire, student attendance, nurse/hospital visit, etc.), or when a parent needs to contact the school in an emergency, ensuring communication is in their preferred language.

Following a school-wide emergency, we notify families via email and Remind in all languages. The application automatically translates our communication into families' home language. Our internal team of translators translates any communication immediately (for example, emails.)

Part D: Staff Awareness

Staff Awareness

Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.

1. Describe how your school will ensure that all staff members complete the required asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform, and are familiar with the Best Practices for When to Provide Translation of Critical Written Communications to Parents and Best Practices for When to Provide Interpretation for Critical Oral Communications with Parents. Additionally, explain how your Galaxy-designated LAC will disseminate future language access resources and updates to all staff members.

We have protocols built in to ensure that all staff members are aware of the interpretation and translation services that are available to ensure families have unrestricted access with communication in their preferred language. These protocols are shared in the Staff Handbook and ahead of all family events, we communicate with staff that they need to submit translation requests for their families.

Part E: Parental Notification

Parental Notification

Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

1. Describe how your school will inform parents about available language assistance services in their preferred language. Include any of the following:

- Translated signage
- Brochures, flyers, or letters shared with parents
- Parent engagement events where language assistance services are highlighted (e.g., PTA meetings, international parents' night, etc.)
- Messaging applications

- Language Access for NYC Public Schools Families brochure

All communication (email, Remind messages, in-person conversations) from the beginning of the year is offered in multiple languages. At monthly PTA and Coffee with the Principal meetings, we reiterate that families have full access to interpretation in the language that supports them.
Translated signage is posted at the main entrance and the office by the LAC.

Part F: Monitoring

Monitoring

Methods for soliciting and implementing feedback on language assistance services.

1. In addition to the feedback received from parents via OLA's Translation & Interpretation Feedback Survey, describe the methods your school will use to gather feedback from parents regarding the language assistance services they receive in their preferred language.

After ELL orientations parents are asked to fill out a survey regarding the structure of the meeting and the quality of the translation services. Parents are also invited to share any feedback with teachers during family engagement time.

Families provide feedback regularly during PTA meetings and during Coffee with the Principal--these meetings take place monthly.
Our multi-lingual Family Engagement Team is available every morning and every afternoon during arrival and dismissal to receive inquiries and feedback from families. Our Family Engagement Team meets weekly to discuss this feedback and implement any changes.
After family workshops, families complete a survey (in home language) to provide feedback and to inform the content and structures of future workshops.
Annual ENL student meetings with teachers support families in understanding the services that students are receiving in school and in after school programs, when applicable. Teachers gather feedback from families at this time and share out with their Instructional Lead teachers on their grade level.

2. How has your school worked to improve its language assistance services? Share any feedback results and outline your plans for further improvements in the upcoming school year.

We have utilized multiple structures to improve language assistance for our families. For all PTA meetings, parent teacher conferences, and interim parent meetings, we utilize multilingual staff members to offer the most accurate and supportive translation. We also ensure all schoolwide written communication is translated accurately by utilizing our multilingual parent support staff, rather than relying on applications such as Google translate. If teachers do use web applications to translate information for parents, we will have multilingual parent support staff read and revise translations if necessary. We are always open to feedback from parents and give multiple opportunities such as Family Friday, Coffee with the Principal, and parent groups during Saturday Academy.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

It is our priority of the 2025-2026 school year is to ensure that our students are supported academically as well as social emotionally. Our ENL population being one of the subgroups at PS 503 who is identified as having specific instructional needs, will have supplemental supports to help them meet their academic goals. An after school program will be offered to our grade 3-5 ENL students focusing on reading interventions and promoting student voice through the implementation of ENL strategies coupled with culturally relevant pedagogy which will equip teachers to provide our students with the type of education they not only deserve but are entitled to. As we celebrate and integrate culturally relevant text that recognizes and celebrates their identities, lived experiences and culture, student voice will play center stage. Student discussions that nurture their inherent brilliance and infinite potential will be part of the instructional plan of the after school program. Increasing academic language through rigorous instruction provided by teachers with proven ENL strategies and experience in supporting ENL students. Additionally, an ELL after school program will be offered to new arrival ELL students in grades 2-5. Students will receive supplementary instruction in phonics and literacy using the Really Great Reading program. Students will also be able to do this work in Spanish or Mandarin to further enhance their native academic language skills in both written and oral. Students will also receive social emotional curriculum from bilingual guidance counselors and school psychologists. We will work to strengthen teacher pedagogy and student technology skills as technology is used in innovative and creative ways to raise student engagement. Rich stories and books with characters that reflect the culture and experiences of the students in our school will be preferred and encouraged.
Both programs will be supervised by administration and facilitated by ENL teachers, bilingual education teachers, and additional Special education and general education teachers if necessary. It will be at cost to Title III.

Rationale for Title III ELL Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III ELL funded program. For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

For the Reading Intervention program: We utilized NYSESLAT score reports, I-Ready diagnostics, ELA exam data, and attendance records to determine the need of the program and the eligibility of students. We noticed a large amount of ELLs who were approaching grade level on assessments. These students were consistently coming to school but teachers expressed they needed more differentiated reading interventions and additional support to perform on grade level.

For the New Arrivals Program: We utilized NYSITELL & NYSESLAT score reports, Acadience Screeners, and I-Ready diagnostics to determine the need of the program and the eligibility of students. We noticed our newly arrived newcomer students who scored Entering or Emerging on ELL assessments were consistently performing below grade level on screeners and diagnostic tests. Also, teachers expressed a need for newly arrived students to receive additional instruction in foundational schools.

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

For each Title III ELL funded program, describe the students that will be served. Include:

teachers who are teaching the program will take attendance each session. All notices, phone calls, and attendance sheets will be documented and maintained by the administrator who is overseeing the afterschool program. We will utilize our bilingual parent coordinators to ensure all program notifications are in parents' preferred languages.

In order to provide rigorous, successful instruction to our vast ENL student population teachers providing direct instruction to students will receive professional development in the effective use of ENL strategies and approaches. This funding source will be used to provide professional development to enable ENL teachers to meet the academic needs of our ENL students. ENL teachers will attend PD through Advanced Literacies on various topics in ENL instruction. Bilingual teachers will also have opportunities to participate in PD through Teaching for Biliteracy to support students in our Dual Language Spanish program who are participating in this after school program as well. After teachers have attended PD they will share their notes with classroom teachers to ensure all teachers can support the needs of our ENL students. Furthermore, the professional development structure provides for ongoing assessment of that implementation and student progress. All professional development attendance sheets will be kept on file, as well as agendas and artifacts from each session. In addition, agendas, sign-up forms and materials will be located in our in-house Google Drive, allowing teachers access to a variety of materials and information that will inform and support this work.

Rationale for Professional Development

Describe the rationale for the professional development to be provided. For each activity, include:

- Data sources (e.g., school survey teacher responses, in-house teacher surveys, teacher observation data) used to justify the professional development.

After our ELL Instructional Support Visit, teachers expressed a need for more PD around supporting ELLs, especially in vocabulary development and instructional approaches for bilingual education. The school survey data on professional development also showed this.

Vocabulary development and language acquisition are the foundation of academic success for ELLs. Inclusive, practical, and research-based approaches to biliteracy instruction that recognize and build on the cultural, linguistic, and academic repertoires of students and teachers can best support english learners/emergent bilinguals and all students in language development programs.

In order to provide rigorous, successful instruction to our newcomer ELL student population, teachers providing direct instruction to students will receive professional development in the effective use of ENL strategies and approaches. This funding source will be used to provide professional development to enable ENL teachers to meet the academic needs of our ENL students. Research has shown that systematic phonics instruction is necessary to build early literacy skills. PD in the phonics curriculum (Really Great Reading) is necessary so that phonics instruction can be implemented in a successful way during the afterschool program. Also after our ELL Instructional Support Visit, teachers expressed a need for more PD around supporting ELLs, especially in vocabulary development and instructional approaches for bilingual education. The school survey data on professional development also showed this. PD through HMH will be on Vocabulary for ELLs.
