Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

At PS97Q, The Forest Park School community, we prepare our students for college and career by embracing their strengths and providing them with an equitable and culturally relevant education in which they are challenged to reach their maximum potential both academically and personally through instruction that is differentiated for all learners.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

Across all classrooms at P.S.97, the school's NGLS aligned curricula and integrated instructional shifts encourage rigorous habits and higher order thinking skills to meet the needs of all learners. We are currently using HMH Into Reading in grades K-5 In addition, we are using Eurka Math in Synch as the Math curriculum across grades K-5 with K-5 Mathematics practices. The school continues to place a strong focus on literacy and math, and all classes have a wide range of culturally relevant leveled text to meet the needs of all learners. Teachers engage students in literacy lessons that are aligned to the Next Generation Learning Standards, the balanced literacy model, with attention given to explicit instruction. Across the school there is an ongoing focus on writing and informational texts. We are also a Sep Jr. school which enables our students to take part in computer science classes. Teacher teams work collaboratively to make the necessary adjustments to unit plans and tasks, such as embedding academic vocabulary, thus ensuring college and career readiness and the school's integration of a Next Generation Learning Standards that is rigorous and engaging for all learners. School leaders utilize the Danielson Framework for Teaching and engage in targeted pedagogical support to improve student outcomes. School leaders use the observation of classroom practice to ensure instruction is aligned with the Danielson Framework for Teaching and Learning. Through the use of low inference observations, teachers engage in effective conversations with administrators and colleagues, regarding their strengths, areas for instructional improvement and targeted next steps. Staff professional development is differentiated and derived from the school's goals, observations of teacher practice, identified areas of need and teacher's choice. The school's consistency and frequency of classroom observation practice, and focused conversations with teachers result in the improvement of pedagogical practice and student performance. The Forest Park School has an excellent tone and climate where all students are well respected and welcomed. In alignment with the Citywide Instructional Expectations, systems and structures have been set in place to ensure that each student in the school is known well by at least one staff member. All teachers are able to articulate individual student's development, both academically and socially, through the use of ongoing assessments and teacher-student conferences. The guidance counselor and the parent coordinator provide exemplary support for parents, including parents of English language learners, and students with disabilities by offering them ongoing professional development in the Next Generation Learning Standards in both English and Spanish. One of our ENL teachers provided parents of English Language Learners with a series of parent workshops to teach parents the skills necessary to help their child succeed both academically and socially. There are clear and established attendance procedures to ensure that student attendance continues to improve. Attendance is also celebrated through school wide and class initiatives. Over the past year, The Forest Park School has taken steps to increase the rigor of instruction across all grades. Instruction is customized to meet individual students' needs, motivating and fully aligned to the Next Generation Learning Standards. Teachers set high expectations for all their students through goal setting, progress monitoring, and individual conferences. Students play an active role in their learning. Teachers embed student choice, self-assessment and peer assessment into their daily lessons. Our Instructional Focus this school year is to utilize multiple sources of data to design rigorous, relevant, and differentiated instruction. Throughout the school year, teachers use student work samples, conference logs, rubrics, and exit slips, at the end of lessons to analyze students' work and provide them with feedback. There are literacy mid-unit checkpoints, assessments, and end of unit performances tasks in literacy, as well as Eureka Math tasks that are aligned to NGLS in order to gauge student understanding. Collaborative practices among teachers is very evident. Each grade has two common preps in order to meet to improve instruction and discuss student data and outcomes as well as plan next steps for differentiated instruction to meet the needs of all learners in their classroom. Teachers also meet during the 80-minute professional learning on Mondays, in which they discuss ways to modify, customize and improve instruction. Inter-visitations are scheduled for teachers to view model lessons in Literacy and Eureka math. Administration debriefs with teachers following the visit to discuss how they are going to implement the strategies they observed in their classroom. All teachers on any given grade play an active role in their teacher teams, they all have a voice in the process of evaluating and being proactive in the process. For the upcoming school year, we will continue to focus on increasing the level of rigorous instruction in daily lessons as well as the collaborative practices among teachers across all grade levels. We will also focus on strengthening family and community ties. We will work to increase the number of parents that attend daily parent workshops, parent teacher conferences and open school nights. We will also continue to focus on including parents as active participants in the school community by inviting partents to events and to our classrooms monthly.

Briefly summarize the key initiatives your school will implement this school year.

Data Analysis and Progress Monitoring:

Teacher teams along with administration will work closely to progress monitor students in ELA and Mathematics. As we progress monitor and look at data sources, teachers will indicate trends and create lessons based on student need. Focus groups will also be created and tracked utilizing multiple data sources.

Dual Language Program: Dual Language program in Kindergarten - 2nd grade through a 1-way model (50/50).

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
About 60% of K-2 students are below or well below grade level performance as per the 2024 EOY Acadeince data	Accountability & Professional Learning Strategic Data Review and Planning Ongoing System of Progress Monitoring Curriculum & Resources	Progress Monitoring
About 77% of 3-5 students are below or well below grade level performance as per the 2024 EOY I-ready diagnostic	Accountability & Professional Learning Strategic Data Review and Planning Ongoing System of Progress Monitoring Curriculum & Resources	Progress Monitoring

Priority 1

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for literacy outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Literacy

- Implement the strategies outlined in NYC Reads, including foundational phonics curriculum for grades K-2
- Implement dyslexia screening, professional learning, and program pilots (as applicable)
- Support literacy development through the integration of culturally responsive-sustaining texts and content

Priority 1 SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
All Students	40	By June, 2026, literacy for All Students will improve, as measured by a 10% Increase, from 40 to 50% students performing at or above benchmark on the Acadience EOY, of students performing at or above benchmark on the Acadience.
All Students	51%	By June, 2026, literacy for students in grades 3-5 will improve as measured by a 9% (24 students) increase from 51% (136 students) to 60%, (160 students) of percentage of students scoring at Levels 3 & 4 on the ELA exam.

Priority 1 Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Priority 2

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for physical and emotional safety outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Physical and Emotional Safety

- Develop safety infrastructure and systems, including staff training, collaboration with external partners, and implementation of safety and security best practices

Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and

Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Family and Community Engagement Around MTSS

Describe how the school's essential components of MTSS are shared with families.

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the school community.

The school will further encourage school-level parent and family engagement by:
• hosting educational family events/activities during Parent-Teacher Conferences and throughout the school year;
• encouraging meaningful parent participation on School Leadership Teams, Parent Association (or Parent┐Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council;
• supporting or hosting Family Day events;
• establishing a Parent Resource Center/Area or lending library; instructional materials for parents;
• encouraging more parents to become trained school volunteers;
• providing written and verbal progress reports that are periodically given to keep parents informed of their children's progress;
• developing and distributing a school newsletter or web publication designed to keep parents informed about school activities and student progress;
• providing school planners/folders for regular written communication between /teacher and the home in a format, and to the extent practicable in the languages that parents can understand.

Describe how families receive updates on the progress of their child(ren) who receive Tier 2 targeted, or Tier 3 intensive interventions.

P.S. 97Q will support parents and family members oof their child(ren) who receive Tier 2 targeted, or Tier 3 intensive interventions.
• Parent engagement and parent teacher conference meetings to discuss student stupoprt and progress providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
• providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
• fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
• providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
• sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
• providing professional learning opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of the school community;

Describe how families are involved during decision making regarding the progress of students receiving Tier 3 intensive intervention.

The school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (ML/ELL), and students with disabilities. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.
In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, the school will:

School Leadership Team (SLT)

• actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;

• engage all parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I, 1% set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to the school to supplement parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy and parenting skills;

• ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent and family engagement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the School-Parent Compact

• support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional learning, especially in developing leadership skill

• maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend the school and will work to ensure that the school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.

• conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home

• provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., ESSA/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, School Survey Report

• host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent and family engagement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1116 and other applicable sections under ESSA

• schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;

- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

Number of students in temporary housing who are:

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:
- Living in a hotel/motel:
- Other

*Note: In keeping with established practices regarding personally identifiable information, use the letter "s" to identify a number less than five (5).

33

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

We will support parents with the following

Provide general support to parents by:
• creating a safe, supportive and effective learning community for students and a welcoming respectful environment for parents, and guardians;
• assisting parents in understanding academic achievement standards and assessments and how to monitor their child's progress by providing professional learning opportunities (times will be scheduled so that the majority of parents can attend);
• sharing and communicating best practices for effective communication, collaboration and partnering with all members of the school community;
• supporting parental involvement activities as requested by parents and family members;
• ensuring that the Title I funds allocated for parent involvement are utilized to implement activities as described in this Compact and the Parent and Family Engagement Policy;

• advising parents of their right to file a complaint under the Department's General Complaint Procedures and consistent with the Title I requirement for Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and Title I programs;

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

Free school meals, door to door transportation, free school supplies and backpack. Students will be offered at risk guidance and AIS services, if needed, in order to assist them in progressing academically. Students have the opportunity to participate in before and after school activities.

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

How many students in foster care are currently enrolled at your school? Provide a detailed breakdown of the social-emotional and academic supports available to them.

What targeted supports are in place for students in foster care, including those newly transitioning into the foster care system? How does your school ensure these students receive the necessary interventions to promote stability and success?

Support home-school relationships and improve communication by:
• conducting parent-teacher conferences each semester during which the individual child's achievement will be discussed as well as how this Compact is related;
• convening an Annual Title I Parent Meeting each school year for parents and family members of students participating in the Title I program to inform them of the school's Title I status and funded programs and their right to be involved;
• arranging additional meetings at other flexible times, e.g., morning, evening and providing (if necessary and funds are available) transportation or child care for those parents who cannot attend a regular meeting;
• respecting the rights of limited English proficient families to receive translated documents and interpretation services in order to ensure participation in the child's education;
• providing information related to school and parent programs, meetings and other activities is sent to parents of participating children in a format and to the extent practicable in a language that parents can understand;
• involving parents in the planning process to review, evaluate and improve the existing Title I programs, Parent and Family Engagement Policy and this Compact;
• providing parents with timely information regarding performance profiles and individual student assessment results for each child and other pertinent individual school information;
• ensuring that the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact are distributed and discussed with parents each year;

After analyzing historical demographic, attendance, and achievement data for students in foster care, what trends have emerged? How can these insights be used to improve the services and support provided to this population?

What specific strategies does your school implement to ensure students in foster care, particularly those in transitional grades, receive targeted Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) support? How do these strategies help address academic and behavioral challenges?

Embed social emotional learning into learning throughout the day (not just in isolation) and create supportive risk free environments School-wide PBIS themes, books, activities and expand social emotional and mental health supports through Restorative Circles Progress Monitor Behavior Intervention Plans and continuously make adjustments Provide professional development to staff including training in LSCI/TCIS Develop and implement improved attendance practices to combat chronic absenteeism and center equity Develop safety infrastructure and systems, including staff

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Title I Program Information

Part 1: Title I Program Type

Title I Requirements and Strengthening Title I Parent Involvement: Under USDOE's Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Title I schools are required to address professional learning and parent and family engagement in the Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP). To strengthen parent leadership in Title I schools, and increase the involvement of all parents of Title I eligible children in improving students' academic outcomes, all Title I schools are required to establish a Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) that will serve as the consultative and representative body for all Title I parents in the school to provide voice into the spending of Title I funds.

The SLT is responsible for facilitating consultation with the Title I Parent Advisory Council regarding the joint development of the CEP, Parent and Family Engagement Policy, School Parent Compact (SPC) and the use of the 1% parent involvement set-aside in Title I schools. The Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) Chairperson (or alternate) is expected to attend all regular meetings of the School Leadership Team (SLT). Title I parents, as represented by the Title I PAC Chairperson, must be consulted regarding the use of the Title I 1% set-aside for parent and family engagement. The Title I 1% set-aside funding is used to supplement parent and family engagement activities as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and must be aligned with student achievement goals as outlined in the CEP. For additional guidance on the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC), go to the Protocols and Timeline for Title I Parent and Family Engagement Activities document.

Directions:

- All schools must indicate their Title I status in Part 1.
- All elements of the All Title I Schools section must be completed in Part 2.
- All Targeted Assistance (TA) Schools must also complete the TA Schools Only section in Part 3.
- All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools must also complete the SWP Schools Only section in Part 4.
- If a required component is addressed elsewhere in this plan, you may refer to the section or Priority where the response can be found.
- For additional information, visit the Title I Program Description (US Department of Education).

Part 2: All Title I Schools

High Quality and Ongoing Professional Learning: Please list below the Priority or section(s) that indicate strategies and activities for high quality professional learning for teachers, principals, staff, and paraprofessionals to enable all students to meet state standards.

We maintain a calendar of high quality ongoing professional learning throughout the school year. This PD calendar is guided by staff feedback as well as student need as shown through data sources like MAP Growth, Acadience, NYSESLAT, and NYS Tests.

The areas of concentration include:
-ENL Scaffolds
-ENL Compliance
-Differentiation for all students and Specially Designed Instruction
-Writing/Reading an IEP
-Trainings on curriculum (Teacher's College, Expeditionary Learning, Fundations)
-Analyzing Screener Data (Map Growth/Acadience)
-Equity for all/Courageous Conversations
-RTI

Teachers also meet on a weekly basis as teams to analyze student data and to engage in cycles of inquiry that encourage student growth in ELA and Math. Our school equity team meets on a bi-monthly basis. Other teams like the PD team, SEL team, and Data team meet once a month. Each team supports student growth in different ways.

Transition Plans to Assist Preschool Children (Elementary Schools Only): Describe the transition plans used to assist preschool children from early childhood programs to the elementary school program (e.g. aligned curriculum, joint PD & parent involvement activities, sharing of records/information, early intervention services, etc.).

Part 5: "Conceptual" Consolidation of Funds in SWP Schools

Directions: All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools in NYC are conceptually consolidating their Federal, State, and Local funds, even though the Galaxy system reports the allocations in separate accounting codes1. To be eligible for the flexibility consolidation of Federal funds, a Schoolwide Program school must identify in its Schoolwide plan (CEP) which programs are included in its consolidation and the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool. Additionally, the school plan must document that it has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated2. On the chart below, indicate which Federal, State, and/or local Tax Levy program funds that are consolidated in your school's Schoolwide Program, the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool, and verification that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated.
For the last two columns of this table: Place an (X) in Column A below to verify that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated. Indicate in Column B, the Priority or section that references where a related program activity has been described in this plan.

Explanation/Background

1. Explanation/Background:

Title I Schoolwide Program schools are expected to use the flexibility available to them to integrate services and programs with the aim of enhancing the entire educational program and helping all students reach proficient and advanced levels of achievement. In addition to coordinating and integrating services, Schoolwide Program schools may combine most Federal, State and local funds to provide those services. By consolidating funds from Federal, State, and local sources, a Schoolwide Program school can address its needs using all its available resources. This gives a school more flexibility in how it uses available resources to meet the identified needs of all its students.

Consolidating funds in a Schoolwide Program means that a school treats the funds it is consolidating like they are a single "pool" of funds. In other words, the funds from the contributing programs in the school lose their individual identity and the school has one flexible pool of funds. The school uses funds from this consolidated Schoolwide pool to support any activity of the Schoolwide Program without regard to which program contributed the specific funds used for a particular activity – so long as the use of funds meets the intent and purposes of the programs from which the funds originate. To consolidate funding in a Schoolwide Program, the school does not literally need to combine funds in a single account or pool with its own accounting code. Rather, the word "pool" is used conceptually to convey that a Schoolwide Program school has the use of all consolidated funds available to it for the dedicated function of operating a Schoolwide Program without regard to the identity of those funds.

Consolidating Federal funds in a Schoolwide Program has the following additional advantages:

- Consolidating Federal funds eases the requirements for accounting for funds from each specific program separately, because a Schoolwide school is not required to distinguish among funds received from different sources when accounting for their use.
- A school that consolidates Federal funds in its Schoolwide Program is not required to meet most of the statutory and regulatory requirements of the specific Federal programs included in the consolidation (e.g., semi-annual time and effort reporting for Title I). However, the school must ensure that it meets the intent and purposes of the Federal programs included in the consolidation so that the needs of the intended beneficiaries are met.

2. The intent and purposes of the Federal programs indicated on the chart above (Part 4c of this section) are as follows:

- Title I, Part A – Schoolwide Programs: To upgrade the entire educational program in the school in order to improve the academic achievement of all students, particularly the lowest-achieving students. This includes provision of services for Students in Temporary Housing (STH).
- Title I 1003(a), School Improvement: Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI), Additional Targeted Support and Improvement (ATSI) and Targeted Support and Improvement (TSI) Funding:

Support implementation of school improvement plans that aims to improve instruction and address the identified needs

Title II, Part A: Supplementary funding to improve student academic achievement by reducing class size in grades K, 1, 2, and 3, with an emphasis on grades with an average register greater than 20. If space is not available to form additional classes, funds may support push-in teacher(s) to supplement the instructional program. For schools that choose to reduce class size, priority must be given to reducing class size in general education settings and must demonstrate the following:

- Reduce class sizes to 15-18 students or fewer (including the use of co-teaching and floating teachers that bring the student to teacher ratio to one teacher per 15-18 students);
- Be accompanied by a rigorous curriculum, effective teachers, and a sustained, job-embedded professional development plan.

- Title III, Part A: To help ensure that children with limited English proficiency become proficient in English, develop high academic attainment in English, and meet the same challenging State academic content and achievement standards in the core academic subjects that all other children are expected to meet. Another purpose of this program is to increase the capacity of schools to establish, implement and sustain high-quality language instruction programs and English language development programs that assist schools in effectively teaching students with limited English proficiency. Title III, Part A is also designed to promote the participation of parents and communities of limited English proficient children in English language instruction programs.
- Title III Immigrant: Supplementary and enhanced services to immigrant students, in the areas of English language acquisition and content area achievement. Immigrant children and youth are defined as individuals who are aged 3 through 21, have not been attending school in any one or more states for more than three (3) full academic years, and were not born in any state. "State" means the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Children born to U.S. citizens abroad, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or any other U.S. territory that is not D.C. or Puerto Rico are to be considered immigrants.
- Title IV, Part A: Title IV funds are for schools that are among those with the greatest needs, have the highest numbers of students from low-income families, are identified for CS, ATSI or TSI, or are identified as persistently dangerous public schools. Allowable uses of funds under well-rounded education, safety and health, and educational technology include direct services for students, professional development for teachers and administrators, and supplemental educational resources. School allocations have been provided for well-rounded education, social emotional learning, cultural responsiveness awareness, professional development to support implementation of technology and blended learning environments, and community coordinators in schools with high rates of students in temporary housing

- Students in Temporary Housing (STH): Schools must describe their use of Title I STH funds in their consolidated application.

Important Note: The following funds may not be consolidated:

- Title I Parent Involvement Set-aside: Title I, Part A funds must support parent involvement activities and programs. Chancellor's Regulation A-655 requires School Leadership Teams to consult with Title I parent representatives regarding the Title I program and the use of these funds. Parent involvement activities funded through Title I must be included in the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and aligned with student achievement goals in the school comprehensive educational plan.
- IDEA: To ensure that all children with disabilities have available to them a free appropriate public education designed to meet their individual needs.
- Grant funds awarded via a competitive process: These funds must be used for the purposes specified by the Grantor, as described in the school's approved grant application.

Submission Assurances

- ☐ The Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) has been developed in consultation with parents, school staff, and others in accordance with the requirements of Shared-Decision Making (CR 100.11) to provide a meaningful opportunity for stakeholders to participate in the development of the plan and comment on the plan before it is approved.
- ☐ As part of the root cause analysis process, the school reviewed inequities, including resource inequities within the school, and investigated areas of low performance to identify strategies to address inequities within the school and promote improved student outcomes.
- ☐ The CEP School Leadership Team (SLT)/Stakeholder Signature Page will be printed, scanned, and submitted with the signatures of those that participated in the development of the CEP. DocuSign may also be used to secure electronic signatures for the CEP SLT/Stakeholder Signature Page. If the school was unable to obtain a signature of an individual that participated in the development of the CEP, the school has written “Addendum Attached” and provided supplemental documentation to explain why the school was unable to obtain the individual’s signature.
- ☐ The CEP will be implemented no later than the beginning of the first day of regular student attendance.
- ☐ Professional development will be provided to teachers and school leaders that will fully support the strategic efforts described within this plan.

Language Allocation Policy Outline

Language Allocation Policy Outline

2025-26 Language Allocation Policy (LAP)

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents. When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

Does your school have a bilingual program (Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE)?

Yes

Provide the number of classrooms for each bilingual program, by grade, at your school for the 2025-26 school year. If submitted before the 2025-26 school year begins, this should be the anticipated number of classrooms based on anticipated enrollment. Each language and program model--Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE)--is considered a separate program. In the second column, please indicate if the program is General Education (GE), Integrated Co-Teaching (ICT) special education, Special Class (SC), or Mixed-Group Class (MGC) special education. Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

Entering and Emerging students receive 180 minutes of stand-alone instruction per week where an ENL instructor pulls out students to their classroom or has a designated stand alone time to meet with students in their classroom. In grades K through five, students are grouped according to proficiency levels and grade. For example, Entering and Emerging students are pulled out together. ENL teachers provide stand-alone instruction as per CR part 154 regulations. For stand-alone ENL, instruction is delivered by ENL teachers to develop English language skills so that students can succeed in their core content courses.

In our DLBE classrooms, the Kindergarten, First and Second Grade ENL teachers provide Stand Alone instruction to Entering and Emerging MLs as needed. They work in a small group with the Entering and Emerging students to provide language lessons in English working on speaking, listening, reading, and writing. The ENL teachers also use components of HMH Reading and HMH Intro Writing to support the Entering and Emerging students like the Tabletop mini lessons and Rigby Readers.

Our ENL program is progress monitored regularly throughout the year. When I-Ready/Acadience screeners are givin by classroom teachers, our ENL teachers use this data to inform the progress of our ELLs/MLs. We progress monitor writing using the NYSESLAT rubric and identify specific skills to work on with students. ELLs/MLLs are discussed at ILT by looking at the academic needs of students through data analysis. We are looking at the ecological approach of MTSS for ELLs. In teacher teams, the ENL teacher is present and helps to progress monitor ELLs/MLLs. As a whole school, we discuss needs of ELLs/MLs such as home language support, translanguaging, and academic language development. This team approach impacts their progress.

Integrated ENL:

For integrated instruction our ENL teachers push in to the classrooms during ELA and Math. Students receive at least 180 minutes of integrated ENL instruction per week. Our ENL teachers co-plan with the classroom teachers to deliver integrated ENL/ELA instruction focusing on language development and grade level skills. ENL teachers provide scaffolds and supports in the home language during math instruction.

We plan for units of study for HMH by having our ENL teachers co-plan with classroom teachers using curricular materials, resources shared by the district, and best practices for MLs. The ENL teachers support the classroom teachers by making sure that language ojectives are crafted meaningfully and that language purposefully scaffolded.

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)
Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

N/A

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

In our Dual Language Bilingual Education program, in grades K-2, integrated ENL will be delivered to students in the classroom by the classroom teacher. ML/ELLs in the classroom will receive their mandated 180 minutes of integrated instruction. Students that are at the Entering and Emerging level will receive their 180 minutes of Stand Alone instruction that will be delivered during targeted learning periods throughout the week.

The ENL teacher provides 4 periods of standalone per class for students in K-2.

Our Dual language program follows and A,A,B,B, and Translanguaging. The HMH into Reading, Math, and Social studies curriculums are taught in the students native language in the Spanish days of instruction. Arriba la lectura is used on the Spanish days of instruction. The DL language teacher uses translanguaging throughout the day to support the students native language.
Program Structure:
We implement a 50:50 Spanish-English dual language model, where instruction is equally divided between both program languages throughout the week.

Instruction is delivered by bilingual-certified teachers with dual language supports in content areas aligned to grade-level standards.
Both Emergent Bilinguals (EBs) and English-dominant students are taught together to promote biliteracy, bilingualism, and cross-cultural understanding. All DLBE teachers incorporate scaffolded academic language development practices in English.

Student Grouping in DLBE:
Students are grouped in blocks by grade level, typically in heterogeneous groups including a balance of Spanish-dominant and English-dominant learners. Classrooms are co-developed to ensure equity in both languages and cultural representation.

The DLBE program is progress monitored through curricular assessments and screeners in English and Spanish. Acadience is administered in English and Spanish. The DLBE team is a member of their grade level teacher team and shares in the data analysis of their team. ILT and Whole School convservations about the progress of the DLBE program are developing.

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

ENL teachers work with administrators to create a schedule including blocks of time in minutes to ensure that students are being serviced according to their levels and the mandated time in a integrated or stand alone model. The levels of proficiency will be determined by the students' most recent NYSESLAT/NYSITELL exam. The requirements for both integrated and standalone instruction will be met during the program. ENL teachers use the CR part 154 requirements ENL chart in the ELL Policy and Reference Guide to ensure the appropriate minutes are being provided. Schedules are then reviewed and approved by administrators. Entering and Emerging students receive 180 minutes of stand-alone and 180 minutes of integrated instruction, fora total of 360 minutes of service per week.

Transitioning students receive 90 minutes of stand-alone and 90 minutes of integrated ENL instruction for a total of 180 minutes per week. Expanding students receive 180 minutes of integrated ENL instruction per week. Commanding students receive 90 minutes of integrated ENL instruction per week. Teachers who are dual-certified can deliver stand-alone ELA instruction to the MLL students. ENL teachers also push-in during ELA instruction.

Most ENL students are split across two general education classes where they receive most of their support. Generally Entering and Emerging students are placed in these classes. Integrated ENL takes place during the core content areas of ELA & Math for students of all levels. Transitioning, Expanding and Commanding students are provided with their standalone instruction through small groups in the integrated setting. Whilst, Entering and Emerging students are given additional standalone time in the ENL classroom.

Teachers collaborate and decide on different co-teaching models. The classroom and ENL teacher may co-teach a mini-lesson for a reading skill and then break into small groups for instruction or guided reading. The ENL teacher may also provide the classroom teacher with scaffolds to use for the whole class to support the ELA lesson. ENL teachers may also provide and implement protocols to the classroom teacher that encourage active use of language like "Say, Mean, Matter," "Conversation Clubhouse," or "Think, Jot, Pair, Share." Different language proficiency levels are provided with appropriate supports so that they may meaningfully engage in ELA content. ENL teachers also provide stand-alone lessons in pull out groups focused on making progress in speaking, listening, reading, and writing. These lessons have a specific focus on language development. We implement stand-alone lessons shared by the Department of Multilingual Learners as well as lessons created by individual ENL teachers. ENL teachers may also push-in to provide servicing during other subject areas like social studies or math. ENL teachers may provide materials in the students' home language or videos describing concepts in the home language. Also, teachers can make connections between language cognates. Different language strategies are implemented such as pre-teaching important vocabulary and using visuals or drawings to make connections.

We utilize STARS to properly program students for their mandated minutes of instruction. The Assistant Principal along with the ENL teachers programs students for the number of minutes based on their proficiency level. Our ELL Coordinator reviews the EDUR monthly with the ENL team and identifies actions to take in NYSITELL testing, Spanish LAB, Home Language, and Parent Choice entries. Our goal as a team is to not wait until the EDUR is released and to proactively complete compliance work within 10 days (or 20 days for students with IEPs.)

ENL teachers meet at the beginning of the school year to review ELL students and their mandates. From there, the teachers create their schedule ensuring that all ELL students in the grade(s) they service are meeting their required mandated number of minutes taking into account classroom teachers schedules. ENL teachers have one common planning period with the grade(s) they service weekly. During this time lessons are shared, next steps are taken and scaffolds are provided for ELLs. The ENL program is Progress Monitored ongoing throughout the school year and schedule adjustments are made accordingly continuing to ensure that mandated service requiremets are being met. The co-teaching models used are team teaching and parallel teaching. The model used is dependent upon the lesson beig taught.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

Home Language Arts are delivered in our Dual Language program using HMH Arriba La Lectura and Eureka Math (in Spanish.) Language Arts will be delivered in English on one day and in Spanish the following day. Math will also alternate between English and Spanish every other day. Two days a week, content area (Social Studies) will also be delivered in Spanish. This model is working toward 50/50 or 50% in English and 50% in Spanish.

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) Program

ENL Instructional Minutes:
Integrated into English portions of instruction. Teachers use ENL strategies and language objectives within English content area lessons.
Depending on the student's proficiency level, additional stand-alone ENL minutes may be scheduled to meet the mandates of CR Part 154.
ELA Instructional Minutes:
Delivered in English for 50% of the instructional day, aligned to Next Generation ELA Standards.
Lessons incorporate language and literacy development, often co-designed with ENL support.
Home Language Arts (HLA):
Delivered in Spanish for the other 50% of the instructional day, aligned to the Spanish Language Arts Standards.
Includes reading, writing, and oral language development in Spanish, supporting biliteracy and grade-level content mastery.

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

At our school, we implement a 50:50 Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) model in Spanish and English. In this model, students receive 50% of their instruction in English and 50% in Spanish across content areas such as literacy, math, social studies, and science.

Student Integration:

English proficient students and English Language Learners (ELLs) are fully integrated throughout the instructional day. They learn together in the same classroom environment, engaging with content and language objectives in both program languages.
This integration fosters biliteracy, bilingualism, and cross-cultural competency, which are foundational goals of the DLBE model.
Lessons are carefully planned to ensure that both language groups are supported and challenged, with intentional scaffolds, language objectives, and cultural representation embedded in daily instruction.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

All content areas will be taught in English and Spanish. All content areas are being taught in English and Spanish. The DL teacher schedules three days a week where instruction for math, science, social studies, and ELA are in English, and two days a week where instruction for math, science, social studies, and ELA is given in Spanish. The resources used include HMH Into Reading/Arriba La Lectura, Amplify Math, Amplify Science, and Passports. Workbooks for Amplify Math are available in Spanish.

Science and Social Studies are taught by Cluster teachers so the DL classroom teacher provides Spanish instruction on those content areas using teacher created materials that reinforce topics covered in Passports/Amplify Science.

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

N/A

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

The percentage of ELLs that are Newcomers is 88.5%. Effective instruction for Newcomers differs from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs in several ways.

Newcomers or ELLs with 0-3 years of service have varied needs. Newly arrived students need support in adjusting to school, support in Core Content areas using their Home Language, and ENL scaffolds so students can effectively access grade level standards. Newcomers often need support in BICS and CALP. Teachers provide effective instruction by ensuring there are social and academic conversations throughout the day supported by language frames.

Developing ELLs with 4-6 years of service have specific needs. Most Developing ELLs have strengths in Speaking and Listening but need more support in Reading and Writing. Effective instruction for Developing ELLs includes focused lessons based on needs and support in Academic English.

Other sources of data for our Newcomer and Developing ELLs include I-Ready, Acadience, HMH Modular Assessments, HMH Vocabulary Assessments, and Writing Prompts. We develop assessments similar to the NYSESLAT to monitor the development of speaking and listening during the school year.

Currently we do not have any Long-Term ELLs.

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

The percentage of ELLs are Students with Iconsistent/Interrupted Formal Edcation (SIFE) is 2%. We differentiate instruction for SIFE students by supporting their varied needs. Some SIFE students have limited literacy in their Home Language and in English. These students need additional focused support in phonics and letter formation. Math instruction can be differentiated to provide foundational lessons in the language of mathematics. SIFE students may need support in understanding cultural and academic expectations. Teachers provide small group support for SIFE students to reinforce these expectations.

Other data sources that we use to make decisions for our SIFE population include Heggerty screeners for letters and sounds and Phonics for Reading screeners.

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

Currently 0% of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs.

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

2.4% of students are former ELLs. Our school is providing mandated instruction to former ELLs by the ENL teacher pushing in to classrooms for 90 minutes of integrated ENL instruction. Former ELLs at times need support in writing, so teachers support them by guiding them through revising and editing writing using rubrics and checklists.

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

The trends that affect our at risk ELLs are the Newcomers who have received 0-3 years of services at 88.5% being at risk. Another trend is ELLs who did not make sufficient language proficiency progress from when they last took the NYSESLAT. Students who are not yet proficient in English often struggle with literacy skills and this affects their ability to make progress in the 4 modalities: speaking, listening, reading, and writing.

Our priority is in supporting our Newcomers through quality Tier 1 instruction, targeted small group instruction, and after school or Saturday programs. Additional sources of data for our Newcomers include: I-Ready, Acadience, HMH Module Assessments, and Phonics for Reading data.

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

Trends that we notice with our former ELLs are the students that scored level 1 and 2 last school year are at risk. Followed by the formers ELLs in temporary housing. Our language learners who are faced with socio-economic barriers struggle with focus on school work and can lead to absenteeism, which leads to low score levels.

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

Spanish is the home language of ELLs with the largest representation at our school (179 families). The second largest language is Arabic (9) and the third is Chinese (7). Families receive school communication through school letters and class dojo communications. Lastly, there are multiple teachers and staff in the school who speak Spanish. Our family secretary speaks Spanish and supports our families.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

The largest racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at our school are American Indian or Alaskan Native that are hispanic with a total of 117 students. The second largest group are Asians with a total of 13 ELLs, black 7 ELLs, Multiracial 6 ELLs, native Hawaiian or other Pacific Islanders 2 students, and lastly, white at 55 ELLs. Our diverse student population is represented in content. The HMH into reading curriculum has inclusive and diverse text that includes many cultural backgrounds. Additionally, our school has a dual language program which supports the learning of our diverse learners. Lastly, students and families have multiple opportunities to participate in many cultural community engagement events at our school.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

A large majority of ELLs are newcomers. There are no students that are categorized as long-term ELLs, however there are 8 long term potential ELLs.

13 students (11.4%) exited ELL status by reaching the Commanding level

19 students (16.7%) met annual growth targets.

35 students (30.7%)- total who met ELP sufficient progress:

9 students (69.3%) did not meet ELP sufficient progress.

Total Progress Eligible Students: 114

Students Who Met ELP Sufficient Progress:

By Exiting ELL Status: 13 (11.4%)

By Meeting Annual Progress Target: 19 (16.7%)

By Meeting Safe Harbor Cumulative Growth: 3 (2.6%)

Total Meeting Sufficient Progress: 35 students (30.7%)

Students Who Did Not Meet Progress: 79 students (69.3%)

Nearly 7 out of 10 students (69.3%) did not meet sufficient ELP progress.

This indicates a need to review instructional supports, interventions, and program delivery for English Language Learners (ELLs).

Only 11.4% (13 students) exited ELL status, which is a relatively small portion of the total ELL population.

Overall based on the data from page 10 of the EDAT, a total of 114 students were eligible for English Language Proficiency (ELP) progress measurement. Of these, 35 students (30.7%) met sufficient ELP progress, either by exiting ELL status, meeting the annual progress target, or meeting the safe harbor cumulative growth criteria. However, 79 students (69.3%) did not meet expected progress, indicating that the majority of ELLs are not yet demonstrating sufficient language proficiency growth. While a small percentage of students successfully exited ELL status, most are still developing their English skills and require continued language support. Additionally, the data reveals a significant number of students without prior NYSESLAT results or proficiency history, which limits the ability to track longitudinal growth. Overall, the trend suggests that while there are positive outcomes for some students, the school should continue to strengthen targeted interventions and instructional strategies to promote consistent language development across all ELLs.

This may suggest that while students are maintaining or slightly improving proficiency, few are reaching the level required to exit ELL services.

16.7% (19 students) met the Annual Progress Target, which shows some positive growth but highlights the need for more consistent progress across the school.

Only 3 students (2.6%) met the Safe Harbor cumulative growth criteria, suggesting limited multi-year progress among continuing ELLs.

155 students had a valid 2024 NYSESLAT proficiency level.

45 students did not have valid proficiency data (possibly new arrivals or missing tests).

The large number of students without progress data or prior exams (54 students had valid 2024 scores but no previous exams) limits the school's ability to measure longitudinal growth.

44 students had no NYSESLAT history, making it difficult to evaluate true progress trends.

Data gaps highlight the importance of consistent test participation and accurate record-keeping to track progress over time.

Overall, the data from page 10 shows that only 30.7% of students met sufficient ELP progress, while 69.3% did not. The trends suggest that although some students are making measurable gains, most are not meeting growth expectations which is possibly due to factors such as interrupted schooling, limited instructional time, or insufficient targeted ELL supports.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

Reading:

Mixed performance

Reading showed some strengths, particularly in Grade 2.

However, low performance appeared in Grades 3–5.

* We will use HMH, Acadience, I-ready, Heggerty, Fundations & UFLI with strategic groups.

Writing:

Appears to be a widespread challenge and lowest modality across all grades

Very few students scored commanding in the writing modality

The team will begin with writing inquiry using HMH and the Writing Revolution strategies as it seems to be the lowest performing amongst all modalities.

Listening:

Many students in lower grades (especially Grade 2 and 4) showed strengths

Listening is less of a concern than writing in term of low scores but still saw some low scores in grades 3-5

* We will use HMH, Acadience, I-ready, Heggerty, Fundations & UFLI with strategic groups.

Speaking:

Speaking had fewer low scores across grades and the strongest modality

Grades 2 through 5- several students performed at high levels

* We will use classroom observations and activities along with the NYSESLAT rubric to guide instruction.

Overall:

Speaking and Listening continue to outperform Reading and Writing. ENL teachers will also be collecting data of each modality and monitoring using the NYSESLAT rubric.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

Most ELLs scoring Entering or Emerging on NYSESLAT also scored at Level 1 or 2 on the ELA exam

Few students at the Expanding or Commanding levels reached Level 3 or 4 in ELA

Students who scored Commanding on NYSESLAT generally performed better on the ELA assessment

ELLs with lower NYSESLAT levels tended to score Level 1 or 2 in Math.

However, some students at Emerging or Transitioning levels scored higher in Math compared to ELA.

Since we are a Pre-k-5 school, no regents have been taken.

Other data sources we use to drive instruction are end-of-unit Fundations and Heggerty assessments, Acadience, and iReady data to progress monitor their foundational skills. Based on the assessment results, entering and emerging students need support on sound to letter correspondence, distinguishing vowels, blending to read words, and segmenting to write words. Transitioning and expanding students mostly need support on blending to read words, which impacts their reading score, and segmenting to write words, which impacts their writing score.

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

Overall students with IEPs had lower overall performance on the NYSESLAT compared to ELLs without IEPs.

Larger proportions of ELLs with IEPs scored in the Entering and Emerging levels.

Very few reached Expanding or Commanding level.

All SIFE students scored in the lowest proficiency bands: Entering or Emerging.

Overall we believe that students may lack foundational literacy skills in both their home language and English and limited exposure to structured schooling. These students often need intensive academic and social-emotional support. Language acquisition and academic content learning must occur simultaneously under compressed timelines.

Other data sources we use to drive instruction are end-of-unit Fundations and Heggerty assessments, Acadience and iReady data to progress monitor. We noticed ELLs with IEPs and SIFE need intensive support on phonological awareness, high-frequency words, sound to letter correspondence, distinguishing vowels, blending to read words, and segmenting to write words. Students in these subgroups have limited attention span and are benefited from repeated exposure and practices to strengthen their foundational skills.

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

Our school provides all teachers and service providers with access to high-quality instructional materials aligned to NYC Reads. Classroom teachers use HMH Into Reading, HMH Into Writing, and Arriba la Lectura! (Spanish counterpart). These materials include scaffolds and resources for differentiation, small-group targeted instruction, and explicit instruction by service providers. Teachers also use Fundations, Heggerty, and Phonics for Reading to develop students' foundational literacy skills. Collectively, these programs help deepen students' understanding of foundational skills, academic language, and the four language modalities—listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

In addition, teachers intentionally incorporate language goals and objectives that align with overarching unit standards, goals, and culminating projects, following the guidance outlined in OML's Key 3: Integrate Language Development Across Subjects and Units from the Keys to Advance Language and Literacy Development for MLs/ELLs document. This ensures that language development is not treated as an isolated objective but is woven strategically throughout content instruction. Teachers provide multiple, meaningful opportunities for students to hear, read, talk, and write using key vocabulary, phrases, and sentence structures connected to unit concepts.

Through this approach, both ELLs and non-ELLs are supported in acquiring academic language, engaging in rigorous content learning, and demonstrating understanding through authentic tasks and projects.

All teachers and service providers are also encouraged to participate in professional learning opportunities citywide that address ENL needs. Within our school, teachers are given opportunities to both lead and attend workshops focused on instructional strategies that promote language and literacy development for multilingual learners.

Our collective focus on aligned instructional materials, intentional language objectives, and ongoing professional development ensures that our ELLs receive a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning and long-term language proficiency.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

The ILT considers MLs/ELLs in our school's instructional design by ensuring that the reorganization of classes allows for one to two classes on each grade to contain most of our ML/ELLs as well as non-ELLs . This allows for heterogeneous grouping and for ELLs to have language models in former ELLs and native speakers. This also allows for an ENL teacher to have more time to push in to these classes and co-teach closely with the classroom teachers. Also, when our ILT members work with their teacher teams to engage in curriculum planning for each school year, an ENL teacher is present to contribute their professional expertise in modifying curriculum and adding appropriate ENL scaffolds. We currently have our ENL teacher as part of our ILT. The ENL teacher shares differentiation strategies with the team as well as sharing topics from ILT meetings with the other ENL teachers.

The makeup of the ILT includes an ENL teacher as well as classroom teachers with mostly MLs in their class. The ENL teacher shares best practices for MLs at ILT meetings. Currently the team is working using data to inform instruction. Different differentiation strategies continue to be shared by the ENL teachers and other teachers. ENL teachers share at grade level meetings scaffolds for ELLs to make HMH lessons accessible. Lower grades use "See it, Say it, Write it" to support sight word learning.

There is a focus on math discussion in the school leadership team. Our school has a partnership with K-5 math where a consultant provides language for math discussions and for our ELLs additional frames.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

Core content at our school is delivered through both Integrated ENL and Stand-alone ENL models to ensure that English language development and content learning occur simultaneously and purposefully.

In the Integrated ENL setting, instruction is delivered primarily in English, with supports in students' home languages when appropriate to clarify meaning and build background knowledge. Instructional approaches include co-teaching, parallel teaching, station teaching, and small-group instruction, allowing teachers to target both content and language objectives. Teachers also engage in translanguaging practices to make linguistic connections between English and the home language, supporting comprehension and vocabulary development.

In the ENL Stand-alone setting, instruction focuses explicitly on English language development aligned with the Next Generation Learning Standards (NGLS). Lessons emphasize the four modalities—listening, speaking, reading, and writing—and integrate language functions needed for academic success, such as describing, explaining, summarizing, and justifying ideas. Foundational skills instruction is provided two days per week, as outlined in the guidance document, to strengthen decoding, fluency, and word recognition, ensuring students build a strong literacy foundation that transfers across subjects.

Across all settings, teachers implement evidence-based methods, including:

- Explicit instruction of core lessons and academic vocabulary

- Modeling and guided practice to promote comprehension and fluency

- Student-generated success criteria to guide learning and self-assessment

- Structured discussion protocols (especially in grades 3–5) to foster use of academic language in speaking and writing

- Targeted RTI supports based on data for students requiring additional intervention

Following OML's Key 2: Engage MLs/ELLs in Grade-Level Content, teachers ensure that multilingual learners have access to rigorous, grade-level tasks through scaffolding, visuals, sentence frames, and structured routines that promote engagement and deep understanding.

This comprehensive approach ensures that our multilingual learners develop both academic language and content mastery, meeting the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards while advancing their English proficiency.

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

ELLs with IEPs are provided with scaffolded strategies and re-teaching activities that provide support and are embedded within the curriculum. In addition, each classroom is equipped with SmartBoards/Promethean Boards. This allows for interactive instruction for students with diverse abilities. Teachers of all levels provide explicit instruction, language rich environments, visuals, allow ample wait time and provide opportunities for students to interact. Teachers use multiple entry points to reach all students. ENL teachers provide students with a language rich environment, scaffolded instruction, extended time, re-teaching strategies, use of manipulatives, use of technology and other multiple entry points for lessons. Phonics skills are reinforced through Fundations and guided reading lessons using texts of high interest and low readability level. We also provide ENL/ELA support by providing in-depth visuals for sight words and sentence stems in order to continue building vocabulary, comprehension and focused feedback.

b. SIFE

For our SIFE students we start by evaluating them in their home language in ELA and Math. We find their reading level and functioning math level in their home language. If the student has literacy in their home language, we use resources for ELA and content areas in their home language. If the student has limited literacy in their home language, we use audio and videos in their home language.

The instructional strategies we use for SIFE students include giving opportunities to partcicipate verbally. If students are not able to write, we encourage them to draw responses or work with a partner to share their ideas. We also use sentence frames that students can complete to engage in responses.

To access grade level materials, we add visuals to read alouds or lower the lexile level of a passage while still teaching the grade level skill or content. We also use grade level reading passages and pre-teach vocabulary before the student reads the passage with the classroom teacher. In math, we help scaffold instruction with visuals and translations when helpful. When SIFE students need previous math skills to access grade level content, we provide instruction and use websites like Khan Academy, SplashLearn, and BrainPop.

c. Newcomers

Teachers of multilingual learners (MLs)/English language learners (ELLs) use a combination of comprehensive literacy practices, grade-level materials, and technology tools to ensure students have full access to academic content while accelerating English language development.

The ENL and classroom teachers work together to build self-esteem and confidence, particularly for newly arrived newcomers adapting to a new language and culture. Classrooms and school-wide events celebrate diverse cultures and languages throughout the year, fostering inclusion and belonging. Teachers provide reading and listening opportunities in students' home languages through translations and translanguaging, encouraging the use of students' linguistic strengths to build academic bridges to English.

Instructional materials include HMH Into Reading, HMH Into Writing, ¡Arriba la Lectura!, and Fundations, which support both literacy and content development. In Stand-Alone ENL, students receive foundational skills instruction two days per week using sequential phonics programs such as SPIRE, Fundations, Heggerty, and Phonics for Reading. These programs integrate decodable texts to strengthen phonemic awareness, decoding, and fluency, while other days focus on reading comprehension, academic vocabulary, and oral language development connected to grade-level topics and themes.

Teachers balance phonics and comprehension instruction to ensure that literacy learning contributes to conceptual and background knowledge across content areas. Predictable and patterned texts, paired with visuals, graphic organizers, and sentence frames, support comprehension and academic discourse for emerging and developing ELLs. Peer partnerships with proficient speakers further develop vocabulary, social interaction, and content understanding.

Technology tools such as HMH digital platforms, Newsela, BrainPOP, Flocabulary, and Google Translate are used strategically to provide multimodal access to content, reinforce vocabulary, and enhance engagement through listening, reading, and speaking opportunities.

d. Long Term ELLs

Long term ELLs will be provided with English language instruction and instruction in the content areas of math, science, and social studies. Although we do not currently have any long term ELL students, teachers should plan collaboratively throughout the year to develop units with embedded language and literacy skills, which they teach across all subjects.

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

ENL teachers work closely with the special education service providers of those students to collaboratively plan together to meet their needs. This may include sharing student data, scaffolds, and resources with each other. Programming includes both opportunities for students to work in small groups outside of the classroom and integrated instruction in literacy and the content areas. ELLs with IEPs that are in ICT, self-contained or general education classrooms work in the classroom with Special Education teachers and ENL teachers. Both teachers understand the IEP goals and use various strategies and scaffolds to help students meet theirgoals. Additionally, one of our ENL push-in/pull-out teachers also holds a Special Education license. This teacher services most of the ENL students in self-contained classes across grades which serves as a beneficial service to these students. ENL teachers communicate with the special educators in the building including the SETTS and RTI teachers to ensure there are no schedule conflicts. If a resolution cannot be made, ENL teachers may have a make-up period built into their schedule specifically to service students who miss a period of ENL due to another service being provided.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

In our ENL program, home language support is assessed in various methods. Home language support is initially assessed through the Spanish Lab or by utilizing school staff to help assess oral language proficiency. We have school staff that speak Spanish, Arabic, and Chinese. Home language support is delivered through translation and technology. In addition, students are exposed to literature in their home language.

In our Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, the home language (Spanish) is assessed regularly to monitor biliteracy development and ensure students are progressing in both program languages. Assessment practices include:

1. Initial Identification and Placement

As part of the Home Language Identification Survey (HLIS) and individual interview, students' home language proficiency is initially documented during enrollment.
If the student's primary language is not English, the NYSITELL is administered to determine ENL eligibility, and home language literacy is reviewed to inform appropriate placement in the DLBE program.

2. Formative and Ongoing Assessment
In the DLBE classroom, Spanish Language Arts (HLA) is taught and assessed using grade-level aligned rubrics, unit assessments, running records, writing samples, and teacher-created tools.
Teachers assess foundational skills, reading comprehension, writing, speaking, and listening in Spanish.
Common bilingual assessments such as Estrellita (for early grades) or MAZE / cloze passages, DRA in Spanish, or unit-based performance tasks may be used to evaluate Spanish language growth.

3. Benchmark and Summative Assessments
Students in the DLBE program may participate in district-wide or school-based Spanish language benchmarks to measure reading and writing progress in the home language.
Some schools administer LAS Links Español or similar standardized assessments to measure Spanish proficiency longitudinally.

4. Informing Instruction
Home language assessment results are used to:
Inform differentiated instruction in Spanish.
Monitor biliteracy development across all grade levels.
Guide parent communication and student goal setting in both English and Spanish.

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

N/A

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

Our school provides teachers with weekly grade team planning time that allows our ENL teachers to collaborate with their grade teams and co-plan. Additionally, the ENL team has monthly planning and compliance meetings with an administrator. Our school works with consultants on co-planning and best practices. ENL teachers join PLs given by K-5 Math and Generation Ready.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

ENL teachers co-teach and plan alongside classroom teachers throughout the school year. This includes implementing ENL strategies provided by our District supports and the DML. ENL teachers are given a common preparation period weekly for common planning. Teachers also collaborate with colleagues to share best practices in meeting the standards. ENL teachers provide PDs for the whole staff with the expectation that classroom teachers are implementing ENL scaffolds. The scaffolds include See it/Say it/Write it, discussion protocols, and in-text language supports including home language when needed. ENL teachers also participate in analyzing MAP Growth data and Acadience data and suggesting plans for MLs/ELLs.

We address the social emotional needs of students by integrating literature that reflects the cultures of our students by having ongoing and open discussions. Lessons are grade level appropriate and have multiple opportunities to make self to content connections. We have ongoing discussions with teachers and any concerns that we may have about the social emotional needs of the students. We also ensure that teachers are knowledgable on the latest strategies and teaching methods to meet the needs of the students.

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154 (15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

The school provides professional development for all teachers in ENL. Workshops and professional learning include webinars, and outside professional development which includes PD given by Queens South as well as Generation Ready. In addition, ENL teachers present regular professional development to the staff on best practices for ELLs. ENL teachers also share best practices with special education teachers. Agenda and sign in sheets are collected along with any other artifacts from the meetings.

Our school has two Peer Collaborative Teachers that provide supports in ELA/Math. Their work includes visual supports in math and forming centers in ELA. We explore different resources in HMH like Rigby Readers, Decodable Books, Reader's Theater, and Writable.

The school tracks their PD offerings by maintaining agendas and sign in sheets for each meeting. The ENL providers share professional development with the full staff multiple times per year adding up to 15 hours. ENL teachers also join grade level meetings and share best practices with teachers.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

We are using literacy screners, I-Ready (3-5) and Acadience (K-2). We use the data from these assessments to determine what type of intervention is necessary for our ELLs. This data is shared with ENL teachers and well as classroom teachers to ensure collaboration in providing targeted support to our ELLs. We also cross-reference this data with their proficiency level from the NYSESLAT. This data also informs the teachers what Tier of instruction the students need for different skills.

ENL teachers are using screener data to identify different needs in literacy. Teachers also use this data to form small groups during integrated instruction. Some students may need a structured literacy program to teach phonics and other students may not need this according to the data. iReady provides teachers with ongoing data to monitor progress toward standards-based goals.

I-Ready is very helpful in the upper grades to plan for student needs in decoding and fluency. It also informs the ENL teacher if the student needs more targeted instruction through a program like Phonics for Reading.

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

Classroom teachers along with the support of ENL teachers provide targeted Tier 1 instruction in ELA, math and other core content areas. Tier 1 instruction along with language scaffolds and supports targets language needs in ELA for newcomers and developing ELLs. Both classroom and ENL teachers work in smaller groups of students as needed on reading or writing skills. Teachers engage students in HMH centers based on need. If a student is not progressing, we make sure they are part of Title III morning, after school, Saturday school groups and, Lunch and Learn. Additionally, our ELLs can work in smaller groups using research based programs like SPIRE with an AIS, SETTs, or IEP teacher. When appropriate the providers deliver SPIRE in Spanish. We invite students to a Title III program for students that need intense support in foundational literacy skills and language.

ENL teachers support math instruction at Tier 1 by supporting the classroom teacher with visuals with lables, translations, and math skills videos in the home language. If ELLs are struggling with math, ENL teachers can provide targeted instruction featuring the language of mathematics along with the skills.

We provide Tier 2 supports using the research based program Phonics For Reading. Also, some students work with the program Bridge the Gap.

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

Our school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports by using multiple sources of data to identify what tier of instruction students need to succeed in ELA, Math, and other Core subject areas. ENL teachers provide classroom teachers with language supports and objectives to embed in Tier 1 instruction to be sure MLs/ELLs are successful. All teachers analyze data from screeners like Acadience and MAP Growth to identify what students need Tier 2 instruction. ENL teachers provide additional information about students' language proficiencies and home language proficiency so that they can be compared to "true peers."

We are beginning to use the Decision Tree for MLs/ELLs to guide our interventions for our students. We are forming an MTSS committee that will engage the staff in training around this tool.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

Our school uses MAP Growth and iReady as formative assessments for math and reading. ENL Teachers work alongside classroom teachers to analyze this data and identify areas of strength and challenge for our MLLs. The data we get from these assessments help guid your instruction and form groups.

Teachers use common rubrics throughout the year to help students in their daily reading and writing. Teachers also form differentiated writing and reading groups based on the data from analyzing student work. Teachers in K-2 use Fundations and Acadience to assess early literacy skills in phonemic awareness.

The teachers use beginning of the year assessments in math and unit tests as formative assessments. This data helps drive instruction. The science teacher uses unit tests and science projects as formative assessments for future units. Teachers use HMH module assessment to identify specific standards that need further emphasis in the following unit.

Additional formative assessment that informs and drives instruction is students self-reflecting on learning targets and language objectives with hand signals, giving peer feedback using student friendly rubrics, and reflecting on teacher feedback on success criteria.

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

To ensure that Multilingual Learners (MLs)/English Language Learners (ELLs) are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the school year, we follow the following strategies:

Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Assessment Practices
We use formative, diagnostic, and performance-based assessments that are culturally and linguistically appropriate for MLs/ELLs.
Assessments in the home language (e.g., Spanish) are aligned to grade-level standards and consider students' language proficiency levels and cultural background.

Bilingual Progress Monitoring Tools
In DLBE settings, we use Spanish language assessments such as:
Estrellita (for early literacy)
DRA in Spanish
Running records, writing rubrics, and unit-based assessments in Spanish
These tools provide insight into how students are developing literacy in their home language and help identify specific areas of need.

Strategic Use of Data for Instructional Planning
Results from home language assessments are reviewed in grade team meetings, bilingual teacher PLCs, and data cycles to adjust instruction, group students, and target support.
This ensures that students' language growth is supported in both English and their home language, particularly in content areas.

Multilingual Portfolios and Progress Reviews
Students maintain a bilingual learning portfolio with writing samples, reading logs, and assessments in both English and their home language.
These portfolios are reviewed with students and families during parent-teacher conferences, ensuring language development is a shared and visible priority.

Home Language Support for Evaluations and Services
For special education referrals or other formal evaluations, we ensure assessments are conducted in the student's dominant language, as required by CR Part 154 and IDEA.
We collaborate with bilingual service providers and translation teams to ensure accurate assessments and services are provided in the home language when necessary.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

By analyzing data patterns in the NYSITELL and NYSESLAT assessments, we are able to understand students' proficiency levels in speaking, listening, reading and writing modalities. We also analyze NYSESLAT data to inform our MLL programming. We base our ENL scheduling on the proficiency level of the students. We also look carefully at the ELL Data Analysis Tool and look for areas of need in different subgroups in our ENL program.

ENL teachers work collaboratively in inquiry cycles with their grade level teams using HMH summative asssessments to determine next steps for students. Teachers analyze the needs of their students and then share their findings. The ENL teachers take part of these meetings to share language backgrounds for students as well as possible teaching strategies to address gap areas. Vertical teams also meet together to discuss gaps across grades.

Summative assessments are used to evaluate the effectiveness of our programs by looking at trends in the data. For example, we refer to the EDAT and look for students who have remained at the same proficiency level for multiple years or have gone down in a level. This informs us to provide more support to those students in different language modalities. ELA and Math exams help inform us on the effectiveness of our curricula in our MLL or IEP subgroups.

Through analysis of the EDAT, we see that students from Entering to Expanding proficiency levels received 1s and 2s on the ELA exam. This informs our instructional design and curricular decisions by focusing on more targeted small group support for these students. Through our ILT, we are working on providing skill-based small group instruction. In Math, 7 students with Transitioning and Expanding proficiency levels scored level 3s. This informs the need for more skill and language based support for math. This is provided through Professional Learning and suppport from the ENL teacher.

ENL teachers share the NYSESLAT/NYSITELL scores and proficiency levels in shared Google Documents or email them as attachments. As a grade, teachers discuss the results of assessments and generate ideas on how to best support the students. Teachers also share results on a Google Doc vertically with other grades to help make adjustments to programs.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

Our NYSESLAT administration plan includes a team effort including our Assistant Principal, Ms.Kalogridis, our ENL team, testing coordinator and scoring team. Testing memos are created and sent out containing information about the NYSESLAT to the staff that are involved in administering and scoring the exam. Testing groups/rosters are created, taking all students with testing accommodations into consideration. The test is administered across three days.

Our teachers and parent coordinator provide letters for families explaining the purpose of the NYSESLAT and dates of administration and post reminders on Class Dojo. Our teachers reach out individually to families with a history of absences.

The test is administered by our ENL teachers and classroom teachers. We form a small team of ENL teachers and classroom teachers to score the test as well. We form a team with teachers that have scored ENL or state assessments before. ENL teachers do not score their own students. We are able to continue providing mandated services during this time by completing the work of grading over several days. So, ENL teachers are able to service their students during those days and during the NYSESLAT assessment.

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

Our school ensures that current and former ELLS receive the necessary accommodations for state assessments. The testing coordinator and ENL staff work together to identify students that receive testing accomodations. They are entitled to have untimed testing, especially with the current exams they take for ELA reading, math, science and NYSESLAT. Students are able to take the Math and Science test in an alternative language along with the English copy of the test. Students also are entitled to take the test in a separate location as needed. Students can also write their responses in their Home Language for the Math and Science test. This can ensure that our ELLs have the opportunities to succeed on their exams.

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

To ensure compliance with CR Part 154 and the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, our school has implemented a comprehensive plan for engaging families of English Language Learners (ELLs). This plan includes the following components:

1. ELL Program Orientation
Topics discussed include:
Program Models Overview: Detailed presentations on the three ML/ELL program models (Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education, and English as a New Language), including their goals, structure, and benefits. This included the videos available in families' home languages available through NYSED. Current school model includes a DLBE program in grades K-2.
Standards and Assessments: An overview of the Next Generation Learning Standards, including key academic benchmarks and the types of assessments ELL students will encounter.
School Expectations: Clear explanations of the school's expectations for ELL students, including academic performance, attendance, and behavior.

Translation and Interpretation Supports
Multilingual Communication: All communication regarding the ELL Program Orientation is provided in the home languages of the students. This includes letters, Class Dojo messages, and phone calls.
Translation Services: During the orientation, translation services are available for all families. When staff is available they translate the meeting to the families' home languages. We have staff available to translate into Spanish, Arabic, and Chinese. We implement the DOE translation services to ensure accurate and effective communication when needed. Orientation materials, such as brochures, presentations, and handouts, are translated into the predominant languages spoken by the families of our ELL students.

Scheduling and Attendance Facilitation
Flexible Scheduling: To accommodate the diverse schedules of our families, we offer multiple orientation sessions at different times, including evenings.
Virtual and In-Person Options: We provide both virtual and in-person orientation sessions to ensure maximum accessibility.
Reminders and Follow-Ups: Automated reminders and follow-up calls are made to ensure families are aware of the orientation sessions and can attend.

Documentation and Evidence Maintenance
Attendance Records: We maintain detailed attendance records for each orientation session, including the date, time, and names of attendees. These records are stored in a Compliance Binder and maintained digitally in an ENL Department Google Drive.
Meeting Minutes: Comprehensive minutes are taken during each orientation session to document the content covered and the questions and concerns raised by parents/guardians.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note: this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

Individual meetings are held starting in October to review the results of the NYSESLAT from the previous Spring. The ENL teachers create a schedule at the beginning of the year to be sure to meet with all families one-on-one in person, virtually or via phone call. If parents need additional meetings, this can be communicated through Dojo, email or calling the school. Teachers send out an invitation with an agenda to families and the famiels sign and return as evidence of the meeting. ENL teachers also maintain a list of families that received an Annual Individual Meeting and the dates.

The topics discussed during the Annual Individual Meeting include the goals of the program (ENL/DLBE), language development progress based on school-based assessments and screeners, and NYSESLAT results. The ENL provider discusses if the progress is exected based on number of years of service, previous school experience, and other factors. The parent has the opportunity to ask questions. The meeting can be conducted in the families' home languages if the ENL teacher speaks their language. If not, families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports through OPI.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

Families receive school communications and documents in their language by receiving written documents in English and their home language. They use our school website for resources and information in all language. Parents also use our internal class dojo application which can be translated in different languages for communicating to parents on a daily basis with teachers and school updates and information. Emails are sent in both English and their home language. Additionally, our bilingual staff helps facilitate communication with parents that need translations.

Families can respond in their home language, and our school will get it translated. Lastly, we use our bilingual staff and the services of Office of Language Access to facilitate communication with our families. We make sure to use the proper language for families using information from ATS. We have signage in our office that provides access in multiple languages for families to ask for an interpreter. We survey families to make sure their interpretation needs are being met.

Supporting Two-Way Communication and Family Voice in Languages Other than English: We actively create spaces and systems that allow families to initiate and respond to communications in their home language, and to engage meaningfully in the life of the school. Examples include:

Hosting “Mesa Redonda” (Roundtable) events where families in our dual language program meet to discuss student progress, program design, and offer input on school initiatives—in Spanish and English.
Using multilingual platforms like Class Dojo that allow real-time translated communication between families and staff.
Encouraging bilingual staff (including teachers, office personnel, and our parent coordinator) to directly assist families with questions, concerns, or requests in their home language.
Offering bilingual family workshops on literacy strategies, navigating the school system, and supporting biliteracy development at home.
Welcoming families to participate in culturally affirming events like bilingual read-alouds, heritage celebrations, and dual language student showcases, where communication is intentionally delivered bilingually.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

P.S. 97 The Forest Park School is committed to developing and implementing a parent policy that fosters a partnership between the home, school and community. We have identified the following key areas that contribute to a partnership that supports greater student achievement. The school provides parents of MLs/ELLs with information about school programs and student progress. This includes phone calls, regular Class Dojo messages, as well as new information on school programs translated into language of preference. The school works to assist parents of ELLs in having meaningful roles in the school decision-making process. The school provides parents with training and information so they can make the most of this opportunity. We hold a meeting for families new to our school to share resources and to orient them to the structure of our school. There is also an ELL Parent workshop on the NYSESLAT format and tips about preparation. At our parent orientation, service providers and staff members are introduced to parents.

Important routines and safety issues are presented and translated. Teachers and staff members present interactive read-alouds to parents and students. Read-alouds include holidays and folktales that originate from countries around the world. We will also incorporate bilingual texts. The ENL team hosts a Multicultural parade where students can dress in clothing representing their cultures and participate in a parade in front of the school. Parents are encouraged to attend. In the classroom, students engage in literacy activities affirming their cultural identity and linguistic identity. Additionally, the ENL team host a Hispanic Heritage potluck where families come together to share traditional dishes from their cultures.

Our annual Multilingual Parade, where students and families showcase their heritage through traditional dress, music, and language. This event is a powerful representation of our school's vision: "Embracing Diversity, Cultivating Unity, and Advancing Equity."
Mesa Redonda (Bilingual Roundtables), where families engage in meaningful dialogue about the dual language program and contribute input to strengthen instructional practices and family engagement.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

Families are aware of all Parent Leader Team such as PTA, PAC, SLT & CEC.
All information and resources regarding Parent Teams are communicated in English and Spanish. Additionally, parents are encouraged to participate in school committees by not only the staff, but also by parents from our school that speak the same language. We believe that it is extremely important that everyone knows that regardless of the language they speak, they are welcomed and encouraged to have a voice in our school for their children.

To ensure inclusive access and awareness, we:
Provide bilingual outreach and translated materials about all leadership opportunities through letters, flyers, digital platforms (Class Dojo, TalkingPoints), and in-person communication from bilingual staff.

We collaborate with the Office of Multilingual Learners (OML) and parent coordinator to ensure families are aware of their rights, leadership roles, and decision-making opportunities across the school and district.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

Our school maintains many culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships. One partnership is with the Boys and Girls Club which provides our families with after school care and activities.

We also have a partnership with the Woodhaven Library. The librarian visits the school for different events and presentations throughout the year. They also host school field trips for our classes. Every month they share a calendar of events for our students that take place at the Woodhaven Library. Materials that are shared are always translated into home languages.

Our partnership with Empire/Blue Cross-Blue Shield focuses workshops on asthma, diabetes, and heart disease. Every year they host a "teacher's closet" and bring supplies for classrooms to use. Also, Cornell University provides an eight week long workshop series on nutrition for adults and children. Both of these partnerships support the health of our students.

The ENL department formed a partnership with Marquee studio. We hosted 2 events this year, a paint night and a drum family workshop.

Our school is proud to partner with the NYCPS Office of Multilingual Learners (OML) to support and uplift the diverse cultural and linguistic identities represented in our school community. This partnership has been instrumental in ensuring that our multilingual learners and their families are not only supported academically, but also celebrated as valuable contributors to our school's culture.

Through our collaboration with OML, we have co-hosted several culturally and linguistically responsive events, including:

Participation in citywide initiatives and professional learning opportunities focused on bilingual education, language equity, and family empowerment, facilitated by the OML team.
In addition to OML, we collaborate with local community organizations to offer language-accessible workshops, bilingual literacy nights, and spaces for families to advocate for multilingual education.

These partnerships ensure our approach to education is grounded in equity, representation, and culturally sustaining practices, allowing our students and families to feel seen, heard, and respected.

Part VII: Additional Information

Additional Information

Include any additional information that is relevant to your LAP and would further explain and highlight how your school supports MLs/ELLs. This form does not allow graphics and charts to be pasted.

We are very proud of our growing DLBE program that is now in its third year. We are serving Multilingual Learners and Heritage Learners through this beautiful and culturally affirming program. We participate in events hosted by OML including the Bilingual Fair where we present and promote our program. We are eager to continue to form parterships with other schools.

Part VIII: ELL Identification Attestation and Principal Certification

Identification Plan

For additional information, refer to ELL Identification Attestation Professional Learning Module.

1. What are the titles of the members of your ELL identification team? Note: Members of the ELL identification team must be pedagogues.

ENL Teachers, DL Teachers, Classroom Teachers, and our School Secretary

2. Describe the structures and process in place for identification of ELLs year-round as required by the NYC DOE Policy & Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, including your school's identification plan for any incoming students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Include:

- How your school proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs,
- Who is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process, and
- School's plan for ensuring ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated instruction.

Our school secretary proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt mandated instruction by having a teacher administer the HLIS during their prep period. During high periods of registration, teachers on the ELL identification team stay after school to administer the HLIS.

1. Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined by the school secretary. If a student has been in NYS schools within the past 2 years, the school secretary contacts the previous school for ELL status, scores, and proficiency level. The ENL teacher follows up with the school as needed.

2. The home language is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue. This step is performed by teachers on the ELL idendification team. (Translation provided by the staff/OPI). Interview questions administered and maintained in the Cumulative Record. HLIS is entered on BIO screen and monitored RPOB by school secretary and ELL Coordinator.

3. Eligibility for NYSITELL is determined. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP , the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.
LPT Team includes: ENL teacher of newly enrolled student, Assistant Principal, SETTS/IEP teacher, School Psychologist, Social Worker, Parent

4. Students are administered NYSITELL. ENL team administers NYSITELL.

5. Notification letters are sent to parent/guardian in preferred language. ENL provider of student generated letters and maintains copies in Cumulative Records.

6. If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish LAP. This is administerd by Bilingual ENL providers.

7. Parent Orientation Meeting. ENL Teachers, DL Teachers, and Parent Coordinator facilitate this meeting.

8. ELL placed in program of preference. School Secretary/ELL Coordinator enter choice into ELPC.

9. Parents are notified of Appeal process by the ENL department.

Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in thestudents' cumulative files. The school's plan for ensuring mandated instruction during this process is by using schedules and after school time to meet these mandates. Our goal is to be effecient and accurate so that our students receive their appropriate instruction.

10. There are 4 ENL teachers. Each teacher services either one grade or two grades. At the beginning of the school year, teachers plan their integrated and stand-alone schedule according to CR Part 154-2 (K-8) to ensure ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive their mandated instruction.

Principal Certification

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, I, attest that the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to, and staff are trained on the items listed below.

- The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).
- Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined:
  a. If a student has been in New York State public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.
  b. If a student has been outside of New York State public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL Identification Process as part of reentry.

- The home language of the student is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue.
  a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

- An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.
- Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.
  a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

- Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.
- Notification letters are sent to the parent/guardian in their preferred language.
  a. Parent is notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

- If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish Language Assessment Battery (LAB).
- Student with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources.
- If a student is a newly identified ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.
  a. The parent orientation meeting provides parents/guardians with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents/guardians are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

- ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.
  a. If the bilingual program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that bilingual program in accordance with NYC DOE transfer policies.
  b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a New Language and our school keeps track of parent selection so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

- Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).
- If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.
- Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in the students' cumulative files.

Designation of a LAC
Name of person designated and trained as the LAC.
At the start of each school year, each principal is required to designate at least one staff member to serve as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC), responsible for overseeing language assistance services within the school.

We have pre-populated the following information based on our records. Please confirm that the designated staff member(s) are your school's Galaxy-designated LAC(s) and provide the date(s) they attended the OLA Language Access Coordinator Training. Note that this training is in addition to the mandatory asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. If any information is missing, please provide the requested details.

As a reminder, LACs are internal staff designations and are not meant to serve as the primary point of contact for families regarding language access-related matters. The Parent Coordinator, or another designated staff member, should remain the main contact for families regarding all issues, including language access.

In the event of an emergency we have bilingual staff members who will be available to interpret as needed. Also, we have contact information for bilingual parents that can help with disseminating information to other parents in the school community who speak the same language. For a language that is not covered we will use over-the-phone interpretation services. In addition, we use Class Dojo as our main source of communication with our parents, this services translate to all our parents home language.

Part D: Staff Awareness

Staff Awareness

Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.

1. Describe how your school will ensure that all staff members complete the required asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform, and are familiar with the Best Practices for When to Provide Translation of Critical Written Communications to Parents and Best Practices for When to Provide Interpretation for Critical Oral Communications with Parents. Additionally, explain how your Galaxy-designated LAC will disseminate future language access resources and updates to all staff members.

On extended days are use for staff training which include the NYCPS Language Access Training on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. Our LAC shares with all staff the services available to us and the importance of sharing our information in the languages of our school community. The information includes the phone number for translation services. Staff will be advised, via email, and reminded of all the resources available to assist them in obtaining information in their language. Updates are constantly shared with staff and prior to Parents Teacher Conferences via staff email, staff meeting and printed copies.

Part E: Parental Notification

Parental Notification

Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

1. Describe how your school will inform parents about available language assistance services in their preferred language. Include any of the following:

- Translated signage
- Brochures, flyers, or letters shared with parents
- Parent engagement events where language assistance services are highlighted (e.g., PTA meetings, international parents' night, etc.)
- Messaging applications

- Language Access for NYC Public Schools Families brochure

Based on our school's written translation and oral interpretation needs, we will perform written translation and will provide oral interpretation. In accordance with Section VII of the Chancellor's Regulations A-663 written notification will be sent to parents announcing the availability of translation and interpretation services at our school for activities such as parent teacher conferences, parent night (meet the teacher), ELL parent orientation and N.Y.S. testing workshops. A copy of such notification will also be kept in the main office as well as in the Parent Coordinator's office for review if needed. Also, it is on our school's website. ELL parents indicate their oral and written communication preference on the Home Language Identification Survey. This information is entered into A.T.S. and notices are generated for families based on their language preference. In our main office, we have translated signage asking parents if they need an interpreter. Parents can point to their language of preference. As a staff, we regularly use ClassDojo to share information, this service is our main source of communication with parents because it can be translated to our parents home language. We ensure that parents know their rights to receive information in their preferred language.

Part F: Monitoring

Monitoring

Methods for soliciting and implementing feedback on language assistance services.

1. In addition to the feedback received from parents via OLA's Translation & Interpretation Feedback Survey, describe the methods your school will use to gather feedback from parents regarding the language assistance services they receive in their preferred language.

We use parent meetings, workshops & survey to obtain feedback from parents. We want parents to feel comfortable and understand information about their child and his/her progress. We have informal conversations at Parent Teacher Conferences to monitor if parents are satisfied with translation services received throughout the school year. Parents are constantly told to reach out to our Parents Coordinator for assistance in language access and other services and resources needed.

2. How has your school worked to improve its language assistance services? Share any feedback results and outline your plans for further improvements in the upcoming school year.

We have implemented more Arabic and Spanish, translators at PTC in response to a growing Arabic and Spanish speaking community. In addition, we have made Mandarin and Bengali translators available for our PTC and parent meetings. We make sure our parents have a translator for their meeting when requested. We need the Language Access and Translation Unit to provide written translation faster, sometimes it takes almost a month for written letter to be process.

As a plan B, we have staff that help to provide regular translation along with google translation.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

Title III ELL Summary

Provide a summary of each program funded under Title III ELL for SY 25-26: For each program, describe:

- When the program takes place (i.e., after school, before school, Saturday academy)

- Activities ELLs will engage in and how these activities will enhance instructional opportunities for ELLs
- How ELLs will be grouped for instruction and specify the number of student groups. Include total number of student groups and total number of ELLs in each group, for each program
- How instruction will be delivered (e.g., team teaching, parallel teaching, etc.)
- How the program will be supervised and whether this will be funded by Title III ELL. Please note: If supervision will be funded using Title III ELL funds, you must include the supervisor's regular work day hours and the hours the supervisor will get paid per session.

Our direct instruction supplemental programs will include after school instruction and a Saturday Academy.

Our After School program will have a literacy focus for our Newcomer ELLs at the Entering and Emerging levels. We will use research based literacy programs like Words their Way, Fundations and Phonics for Reading to help students improve their decoding and Fluency. We will also engage students in Reader's Theater to bring their reading to life. Students will be grouped by grade level totalling 6 groups where instruction will be delivered by a TESOL certified teacher. The groups will be capped at 10. The program will be supervised by our Assistant Principal.

Our Saturday Academy will be offered virtually on Saturdays from 9am to 11am. We are offering the program virtually because it provides access to our families who can not bring students to school on the weekend due to work or circumstances. We have strong attendance during our virtual program. ELLs will engage in different thematic units where they will study language structures, read an article or story, and complete a project related to the theme. This will enhance instructional opportunities for ELLs by strengthening their academic language and content knowledge. ELLs will be grouped by grade level (K-5) with 25 students per group. TESOL certified teachers will deliver instruction to each group. The program will be supervised by our Assistant Principal.

Additionally, our additional after school will target Transitioning/Expanding students that need to focus on writing and academic language, as shown through the NYSESLAT and classroom assessments. Students will practice using different organizers to help enhance their writing. They will practice writing narratives and expository paragraphs. They will be grouped by grade level for grades 1-5. This will enhance opportunities for ELLs by strengthening their writing skills. TESOL certified teachers will deliver instruction to each group. The program will be supervised by our Assistant Principal. This will be at cost to Title III ELL.

Finally, we have Language Clubs for all language proficiency levels in Spanish, Arabic, and Chinese. These clubs focus on making linguistic connections from their home language to English. The clubs also build cultural pride. Students work on developing a presentation in English and their home language. They will be grouped based on home language and grades 1-5 will be invited. TESOL certified teachers will facilitate each group. The program will be supervised by our Assistant Principal. The regular work day for the Assistant Principal goes from 8:00 to 3:00 on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, so from 3-3:30 will be covered at cost to Title III. Also, the Assistant Principal will supervise on Saturdays from 9am to 11am at cost to Title III.

Rationale for Title III ELL Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III ELL funded program. For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

For the school year 2025-2026, we think it is important to have after school instruction and a Saturday Academy to target language learning needs and also engage students in activities that students will enjoy. Also, this will offer an alternative way of learning for our diverse students in order to meet their cultural and linguistic needs. We would like to integrate literacy with different thematic units.

We will start the year with an after school program to support the literacy of our EN/EM students. We will identify students for this program using EDAT, Acadience/iReady, and classroom observations to support students who have made limited progress in literacy or are SIFE/SLIFE students. We will use a research based programs like Fundations, Words Their Way along, and Phonics for Reading with decodable texts and reader's theater to develop accuracy and fluency in reading.

Our Saturday Academy will welcome students in K-5 with language proficiencies ranging from Entering to Expanding. We will use the language proficiency levels from the Spring 2025 NYSESLAT or the NYSITELL for our newer students. We will make sure that our Entering and Emerging level students are part of the program to provide additional language support. We also will make sure students attend that have remained at the same proficiency level for multiple years, according to the EDAT.

Our Saturday Academy will be a virtual program to meet the needs of our families. When we surveyed the families they voiced an interest in remote classes. This makes it more accessible for our families who work on Saturdays and may not be able to arrange drop off and pick up. The first class will be in person to set up the program and distribute materials. Students will engage in a arts program that integrates literacy.

Additionally, our spring after school will target Transitioning/Expanding students that need to focus on writing and academic language, as shown through the NYSESLAT and classroom assessments.

Our Language Clubs meet the needs of students to make connections to their home language. Students and families have said that they do better when they can connect to their home language and cultures.

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

For each Title III ELL funded program, describe the students that will be served. Include:

- Total number of ELLs for each program,
- Grade levels for ELLs in program, and
- ELL Subgroups (e.g., Newcomer) and/or proficiency levels (e.g., Entering, Emerging, etc.).

We will invite all of our entitled ELLs in grades K-5 to our Saturday Academy. This will include our Newcomer ELLs who have 1-3 years of service and our Developing ELLs who have 4 or 5 years of service. For our afterschool instruction, we will target our Newcomer ELLs in grades K-5 who are at the EN/EM proficiency levels to provide targeted support in literacy. We will also target our Newcomer and Developing students in grades 3-5 at Transitioning/Expanding proficiency levels that need to work on writing in a separate program. All proficiency levels will be invited to our Language Clubs.

The attendance is monitored by the supervising Assistant Principal.

The program will be supervised by the Assistant Principal at no cost to Title III. The supervisors role as she instructionally supervises the Saturday Program is to ensure that teachers are engaging students in learning and providing them with the necessary scaffolds in order for them to be successful in their learning across the Arts.

Part C: Professional Development

Professional Development Summary

Provide a summary of your school's plan for professional development under your Title III ELL program. Please make sure to describe:

- Professional development to be provided,
- Activities that teachers will engage with by topic, and
- Whether the professional development provided will be funded by Title III ELL funds. Please note: If PD will be funded by Title III ELL funds, vendor cost is calculated as part of OTPS and must not exceed 20% of the total allocation; teacher per-session is calculated as part of PD and must not exceed 10% of the total allocation.

Background:
The professional development plan for all ENL teachers at PS97Q The Forest Park School is ongoing. Such professional development includes: new teacher training, Title III funding, initial enrollment procedures, inquiry data and analysis, preparation and scoring for NYSESLAT and HMH Into Reading.

ENL teachers also attend Queens South trainings such as Nuts and Bolts, Rethinking MLL Instruction and EDAT. The professional development plan for ENL personnel is current and maintained every year. Teachers are encouraged to attend workshops to learn additional strategies and stay informed of current trends. Participants of these ongoing workshops include subject area teachers, special education providers, service providers, paraprofessionals, school secretaries, and the parent coordinator.

We also maintain a partnership with Queens College. A Queens College professor, Michelle Cassano works with the ENL teachers and their classroom co-teachers on planning using a lesson planning framework that considers the language proficiencies of students and the language demand of the lessons in the unit. This vendor is at cost to Title III funds.

PD will be provided from Ramapo to the staff on forming authentic relationships with students and cultural competence. This is at cost to Title III.

Teachers attend Phonics for Reading training. This will support the Literacy Focus after school. This is not at cost to Title III.

Rationale for Professional Development

Describe the rationale for the professional development to be provided. For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., patterns and trends identified) that support the need for the professional development, and
- Data sources (e.g., school survey teacher responses, in-house teacher surveys, teacher observation data) used to justify the professional development.

We believe we are serving our Title III Program teachers as well as other staff with this plan because teachers are provided relevant ways to support our ELLs and they are being given continued guidance through inter-visitation and planning sessions.

Data analysis has been completed of Acadience and MAP Growth data showing the need for literacy support for our Newcomers. Teachers have requested professional development in SPIRE and Phonics for Reading.

Qualitative data has shown that students in our school enjoy connecting to different themes across science and social studies that will be explored through Saturday Academy.

PD sessions are held during the regular/contractual school day so there is not going to be a cost for this activity.

Teachers to Receive Professional Development

Include information on the teachers to receive professional development. Please specify how all teachers working in the Title III ELL program will receive ongoing professional development related to the Title III ELL program.

Teachers that are involved in the Title III Saturday Academy receive specific training for the content and structure of the program. ENL teachers share discussion protocols and supports to integrate into the program.

Throughout the year, teaching staff and paras receive training from our ENL staff to learn about current ENL scaffolds and home language supports to integrate through instruction. Teachers also benefit from professional development from a Queens College professor, thanks to a partnership with our school.

PD is provided from Rampapo on forming authentic relationships and cultural competence.

Schedule and Duration

For each Title III ELL professional development activity, include:

- Start and end dates/months,

Maintaining Records

Describe your school's plan for maintaining documentation (e.g., agendas, attendance sheets) of all professional development provided as part of your Title III ELL plan; please specify which activities were funded by Title III ELL funds.

Our school maintains documentation of professional development through shared google slides documenting the schedule and teachers that are attending. We also maintain sign-ins for our PDs and save all documentation in Title III folders. We also maintain agendas, invitations in preferred home language, and attendance sheets for each program in Title III folders.

Part D: Family Engagement Activities

Family Engagement Summary

Provide a summary of your school's family engagement activities under your Title III ELL program. Describe the activities that families of ELLs will engage with by topic. Please make sure to include whether the activities will be funded by Title III ELL funds.
Please note: If family engagement activities will be funded by Title III ELL funds, vendor cost is calculated as part of OTPS and must not exceed 20% of the total allocation; teacher per-session is calculated as part of family engagement and must not exceed 10% of the total allocation.

At P.S. 97, parent engagement activities target empowering our families of ELLs. We continue to work on strengthening this partnership.
Family Engagement Summary under Title III ELL Program
Our school's Title III ELL program is dedicated to fostering strong family engagement through a variety of activities designed to support the educational and social development of our English Language Learners (ELLs). These activities are carefully planned to ensure they are accessible and beneficial to all families, promoting a collaborative and inclusive community. Here is a summary of the family engagement activities we have organized:

1. Hispanic Heritage Potluck
Topic: Cultural Celebration
Description: Hispanic Heritage Potluck allows Hispanic families to celebrate their culture and non-Hispanic families to learn more about the Hispanic culture. It also allows parents to interact with school staff and other families, fostering a sense of community.
Cost to Title III ELL: The cost for refreshments Title III ELL funds.

2. Newcomer's Breakfast
Topic: Welcome & Helpful Information
Description: We welcome newly arrived families to a breakfast and share information on the rights of parents of Multilingual learners, helpful resources and upcoming events. We share strategies on how to be involved in a child's academic career.
No cost to Title III

3. Family Game Night
Topic: Learning Rules of a Game/Multilingual Pride
Descriptions: Families will come together for a night of games. Presenters will call numbers in multiple languages.
No Cost to Title III

4. Paint Night
Topic: Creative Expression and Family Bonding
Description: Paint Night is an engaging event where families come together to participate in a guided painting session. This activity provides a relaxed environment for families to bond, express creativity, and reduce stress. It also allows parents to interact with school staff and other families, fostering a sense of community.

5. Dance Night
Topic: Creative Expression and Family Bonding
Description: Family dance activities will be guided by artists.
Cost to Title III ELL: Event will be provided by Marquis Studio

Rationale for Family Engagement Activities

Describe the rationale for the family engagement activities to be provided: For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., reasons for topics, time activities will be offered), and
- Data sources (e.g., parent survey responses, in-house parent surveys, PTA/PA request, etc.) used to justify the need for activities.

In an effort to keep parents and guardians engaged and informed of their child's learning and progress, workshops are offered to parents throughout the school year. These workshops are offered in person and virtually. The information presented at our workshops empowers our participants to be involved in their child's education in a positive way.

Our parent coordinator with support of our ENL department administered a parent survey. This revealed that parents prefer evening events and are interested in more family engaging events. With this data, we have planned multiple family events including a movie night, paint night, and multicultural parade. These events encourage family involvement.

Additionally, we host a Family Resource event including tech support, community resources, and physical resources like clothing and books. There is a need for activities like these because families ask questions about Class Dojo and Google Classroom. Also, we have 17.4% of our ELLs in Temporary Housing which shows a need for physical resources and community supports.

Parents of students participating in the Title III LEP instructional program are attending the mandated Title III LEP parent engagement activities. This component is at cost to the title III LEP Plan in order to purchase the materials needed to facilitate the scheduled workshop. Workshop topics are based on parent needs that are voiced throughout the school year. Materials purchased to support the facilitation of each workshop is dependent upon the topic of the workshop being presented.

Family Notification of Activities and Translation and Interpretation Supports:

Describe:

- How families will be notified of Title ELL family engagement activities (e.g., phone calls, emails),
- How notification of activities will be translated into parent/guardians' preferred language, and
- How interpretation supports will be provided at events.

There are multiple opportunities for parents to receive information about school programs and student progress. Methods of communication include: phone calls, e-mails, report cards, parent conferences, our school website, and Class Dojo. With communication in multiple forms, families find at least one way easy and useful for their lifestyle. Parents are invited to speak to their child's teacher during regularly scheduled parent engagement time. Parents make a significant contribution to the environment and functioning of our school. We encourage parent volunteers and make every effort to match the experience and talents of our parents to the needs of the school. LTI money will be used to hire translators for schoolwide events and conferences.

Translation & interpretation will be provided for parents through the use of a school based translator. These activities will be presented both in person and virtually depending upon the topic being presented. The anticipated number of parents that will participate in the program is 25.

Families are notified of Title III ELL family engagement activities through Class Dojo postings and paper invitations available in English and Spanish. We also translate invitations into Arabic and Chinese as needed.

Maintaining Records

Describe how your school will maintain documentation (e.g. agendas, attendance sheets) of family engagement activities and notifications to families.

Our school diligently maintains documentation for all family engagement activities and ensures families are notified of upcoming events. To facilitate participation, we create a Google form for parents to indicate their interest in attending. Additionally, we use attendance sheets for parents to sign in at events, allowing us to accurately track participation. Invitations are distributed through multiple channels, including email, ClassDojo, and physical letters sent home, to maximize outreach and engagement.

Funding follows similar guidelines for Title III funds established by the Office of Multilingual Learners (OML) and can only be used to provide supplementary services to immigrant students, who may or may not be English Language Learners (ELLs).

Please note: Immigrant students are not necessarily English Language Learners (ELLs), and ELLs may or may not be immigrants. For the purpose of this funding, immigrant students are defined as individuals who were not born in any U.S. state (this includes the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico); and have not been attending one or more schools in any one or more states for more than three full, academic years (the months need not be consecutive).

Priority areas for the use of Title III, Part A - Immigrant Funds are as follows:

- Extended day programming (e.g., before school, after school, Saturday program) to provide targeted, small-group instruction, credit recovery support, and postsecondary preparation.
- Implementing strong student supports to increase graduation rates.
- Community-based and school-based programming (e.g., before school, after school, Saturday program) to strengthen partnerships between immigrant families and schools.
- Developing new and/or enhancing existing programs for newcomers (meeting criteria defined above).

Please complete the application below. Schools must use the funds to support their immigrant students by developing a plan that has each of the following components:

- Direct instruction, supplemental program for immigrant students,
- Professional development that bolsters the instructional practice of teachers of immigrant students, and
- Family engagement activities that support families of immigrant students.

Completed applications must be submitted in iPlan for review and approval. Please refer to the respective School Allocation Memo. Schools are not permitted to use funds until they submit a plan and receive notification of its approval.

Provide a summary of each program funded under Title III immigrant for SY 25-26:

For each program, describe:

- When the program takes place (i.e., after school, before school, Saturday academy).
- Activities the students will engage in and how these activities will enhance instructional opportunities for immigrant students (including ELLs).
- How students will be grouped for instruction and specify the number of student groups. Include total number of student groups and total number of ELLs in each group, for each program.
- How instruction will be delivered (e.g., team teaching, parallel teaching, etc.).
- How the program will be supervised and whether this is at cost to Title III Immigrant. Please note: If supervision will be funded using Title III Immigrant funds, you must include the supervisor's regular workday hours and the hours the supervisor will get paid per session.

Our program will take place after school targeting our immigrant students and Transitioning, Expanding and Commanding ELLs to build strong skills in writing. We will engage in activities working on sentence structure, building complex sentences, and grammar. These activities will enhance instructional opportunities for these students by strengthening their academic communication across subject areas. Many of these students have strong social communication, but need support in academic language in writing.

Students will be grouped by grade level for instruction. There will be 5 student groups for each grade from 1-5. Instruction will be delivered in small groups by a teacher.

The program will be supervised by the Assistant Principal at no cost to Title III immigrant.

Rationale for Title III Immigrant Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III Immigrant funded program:

For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

We use qualitative and quantitative data to support the need for this program. We review NYSESLAT results, the EDAT, RPOB, and HMH writing assessments. In the NYSESLAT results we noticed that writing is a lower subskill overall for our students. Our immigrant students that are not MLs/ELLs also benefit from additional writing support as shown through module writing assessments. These assessments show that the students need additional supports in grammar, sentence structure, and academic language.

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

For each Title III Immigrant funded program, describe the students that will be served:

Include:

- Total number of students for each program,
- Grade levels for students in program, and
- If ELLs are also included in these programs, (e.g., Newcomer).

We will invite 60 students for our Title III Immigrant After School program. We will invite students in grades 1-5. The subgroups of ELLs that will be included are Newcomers and Developing ELLs.

Qualitative data for this professional development includes families and teachers asking for additional writing support for our immigrant students. Some of our immigrant students do not receive ENL support because they moved from Guyana. These students do benefit from additional support in writing and grammar. Quanititative data analysis includes looking at NYSESLAT data, HMH assessments, I-Ready, and Acadience data.

We adminiter a NYSESLAT practice at the beginning of the year to get a writing sample. We analyze the sample using NYSESLAT rubrics and identify a writing study group.

Part D: Family Engagement Activities

Family Engagement Summary

Provide a summary of your school's family engagement activities under your Title III Immigrant program. Describe the activities that families of immigrant students (including ELLs) will engage with by topic. Please make sure to include whether the activities will be funded by Title III Immigrant funds. Please note: If family engagement activities will be at funded by Title III Immigrant funds, vendor cost is calculated as part of OTPS and must not exceed 20% of the total allocation; teacher per-session is calculated as part of family engagement and must not exceed 10% of the total allocation.

Title III Immigrant funds will be used for a series of Immigrant Resource events:

- Parent Technology Event. In this workshop we will support families connect with their teachers using class dojo. We will ask families to bring their devices from home and focus on teaching families how to download/use applications at home to support their child's learning, such as iready, starfall, epic, etc. We will also provide families with immigrant rights resources. Lastly, we will help families download translation apps that will help them with everyday communication. The date for this event will be February 23rd, 2026.

This activities will be at cost to the Title III Immigrant funds for refreshments and resourse bags.

Rationale for Family Engagement Activities

Describe the rationale for the family engagement activities to be provided:

For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., reasons for topics, time activities will be offered), and
- Data sources (e.g., parent survey responses, in-house parent surveys, PTA/PA request) used to justify the need for activities.

The reason we are offering a Technology workshop is because parents have requested support in logging into Dojo and understanding how to manage connections to several classrooms or schools, consistent and reliable forms of communication with teachers to supports to their child at home. Additionally, we've noticed that students and their families don't know how to connect to several websites required to do homework or practice at home. We aim to help families and students learn to use these websites and applications at home to support their academic progress.

The reason behind the immigration rights resource table the technology workshop is because there are families in our school who are fear of doing certain things because of their immigration status.

Schedule and Duration

For each Title III Immigrant family engagement activity, include:

- Start and end dates/months,
- Total number of sessions,
- Days of sessions, and
