Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

Section 4: School Summary

Accountability Status

Accountability Status: LSI

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

The mission of P.S.20Q John Bowne Elementary School is to:
-Provide a nurturing and safe environment where the physical, intellectual, and emotional well-being of children and the P.S. 20 school community is priority;
-Foster positive relationships and acceptance of the unique perspectives, identities and experiences of others;
-Build and support a strong foundation in all academic areas and foster innovation in teaching and equity in learning where students are critical thinkers, curious and eager to learn, and able to communicate effectively with peers as part of their learning process;
-Implement clear systems for gathering student growth data, respond to data through multi-faceted approaches and cultivate communication and collaboration with families to support the achievement of each child's personal best;
-Encourage a feeling of self-worth in all members of our community so that we persevere in our goals and are proud of individual and collaborative accomplishments.

Our school's Community Agreement is as follows:
We will work together to create a welcoming, safe, and responsive environment. We want to create an environment that feels positive, energetic, productive, calm, and respected. In order to feel this way consistently, we will clear our minds, reflect on the impact we have on others, collaborate, be strategic in our planning, make connections with students, and maintain a growth mindset. We will embody these traits so that our school community experiences these feelings daily. Our experiences are shaped by our choice to be happy. Conflict and uncomfortable feelings are inevitable and can be resolved by communicating openly and honestly, giving and receiving constructive feedback, showing empathy, reflecting, and identifying a solution. We will promote positive and cooperative behavior by modeling courtesy, giving each other emotional support, engaging in self-care, keeping a sense of humor, and developing strong relationships with each other. We are all committed to uphold these standards.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

P.S.20 John Bowne Elementary School is a Title I school nestled in the heart of downtown Flushing with a population of over 1,050 students. Over 37% of our student population are English Language Learners (ELLs), and 11% of our student population are Students with Disabilities (SWDs). Our demographic breakdown is as follows: 67.1% Asian, 26.2% Hispanic, 4.7% Black, 1.34% Multi-Racial, and .67% Native American. Over 82% of our students are eligible for free or reduced lunch. Our school is proud to offer a Transitional Bilingual Education class in Kindergarten as well as a robust Mandarin Dual Language program for students in grades K through 5 through which students learn to listen, speak, read, and write in Mandarin and English while learning about the rich culture and history of China. We are proud to offer a strong STEAM and enrichment program for students in all grades, which includes various course offerings in Science, Civics, Visual Arts, Dance, Music, and Computer Science.

Briefly summarize the key initiatives your school will implement this school year.

In order to foster an environment in which all students are reading on grade level by grade 3, we are committed to strengthening the five pillars of literacy (phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension) through the use of science-based reading programs. This year, we will build upon our initial rollout of the Heggerty and Fundations curricula to ensure that all of our students in grades K, 1, and 2 receive daily science-based instruction in phonemic awareness and phonics. Moreover, we are adopting HMH Into Reading schoolwide, which will ensure that there is both vertical and horizontal alignment in regard to reading instruction that is aligned to the Next Generation Standards and backed by science in supporting students as they learn to read. We are also implementing MindUp, a social-emotional learning program across the school to provide staff, students, and families with the SEL support needed to be successful academically, socially, emotionally, and behaviorally. We will continue to build upon our STEAM program to ensure that our students are exposed to the beauty in dance, music, and visual arts, while also receiving instruction in computer science that will prepare them to be successful 21st century citizens in their future studies and careers.

What are the primary digital and/or print curricula/programs used for ELA and Math:

Section 5: Priority 1 – All students learn to read well

Priority 1 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
2025 BOY iReady 33% of all 3 - 5 students were proficient overall. 31% of all 3 - 5 students were proficient in reading	Lack of Focused Scaffolding:While the slides or lesson plans may be present, they are often not adapted to meet the diverse needs of students at different levels of readiness. Success Criteria Are Not Explicitly Reinforced: While the success criteria are present, they may not be reinforced consistently through every part of the lesson. Oral reading fluency and comprehension are complex skills that require continuous modeling and reinforcement. Teachers may begin with a clear vision, but without a structured approach to revisit the criteria throughout the lesson, students may not internalize what they are expected to achieve. This lack of clarity and reinforcement hinders the students' ability to process and retain information. Misalignment of	Strengthening reading comprehension and fluency across 3-5

comprehension. 63% of all 3 - 5 students were proficient in phonics.	Instructional Decisions with Student Needs: The observations and walkthroughs reveal that teachers may be following a set structure but are not consistently adjusting their instruction to meet the needs of individual students or groups. This means not recognizing when certain students need more support with decoding or when they need more complex comprehension tasks to stretch their thinking. Without continuously adjusting the instructional approach based on real-time assessment of student progress, deficiencies in comprehension and fluency will persist.
2024-2025 EOY Hispanic ELLs improved by 6% (Subgroup tracking: Hispanic ELLs, SWDs, Instructional observation notes and teacher feedback); however, only 20% are showing proficiency 2025 - 2026 Acadience BOY 16% of Hispanic ELLs were proficient overall.	Observations suggest that teachers are using slides, but many may not be adequately adjusting their instruction to the specific needs of ELLs. For example, teachers may present content using complex vocabulary or abstract concepts without breaking them down into digestible parts for ELLs.	Targeted interventions for Hispanic ELLs

Priority 1

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for literacy outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Literacy

- Implement the strategies outlined in NYC Reads, including foundational phonics curriculum for grades K-2
- Implement dyslexia screening, professional learning, and program pilots (as applicable)
- Support literacy development through the integration of culturally responsive-sustaining texts and content

Priority 1 SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
All Students	46	By June 2026, PS20Q will strengthen explicit instruction practices and the strategic data-based use of curricular resources resulting in a 5% increase in the All Students subgroup meeting or exceeding grade level standards as evidenced by the i-Ready assessments.
Hispanic Students	44	By June 2026, PS20Q will strengthen explicit instruction practices and the strategic data-based use of curricular resources resulting in a 10% increase for our Hispanic subgroup meeting or exceeding grade level standards as evidenced by the Acadience assessments.

Priority 1 Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Identify what your school would expect to see at the end of each period to know if you are on track to reach the identified goal(s). The progress monitoring targets can be a percentage or a number and should reflect a sufficient improvement in outcomes to meet the goal. Note that all schools are required to enter results in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) on the iPlan Portal.

Priority 1 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Leverage human capital to support new hires
Ground work in research-based models, such as John Hattie (Visible Learning), Shirley Clarke, and Anita Archer, emphasizing the importance of clarity, modeling, and checking for understanding.

Root Cause Addressed:

Inconsistent application of comprehension strategies; Supports for Hispanic ELLs; Early grade instruction focus heavier on decoding than understanding text (Monitoring of structured literacy routines)

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Intervisitations/Building Sustainability
Model Teachers/Classrooms
Teach Backs - Teachers come together to plan a lesson and observe the same lesson in multiple grade team member's classrooms with time in between to reflect and make revisions.
PDSA Cycles starting in end of September
Schedule monthly "Clarity Clinics" provided by model teachers where teachers analyze and revise success criteria for upcoming lessons.

Using the dashboard to show student growth
Planning time for teachers - built in the schedule
Review the Success Criteria - Look-For Tool aligned to our instructional rubric and walkthrough expectations.
Embed reflective protocols for teachers to answer: “How will students know they are successful?” “What would success look or sound like during this lesson?
Leverage model lessons during faculty meetings to surface strong success criteria use (e.g., through peer video analysis).
Define the role of model teacher to maximize
Launch a Success Criteria Spotlight (weekly newsletter snippet, PD highlight, or bulletin board) showcasing strong examples from classrooms.
Conduct weekly walkthroughs to support PDSA work.
Teachers will engage in a structured Data Analysis Protocol on a monthly basis following each HMH unit assessment. Using this protocol, grade teams will identify focus standards, analyze student performance trends, and compare results to June instructional reports to determine gaps and root causes. Teams will then map when priority standards reappear in upcoming HMH modules, plan targeted instruction to address gaps, and create supplemental questions or tasks to strengthen understanding. This ongoing monthly analysis will occur during common planning, PL sessions, and data review meetings to ensure instructional decisions are data-driven and aligned to student learning needs.

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Root Cause Addressed:

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

To monitor the implementation and impact of our key strategies—leveraging human capital to support new hires and grounding instructional work in research-based models (Hattie, Clarke, Archer)—we will use a layered set of structures that promote collaboration, clarity, and continuous feedback. Priority 2 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
OORS incident reports by type and subgroup 2024-2025	Need for culturally affirming SEL practices	Reduce chronic absenteeism among priority subgroups
Chronic absenteeism by race/ethnicity (2024-2025), C.A.S.E. team meeting minutes	Limited systems for ongoing family engagement tied to attendance	Expand SEL integration into daily classroom life
Survey results from students and staff (2025-2026)	Gaps in proactive behavior supports beyond MindUp lessons	Sustain reduction in SWD behavioral incidents

Priority 2

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for physical and emotional safety outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Physical and Emotional Safety

- Develop safety infrastructure and systems, including staff training, collaboration with external partners, and implementation of safety and security best practices
- Expand social emotional and mental health supports via restorative justice, Project Pivot, screeners, and other district or school-based initiatives (as applicable)
- Expand implementation of physical and mental wellness supports, including Physical and Health Education that meets NYSED requirements and related initiatives
- Improve supports and outcomes for socially vulnerable student populations (Students in Temporary Housing, Students in Foster Care)

Priority 2 SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
All Students	75	By June 2026, PS20Q will strengthen the implementation of the MindUP social-emotional learning curriculum with a targeted focus on promoting kindness and creating positive, supportive learning environments for students and staff resulting in a 10% increase in student-to-student relationships and students who report that the curriculum helps them manage emotions, stay focused, and make better choices as evidenced by the D25 Student Survey Results.

Priority 2 Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Priority 3 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Implement targeted professional learning cycles focused on explicit math instruction aligned to Envisions and the standards for all learners. This strategy addresses the need for consistent use of explicit instruction across classrooms and closes access gaps in instruction for Hispanic ELLs and SWDs.

Promote student ownership through the use of success criteria and structured math discourse routines, with a focus on ELL and SWD access.

Root Cause Addressed:

This addresses the need for consistent instructional quality, builds student language for math, and supports productive struggle for all learners.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Launch Envisions Professional Learning Series (All Grades) Date: September 3, 2025 (Initial PD Day) Deep dive into the Envisions lesson structure, priority standards, and connections to explicit instruction (“I Do, We Do, You Do”). Student Success Criteria + Math Talk Protocol Launch Date: November 6, 2025 Classrooms begin co-creating success criteria with students for math problem-solving. Teachers implement structured student talk routines using sentence stems and visual supports.
Teachers will engage in a structured Data Analysis Protocol on a monthly basis following each HMH unit assessment. Using this protocol, grade teams will identify focus standards, analyze student performance trends, and compare results to June instructional reports to determine gaps and root causes. Teams will then map when priority standards reappear in upcoming HMH modules, plan targeted instruction to address gaps, and create supplemental questions or tasks to strengthen understanding. This ongoing monthly analysis will occur during common planning, PL sessions, and data review meetings to ensure instructional decisions are data-driven and aligned to student learning needs.

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Priority 5 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

To build trust and reduce structural barriers, PS20Q will create recurring, multilingual, and culturally responsive engagement opportunities designed to include all families, especially those historically underrepresented.

Root Cause Addressed:

1. Structural barriers to attendance and participation
(e.g., work schedules, housing instability, transportation, lack of childcare)

How the strategy addresses this:
By ensuring every event includes virtual access and interpretation services, families who face time, transportation, or mobility challenges can still meaningfully engage. Offering flexible scheduling options based on family survey input also directly targets this barrier.

2. Underuse of culturally responsive communication methods
(e.g., limited translated materials, lack of two-way communication, one-size-fits-all outreach)

How the strategy addresses this:
The development of a Family Engagement Toolkit in families' home languages, along with translated surveys and personalized outreach through the Family Advisory Circle, ensures communication is inclusive, linguistically accessible, and affirming of cultural identities.

3. Limited family input structures, especially for historically underrepresented groups
(e.g., ENL families, families of SWDs, immigrant or low-income households)

How the strategy addresses this:
The Multilingual Family Advisory Circle provides a regular, structured platform for underrepresented families to share feedback, influence decisions, and build trust with the school. This promotes genuine two-way communication and moves beyond token involvement.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
October 4, 2025: Distribute multilingual family surveys and hold small focus groups to collect input on topics families want covered and times/days that work best for them.
October 18, 2025: Develop a Family Engagement Toolkit with translated, grade-level-aligned take-home activities tied to school priorities like reading comprehension, success criteria, and emotional regulation.
November 7, 2025: Launch a Multilingual Family Advisory Circle, offering families a monthly forum—virtual or in-person—to provide feedback on school practices and elevate voices of families from ENL, SWD, and historically marginalized groups.
November 2025 onward: Ensure that every family-facing event (e.g., workshops, showcases) includes a virtual access option (e.g., Zoom) and interpretation services for major home languages.

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

To improve communication equity, PS20Q will simplify and enhance school-to-home messaging through centralized, multilingual systems and consistent, accessible outreach.

Root Cause Addressed:

1. Underuse of culturally responsive communication methods
(e.g., lack of translations, culturally disconnected messaging, one-way communication)

How the strategy addresses this:
By launching a centralized communication calendar and One Voice Newsletter, PS20Q ensures that messages reflect school priorities, are relevant to families' needs, and are translated into all major home languages. This fosters inclusivity, clarity, and cultural responsiveness.

2. Fragmented or inconsistent school-to-home communication systems
(e.g., families receive messages from too many platforms or with unclear expectations)

How the strategy addresses this:
The September 16 audit of current platforms and practices helps streamline tools and eliminate redundancy or confusion. The centralized calendar offers a one-stop, consistent view of all key dates and messages—digitally and in print—making communication more coherent and manageable for families.

3. Limited accessibility for ENL families and working caregivers
(e.g., messages not translated, messages sent during inaccessible times, reliance on digital tools only)

How the strategy addresses this:
The calendar and newsletter will be distributed in both print and digital formats and fully translated, increasing accessibility for families with limited internet access, those who speak languages other than English, or those who rely on hard copies due to work or home constraints.

4. Lack of alignment between school-home communication and instructional priorities
(e.g., newsletters or notices that are disconnected from what students are learning)

How the strategy addresses this:
The One Voice Newsletter will align each month to instructional goals (e.g., Into Reading, MindUP, Envisions Math) and include tips, student celebrations, and SEL guidance, making communication more meaningful and academically connected for families.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
September 16, 2025: Conduct an audit of current communication platforms (e.g., Remind, Google Classroom, printed flyers) to identify gaps in translation, timeliness, and usability—especially for ENL and working families.
October 10, 2025: Launch a centralized Family Communication Calendar (print and digital) that outlines key events, deadlines, and resources. All information will be translated into the major home languages.
October 2025 and onward: Begin distribution of a monthly One Voice Family Newsletter that shares instructional tips, student celebrations, and SEL supports. The newsletter will be aligned with school goals and translated into families' home languages.

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

1. Monthly Family Engagement Review Meetings
Led by the Family Engagement Team (which includes the principal, ENL coordinator, parent coordinator, and designated teacher leaders), these monthly meetings will:

Review attendance and participation at family events

Analyze feedback from families (e.g., surveys, reflection forms)

Track progress on action steps (e.g., newsletter publication, advisory meetings held)

2. Family Engagement Tracker (Digital Log)
A centralized tracker (Google Sheet or dashboard) will be maintained to document:

Dates and attendance for each family event

Translations provided and interpretation services used

Types of activities offered (academic, SEL, civic)

Names of staff/family facilitators

Event accessibility format (virtual, in-person, hybrid)

3. Translated Family Feedback Surveys & Focus Groups
Short surveys and/or informal focus groups will be conducted:

After each monthly Family Learning Night

Following the Civic Learning Showcase and SEL events

In multiple home languages to gather qualitative insights on family satisfaction, clarity of communication, and cultural relevance

4. Multilingual Family Advisory Circle Notes & Attendance Logs
Attendance and meeting notes from the Family Advisory Circle will be reviewed monthly to:

Track representation from ENL, immigrant, and historically marginalized families

Document suggestions or needs raised and school responses or follow-up

Inform adjustments to family communication practices and event design

5. Schoolwide Communication Audit (Twice per Year)
Conducted in October 2025 and March 2026

Evaluate frequency, clarity, language access, and reach of family-facing messages

Assess family use of digital tools (e.g., ClassDojo, Remind, Google Classroom) and identify areas for improvement

6. NYC School Survey Data (Spring 2026)
Compare 2026 survey results to 2025 baseline, especially:

Family responses to questions on communication, belonging, trust, and input

Disaggregated by home language and subgroup (e.g., ENL, SWD)

7. Chronic Absenteeism Data Review (Quarterly)

Track family participation trends and compare them to:

Changes in student attendance patterns

Reductions in chronic absenteeism, especially among students whose families have been engaged through home visits or events

Priority 5 Family and Community Engagement

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Action Plan

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Create and Monitor an Equitable, Data-Informed Referral Process for Special Education Evaluation.

Root Cause Addressed:

The need for empowerment of our teachers to trust in the MTSS process to allow for cycles of support (and modify, as needed) to allow time to bridge to gap of skill deficits (academic, language, and social) to decrease immediacy of referral for special education.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Partner with ENL and intervention specialists to ensure that language acquisition, trauma, or instructional gaps are not misidentified as disabilities.
Train all staff on referral protocols, disproportionality awareness, and culturally responsive evaluation practices to reduce bias in referrals.
Use a school-wide problem-solving team (e.g., Student Support Team, Child Study Team) to review intervention data before initiating referrals.
Develop and clearly communicate a tiered intervention protocol (MTSS/RTI) that must be followed before initiating a referral.
Implement structured pre-referral review meetings (e.g., MTSS/RTI team meetings) where referrals for ELL students are reviewed by a multidisciplinary team—including ENL staff—prior to submission to ensure appropriate interventions and language supports have been implemented with fidelity.

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Create and Monitor an Equitable, Data-Informed system for behavior supports.

Root Cause Addressed:

The need to employ research and evidence-based practices to respond to behavior needs.

The need to partner with families and communities to collaborate on supports.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Utilize PBIS systems.
Create and implement ICMPs and Behavior Plans.
Analyze weekly OORS report data.

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

Track the number and source of referrals, including grade, teacher, race/ethnicity, language proficiency, and IEP eligibility outcomes.

Use a centralized intervention log or MTSS tracker to ensure multiple data points are reviewed before initiating evaluations.

Review intervention fidelity (attendance, instructional delivery, duration) to validate the effectiveness of supports prior to referral.

Use OORS reports to analyze suspension and incident data monthly, disaggregated by subgroups and incident type.

Review logs of Tier 1 and Tier 2 behavior interventions to ensure consistency across classrooms before formal discipline is issued.

Track restorative circle participation rates, staff referrals to peer mediation, and follow-through on repair agreements.

Weekly meetings for data analysis of OORs reports and create actionable next steps.

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Family and Community Engagement

Family and Community Engagement

Directions: Indicate the multi-tiered supports (strategies & activities) that will be implemented to support and engage families (including foster parents, birth parents, and families with limited English proficiency) and plans for community collaboration in the implementation of this action plan, surrounding the four priority needs. Include:

1) a description of the school's supports and processes for students with disabilities;
2) a coherent mechanism is implemented for updating families on their child's progress towards measurable annual and post-secondary transition goals;
3) a procedure to ensure families are involved during decision-making for IEP development and implementation.

High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities Budget and Resources

Budget and Resources

Directions: Indicate available and anticipated resources that will be leveraged to achieve this annual goal and implement this action plan, including human resources, instructional resources (e.g., curricula, programs), schedule adjustments, other. Use N/A if not applicable and/or indicate other resource needs.

Schools are encouraged to think critically and strategically when considering resources that can support progress towards CEP goals for students with IEPs. This includes utilizing Title I funding for at-risk speech and/or counseling services, all-staff training in supporting students with autism, sensory materials, summer institute geared at the development of executive functioning skills, and/or inclusion coaching support. Schools may also consider utilizing Title II funds to reduce the ratio of students with IEPs to typically developing peers in ICT classes.

Human Resources:

Conducting curriculum meetings to develop instructional goals in subject areas. Identify and schedule lead teachers to provide classroom demonstrations and modeling. Identify and schedule SPED Liaison and team to provide Quality IEP reviews prior to finalization. Assign and schedule teachers to work with at risk students. Form teams to develop SEL themes and curriculum integrated projects to support social emotional learning. SEL team to implement monthly assemblies related to respect for all and social emotional learning.

Instructional Resources

PBIS, Mind-Up Materials, Academic intervention programs (ie: Phonics for Reading, SPIRE, Sound Sensible).

Schedule Adjustments

Coverages for IEP meetings and IEP preparations, SEL assemblies, Family Fun Day activities, time to correct SESIS-linkage report issues, Coverage for absentees and for PD.

Other Resources Needed

Professional learning and collaboration time with school based support team, special education teachers, and related service providers to review sytems and structures to ensure compliance. SEL assembly slides.

Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and

Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Directions: Complete the chart and identify Tier 2 or 3 MTSS Academic supports. Any Tier 2/3 interventions should be in addition to the foundational work being done at Tier 1.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

Our parents typically request coats, clothing, and food items, as well as free after-school programs. School supplies, including backpacks, are immediately provided at enrollment. Field trip costs are covered to ensure that there is equal access to all activities occurring in school. We monitor the need for academic support during the school day. Requests are often made by families for English Language support for families. We will continue to utilize the STH Title I survey to ensure that we are meeting the needs of our families.

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

We will continue provide students with necessary school supplies, coats, uniforms, food, and funding for school trips. Additional enrichment and academic tutoring opportunities will also be provided. Updates will be made in relation to services based upon parent needs and requests.

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the school community. P.S. 20Q, in compliance with Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is responsible for creating and implementing a parent and family engagement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. The school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), and Title I Parent Advisory Council as trained volunteers and welcomed members of the school community.

Support for Parents and Family Members of Title I Students

P.S. 20Q will support parents and family members of Title I students by:
- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional learning opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of the school community.

Parental Involvement and School Quality

The school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (ML/ELL), and students with disabilities. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, the school will:
- actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage all parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I, 1% set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to the school to supplement parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent and family engagement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional learning, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend the school and will work to ensure that the school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office;
- Conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations, social-emotional learning, literacy, accessing community and support services, and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;
- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., ESSA/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, School Quality Report, Quality Review Report, Learning Environment Survey Report;

- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent and family engagement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1116 and other applicable sections under ESSA;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed.

Encouraging School-Level Parental Involvement

The school will further encourage school-level parent and family engagement by:

- hosting educational family events/activities during Parent-Teacher Conferences and throughout the school year;
- encouraging meaningful parent participation on School Leadership Teams, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council;
- supporting or hosting Family Day events;
- establishing a Parent Resource Center/Area or lending library; instructional materials for parents;
- encouraging more parents to become trained school volunteers;
- providing written and verbal progress reports that are periodically given to keep parents informed of their children's progress;
- developing and distributing a school newsletter or web publication designed to keep parents informed about school activities and student progress;
- providing school planners/folders for regular written communication between the school and the home in a format, and to the extent practicable in the languages that parents can understand.

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

P.S. 20Q, in compliance with the Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is implementing a School-Parent Compact to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. Staff and parents of students participating in activities and programs funded by Title I, agree that this Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff and students will share responsibility for improved academic achievement and the means by which a school-parent partnership will be developed to ensure that all children achieve State Standards on assessments.

Part 1: Title I Program Type

Title I Requirements and Strengthening Title I Parent Involvement: Under USDOE's Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Title I schools are required to address professional learning and parent and family engagement in the Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP). To strengthen parent leadership in Title I schools, and increase the involvement of all parents of Title I eligible children in improving students' academic outcomes, all Title I schools are required to establish a Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) that will serve as the consultative and representative body for all Title I parents in the school to provide voice into the spending of Title I funds.

The SLT is responsible for facilitating consultation with the Title I Parent Advisory Council regarding the joint development of the CEP, Parent and Family Engagement Policy, School Parent Compact (SPC) and the use of the 1% parent involvement set-aside in Title I schools. The Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) Chairperson (or alternate) is expected to attend all regular meetings of the School Leadership Team (SLT). Title I parents, as represented by the Title I PAC Chairperson, must be consulted regarding the use of the Title I 1% set-aside for parent and family engagement. The Title I 1% set-aside funding is used to supplement parent and family engagement activities as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and must be aligned with student achievement goals as outlined in the CEP. For additional guidance on the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC), go to the Protocols and Timeline for Title I Parent and Family Engagement Activities document.

Directions:

- All schools must indicate their Title I status in Part 1.
- All elements of the All Title I Schools section must be completed in Part 2.
- All Targeted Assistance (TA) Schools must also complete the TA Schools Only section in Part 3.
- All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools must also complete the SWP Schools Only section in Part 4.
- If a required component is addressed elsewhere in this plan, you may refer to the section or Priority where the response can be found.
- For additional information, visit the Title I Program Description (US Department of Education).

Part 2: All Title I Schools

High Quality and Ongoing Professional Learning: Please list below the Priority or section(s) that indicate strategies and activities for high quality professional learning for teachers, principals, staff, and paraprofessionals to enable all students to meet state standards.

ELA: All teachers in grades K-2 will continue to receive training and support to ensure a successful rollout of the Heggerty and Fundations programs to provide students with science-based instruction in phonics and phonemic awareness which will provide a strong foundation in our students' road to learning how to read. Additionally, we will be providing continued support as we roll out our new K-5 ELA Curriculum HMH Into Reading, which will provide students with science-based instruction on reading and writing. Our professional learning will ensure that students are receiving rigorous standards-based instruction in reading, writing, vocabulary, and close reading skills.

Mathematics: We will continue to build upon our work with the Envisions curriculum to plan units of study around big ideas and embed open tasks that have multiple entry points for our various learners. Our teachers participate in collaborative planning and conduct inter-visitations to observe best practices in the mathematics including fostering a growth mindset and providing opportunities for students to productively struggle.

Social Emotional Learning: This year, we will be providing professional learning for MindUp, a social-emotional program in which students learn about the science behind their emotions in order to understand their feelings and learn how to respond to them. We will provide professional learning around conducting "brain breaks" throughout the day to help students clear their minds and regulate their emotions. We will continue to embed SEL competencies including self-awareness, social awareness, self-management, responsible decision-making, and relationship skills in academic content. Our students will be provided multiple opportunities throughout the day to "Bee Reflective," whereby they will respond to questions about SEL competencies as they pertain to academic lessons. Moreover, our HMH Into Reading curriculum provides SEL connection questions to help students make connections between what they are reading and SEL competencies.

Part 4: Schoolwide Program (SWP)

Transition Plans to Assist Preschool Children (Elementary Schools Only): Describe the transition plans used to assist preschool children from early childhood programs to the elementary school program (e.g. aligned curriculum, joint PD & parent involvement activities, sharing of records/information, early intervention services, etc.).

Throughout the school year, Pre-K students are encouraged to become autonomous individuals. Teachers send home the ASQ3, a developmental screening, and ASQ2, a social-emotional screening, to families at the beginning of the school year. The Pre-K department works with families to achieve goals based on responses gleaned from both screenings. They also collaborate with CPSE and families to get students the supports they require to address their social, emotional and academic needs. In addition, teachers work with service providers through CPSE and within our school community to support students' needs. Pre-K teachers are part of the transition to CSE and attend Turning Five meetings.

The Pre-K units of study include content-rich vocabulary with picture support to facilitate conversational language, which is a school-wide focus.

The math program called "Building Blocks" is facilitated in small groups where students explore manipulatives and math tools to develop number sense. Students explore their imagination and creativity to create artwork utilizing loose parts where students have choice of material usage. The kindergarten learning standards are referenced when planning all activities to ensure that students possess the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed academically in kindergarten.

Pre-K Teachers attend all school-wide professional development and trainings to ensure that all school-wide expectations are addressed in Pre-K classrooms. The following are some of the topics that were presented during in-house professional learning this year:

HMH Into Reading
iReady Data /Acadience Data/School-Wide Data Trends
Social Emotional Learning
MTSS /Tier 1, 2 and 3 Supports
Chronic Absenteeism

Families are invited to participate in social-emotional learning activities each month to ensure carry over of lessons learned into their everyday lives. Students visit kindergarten classrooms and different parts of the school (i.e.: the cafeteria, auditorium) to prepare for this transition. At the latter part of the school year, the unit of study focuses on transformations where students discuss feelings on how they have grown and how they feel about transitioning into kindergarten.

Teachers in Pre-K work together with Kindergarten teachers to prepare students for their transition. We share goals that have been reached as well as goals that still need to be met.

We are planning to implement Heggerty in Pre-K during the 2024-2025 school year to begin to expose students to phonemic awareness and phonics, which will ensure a strong foundation on their road to learning how to read here at P.S. 20.

Part 5: “Conceptual” Consolidation of Funds in SWP Schools

Directions: All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools in NYC are conceptually consolidating their Federal, State, and Local funds, even though the Galaxy system reports the allocations in separate accounting codes1. To be eligible for the flexibility consolidation of Federal funds, a Schoolwide Program school must identify in its Schoolwide plan (CEP) which programs are included in its consolidation and the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool. Additionally, the school plan must document that it has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated2. On the chart below, indicate which Federal, State, and/or local Tax Levy program funds that are consolidated in your school’s Schoolwide Program, the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool, and verification that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated.
For the last two columns of this table: Place an (X) in Column A below to verify that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated. Indicate in Column B, the Priority or section that references where a related program activity has been described in this plan.

Program Name	Fund Source (i.e. Federal, State or Local)	Funding Amount: Indicate the amount contributed to Schoolwide pool. (Refer to Galaxy for school allocation amounts)	Column A Verify with an (X)	Column B Section/Priority Reference(s)
Title I, Part A (Basic)	Federal	$535,995	X	All resources and materials related to school initiatives outlined in our action plans
Title I, School Improvement 1003(a)	Federal	$71,979	X	All resources and materials related to school initiatives outlined in our action plans
Title II, Part A	Federal	$73,168	X	All resources and materials related to school initiatives outlined in our action plans
Title III, Part A	Federal	$45,782	X	All resources and materials related to school initiatives outlined in our action plans
Title III, Immigrant	Federal	not yet in Galaxy: estimate $15,000	X	All resources and materials related to school initiatives outlined in our action plans

Title IV, Part A	Federal	$11,323	X	All resources and materials related to school initiatives outlined in our action plans
Tax Levy (Fair Student Funding)	Local	$7,063,487	X	All resources and materials related to school initiatives outlined in our action plans

Explanation/Background

1. Explanation/Background:

Title I Schoolwide Program schools are expected to use the flexibility available to them to integrate services and programs with the aim of enhancing the entire educational program and helping all students reach proficient and advanced levels of achievement. In addition to coordinating and integrating services, Schoolwide Program schools may combine most Federal, State and local funds to provide those services. By consolidating funds from Federal, State, and local sources, a Schoolwide Program school can address its needs using all its available resources. This gives a school more flexibility in how it uses available resources to meet the identified needs of all its students.

Consolidating funds in a Schoolwide Program means that a school treats the funds it is consolidating like they are a single "pool" of funds. In other words, the funds from the contributing programs in the school lose their individual identity and the school has one flexible pool of funds. The school uses funds from this consolidated Schoolwide pool to support any activity of the Schoolwide Program without regard to which program contributed the specific funds used for a particular activity – so long as the use of funds meets the intent and purposes of the programs from which the funds originate. To consolidate funding in a Schoolwide Program, the school does not literally need to combine funds in a single account or pool with its own accounting code. Rather, the word "pool" is used conceptually to convey that a Schoolwide Program school has the use of all consolidated funds available to it for the dedicated function of operating a Schoolwide Program without regard to the identity of those funds.

Consolidating Federal funds in a Schoolwide Program has the following additional advantages:

- Consolidating Federal funds eases the requirements for accounting for funds from each specific program separately, because a Schoolwide school is not required to distinguish among funds received from different sources when accounting for their use.
- A school that consolidates Federal funds in its Schoolwide Program is not required to meet most of the statutory and regulatory requirements of the specific Federal programs included in the consolidation (e.g., semi-annual time and effort reporting for Title I). However, the school must ensure that it meets the intent and purposes of the Federal programs included in the consolidation so that the needs of the intended beneficiaries are met.

2. The intent and purposes of the Federal programs indicated on the chart above (Part 4c of this section) are as follows:

- Title I, Part A – Schoolwide Programs: To upgrade the entire educational program in the school in order to improve the academic achievement of all students, particularly the lowest-achieving students. This includes provision of services for Students in Temporary Housing (STH).
- Title I 1003(a), School Improvement: Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI), Additional Targeted Support and Improvement (ATSI) and Targeted Support and Improvement (TSI) Funding:

Support implementation of school improvement plans that aims to improve instruction and address the identified needs

Title II, Part A: Supplementary funding to improve student academic achievement by reducing class size in grades K, 1, 2, and 3, with an emphasis on grades with an average register greater than 20. If space is not available to form additional classes, funds may support push-in teacher(s) to supplement the instructional program. For schools that choose to reduce class size, priority must be given to reducing class size in general education settings and must demonstrate the following:

- Reduce class sizes to 15-18 students or fewer (including the use of co-teaching and floating teachers that bring the student to teacher ratio to one teacher per 15-18 students);
- Be accompanied by a rigorous curriculum, effective teachers, and a sustained, job-embedded professional development plan.

- Title III, Part A: To help ensure that children with limited English proficiency become proficient in English, develop high academic attainment in English, and meet the same challenging State academic content and achievement standards in the core academic subjects that all other children are expected to meet. Another purpose of this program is to increase the capacity of schools to establish, implement and sustain high-quality language instruction programs and English language development programs that assist schools in effectively teaching students with limited English proficiency. Title III, Part A is also designed to promote the participation of parents and communities of limited English proficient children in English language instruction programs.
- Title III Immigrant: Supplementary and enhanced services to immigrant students, in the areas of English language acquisition and content area achievement. Immigrant children and youth are defined as individuals who are aged 3 through 21, have not been attending school in any one or more states for more than three (3) full academic years, and were not born in any state. "State" means the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Children born to U.S. citizens abroad, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or any other U.S. territory that is not D.C. or Puerto Rico are to be considered immigrants.
- Title IV, Part A: Title IV funds are for schools that are among those with the greatest needs, have the highest numbers of students from low-income families, are identified for CS, ATSI or TSI, or are identified as persistently dangerous public schools. Allowable uses of funds under well-rounded education, safety and health, and educational technology include direct services for students, professional development for teachers and administrators, and supplemental educational resources. School allocations have been provided for well-rounded education, social emotional learning, cultural responsiveness awareness, professional development to support implementation of technology and blended learning environments, and community coordinators in schools with high rates of students in temporary housing

- Students in Temporary Housing (STH): Schools must describe their use of Title I STH funds in their consolidated application.

Important Note: The following funds may not be consolidated:

- Title I Parent Involvement Set-aside: Title I, Part A funds must support parent involvement activities and programs. Chancellor's Regulation A-655 requires School Leadership Teams to consult with Title I parent representatives regarding the Title I program and the use of these funds. Parent involvement activities funded through Title I must be included in the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and aligned with student achievement goals in the school comprehensive educational plan.
- IDEA: To ensure that all children with disabilities have available to them a free appropriate public education designed to meet their individual needs.
- Grant funds awarded via a competitive process: These funds must be used for the purposes specified by the Grantor, as described in the school's approved grant application.

Language Allocation Policy Outline

Language Allocation Policy Outline

2025-26 Language Allocation Policy (LAP)

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents. When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

Each September our ELL students are provisionally grouped for their new classes based on their proficiency levels on the NYSITELL or NYSESLAT exams. New admits are administered the NYSITELL when their Home Language Surveys and interviews indicate a screening is needed. The NYSITELL then indicates the students' proficiency level. This helps us determine how to place the student in a class. Our returning ELL students are placed based on their NYSESLAT proficiency level. We group our classes heterogeneously, with a broad balance of language proficiency levels.

Entering and Emerging students receive 360 minutes of ENL instruction per week by a TESOL certified instructor. These students receive 180 minutes of Integrated instruction, as well as 180 minutes of Stand-alone small group instruction, where the TESOL teacher identifies and addresses gaps in instruction and provides foundational skills as needed. Transitioning and Expanding students receive 180 minutes of integrated instruction and Commanding students receive 90 minutes of integrated instruction respectively. We ensure mandated minutes are provided by adhering to the number of minutes each student requires.

Entering and Emerging students receive mandated Stand-alone minutes in a small group setting, where the TESOL teacher strategically identifies and addresses instructional gaps. Foundational literacy and language skills are reinforced through targeted instruction using a variety of research-based programs and resources, including Fundations, Heggerty, HMH Into Reading, Passport, Amplify, 3Ls, and The Writing Revolution (TWR). These tools support differentiated instruction tailored to each student's language proficiency and academic needs.

In addition to small-group instruction, the ENL Stand-alone teacher also facilitates literacy centers designed to target each of the four language modalities—listening, speaking, reading, and writing. These centers provide focused, engaging activities that support students' growth in all areas of language development and promote active participation. This structured support not only builds core skills but also helps students progress toward greater independence in both language development and content-area learning.

This year we are piloting the English Language Development (ELD) using HMH English 3D for our standalone students.

Integrated ENL:

Each September, our ELL students are provisionally grouped for their new classes based on their proficiency levels on the NYSITELL or NYSESLAT exams. New admits are administered the NYSITELL when their Home Language Surveys and interviews indicate a screening is needed. The NYSITELL then indicates the students proficiency level. This helps us determine how to place the student in a class. Our returning ELL students are placed based on their NYSESLAT proficiency level. We group our classes heterogeneously, with a broad balance of language proficiency levels.

Students who have tested at the Transitioning or Expanding levels on either the NYSITELL or NYSESLAT receive 180 minutes of Integrated ENL support per week within their general education classrooms. This support includes, but is not limited to, sentence writing, vocabulary development, and scaffolds that help students better understand and participate in the classroom curriculum. We ensure all mandated minutes are met by carefully scheduling services based on each student's required level of support.

Our ENL specialists continue to work in the same classrooms they've supported since September, collaborating closely with classroom teachers to co-plan and co-teach lessons. Together, they create differentiated materials and instructional strategies aligned with current classroom content. This Integrated model ensures that English Language Learners receive language and literacy support in real-time, within the context of their grade-level instruction.

Integrated ENL instruction may include but is not limited to basic phonics and sound-letter recognition, vocabulary and concept development, sentence and paragraph writing, guided reading, and structured speaking activities. TESOL teachers often work with small groups or individual students to provide targeted support, direct feedback, and opportunities for meaningful practice. This collaborative, in-class support model helps ensure all learners build both the language and content knowledge they need to succeed in an elementary setting.

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)

Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

Students enrolled in TBE or Dual Language receive all mandated minutes by an appropriately certified teacher in an integrated instructional model. Students in these classes receive instruction in their home language as well as in English depending on the program in which they are enrolled in. In the TBE program, the teacher instructs students in the home language to help them progress academically in all content areas while they are acquiring English. Over time, the use of English in instruction gradually increases, supporting a smooth transition to English language learning.

Students in this program are grouped homogeneously based on their English proficiency level and their home language. This helps to ensure language acquisition with students and to build upon their needs.

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

Students enrolled in TBE or Dual Language receive all ENL mandated minutes by an appropriately certified teacher in an integrated instructional model. Students in these classes receive instruction in their home language as well as in English depending on the program they are enrolled in. In the dual language program, teachers instruct students with character-stroke writing, comprehension, syntax, and sentence construction so that language acquisition can be obtained so that students can function in their community. DL teachers collaborate to deliver core instruction that is differentiated and accessible to students at various language proficiency levels. They are provided with common planning time to review and implement research-based programs that enhance and support ENL instruction.

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

Each September our ELL students are provisionally grouped for their new classes based on their proficiency levels on the NYSITELL or NYSESLAT exams. New admits are administered the NYSITELL when their Home Language Surveys and interviews indicate a screening is needed. The NYSITELL then indicates the students proficiency level. This helps us determine how to place the student in a class. Our returning ELL students are placed based on their NYSESLAT proficiency level. We group our classes heterogeneously, with a broad balance of language proficiency levels.

Entering and Emerging students receive 360 minutes of ENL instruction per week by a TESOL certified instructor. These students receive 180 minutes of integrated instruction, as well as 180 minutes of Stand-alone small group instruction, where the TESOL teacher identifies and addresses gaps in instruction and provides foundational skills as needed. Transitioning and Expanding students receive 180 minutes of Integrated instruction and Commanding students receive 90 minutes of integrated instruction respectively.

Our school has scheduled a FLEX period every day for grades 3-5, and 3 times per week for grades K-2. Students are pulled for stand-alone ENL instruction during these periods as per CR-154. Additionally, students receive integrated minutes from ENL teachers that push-in during their ELA Reading and Writing periods.

For Dual Language classes, the students split their time equally between their home language and English. For grade 5 we have a side-by-side model in which the students spend two full days per week in Mandarin, two full days per week in English, and Mondays are split between the two languages. For grades K-4, we have one class per grade, and the teacher alternates equally between English and Mandarin following the same model as the side by side structure: 2 days of English, 2 days of Mandarin, and Monday being split equally between the two languages.

During intake, the ENL coordinators/team are called by the secretary to register any new admits that need to be administered the HLIS. We coordinate with the parents so that there is as little interruption as possible.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

Entering and Emerging students receive 360 minutes of ENL instruction per week by a TESOL certified instructor. These students receive 180 minutes of Integrated instruction, as well as 180 minutes of Stand-Alone small group instruction, where the TESOL teacher identifies and addresses gaps in instruction and provides foundational skills as needed. Transitioning and Expanding students receive 180 minutes of Integrated instruction and Commanding students receive 90 minutes of Integrated instruction respectively. To ensure compliance with state mandates, instructional minutes are closely monitored and aligned with each student's language proficiency level. TESOL-certified teachers collaborate regularly with classroom teachers to ensure that effective ELL strategies are consistently implemented across instructional settings. We join together during grade team meetings to discuss upcoming lessons and what to expect for the upcoming week. ELL teachers offer insight to any additional supports to the lesson as needed.

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

Our school has scheduled a FLEX period every day for grades 3-5, and 3 times per week for grades K-2. Students are pulled for stand-alone ENL instruction during these periods as per CR-154. Additionally, students receive integrated minutes from ENL teachers that push-in during their ELA Reading and Writing periods.

For Dual Language classes, the students split their time equally between their home language and English. For grades 5, we have a side-by-side model in which the students spend two full days per week in Mandarin, two full days per week in English, and Mondays are split between the two languages. For grades K-4, we have one class per grade, and the teacher alternates equally between English and Mandarin following the same model as the side by side structure: 2 days of English, 2 days of Mandarin, and Monday being split equally between the two languages.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

Core content is taught in both the students' targeted language as well as students' native language, English and Chinese.

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

The Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) program is designed to support English Language Learners by first providing instruction in all core content areas (ie; ELA, Math, Social Studies, etc.) in the students' home language, which is Chinese. This approach ensures that students can fully access grade-level curriculum while building a strong academic foundation. As students develop their English language proficiency, instruction gradually shifts to English, promoting a smooth transition and long-term academic success.

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

In our school, 87.9% of our ELL population are newcomer students. Our Newcomer students are provided with 360 minutes of ENL instruction weekly, which includes 180 minutes of Integrated/push-in content instruction and 180 minutes of Stand-Alone "pull-out" small group instruction. TESOL teachers work with administration/colleagues, review benchmark data, as well as NYSITELL/NYSESLAT data to determine the individual needs of the ELL students in their group- which includes newcomers and long term ELLs. As an additional service, Title III morning and extended day is offered and encouraged for all newcomer and long term ELL students, in order to provide additional supports outside the school day.

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

At this time, we do not have any students who are SIFE (Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education).

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

At this time, we do not have any students who are Long-Term ELLs.

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

Currently 16.5% of our ELL population are former ELLs. As per CR Part 154-2 our former ELL's receive 90 minutes of support instruction per week. Our school ensures that all former ELLs (FMLs) receive the mandated two years of continued instructional and academic support as required by NYSED regulations. These supports are embedded into our instructional practices and designed to promote language development and academic achievement.

Key strategies include:

Targeted Push-In and Pull-Out Support: Former ELLs are monitored and receive differentiated support from ENL and classroom teachers during core content instruction, including small group guided reading, writing conferences, and scaffolded instruction in content areas.

Progress Monitoring and Data Review: Teachers and ENL staff collaborate to monitor academic progress of FMLs using formative assessments, literacy benchmarks, and NYSESLAT performance history. Students demonstrating need receive additional academic interventions.

Professional Collaboration: ENL and general education teachers engage in regular co-planning and consultation to ensure instruction is culturally and linguistically responsive, with attention to vocabulary development and content accessibility.

Use of Integrated Technology and Scaffolds: FMLs benefit from the use of visual supports, sentence frames, bilingual glossaries, and adaptive software that reinforce both academic language and content mastery.

Family Engagement: We provide ongoing communication to families of FMLs in their home languages and offer workshops to support academic engagement at home.

All supports are aligned to CR Part 154 regulations and tracked to ensure that former ELLs continue to thrive academically and linguistically. These efforts are embedded within our schoolwide multi-tiered systems of support (MTSS).

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

At our school, we've noticed that some English Language Learners (ELLs) face challenges that can put them at risk academically. These include limited English skills, gaps in education and social-emotional struggles like adjusting to a new culture.

Few trends we are noticing:
- Emotional and Social Challenges: Many of our ELLs are adjusting to a new country. These emotional factors can impact their learning and behavior in school.

- Attendance: Attendance has major effects on the achievements of all learners and so to ensure that all of our students families , including ELLs, understand just how important attending schools is a chronically Absenteeism team has been assembled. The team members are each assigned to students who fall below an 90% attendance rate to provide family outreach and support. The team meets biweekly to review the trends and provide support as needed. Additionally, we have established teams to work with at-risk students in the area of Math and ELA.

In addition while looking at the at risk indicators, we see 5.2% of our ELLs who scored a 1 or 2 on the ELA. Teachers work collaboratively to identify students in their classroom who may need additional support. Flex periods are implemented to help teachers provide small group instruction.

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

A trend we noticed that might affect former ELLs at our school is attendance. Attendance has major effects on the achievements of all learners and so to ensure that all of our students families , including ELLs and former ELLs, understand just how important attending schools is a chronically Absenteeism team has been assembled. The team members are each assigned to students who fall below an 90% attendance rate to provide family outreach and support. The team meets biweekly to review the trends and provide support as needed. Additionally, we have established teams to work with at-risk students in the area of Math and ELA. This helps with the 7.1% of former ELLs who scored a 1 or 2 in SY2022-2023 and 2023-2024

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

At our school, the top three home languages spoken by our ELL students are Chinese (Mandarin), Spanish, and Bengali. We've made it a priority to support these language groups in ways that help both students and their families feel connected and supported. We have bilingual staff and paraprofessionals who speak these languages to help with translating during meetings and events.

We also make sure all important school communications—like newsletters, forms, and announcements—are translated into Chinese, Spanish, and Bengali. Interpreters are available for parent-teacher conferences, IEP meetings, and any other time families need support.

At PS 20, we strive to create a welcoming environment by celebrating different cultures and languages through school events and classroom activities. Our goal is to make sure students feel proud of their backgrounds and see their home languages as an asset, not a barrier.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

Our teachers at PS 20 are culturally responsive and understand how factors like language, gender, and ethnicity can impact a student's experience in school. They work hard to create inclusive classrooms where all students feel seen and supported. To ensure they are clearly understood teachers are collaborating, incorporating, and implementing these ideas into their daily lessons. Teachers use MindUp which is a preventative mental health program which helps to build greater emotional literacy to improve resiliency to face challenges in discrimination within racial and ethnic classifications.

Our non-hispanic ELL population is higher than our Hispanic ELL population. 72.8% of our school are non-hispanic ells whereas 27.1% of our student population are hispanic ELLs.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

According to the 2024 NYSESLAT, 121 ELLs (51.4%) did not demonstrate sufficient ELP progress. However, 74 ELLs (30.5%) students met progress by exiting ELL status and 35 (14.4%) met the annual progress target.

This may be attributed to the influx of migrant students who have experienced inconsistent housing, often having to move from one shelter to another.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

While analyzing the results of the 2024 New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT) results indicates that, overall, students in Grades 1–5 demonstrate strength in the Speaking and Listening modalities.

A closer look at Grade 1 reveals a slightly different trend, with Reading and Speaking emerging as the strongest areas for students at that grade level.

Writing is the most challenging modality, in particular, Grade 2 showed the highest percentage of students scoring at the 'low' level in Writing. However, scores improve in the upper grades, indicating progress over time.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

The NYSESLAT is an assessment designed specifically for English Language Learners. The students performance on the NYSESLAT will reflect the progress they have made within the four modalities: listening, speaking, reading and writing. The results of the NYSESLAT measures the students' proficiency level in English. This information will be used to determine the required amount of English as a New Language and English Language Arts instruction for the ELL students.

In reviewing data from the NYSESLAT, we are able to determine student areas of need as per the modalities: reading, writing, listening, and speaking. In utilizing this data, we can provide support to help students improve their abilities in reading and writing in other areas such as the ELA and Math assessment, as well as iReady/Acadience. Additionally, our ENL teachers are available to provide targeted support in specific modalities as per the students' identified needs. Some of our expanding students scored a level of 1 or 2 on their ELA so

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

The writing modality is generally an area of struggle for most of our students, and particularly our ELLs with IEPs. Many of our IEP students also struggle with the speaking modality, having difficulties with expanding sentences with conjunctions and elaborating on ideas. The availability to use some testing accommodations such as: test read aloud, directions read and reread, separate location, and small-group instruction, has helped to have students perform at their best. Test prep sessions during and after school, have contributed toward improvements in the students' overall performance. All teachers of ELLs with IEPs are familiar with the child's goals and will scaffold appropriately to meet the needs of these learners. Teachers of ELLs who are enrolled in an ICT or 12:1:1 class receive both Integrated and Stand-alone instruction based on the English proficiencies of the individual child. Materials and scaffolds are used between the classroom teacher and the ELL service provider to help aid students with their English language acquisition. All ENL service providers work closely with the classroom teacher to ensure that new goals are met and obtained to help bridge any learning gaps. We believe that phonics is impacting the results of our subgroups, particularly our Hispanic ELLs in grades 3-5. Without the foundation of understanding letters and the sounds they make, students are struggling with both reading and writing, especially in upper grades. This year, we will be providing targeted phonics support for these students to improve upon their reading and writing skills.

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

All of our teachers work collaboratively to ensure that all instructional planning is made with English acquisition in mind. All teachers on staff embed ENL strategies in their lessons to ensure that the needs of all students are met even when an ENL teacher is not present for the lesson. Our new curriculum HMH Into Reading provides scaffolding and supports specifically for English Language Learners, which are embedded into the daily lessons and resources for differentiation and support. Additional resources such as picture cards, sentence frames, word banks, the use of TPR, repetition and etc are all used to deepen their academic experience. The ENL team also utilizes the ENL district supports that are provided via Google drive to further deepen our ELLs academic experience. This includes but are not limited to sentence frames, picture cards, vocabulary, and strategies for acting out new vocabulary.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

Given the large population of English Language Learners (ELLs) at P.S. 20Q, the Instructional Leadership Education Team (ILET) ensures that all instructional planning is intentionally aligned with English language development goals. All classroom teachers integrate ENL strategies into their lessons to meet the diverse needs of students, including in situations where an ENL teacher may not be present.

Our newly implemented HMH Into Reading curriculum includes built-in scaffolds and supports tailored for ELLs. These are embedded within daily lessons and provide resources for effective differentiation and language development. In addition, staff have access to a wide range of district-provided supports for the HMH curriculum via Google Drive, further enhancing instruction and ensuring consistent, high-quality learning experiences for all ELLs.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

Teachers use an integrated approach while pushing into student classrooms. TESOL teachers plan lessons and small group instruction and execute those lessons side by side with the classroom teacher to ensure that all learners' instructional needs are met. Entering and Emerging students receive additional mandated Stand-Alone/"Pull-Out" minutes in a small group setting where the TESOL teacher identifies and addresses gaps in instruction and provides foundational skills as needed with the help of HMH English 3D, Fundations, Recipe for Reading, Heggerty, HMH Into Reading, Passport, 3Ls work and TWR. The various programs will be used to help scaffold and differentiate lessons as well as give immediate feedback and be able to assess all learners. The ELL teacher will be able to interact so that students understand the content and vocabulary associated with each lesson. When needed, teachers will use strategies like TWR, TPR and etc to help bridge and address any gaps between student's home language and their instruction. Teachers use home language support as needed to help further academic instruction and understanding in the classroom. This is not limited to the use of realia, picture support, graphic organizers, repetition or familiar cognates.

TBE: Students enrolled in the Transitional Bilingual program receive all core content instruction in both languages simultaneously. All content areas are taught bilingually. At the start of the year bilingual certified teachers rely more heavily on the students home language for instruction, while they embed foundational English skills. As the year progresses and students become more proficient in English, the teacher will gradually release the use of the student's home language and rely more heavily on English for instruction.
DL: Students enrolled in our Dual Language program participate in a "side-by-side" model. Core content is taught in both English and in Chinese. Students split their time equally between working in an English only program and a Chinese only program. To ensure that students are receiving instruction evenly between both the targeted and native languages, students receive instruction in all subject areas in both languages in one day on one day off model: one full day of instruction in the targeted language, followed by one full day of instruction in the native language.

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

ENL teachers work with classroom teachers using co-teaching, side by side, station, parallel and alternative teaching methods. We are implementing HMH into Reading and Writing, as well as Arriba, Total Physical Response (TPR), The Writing Revolution (TWR) and 3Ls literacy methods.

Technology includes the use of SMARTboards, document cameras, iPads and Chrome books. Educational programs such as Prodigy and iReady are used to enrich ELLs' access to academic content. Children can also navigate ENL resources such as ELL Brain Pop, and Starfall.

Teachers use home language support as needed to help further academic instruction and understanding in the classroom. This is not limited to the use of realia, picture support, graphic organizers, repetition or familiar cognates.

ELL teachers look at the IEPs of these students to ensure that they receive that appropriate scaffold that will enhance their academic needs. We help support students with IEPS using ELL strategies such as realia, sentence frames, cognates and etc.

b. SIFE

Currently, we do not have any SIFE students.

c. Newcomers

We are currently servicing our newcomers using our Integrated (Co-Teaching) and Stand-alone method model. These students are grouped specifically to address language acquisition in listening, speaking, reading and writing. Our ENL Service Providers work collaboratively with the classroom teacher to address the needs of the class as a whole and focus on specific individual needs as well. The Arts clusters work with the class, and instruction is focused on language and expression. Some students also work with Literacy Paraprofessional, Learning Leaders and Student Teachers, in a small group setting or one to one. Our teachers attend Professional Development Workshops focused on teaching our ELLs higher academic language and word play strategies.

These strategies are designed to improve reading and writing. Researched-based phonics programs, HMH English 3D, Ready, Set Go! Newcomers, Imagine Learning and Brain-Pop for ELLs are other programs currently used to provide the students with phonemic awareness and reading skills. The use of the SmartBoard has also been an invaluable tool for our ELLs. Home language support is prevalent across classrooms in the forms of written and spoken translation and home language materials. This provides a bridge for students who need support as they gain more knowledge of the English language. In addition, our students also have glossaries and the "Words to Know" books readily available for them to reference any new words that they may encounter.

Newcomers also receive home language support orally, with a heavier focus on developing their phonics skills, picture support with translations, and allowing newcomers to use their entire linguistic repertoire when acquiring the new language. Teachers will use home language support as needed to help further academic instruction and understanding in the classroom. This is not limited to the use of realia, picture support, graphic organizers, repetition or familiar cognates.

d. Long Term ELLs

Currently, we do not have any Long Term ELLs.

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

Every grade has ELA and Math Curriculum Maps, which have designated sections addressing the unique needs of our diverse ELLs with IEPs student population. We mainstream for content area instruction in a least restrictive environment. All grades have 12:1:1 and ICT classes to meet IEP goals. ENL teachers push-in and pull-out ELLs with IEPs to ensure they are receiving their mandated minutes of ENL instruction. Classroom teachers are aware of their ELLs and work closely with them alongside the ENL service provider.

To help ELLs with IEPs achieve their IEP goals, teachers familiarize themselves with the student's needs and goals to help them better understand the curriculum. Teachers will use home language support as needed to help further academic instruction and understanding in the classroom. This is not limited to the use of realia, picture support, graphic organizers, repetition or familiar cognates. If needed, our SETSS teachers will use SPIRE to address any gaps that may be missing.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

In Dual Language, we use the side by side model in grade 5. One classroom is designated as an English class and a second classroom is designated as a Chinese (Mandarin) class. Students will alternate between the two classes within the week. In Grades K-4, one teacher will be responsible for teaching in both languages however will also alternate per day within the week. We currently have one DL classes each in K-4, and two DL classes in Grade 5 for a total of 6 DL classes. We have 1 TBE class in K where the home language is Mandarin Chinese. We integrate the TBE model of using a higher percentage of instruction in the home language at the start of the school year and gradually increasing instruction in English by the end of the school year. The remainder of ELLs/MLLs are provided Integrated and Stand-alone ENL minutes based on their proficiency level. In all programs, connections between vocabulary in the child's home language and English are made. Children are encouraged to make connections between the meaning of words as well as the organization of words in a sentence. Word study is done using home language stories and monitoring the sounds and meaning of words. Children learn the differences and similarities of their home language versus the English language. Additionally, translations and home language resources are utilized in Dual Language and TBE to ensure students have access to both. In ENL, our beginner students are provided with translations and home language resources as a scaffold.

Additionally, our upper-grade Dual Language students are assessed annually in their home language through the Chinese Reading Test, administered each Spring, to monitor literacy development in Mandarin alongside English.

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

N/A

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

To support effective co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for our ELL programs, teachers come together during the common planning time for planning ELA lessons within the HMH curriculum. Teachers also unpack data from module assessments in order to support the students areas of need, so additional supports can be implemented. Teachers also share and implement additional ELL strategies obtained from district-led professional learning sessions.

We purposefully schedule sessions for teachers to collaborate and discuss upcoming modules with representatives. The teachers bring ideas about the intended learning outcome for each lesson, as well as how we plan to achieve said outcomes. The purpose of this is to discuss the different perspectives on delivering each of these lessons so we can norm our understanding of what the outcome will be and how to get there as a team.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

In the 2025-26 school year, PS 20Q will have ongoing Professional Development throughout the school year that is responsive to the needs of our ELL students. We have grade conferences and weekly professional development given by the administration, invited guests, as well as turn-keyed learning opportunities by other staff members. Two days in September, Election Day, Chancellor's Day, and two Supplementary Professional Development days have been added to our calendar for Professional Learning. We also have Monthly ELL Liaison Meetings.

ELL teachers have the opportunity to attend HMH K-5 ENL Professional Learning Session workshop that are provided by the district and TESOL Conferences, which are then turn-keyed to the rest of the ELL Department. This helps fulfill the ELL teachers requirement of 50% of their PD being ELL related and 50% for other teaching staff. The secretaries also play an integral part in the ELL identification process and receive professional development in proper coding and individual student descriptors for ELL students. The staff as a whole is encouraged to attend a variety of workshops in all subject areas, behavioral modification, academic questioning, academic conversations, teaching ELL students and their entry points, hands on work projects, inclusion of students, as well as workshops in the arts and physical education fields. There are on-going staff development opportunities throughout the school year. The district office offers workshops to teachers of ELLs on a regular basis that can be attended with permission from administration. On the NYCDOE website there are different webinars that can be logged onto and listened to. Different organizations such as the UFT provided ELL Professional Developments for teachers to learn ELL strategies. Most of these all have to do with strategies to make the NYS Next Generation Learning Standards accessible to our ELLs. Teachers who attend various workshops turn-key the information to the rest of the ELL Department as well as other staff members.

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154 (15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

The staff is encouraged to attend a variety of workshops in all subject areas, behavioral modification, academic questioning, academic conversations, teaching ELL students and their entry points, hands on work projects, inclusion of students, as well as workshops in the arts and physical education fields. All of these workshops enable the teachers to find scaffolds and strategies that help all our students achieve success with the NYS Next Generation Learning Standards. We currently have teachers involved in professional learning opportunities such as but not limited to, HMH Into Reading (with direct learning on the program features designed to support ELLs), Queens North MLL/ELL Instructional Learning Opportunities; discussions of ELL learning strategies, materials and websites Algebra for All; making math accessible to all through a variety of strategies, Maryann Cucciara's 3Ls strategies, Hochman's The Writing Revolution; ELA strategies and methods TCIS (Therapeutic Crisis Intervention), PBIS (Positive Behavioral Intervention and Supports), MindUp, SEL Wellness, Social and Emotional learning strategies and behavioral modification techniques as well as any TESOL workshops offered in and around the city.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

NYSITELL and NYSESLAT proficiency levels are analyzed for trends to determine areas of need for groups of students as well as individual students. We look at their strengths and weaknesses to address their areas of needs. Other screeners used are: iReady, Acadience, Fundations, Recipe for Reading and Heggerty (for reading).

Data from the screeners are used to guide instructional planning by identifying trends that students display. The trends may identify areas that students are struggling in and/or reaching learning goals. Teachers utilize the data from Fundations to help students master their phonological awareness by targeting the concepts they are struggling with. iReady is administered three times a year (beginning, middle, and end) to track academic growth over time and pinpoint specific learning gaps. The data will help us target specific student needs. Data is looked at holistically and then students are taken and grouped homogeneously to further address their needs. We also collaborate with classroom teachers to see if further interventions are needed.

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

When an ELL student is identified as needing additional supports in the areas of ELA, Math, or other content areas, TESOL teachers work with all stakeholders to further support the child. ENL teachers work closely with the classroom teacher, the IEP teacher (when applicable) to better assist these students and meet their individual learning and emotional needs. When ELL students with IEPs need additional supports they are addressed on an individual basis to ensure the approach is tailored to the individual student's needs.
These supports can include, but are not limited to, picture support, non-verbal cues, the support of a language para, and Padlet to help scaffold and differentiate lessons. Our MTSS program is available to all students, including our ENL students. As students move through the curriculum, teachers monitor assessments and provide multi-tiered support to address deficiencies, both at Tier 2 in the classroom, and Tier 3 for students who are in need.

Intervention programs such as Fundations, Heggerty, and small group work are used to help our ELLs. Fundations and Heggerty are mainly focused on when working with our newcomer beginning ELLs. Differentiated instruction is utilized during our small group work especially with our Transitioning and Expanding ELLs. Tier III intervention is provided by our SETSS teacher.

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

Our school uses iReady data and Acadience screener data to guide instruction for all students and ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) This framework and its tiered infrastructure uses data to help match academic and social-emotional behavior assessment and instructional resources to each student's needs.

When analyzing the beginning of the year (BOY), middle of the year (MOY) and the end of the year (EOY) screener data, a list is generated with students that scored well below grade level for each grade. Teachers identify and support students who are at-risk. Teams use protocols and decision-making rules to determine instructional changes at the school, classroom and grade-levels, and for the unique needs of groups and individuals. The MTSS framework is accessible to all students, including ENL students, ensuring equitable access to academic and behavioral supports. As students progress through the curriculum, their performance is closely monitored. Teachers deliver differentiated instruction and interventions through Tier 2 classroom-based supports and Tier 3 intensive interventions for students with more significant needs.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

We utilize iReady, Acadience, HMH end-of-module assessments, and teacher-created assessments to inform and guide instruction. Assessment data is shared regularly with students, parents, and all relevant service providers. Following each benchmark assessment, data review meetings are held to discuss student progress and to identify any necessary interventions and supports to address individual learning needs.

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

Students in the Transitional Bilingual Program and the Dual Language program are consistently assessed in their home language using various benchmark exams in their home language as well as in English to track proficiency and understanding in both languages. Teachers also create their own summative and formative assessments. Additionally, in grades 3-5 ELLs are given home language glossaries in their classroom to use when they feel the need to seek further understanding. ELLs who are not in the TBE or Dual Language program are also provided with translators when needed and approved, as well as translated copies of class assessment (when appropriate). They are also provided with NYS approved glossaries to use during state exams.

Starting in the spring of 2022 our Chinese Dual language students were administered a Chinese proficiency exam to assess their acquisition of the Chinese language. In addition, ELLs in the Dual Language program are assessed in their home language with teacher made assessments.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

We use NYSESLAT to evaluate each student at the end of the year to see the progress and growth that has occurred throughout the year. We look and pinpoint each of the four modalities within the NYSESLAT to determine which areas of need still need to be addressed. After analyzing the data it has been determined by our ENL team that the modality of writing is our highest area of need. This information is then shared with the classroom teacher and the support staff to help ensure the ELLs growth and strategies are put into place to address this area of need.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

We use the classroom rosters to compare against the RLER in ATS to identify all the ELL students that are eligible for the NYSESLAT in the current year. All ELL teachers from grades K-5 are responsible for administering and grading the NYSESLAT. Considerations are taken into account so that each teacher is not administering or grading the NYSESLAT of their own students.
Titles:
Alexa Lee - Teacher/ENLcoordinator
Kiki Lam - Teacher/ENLcoordinator
Jessica Zarian - Teacher
Jennifer Fitgerald - Teacher
Maria Baek - Teacher
David Ching - Teacher
Magda Kowalczyk - Teacher
ELL teachers continuously touch base with the classroom teachers and their students. They provide scaffolds and materials for the units of study being conducted at the time.

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

Teachers review the IEPs of students, on SESIS, that have testing accommodations to ensure all accommodations are provided. We also collaborate with the IEP teacher to review students that may have a 504. While planning for any state assessment, we look at all students to see if any accommodations will be needed. This is including but not limited to, test read, extended time, separate location, glossary and oral translator if needed.

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

At the start of each school year, we invite families of newly identified ENL students to an event in which they watch ELL Parent Orientation video which explains the various ENL models. Additionally, parents/guardians have an opportunity to ask specific questions about each program from a certified TESOL teacher. These meetings are also translated into parents' home language to help support parent understanding. Throughout the year, our ENL team utilizes the parent engagement time embedded into our schedules to communicate with the parents of our ELL students around the topics of language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. These meetings are held individually with each ELL parent. This is an additional time in which the ENL provider can reinforce the goals of the program, and be available to answer any questions the parent may have. A translator (when available) or the DOE translation phone services are also included in all ENL parent meetings and events to ensure parent understanding. After parents attend the parent orientation meeting, they fill out their program choice and ELL teachers answer any questions they may have. We have copies of students' parent choice program surveys kept in the CUM folders and an additional copy in the filing cabinet.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note:

this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

We organize New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT) workshops for families who have children in Kindergarten through Grade 5. There are translators within our workshops who assist in order to better support the families' understanding of the NYSESLAT. During this meeting, we explain and show the proficiency levels, testing dates, test levels, the structure of the test and sample questions. These workshops give the families an opportunity to ask any questions and/or concerns they may have about the NYSESLAT. There is also time for the families to speak one-on-one with their child's ENL provider.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

Families are provided with translated notices in their preferred language so that they are informed of events that are happening in school. P.S.20 also has Family Funday where we invite families to come for an activity in the classroom with their child and classroom teacher. They begin the day by meeting in the auditorium with our Guidance Counselors welcoming them and informing them of the theme for the month. Translators are available at the meetings to answer questions if they arise. Family Fun Days are aligned to the five CASEL 5 competencies (self-management, self-awareness, social awareness, relationship skills, responsible decision-making).

The office provides translated documents and preferred methods of communication for parents by referring to parents' preferred language of communication listed on the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS). The pupil accounting secretary also keeps a log of parents preferred language of communication.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

We organize New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT) workshops for families who have children in Kindergarten through grade 5. There are translators within our workshops who assist in order to better support the families' understanding of the NYSESLAT. During this meeting, we explain and show the proficiency levels, testing dates, test levels, the structure of the test and sample questions. These workshops give the families an opportunity to ask any questions and/or concerns they may have about the NYSESLAT. There is also time for the families to speak one-on-one with their child's ENL provider.

All teachers including Dual Language teachers hold a "Meet the Teacher" to discuss expectations and program model. Dual Language teachers will further explain in depth of the curriculum they will use.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

P.S.20 will communicate meetings with parents via ClassDojo and GAMMA. The PTA meets on a monthly basis to discuss school events and fundraisers in collaboration with our school parent coordinator. The School Leadership Team (SLT) includes members of the school community such as principal, teachers, parents/guardians, UFT Chapter Leader, etc. The team meets monthly and the members are notified in advance on GAMMA.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

Our teachers support the cultural and linguistic needs of our students by incorporating visual tools such as photographs, illustrations, videos and realia across all content area lessons. Graphic organizers, word and picture vocabulary cards, language dictionaries and translator apps for reading help students connect academic language to content areas. Additionally, our ENL team holds an inquiry meeting once a week. Here we reflect upon our teaching practices and resources. For example, incorporating our students' life experiences into lessons and selection of books that directly reflect the students' culture and language. We also discuss how we can build upon our students' home languages, which will help teach academic vocabulary, skills, and concepts in English. P. S. 20 has also created a variety of clubs for students to participate in, such as multi-cultural arts and enrichment, chorus, art, and dance. We work with outside communities to bring in cultural dances for the students as well.

Some external partnerships that P.S.20 collaborates with are some community based organizations such as CASA and Queens College to build and grow culturally. The students have attended assemblies in the auditorium that exposed them to a variety of cultural expressions found in the songs and dances from around the world. Additionally, the Harlem Magic Masters have visited P.S.20 in the past 2 years to bring additional cultural exposure with our surrounding neighborhoods.

Part VII: Additional Information

Additional Information

Include any additional information that is relevant to your LAP and would further explain and highlight how your school supports MLs/ELLs. This form does not allow graphics and charts to be pasted.

In order to support our ENL students, we have a structured schedule with a parallel FLEX period for each grade. ENL service providers work closely with the classroom teacher to support their students during the Integrated time and Standalone time. The parallel programming allows for us to provide phonics support for our all of our ELLs. We ensure mandated minutes are provided by adhering to the number of minutes each student requires.

Part VIII: ELL Identification Attestation and Principal Certification

Identification Plan

For additional information, refer to ELL Identification Attestation Professional Learning Module.

1. What are the titles of the members of your ELL identification team? Note: Members of the ELL identification team must be pedagogues.

Titles & Members of our ELL Identification Team:

ELL Coordinators/ENL Teachers -
Alexa Lee
Nga Wai Lam

ENL Teachers -
Jennifer Fitzgerald
Jessica Zarian
David Ching
Magda Kowalczyk
Maria Baek
Ha Na Kim

2. Describe the structures and process in place for identification of ELLs year-round as required by the NYC DOE Policy & Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, including your school's identification plan for any incoming students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Include:

- How your school proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs,
- Who is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process, and
- School's plan for ensuring ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated instruction.

When a student arrives at the school for registration, the school secretary, Lori Manzolillo, will begin to review all necessary documents and the ENL coordinators, NgaWai Lam and Alexa Lee (both ENL teachers), are informed there is a child registering. The intake team will then immediately attend the registration to provide the parents with the Home Language Survey. A certified TESOL teacher then conducts the mandated student interview and assesses English proficiency using the NYSITELL, when determined to be appropriate based on the results of the interview and HLIS. Our school secretary works with the ENL coordinators and parents by making appointments early in the day so that instruction can happen continually. There is also dedicated time for the intake team to register new admits.

The ENL team serves all newly enrolled, current ELLs and former ELLs as they are placed in their classrooms. The team works collaboratively with classroom teachers to ensure that all ELLs are receiving appropriate scaffolds and mandated instruction. When a new ELL is enrolled, teachers are informed and aware of their servicing needs and work together to provide appropriate instruction.

Principal Certification

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, I, attest that the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to, and staff are trained on the items listed below.

- The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).
- Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined:
  a. If a student has been in New York State public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.
  b. If a student has been outside of New York State public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL Identification Process as part of reentry.

- The home language of the student is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue.
  a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

- An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.
- Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.
  a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

- Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.
- Notification letters are sent to the parent/guardian in their preferred language.
  a. Parent is notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

- If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish Language Assessment Battery (LAB).
- Student with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources.
- If a student is a newly identified ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.
  a. The parent orientation meeting provides parents/guardians with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents/guardians are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

- ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.
  a. If the bilingual program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that bilingual program in accordance with NYC DOE transfer policies.
  b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a New Language and our school keeps track of parent selection so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

- Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).
- If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.
- Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in the students' cumulative files.

Designation of a LAC
Name of person designated and trained as the LAC.
At the start of each school year, each principal is required to designate at least one staff member to serve as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC), responsible for overseeing language assistance services within the school.

We have pre-populated the following information based on our records. Please confirm that the designated staff member(s) are your school's Galaxy-designated LAC(s) and provide the date(s) they attended the OLA Language Access Coordinator Training. Note that this training is in addition to the mandatory asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. If any information is missing, please provide the requested details.

As a reminder, LACs are internal staff designations and are not meant to serve as the primary point of contact for families regarding language access-related matters. The Parent Coordinator, or another designated staff member, should remain the main contact for families regarding all issues, including language access.

Additionally, services are purchased from Geneva Worldwide to ensure all teachers can communicate effectively with families in their home language.
Special education meetings for students with Individualized Education Programs	IEP Meetings: In-house interpreters attend and support, ensuring parents understand the IEP process, student needs, and services being provided. When in-house interpreters are not available, we utilize the language line.

3. Describe the resources and processes your school will use to communicate with parents who speak a language other than English during an emergency (e.g., lockdown, fire, student attendance, nurse/hospital visit, etc.), or when a parent needs to contact the school in an emergency, ensuring communication is in their preferred language.

(A) a school-wide emergency (i.e. lockdown, fire, etc..) School-wide emergencies are communicated through the GAMA system as well as Class Dojo, both of which automatically translate into home languages.

(B) a student-specific emergency (i.e. student attendance, nurse/hospital visit, etc..). Phone calls are made using in-house translators to ensure successful communication. If in-house translators are not available, or if there are no in-house translators who speak a given language, we utilize the NYCDOE Translation Line.

(C) If a parent has an emergency and needs to contact the school. In house translators are called upon to receive these calls and attend these meetings. If there are no in-house translators who speak a given language, we utilize the NYCDOE Translation Line.

Part D: Staff Awareness

Staff Awareness

Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.

1. Describe how your school will ensure that all staff members complete the required asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform, and are familiar with the Best Practices for When to Provide Translation of Critical Written Communications to Parents and Best Practices for When to Provide Interpretation for Critical Oral Communications with Parents. Additionally, explain how your Galaxy-designated LAC will disseminate future language access resources and updates to all staff members.

NYCPS Language Access Training Completion:
All staff members will be required to complete the asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC platform.

The Principal and the Galaxy-designated Language Access Coordinator (LAC) will monitor training completion rates and follow up with staff who have not completed the training.

Completion will be tracked through WeLearnNYC reports and verified by supervisors during the fall onboarding window and again mid-year for new hires.

Familiarity with Best Practices:
Staff will be introduced and given access to the DOE's:

1. Best Practices for When to Provide Translation of Critical Written Communications to Parents

2. Best Practices for When to Provide Interpretation for Critical Oral Communications with Parents
These documents will be shared and reviewed during the September staff professional development days and reinforced at staff meetings and team planning sessions throughout the year.

Ongoing Communication and Resource Sharing by the LAC:

The LAC will:

1. Disseminate language access updates, guidance, and resources via monthly staff bulletins, team meetings, and email communications.

2. Maintain a shared digital folder (e.g., on Google Drive) with current translation/interpretation protocols, request forms, and DOE policies.

3. Serve as the point of contact for questions and support related to accessing interpreters, submitting translation requests, and planning for language-accessible family events.

Part E: Parental Notification

Parental Notification

Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

1. Describe how your school will inform parents about available language assistance services in their preferred language. Include any of the following:

- Translated signage
- Brochures, flyers, or letters shared with parents
- Parent engagement events where language assistance services are highlighted (e.g., PTA meetings, international parents' night, etc.)
- Messaging applications

- Language Access for NYC Public Schools Families brochure

Any parent engagement events where this is expressed (i.e. PTA meetings, international parent's night, etc..)
Messaging phone applications
Parent's Guide to Language Access NYC Public School Guidebook 2025-2026

Part F: Monitoring

Monitoring

Methods for soliciting and implementing feedback on language assistance services.

1. In addition to the feedback received from parents via OLA's Translation & Interpretation Feedback Survey, describe the methods your school will use to gather feedback from parents regarding the language assistance services they receive in their preferred language.

Multilingual School Surveys:
The school will distribute surveys translated into the major home languages spoken by our families. These surveys will be administered at least twice per year (fall and spring) to gather parent input on interpretation and translation services, communication effectiveness, and overall satisfaction with language access supports.

We will host informal feedback sessions in parents' home languages to provide space for families to share their experiences, needs, and suggestions regarding communication and access.

Exit Slips and Feedback Forms at Events:
At family-facing events such as workshops, PTCs, and IEP meetings, parents will be given short, translated feedback forms or digital exit slips to assess the clarity and helpfulness of the interpretation or translated materials provided.

Direct Outreach by the Parent Coordinator/LAC
The Parent Coordinator/Language Access Coordinator (LAC) will proactively follow up with LEP families, especially those of chronically absent students or students with IEPs, to gather one-on-one feedback about their communication experiences and ensure their needs are being met.

2. How has your school worked to improve its language assistance services? Share any feedback results and outline your plans for further improvements in the upcoming school year.

Feedback collected through parent surveys, informal conversations, and multilingual advisory sessions indicates that families are generally very satisfied with the quality and availability of translation and interpretation services at PS20Q. Parents report that they are able to communicate effectively with teachers, administrators, and school staff through a variety of tools, including:

In-house bilingual staff

Digital translation tools (e.g., Google Translate)

PocketTalk devices

Over-the-phone interpretation services

Based on family input and staff observations, we have identified an opportunity to enhance the organization and clarity of live interpretation during in-person events and workshops.

To improve for the upcoming school year, PS20Q will implement the use of wireless transmitters and headphones to deliver simultaneous interpretation in a more structured, accessible, and user-friendly manner. This upgrade will help minimize background noise and confusion during larger gatherings and ensure that limited-English-proficient families can fully engage in real time.

We will continue to monitor the effectiveness of these improvements through ongoing feedback and adjust our language access strategies to best meet the needs of our diverse school community.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

The purpose is to ensure that our English Language Learners attain English language proficiency and help them to meet the academic learning standards in their grade level. The ENL department analyzed NYSESLAT and NYSITELL results, as well as NYS ELA data, iReady, and utilized the EDAT tool to support the following program rationale. Based on NYSESLAT data, our direct English instruction will center around listening, speaking, and reading comprehension as well as foundational writing skills. The distinct role of the ENL/Bilingual teachers is to provide ENL strategies, materials, and ENL expertise to the classroom and the content area teachers. ENL strategies will include scaffolding, differentiation, TPR, and vocabulary comprehension strategies such as the use of visuals and front-loading vocabulary. Instruction will further be differentiated for ELLs with IEPs, newcomers, and long-term ELLs with individualized learning goals and differentiated instruction based on specific needs in each of the modalities: speaking, listening, reading, and writing. In addition, assessments will be incorporated into every lesson to gauge student comprehension and understanding. Teachers will embed Ready, Set, Go! Newcomers, Teams (Teaching ELLs for Academic Mastery), China Sprout software, National Geographic Panorama Program and The Fundations ® Virtual Resource HUB by Wilson, to students in grades 1-5, to encourage critical foundational skills specifically; phonemic awareness, phonics/ word study, high-frequency word study, reading fluency, vocabulary, comprehension strategies, handwriting, and spelling. Diagnostic assessments will be administered at the beginning, the middle, and at the end of the program to gauge students progress. Subgroups/Grade Levels - We will have 7 classes from grades 1 through 5, including students in various subgroups, including newcomers, developing ELLs and long-term ELLs. In total, 7 classes will be taught by certified ENL/Bilingual teachers. 5 ENL pedagogues will coordinate with 2 content area teachers. Schedule and Duration - Classes will be held after school on Tuesday and Thursday for 90 minutes from 2:30PM - 4:00PM from October 2025 until April 2026, for a total of approximately 40 sessions.

Language of Instruction -
All instruction will follow the stand-alone ENL model and will be taught in English. Number and types of certified teachers - 5 certified ENL/bilingual teachers and 2 content area teachers. Types of materials - The materials purchased for the Title III program are supplemental and used solely for after-school purposes which include Ready, Set, Go Newcomers, Teams (Teaching ELLs for Academic Mastery), National Geographic Panorama Program and The Fundations ® Virtual Resource HUB by Wilson. In addition, teachers will incorporate lessons from the NYC DOE Teach Hub- designed for ELLs.

The grouping for the first session of Title III will consist of ELLs who are Entering and Emerging. The second session will consist of ELLs who are Transitioning and Expanding. Instruction will be provided by Title III teachers via small groups based on ENL proficiency.

Rationale for Title III ELL Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III ELL funded program. For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

The purpose is to ensure that our English Language Learners attain English language proficiency and help them to meet the academic learning standards in their grade level. The ENL department analyzed NYSESLAT and NYSITELL results, as well as NYS ELA data, iReady, Acadience and utilized the EDAT tool to support the following program rationale. ENL strategies will include scaffolding, differentiation, TPR, and vocabulary comprehension strategies such as the use of visuals and front-loading vocabulary. Please note: Immigrant students are not necessarily English Language Learners (ELLs), and ELLs may or may not be immigrants. For the purpose of this funding, immigrant students are defined as individuals who were not born in any U.S. state (this includes the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico); and have not been attending one or more schools in any one or more states for more than three full, academic years (the months need not be consecutive).

Provide a summary of each program funded under Title III immigrant for SY 25-26:

For each program, describe:

- When the program takes place (i.e., after school, before school, Saturday academy).
- Activities the students will engage in and how these activities will enhance instructional opportunities for immigrant students (including ELLs).
- How students will be grouped for instruction and specify the number of student groups. Include total number of student groups and total number of ELLs in each group, for each program.
- How instruction will be delivered (e.g., team teaching, parallel teaching, etc.).

The program will take place on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:25 am - 7:55 am.

Our before-school program prioritizes social and emotional learning and cultural immersion to ease the transition into American schooling. Through interactive sessions, newly arrived immigrants and ELLs engage in activities that showcase American customs, fostering a sense of belonging and understanding. Designed to refine listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills, our activities will provide targeted language support based on individual student needs. Activities will include language-rich experiences that enhance the students' communication abilities in real-world contexts. ENL strategies will include scaffolding, differentiation, TPR, and vocabulary comprehension strategies such as the use of visuals, realia, and front loading vocabulary. Instruction will further be differentiated for immigrant families, SWD, newcomers, and long-term ELLs with individualized learning goals and differentiated instruction based on specific needs in each of the modalities: speaking, listening, reading, and writing.

Subgroups/Grade Levels

The program will initially be offered to students in grades 3, 4, and 5. The number of student groups will be dependent upon how many students register to participate in the program. If space allows, we will extend the program to grades 1-2.

Instruction will be delivered by both ENL and common branches teachers, who will alternate to ensure that students are receiving support in both cultural acclimation as well as the academic support to improve their ability to speak, listen, read, and write in English.

Our after school program will take place on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:10am-7:55am from January 2026 through June 2026, for a total of approximately 27 sessions.

The purpose is to ensure that our English Language Learners attain English language proficiency and help them to meet the academic learning standards in their grade level. The ENL department analyzed NYSESLAT and NYSITELL results, as well as NYS ELA data, iReady, and utilized the EDAT tool to support the following program rationale. Based on NYSESLAT data, our direct English instruction will center around listening, speaking, and reading comprehension as well as foundational writing skills. The distinct role of the ENL/Bilingual teachers is to provide ENL strategies, materials, and ENL expertise to the classroom and the content area teachers. ENL strategies will include scaffolding, differentiation, TPR, and vocabulary comprehension strategies such as the use of visuals and front-loading vocabulary. In addition, assessments will be incorporated into every lesson to gauge student comprehension and understanding. Diagnostic assessments will be administered at the beginning, the middle, and at the end of the program to gauge students progress.

The program will be supervised by assistant principals and/or the principal for all sessions.

Rationale for Title III Immigrant Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III Immigrant funded program:

For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

The decision for our before-school program is grounded in a thorough qualitative examination, including teacher observations and interviews, revealing challenges in cultural acclimation and language proficiency. Complementing this, quantitative data from the NYSESLAT, the NYS ELA exams, as well as performance on iReady and Acadience exams underscore the critical need for a program focusing on cultural immersion and language support.

Key data sources informing the program's necessity include teacher observations and interviews, providing qualitative insights into challenges faced by participants. Additionally, quantitative analysis of language proficiency assessments, standardized test scores, and attendance records offers measurable indicators of the identified needs, solidifying the justification for the program.

Specifically based on iReady data, many of our upper grade ELL students are below proficiency in phonics and phonemic awareness, and these programs will work toward providing our students with these important skills while supporting their acclimation to American education and culture. Our 4th grade students are 29.2% below grade level proficiency whereas our 5th grade students are 25.7% below grade level in phonics.

Looking at the EDAT, many of our ELL students struggle with the writing modality and in response to this area of need, teachers will highlight and focus on this skill. Based on 2024 NYSESLAT results, 27 out of 75 second graders struggled with the writing modality.

Qualitative Response: Our school's ILET and staff teams are focusing on PDSA (PLAN, DO, STUDY, ACT) cycle which includes engaging in inquiry cycles by collecting student writing samples to analyze and interpret the quality of the writing based on a writing rubric.

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

Based on qualitative data, we will be providing professional learning about welcoming newcomers to support our new immigrant students as they acclimate to American school and culture.

Analysis of language proficiency test results from NYSESLAT, iReady/Acadience screeners, and classroom assessments for our ELLs and immigrant students helps us to indicate areas in need of improvement. Specifically, the writing modality is an area of focus for our second graders as 27/75 students showed this as an area of need.

Additionally, feedback from language-related coursework highlights specific challenges faced by students. Qualitative feedback from conversations with students provides insight on needs, including acclimating to American school and culture and the differences between their previous schooling experiences.

Rationale for Family Engagement Activities

Describe the rationale for the family engagement activities to be provided:

For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., reasons for topics, time activities will be offered), and
- Data sources (e.g., parent survey responses, in-house parent surveys, PTA/PA request) used to justify the need for activities.

Activity 1: Language Development
Reasoning: Observations by teachers and staff indicate that language development is a key area of concern for immigrant families, impacting both students' academic success and family engagement.
Data Source: Teacher feedback, anecdotal evidence from parent-teacher meetings, and student performance in language-related assessments.

Reasoning: Analysis of language proficiency test results for ELLs indicates areas of improvement. Additionally, feedback from language-related coursework highlights specific challenges faced by students.

Data Source: Language proficiency test scores, course grades, and teacher assessments.

Activity 2: Cultural Awareness Sessions
Reasoning: The school recognizes the need for fostering a culturally inclusive environment. Anecdotal evidence from teachers suggests that a lack of cultural understanding may lead to communication barriers between educators and immigrant families.

Data Source: Teacher reflections, anecdotal evidence from parent-teacher conferences.

Reasoning: Analysis of survey data on cultural inclusivity perceptions among students and parents reveals areas of concern. Additionally, attendance rates at school events vary based on cultural themes.

Data Source: Surveys on cultural inclusivity, attendance records for cultural events.

Activity 3: Academic Support Meetings

Reasoning: Informal discussions during parent-teacher meetings indicate that some families may not be fully aware of the U.S. education system, leading to challenges in supporting their children academically.

Data Source: Parent-teacher meeting feedback, teacher observations during interactions with parents.

Reasoning: Analysis of student performance data suggests that there is a correlation between parental involvement and academic success. Additionally, survey data on parents' familiarity with the U.S. education system highlights areas for improvement.
Data Source: Student academic performance records, surveys on parental understanding of the U.S. education system.
In each case, the rationale for the family engagement activity is supported by a combination of qualitative and quantitative data, including teacher feedback, assessments, surveys, and observational data. This comprehensive approach ensures that the chosen activities are both responsive to observed needs and grounded in empirical evidence.

We will utilize a secure digital recordkeeping system to document details of each family engagement activity. This system will include information such as the date, time, location, description of the activity, and a list of participating families.

Email Archives:
Copies of all email communications sent to families regarding Title III Immigrant family engagement activities will be archived. This includes announcements, reminders, and any follow-up communications.

Phone Call Logs:
A log of personalized phone calls made to families will be maintained, noting the date, purpose of the call, and any relevant details discussed. This log will provide a record of direct communication efforts.

Printed Material Copies:
Physical copies of flyers, informational materials, and any printed documentation distributed to families will be retained. These materials will be organized and stored for future reference.

Meeting Minutes:
During parent-teacher conferences or meetings where information about family engagement activities is shared verbally, meeting minutes will be taken to record the details discussed, including any questions or concerns raised by parents.

Event Attendance Records:
Sign-in sheets or attendance records for each family engagement activity will be generated and preserved. These records will include the names of participating families and, when applicable, the names of students involved.

By implementing these comprehensive documentation procedures, our school aims to establish a reliable and organized system that ensures accountability, transparency, and the ability to track the impact of our Title III Immigrant family engagement efforts over time.
