Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

Section 3: CEP SLT/Stakeholder Signature Page

School Leadership Team (SLT) Signature Page

All School Leadership Team (SLT) members are expected to sign this page to confirm their participation in the development of this Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) and that they have been consulted regarding the alignment of the school-based budget to support this school's educational program, which includes annual goals and action plans, Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS), the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) and the School-Parent Compact (SPC). The SLT must include an equal number of parents and staff and have a minimum of 10 and a maximum of 17 members, in accordance with Chancellor's Regulation A-655. The SLT also serves as the Core Community Engagement Team (CET) for Receivership Schools. Additional information and resources are available on the School Leadership Team Resources page. Under the Federal Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), NYS Education Law and Commissioner's Regulations, stakeholder participation in the development of the CEP must include multiple constituencies who represent the school community. Accountability Status

Accountability Status: LSI

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

PS17 is dedicated and committed to creating spaces for all community members to use their voices in powerful ways:
-by fostering spaces to learn about ourselves and others, using our identities as assets to adjust curriculum
-by recognizing the systemic barriers, implicit biases, and privileges that have historically excluded marginalized groups, holding ourselves accountable in supporting all students to achieve academic and personal success.
-by adjusting curriculum to foster collaboration, culturally responsive practices and advanced literacies across content areas.
As students leave PS17, it is our sincerest hope that we have promoted L.O.V.E. so that they are able to use their voices and make a positive impact as leaders to better themselves, their communities and their world.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

Value Statement:
We are a beloved community of engaged citizens. We pledge to be LOVE!
Leadership: I am a leader in my community.
Open hearts & minds: I am open to new ideas, people & learning.

Briefly summarize the key initiatives your school will implement this school year.

In alignment with the NYCDOE's priorities we are working on the following:
-Reading & Writing: We will be implementing HMH Into Reading & Writing and monitor both pedagogy and student achievement. We will dedicate time for both horizontal and vertical teams to plan units and lessons. We will continue to use foundational skills data to ensure that students are making progress with foundational reading skills. We will pay particular attention to students who are English language learners.
-Wellness: We will continue to train staff in mindfulness practices, for the 2025-2026 school focusing on training for special education teachers. ICT teams and paraprofessionals. In collaboration with our Wellness Committee, we will continue to norm our school wellness policy and bring in programming that is in alignment with this policy and this committee's goals. We will pay particular attention to the attendance of students who receive instruction in 12:1:1 settings.
-Providing a high quality academic experience: We will adjust math units/lessons, and science and social studies units/lessons in alignment with NYS Next Generation ELA & Math standards and areas of focus. We will continue our work with math word problems, and address mathematical discourse as a tool to improve student outcomes.

What are the primary digital and/or print curricula/programs used for ELA and Math:

Indicate the content area, grade band and any adaptations made.

Content Area (Indicate ELA and Math Only)	Grade Band	Digital and/or Print Curricula/Program	Adaptations

Section 5: Priority 1 – All students learn to read well

Priority 1 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
21% of K-2 students who are English language learners met expectations on EOY Acadience assessment	need to monitor progress of students receiving AIS services	ensure students who are English language learners are receiving appropriate AIS services from beginning of year.
did not meet CEP goal from last year but did experience growth (Iready); informational texts is weakest area		continue to monitor student work, focusing on non-fiction and ensure that students have repeated practice with specific non-fiction standards & skills.
5th grade remains weakest (iready & June Instructional report)		continue to monitor student work, focusing on non-fiction and ensure that students have repeated practice with specific non-fiction standards & skills.

Priority 1

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for literacy outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Literacy

- Implement the strategies outlined in NYC Reads, including foundational phonics curriculum for grades K-2
- Implement dyslexia screening, professional learning, and program pilots (as applicable)
- Support literacy development through the integration of culturally responsive-sustaining texts and content

Priority 1 SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
All Students	46	By June, 2026, literacy for All Students will improve, as measured by a 10 Increase, from 46 to 56, of percentage of students in grades 3-5 who score at or above proficiency on the Iready .
English Language Learners (ELL)	21	By June, 2026, literacy for English Language Learners (ELL) will improve, as measured by a 10 Increase, from 21 to 31, of percentage of students meeting expectations on the Insight.

Priority 1 Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Identify what your school would expect to see at the end of each period to know if you are on track to reach the identified goal(s). The progress monitoring targets can be a percentage or a number and should reflect a sufficient improvement in outcomes to meet the goal. Note that all schools are required to enter results in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) on the iPlan Portal.

Priority 1 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Schools are encouraged to think critically and strategically when considering resources that can support progress towards CEP goals for students with IEPs. This includes utilizing Title I funding for at-risk speech and/or counseling services, all-staff training in supporting students with autism, sensory materials, summer institute geared at the development of executive functioning skills, and/or inclusion coaching support. Schools may also consider utilizing Title II funds to reduce the ratio of students with IEPs to typically developing peers in ICT classes.

Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and

Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Directions: Complete the chart and identify Tier 2 or 3 MTSS Academic supports. Any Tier 2/3 interventions should be in addition to the foundational work being done at Tier 1.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

Number of students in temporary housing who are:

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:
- Living in a hotel/motel:
- Other

*Note: In keeping with established practices regarding personally identifiable information, use the letter "s" to identify a number less than five (5).

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

Students in temporary housing who attend school in person either receive bus services or were offered bus services for transportation. All students in temporary housing received some sort of aid, including but not limited to laundry detergent, clothing, body soap, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, shampoo/conditioner, backpacks, and school supplies. Students are also offered counseling sessions and have check-in sessions with the counselor. The counselor is in contact with students' case workers (if applicable) and services forglasses, summer school, and after school are offered.

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

How many students in foster care are currently enrolled at your school? Provide a detailed breakdown of the social-emotional and academic supports available to them.

What targeted supports are in place for students in foster care, including those newly transitioning into the foster care system? How does your school ensure these students receive the necessary interventions to promote stability and success?

After analyzing historical demographic, attendance, and achievement data for students in foster care, what trends have emerged? How can these insights be used to improve the services and support provided to this population?

What specific strategies does your school implement to ensure students in foster care, particularly those in transitional grades, receive targeted Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) support? How do these strategies help address academic and behavioral challenges?

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the school community. PS 17 Queens, in compliance with Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is responsible for creating and implementing a parent and family engagement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. The school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), and Title I Parent Advisory Council as trained volunteers and welcomed members of the school community.

Support for Parents and Family Members of Title I Students

PS 17 Queens will support parents and family members of Title I students by:
- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;

- providing professional learning opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of the school community;

Parental Involvement and School Quality

The school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (ML/ELL), and students with disabilities. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, the school will:
- actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage all parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I, 1% set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to the school to supplement parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent and family engagement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional learning, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend the school and will work to ensure that the school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;
- conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;

- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., ESSA/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, School Quality Report, Quality Review Report, NYC School Survey Report;
- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent and family engagement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1116 and other applicable sections under ESSA;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed.

Encouraging School-Level Parental Involvement

The school will further encourage school-level parent and family engagement by:
- hosting educational family events/activities during Parent-Teacher Conferences and throughout the school year;
- encouraging meaningful parent participation on School Leadership Teams, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council;
- supporting or hosting Family Day events;
- establishing a Parent Resource Center/Area or lending library; instructional materials for parents;
- encouraging more parents to become trained school volunteers;
- providing written and verbal progress reports that are periodically given to keep parents informed of their children's progress;
- developing and distributing a school newsletter or web publication designed to keep parents informed about school activities and student progress;
- providing school planners/folders for regular written communication between /teacher and the home in a format, and to the extent practicable in the languages that parents can understand.

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

PS 17 Queens, in compliance with the Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is implementing a School-Parent Compact to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. Staff and parents of students participating in activities and programs funded by Title I, agree that this Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff and students will share responsibility for improved academic achievement and the means by which a school-parent partnership will be developed to ensure that all children achieve State Standards on assessments.

Title I Program Information

Part 1: Title I Program Type

Title I Requirements and Strengthening Title I Parent Involvement: Under USDOE's Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Title I schools are required to address professional learning and parent and family engagement in the Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP). To strengthen parent leadership in Title I schools, and increase the involvement of all parents of Title I eligible children in improving students' academic outcomes, all Title I schools are required to establish a Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) that will serve as the consultative and representative body for all Title I parents in the school to provide voice into the spending of Title I funds.

The SLT is responsible for facilitating consultation with the Title I Parent Advisory Council regarding the joint development of the CEP, Parent and Family Engagement Policy, School Parent Compact (SPC) and the use of the 1% parent involvement set-aside in Title I schools. The Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) Chairperson (or alternate) is expected to attend all regular meetings of the School Leadership Team (SLT). Title I parents, as represented by the Title I PAC Chairperson, must be consulted regarding the use of the Title I 1% set-aside for parent and family engagement. The Title I 1% set-aside funding is used to supplement parent and family engagement activities as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and must be aligned with student achievement goals as outlined in the CEP. For additional guidance on the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC), go to the Protocols and Timeline for Title I Parent and Family Engagement Activities document.

Directions:

- All schools must indicate their Title I status in Part 1.

Part 2: All Title I Schools

High Quality and Ongoing Professional Learning: Please list below the Priority or section(s) that indicate strategies and activities for high quality professional learning for teachers, principals, staff, and paraprofessionals to enable all students to meet state standards.

The following areas of need will be prioritized:
-Advanced literacies
-Addressing the instructional core in mathematics
-Supporting students with IEPs with BIPs with ABA sessions

Part 4: Schoolwide Program (SWP)

Transition Plans to Assist Preschool Children (Elementary Schools Only): Describe the transition plans used to assist preschool children from early childhood programs to the elementary school program (e.g. aligned curriculum, joint PD & parent involvement activities, sharing of records/information, early intervention services, etc.).

-NYU Parent Corps partnership to offer caregivers ongoing parent support sessions
-Caregivers invited to volunteer regularly to get to know the school community, protocols and procedures
-Use of NYCDOE's program: Creative Curriculum
-Weekly articulation meetings with pre-k teachers
-Use of Eureeka math in pre-k

Part 5: “Conceptual” Consolidation of Funds in SWP Schools

Directions: All Schoolwide Program (SWP) schools in NYC are conceptually consolidating their Federal, State, and Local funds, even though the Galaxy system reports the allocations in separate accounting codes1. To be eligible for the flexibility consolidation of Federal funds, a Schoolwide Program school must identify in its Schoolwide plan (CEP) which programs are included in its consolidation and the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool. Additionally, the school plan must document that it has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated2. On the chart below, indicate which Federal, State, and/or local Tax Levy program funds that are consolidated in your school’s Schoolwide Program, the amount each program contributes to the consolidated Schoolwide pool, and verification that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated.
For the last two columns of this table: Place an (X) in Column A below to verify that the school has met the intent and purposes of each program whose funds are consolidated. Indicate in Column B, the Priority or section that references where a related program activity has been described in this plan.

Program Name	Fund Source (i.e. Federal, State or Local)	Funding Amount: Indicate the amount contributed to Schoolwide pool. (Refer to Galaxy for school allocation amounts)	Column A Verify with an (X)	Column B Section/Priority Reference(s)

Explanation/Background

1. Explanation/Background:

Title I Schoolwide Program schools are expected to use the flexibility available to them to integrate services and programs with the aim of enhancing the entire educational program and helping all students reach proficient and advanced levels of achievement. In addition to coordinating and integrating services, Schoolwide Program schools may combine most Federal, State and local funds to provide those services. By consolidating funds from Federal, State, and local sources, a Schoolwide Program school can address its needs using all its available resources. This gives a school more flexibility in how it uses available resources to meet the identified needs of all its students.

Consolidating funds in a Schoolwide Program means that a school treats the funds it is consolidating like they are a single "pool" of funds. In other words, the funds from the contributing programs in the school lose their individual identity and the school has one flexible pool of funds. The school uses funds from this consolidated Schoolwide pool to support any activity of the Schoolwide Program without regard to which program contributed the specific funds used for a particular activity – so long as the use of funds meets the intent and purposes of the programs from which the funds originate. To consolidate funding in a Schoolwide Program, the school does not literally need to combine funds in a single account or pool with its own accounting code. Rather, the word "pool" is used conceptually to convey that a Schoolwide Program school has the use of all consolidated funds available to it for the dedicated function of operating a Schoolwide Program without regard to the identity of those funds.

Consolidating Federal funds in a Schoolwide Program has the following additional advantages:

- Consolidating Federal funds eases the requirements for accounting for funds from each specific program separately, because a Schoolwide school is not required to distinguish among funds received from different sources when accounting for their use.
- A school that consolidates Federal funds in its Schoolwide Program is not required to meet most of the statutory and regulatory requirements of the specific Federal programs included in the consolidation (e.g., semi-annual time and effort reporting for Title I). However, the school must ensure that it meets the intent and purposes of the Federal programs included in the consolidation so that the needs of the intended beneficiaries are met.

2. The intent and purposes of the Federal programs indicated on the chart above (Part 4c of this section) are as follows:

- Title I, Part A – Schoolwide Programs: To upgrade the entire educational program in the school in order to improve the academic achievement of all students, particularly the lowest-achieving students. This includes provision of services for Students in Temporary Housing (STH).
- Title I 1003(a), School Improvement: Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI), Additional Targeted Support and Improvement (ATSI) and Targeted Support and Improvement (TSI) Funding:

Support implementation of school improvement plans that aims to improve instruction and address the identified needs

Title II, Part A: Supplementary funding to improve student academic achievement by reducing class size in grades K, 1, 2, and 3, with an emphasis on grades with an average register greater than 20. If space is not available to form additional classes, funds may support push-in teacher(s) to supplement the instructional program. For schools that choose to reduce class size, priority must be given to reducing class size in general education settings and must demonstrate the following:

- Reduce class sizes to 15-18 students or fewer (including the use of co-teaching and floating teachers that bring the student to teacher ratio to one teacher per 15-18 students);
- Be accompanied by a rigorous curriculum, effective teachers, and a sustained, job-embedded professional development plan.

- Title III, Part A: To help ensure that children with limited English proficiency become proficient in English, develop high academic attainment in English, and meet the same challenging State academic content and achievement standards in the core academic subjects that all other children are expected to meet. Another purpose of this program is to increase the capacity of schools to establish, implement and sustain high-quality language instruction programs and English language development programs that assist schools in effectively teaching students with limited English proficiency. Title III, Part A is also designed to promote the participation of parents and communities of limited English proficient children in English language instruction programs.
- Title III Immigrant: Supplementary and enhanced services to immigrant students, in the areas of English language acquisition and content area achievement. Immigrant children and youth are defined as individuals who are aged 3 through 21, have not been attending school in any one or more states for more than three (3) full academic years, and were not born in any state. "State" means the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Children born to U.S. citizens abroad, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or any other U.S. territory that is not D.C. or Puerto Rico are to be considered immigrants.
- Title IV, Part A: Title IV funds are for schools that are among those with the greatest needs, have the highest numbers of students from low-income families, are identified for CS, ATSI or TSI, or are identified as persistently dangerous public schools. Allowable uses of funds under well-rounded education, safety and health, and educational technology include direct services for students, professional development for teachers and administrators, and supplemental educational resources. School allocations have been provided for well-rounded education, social emotional learning, cultural responsiveness awareness, professional development to support implementation of technology and blended learning environments, and community coordinators in schools with high rates of students in temporary housing

- Students in Temporary Housing (STH): Schools must describe their use of Title I STH funds in their consolidated application.

Important Note: The following funds may not be consolidated:

- Title I Parent Involvement Set-aside: Title I, Part A funds must support parent involvement activities and programs. Chancellor's Regulation A-655 requires School Leadership Teams to consult with Title I parent representatives regarding the Title I program and the use of these funds. Parent involvement activities funded through Title I must be included in the Parent and Family Engagement Policy and aligned with student achievement goals in the school comprehensive educational plan.
- IDEA: To ensure that all children with disabilities have available to them a free appropriate public education designed to meet their individual needs.
- Grant funds awarded via a competitive process: These funds must be used for the purposes specified by the Grantor, as described in the school's approved grant application.

Language Allocation Policy Outline

Language Allocation Policy Outline

2025-26 Language Allocation Policy (LAP)

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents. When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

During stand-alone ENL, instruction is implemented to develop English language skills so that students can succeed in core content courses. In a self contained ENL class, instruction is delivered by a certified ENL teacher in our building utilizing whole group and/or small group instruction. A student does not receive stand-alone ENL in lieu of core content area instruction. ELLs are grouped together in an ENL class, for the entire school day and for all content instruction taught by a licensed teacher. Heterogeneous grouping occurs in Stand-alone or Self Contained classes. Stand-alone instruction can also be provided by a licensed ENL provider. This targeted ENL instruction in a stand-alone or integrated model, is implemented with different groups of students making an effort to keep students grouped in the same proficiency levels. Lessons are carefully planned between the ENL provider and the general education teachers to ensure curricular alignment and continuity of instruction. At the entering level there are 180 stand alone ENL instructional minutes. At the emerging level there are 90 stand alone ENL instructional minutes and 90 flexible minutes in either stand alone or integrated ENL instruction. At the transitioning level there are 90 flexible minutes in either stand alone or integrated ENL instruction.

Integrated ENL:

Depending on a students English proficiency level (180 integrated minutes for entering and emerging students/90 minutes for transitioning and expanding students), integrated instruction is implemented to build English language skills through content area instruction. It is delivered by a dually certified teacher (ENL and a content area) or co-teaching by a certified ENL teacher and a certified content area teacher. Both methods of integrated ENL instruction include content area subject matter and English language development using ENL strategies. All ELLs and former ELLs up to 2 years after exiting ELL status receive a minimum number of 90 minutes of integrated ENL. The ENL teacher works with ELLs in collaboration with general education classroom teachers to provide language acquisition and vocabulary support. There is a common preparation time between the 2 teachers and/or prior collaborative lesson planning. Integrated teaching occurs with the Least Restrictive Environment as possible. The dually certified classroom teacher (ESL and common branches) will provide instruction that incorporates core content including science, math, social studies and ELA, using researched and proven ENL methodology utilizing either live and/or archived delivery of instruction. ELLs are actively engaged in standards-based academic curriculum that prepares them to think critically, solve problems, and communicate in the language(s) of instruction in ELA and the core content areas. ELLs and former ELLs are actively engaged in standards-based academic curriculum that prepares them to think critically, solve problems, and communicate in the language(s) of instruction. All Former ELLs are placed in ENL classrooms with teachers that are continuing to plan, prepare and deliver ENL and language supports in a student-centered learning environment. Integrated ENL along with a subject area are taught dependent upon the student's proficiency level in grades K to 5. At the entering, emerging and transitioning levels, integrated ENL with ELA is provided; at the expanding level, integrated ENL is combined with any content area that best meets the needs of the student.

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)

Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

N/A

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

The vision of the Dual Language Program at P.S. 17 Q is to empower students to become lifelong learners who are bilingual, bi-cultural, and bi-literate. They will grow into confident role models who will embrace diversity and invoke a positive change in our global society.
This program promotes bilingualism and bi-literacy, grade level academic achievement and cross cultural competence in all students. The main goal of our Dual Language Program is that our students develop a high academic and linguistic proficiency in two languages.

Dual language students participate in a rigorous academic program that nurtures the development of bilingualism, bi-culturalism, and bi-literacy so that students will graduate ready for college, career, and life in a globally competitive economy. This instruction is given by a certified bilingual teacher.

We use a Two-Way Dual Language model at our school which means that two language groups of students will be joined in the same class to become bilingual, bicultural, and biliterate. Our dual language classes are composed of an equal number of Spanish-speaking and English-speaking students who are learning in both languages. The language of instruction is alternated daily by the teacher. This is called a "50/50 Roller Coaster Model."

The Dual Language program is offered to all students who are entitled to ENL services and English proficient students in grades Pre-Kindergarten, Kindergarten, 1st grade, 2nd grade, 3rd grade, 4th grade and 5th grade who want to learn Spanish as a second language. Some of our students speak additional languages at home. Since they already have a pre-existing foundation for learning a second language, these students often do very well in the dual language classroom. Having your child learn a third or fourth language at this early age will only add to their benefits in the long term. Stand alone and integrated models are both implemented in the Dual Language programs depending on the needs of the students. There is one teacher who provides instruction in both languages. However, when each language is used in the instructional day is predetermined by the delivery model. The classrooms have instructional materials in both languages to support the program and is organized so that the language of instruction is clearly designated by color codes.
Children in our dual language programs...

1 Become bilingual, bi-literate and bi-cultural members of the world society at large
2 Have a greater capacity for listening
3 Think more creatively and analytically
4 Develop better communication skills
5 Express enthusiasm and have an aptitude for problem solving
6 Have a greater awareness of self and others
7 Gain insights into other cultures
8 Become part of a greater linguistic and cultural community
9 Provide access to a greater part of the world
10 Take advantage of the optional time to learn a language and develop an appreciation and understanding of diverse cultures, people, and perspectives in the world

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

At the beginning of the school year, students are placed in classes according to NYSESLAT scores. The NYSESLAT scores are used to determine class placement for the upcoming school year. Students who are current ELLs are placed in self contained ENL classrooms that are taught by a certified ENL teacher. Dual language students are placed in bilingual classrooms that are taught by a certified bilingual teacher. Special Education English Language Learners are placed (according to their Individualized Education Plan- IEP) either in an ICT classroom that has a special education teacher and an ENL teacher (if the teacher doesn't hold and ENL license the students get services by the ENL coordinator either through a stand-alone/Integrated ENL model or are in a Self Contained special education classrooms that has one special education teacher and receive their ENL services by the ENL coordinator either through stand-alone or Integrated ENL model. Students who are at the commanding level continue to receive ENL services for 2 years after they have tested out. These students are placed in an ENL self contained classroom for the next 2 years. They receive their 90 minutes a week from the ENL classroom teacher. If the teacher does not hold an ENL license then the students are either flexed scheduled into an ENL classroom or are serviced by our ENL coordinator. Alternative pathways are also considered that include small group language support.

To ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided, the ENL Coordinator provides targeted ENL small group instruction to different groups of students with the same English proficiency levels. They plan and collaborate with the general education teachers to ensure curricular alignment and continuity of instruction. The integrated ENL along with a subject area are taught dependent upon the student's proficiency level in grades K to 5. At the entering, emerging and transitioning levels, integrated ENL with ELA is provided; at the expanding level, integrated ENL is combined with any content area that best meets the needs of the student. In grades PRE-K to 5, certified bilingual common branch teachers are permitted to provide the ENL component of the bilingual program. These teachers hold the bilingual certification needed to teach in a bilingual program.

The ENL provider also goes into the classroom to support ELLs during content area lessons to provide language acquisition and vocabulary support. They supports ELLs during a mini lesson next to their student(s) while the general/special education teacher is teaching. They also provide flexible and small group instruction to the English Language Learners.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

The breakdown of the program is as follows: • Entering level students receive 360 minutes of ENL instruction. 180 of those minutes are integrated ENL/ELA and 180 of those minutes are stand alone. • Emerging level students receive 360 minutes of ENL instruction. 180 of those minutes are integrated ENL/ELA and 90 of those minutes are standalone. The remainder of those 90 minutes is flexible in either stand alone or integrated minutes. • Transitioning level students receive 180 minutes of ENL instruction. 90 of those minutes are integrated ENL/ELA and the other 90 of those minutes are flexible in either stand alone or integrated minutes. • Expanding level students receive 180 minutes of ENL instruction. All 180 of those minutes is integrated ENL/ELA or other content area instruction. • Commanding level students receive 90 minutes of ENL instruction. All 90 of those minutes are in integrated ENL/ELA or other content area instruction.

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

We use a Two-Way Dual Language model at our school which means that two language groups of students will be joined in the same class to become bilingual, bicultural, and biliterate. Our dual language classes are composed of an equal number of Spanish-speaking and English-speaking students who are learning in both languages. The language of instruction is alternated daily by the teacher. This is called a "50/50 Roller Coaster Model." One day is taught in English and the next day Spanish.

a. The time is split equally, 50/50 between Spanish and English (the target language).
b. The entire instructional day is integrated with no content areas being taught separately. Students are strategically seated according to different language proficiency levels so that students can also serve as language models to each other.
c. Language is separated daily and not by subject, teacher, or theme. Alternate language (English/Spanish), is used each day of the week. For example, "A Week" is: Monday: Spanish, Tuesday: English, Wednesday: Spanish, Thursday: English and Friday: Spanish (Spanish dominant week), while "B Week" is: Monday: English, Tuesday: Spanish, Wednesday: English, Thursday: Spanish, and Fridays: English (English dominant week).
d. The Dual Language Model used is the self-contained, roller coaster model.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

English and Spanish

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

NA

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

Currently there is a total of 109 (20.4%) English Language Learners. There are 95 (87.2%) ELLs that are Newcomers and 14 (12.8) ELLs that are Developing. There are no Long-Term ELLs. Effective instruction for Newcomers differs from those provided to developing ELLs. Current research on ELLs has recommended developing students CALP while simultaneously developing their BICS. Using and building upon students every day social language (BICS) to develop their academic language (CALP) will be encouraged. Total physical response (TPR) will be incorporated into all instruction to ensure that students comprehend all information presented. Academic language will be incorporated into grade level instruction but will be limited to basic concept words until students acquire additional language. Instruction will remain uniform according to content but will incorporate various ENL strategies such as the use of realia, visual aids, repetition and graphic organizers. Students will be placed in classes with more advanced ELLs to promote oral fluency. Classrooms are equipped with a literacy program which integrates interactive technology and print to accelerate reading and language skills based on individual student levels. In addition to ENL services, students will be offered AIS supports and Title III supplemental program instruction.

Additional supports to students who are learning English are provided stand-alone instruction focused on phonics and the foundations of language. Targeted instruction and practices for students in areas such as phonics, vocabulary building, reading comprehension, and speaking/writing fluency is tailored to meet each student's specific needs and provides personalized guidance that will maximize their language development.

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

Currently there are 2 SIFE students (1.8%). It is important to learn about each individual student to identify their strengths and needs. Some differentiated strategies include:

1) Activating prior knowledge
2) Engaging students in hands on learning so they are physically involved
3) Provide print rich environments
4) Keep the amount of new vocabulary in control

5) Constantly check for communication
6) Allow student to work with partner or in cooperative groups
7) Teaching strategies should weave together language and content instruction
8) Provide intense literacy/language instruction
9) Use culturally and linguistically responsive instruction

Additional supports to ELL students are provided in stand-alone instruction focused on phonics and the foundation of language. Targeted instruction and practices for students in areas such as phonics, vocabulary building, reading comprehension, and speaking/writing fluency is tailored to meet each student's specific needs and provides personalized guidance that will maximize their language development.

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

There are currently no long-term ELLs. If there were, instruction would focus on repetition and small group interventions. There will be continual formal and informal assessments aligned with instruction to determine individually appropriate focused skills. Instruction for these students will be highly structured and predictable. Classrooms will be equipped with a literacy program which integrates interactive technology and print to accelerate reading and language skills based on individual student levels. In addition to ENL services students will be offered AIS, RTI and/or Title III supplemental program instruction if needed.

According to the Spring 2025 EDAT, our school has 10 potential long-term ELLs." Some effective instruction and preventative interventions for long-term English language learners can include providing students with visual aids and graphic organizers to help teach explicit vocabulary and sentence structure. Creating opportunities for meaningful communication through activities like small-group discussions and partner work with a focus on building academic English across all content areas.

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

There are currently 31 (5.8%) former ELLs. Our plan is to continue supporting our former ELLs for two years after commanding on the NYSESLAT exam. Former ELLs will receive at least one half of one unit study of English as a New Language (90 minutes per week) and are eligible for certain specific testing accommodations. Former ELLs receive time and half-extended time as a testing accommodation for up to two years after testing out of the NYSESLAT. In addition, these students are either placed in ENL self-contained classes or are in a class that receives ENL services by an ENL provider, therefore services for these students are not discontinued.

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

Students that are at risk have trouble with spelling, pronunciation, grammar, vocabulary and sentence formation. Fluency is difficult, and it slows down their ability to decode words. This hinders their ability to understand the meaning of the words and how the words combine to produce meaningful sentences. Another noticeable trend about ELLS is that they do not have a solid understanding of their home language to begin with. We encourage parents to speak to their children in their home language. Hearing this, rich, complex and fluent language in a language their child understands will promote their English proficiency. Once skills are improved in the first language, it will start to transfer over into the second language. Low attendance of ELLS also influences their achievements. ELLS who are chronically absent achieve at a lower level than ELLS who attend regularly. Another trend we have noticed in some newcomers who have had interrupted instruction, is that the lack of school has caused major gaps in their learning. They show little interest in school and are placed at risk.

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

When systems that were implemented in the past such as extended time and small group instruction are slowly taken away, former ELL students may tend to regress because they are so use to the supports and scaffolds that were in place. According to the 2025 EDAT report 25.8% (8 former ELL students) scored a 1 or 2 on their ELA and Math State Exams. The year before 2024, there was a 9.7% (3 students) of scored a 1 or 2 on their ELA and Math State Exams. This shows the number of former ELL students scoring a 1 or 2 on ELA and Math state exams increased by 16.1% from 2024 to 2025.

We noticed that exams contain complex English and cultural references that the students are not familiar with even if they have a strong understanding of the subject matter. If English proficiency is not the construct being assessed it may not accurately reflect their academic abilities. We have discovered that teaching needs to be culturally responsive and sufficient English language development needs to be addressed in all subject areas.

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

The home languages that represent the largest ELL population is Spanish and Arabic. At the beginning of each school year, the staff is surveyed to determine all languages that are spoken, written and read by them. The ENL coordinator runs the RLER/RLAT report from ATS to inform teachers and staff of the preferred language of communication spoken in each household. We also look at the RAPL report (adult preferred language report) and the RCPL (parents preferred language report) in ATS, which gives more information on the languages spoken at home. We communicate with families and provide translation services by either a qualified staff member, ClassDojo, Google translate or the DOE's over the phone translation services. Our goal is to ensure all limited English-speaking families are provided with meaningful opportunities to participate in all of the programs and activities we provide to their children, as well as keep them informed of services critical to their child's education. All DOE translated documents shared with families containing critical information regarding the students education is distributed to families based on their preferred language. We take into consideration what the HLIS indicates as languages spoken and read. All parents are asked if they need oral translation when they have school meetings, appointments, and or concerns. Depending upon the students grade level/levels that must receive information we requested translation of all written documents and the languages that are represented in those grades. These documents are then provided to teacher as per their request. During parent teacher conferences, we use staff members in the building to help with interpretation services to speak to our parents based on their request. We also use the DOE over the phone translation services. We have a large number of parents and staff members who speak a second and third language. The staff members are used on a daily basis when needed.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

We have a diverse equity team that meets regularly and focuses on supporting students, using texts that are reflective of student backgrounds, and that are linguistically diverse. As a school community, we learn about our students backgrounds and demonstrate appreciation for those cultures. Diversity is embraced in different teaching styles by modeling respect and acceptance. Teachers make an effort to accommodate different communication preferences, and cognitive styles. In addition, student work is collected from students who are English language learners in order to monitor progress and make adjustments. A debate team has been developed that targets ELLS in the upper grades. The debate team has helped students become more linguistically, fluent and academic language, as well as introduced students to new vocabulary. Our debate team has won third place in the American Debate League competition.

Racial and ethnic classifications include: 57.8% are Hispanic, 10.1% are Asian, 0.9% are Black, 6.4% are multiracial and 24.8 are White.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

According to the 2025 EDAT report out of 64 Eligible students that had sufficient exam results, 26.6 (17 students) met progress by exiting ELL Status, 17.2% (11 students) met annual progress target, 6.3% (4 students) met safe harbor cumulative growth and 50% (32 students) progress wasn't met.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

When looking at the results of the NYSESLAT exam a trend we noticed is that students in grades 1,2,4 and 5 scored the highest in the speaking section. Writing was the least scored modality for all grades. Students were better at listening as the grades got higher.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

The relationship of students performance on the NYSESLAT compared to ELA 2024 state exam includes:

Out of 19 ELLs who scored a level 1 in ELA, 3 were at the emerging level, 7 at the transitioning level, 7 at the expanding level and 2 at the commanding level. The 2 students at the commanding level show a big gap between what they scored on the ELA state exam and the NYSESLAT.

Out of the 5 students who scored a level 2, 5 were at the expanding level. There is a closer correlation within these levels.

Out of the 6 students who scored a level 3 on the ELA state exam, 6 were at the commanding level. This shows a direct correlation within this level.

Out of the 1 student who scored a level 4 on the ELA state exam, 1 students scored at the commanding level. This is a direct correlation within this level.

The relationship of students performance on the NYSESLAT compared to Math 2024 state exam includes:

Out of 19 ELLs who scored a level 1 ion the Math State exam, 1 was at the entering level, 5 were at the emerging level, 6 at the transitioning level, 5 at the expanding level and 2 at the commanding level.

Out of the 13 students who scored a level 2 on the Math State exam, 2 were at the emerging level, 4 were at the transitioning level, 6 were at the expanding level.

Out of the 7 students who scored a level 3 on the Math state exam, 1 scored at the emerging level, 1 at the transitioning level and 5 were at the commanding level. This does not shows a direct correlation within this level.

Out of the 1 student who scored a level 4 on the Math state exam, 1 students scored at the commanding level. This is a direct correlation within this level.

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

Trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs include:

Out of 24 student with IEPs, 7 students scored at the emerging level, 9 students scored at the transitioning level, 5 students at the expanding level and 3 students at the commanding level. All 3 students that commanded scored Expanding on the NYSESLAT and a 3 on the ELA state exam.

Out of the 1 student who is SIFE, They scored at the entering level. The student had no formal schooling before this year.

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

ELLs are provided with a high quality academic experience that leads to deeper thinking by:
- using visual aids like graphic organizers, multimedia, pictures, diagrams
- promoting collaborative learning and peer interaction
- explicitly teaching academic language and key vocabulary explicitly
- making connections to students' backgrounds to build on their prior knowledge
- facilitating small-group instruction where students are encouraged to collaborate and share their experiences
- connecting to prior knowledge by building on the students' existing knowledge and experiences to increase comprehension
- providing home language support and instructional materials in students' home languages
- building relationships with students by being culturally aware and creating a supportive learning environment
- collaborating with the ENL teachers to ensure consistent and effective support for ELLs
- encouraging student expression by providing opportunities for students to express their understanding of content through writing, drawing, or other multimedia projects.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

The school leadership team looks at ELL student work across subgroups, and reviews it against an established criteria. This established criteria focuses on the four language domains; listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Assessing general and academic vocabulary, sentence structure complexity, and comprehension of complex texts.

There is a protocol the team uses to look at student work. This assists with establishing feedback and next steps for teacher teams. Teacher teams create instructional materials that consider how students learn and what materials and methods will most effectively help each individual ELL achieve their academic goals. In selecting students for additional computer science and robotics work, we ensured that one of the subgroups who had priority were our ML/ELL students. All grade and department leaders grades K-5 are on the Instructional Leadership Team (ILT team). They work together to deepen collaborative practices to strengthen teams, analyze data with an equity lens to monitor instructional focus and assist with adjusting school wide action plans.

Teachers use an online program called i-Ready for reading and/or mathematics that helps determine student's needs, personalizes their learning and monitors progress throughout the school year. The data is used to determine how best to support student learning. i-Ready's Personalized instruction provides students with lessons based on their individual skill level and needs, so they can learn at a pace that is just right for them. After taking both the pre and post test, the data is desegregated and used to drive instruction. Extra lessons are assigned in a particular domain for each student. It is differentiated by ability level and takes into account whether a student is an ELL or an ELL with an IEP.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

In both the ENL and DL classes, advanced literacies guide our work. In unit planning, teacher teams identify high leverage words and phrases connected to genre and Next Generation Learning Standards. This language is reinforced throughout the unit, and the expectation is that all classrooms across the grade have supports in the learning environment aligned to these plans. Student work is reviewed regularly to monitor students' ability to communicate using this language. Teachers embed protocols to foster language development. Protocols include Socratic seminars, Chalk Talk as well as AM and PM circles. The use of school wide protocols promotes students' ability to develop academic language. Teachers across all grade levels use read-alouds as a tool to model and teach into language development and skills aligned to specific NGLS standards

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

Teachers provide access to academic content areas and accelerated English language development. In core content areas, they are teaching language skills across the curriculum, by using home language whenever possible, emphasizing productive language, speaking slowly with increased wait time and differentiating instruction by using multiple modalities. ELLs that are entering, emerging and ELLs with IEPs have a hard time processing spoken language, so instruction is made visual using charts, graphs, graphic organizers etc. Instructions are written on the board and in some cases depending on the student instructions are on their desk. Challenging concepts are diagrammed and supported with pictures. Teachers practice modeling the steps of a process and showing students what a finished product should look like. This nonlinguistic representation improves comprehension for ELL students and helps them grasp concepts better. Small group work is incorporated to keeps students engaged. This helps students practice language with their peers in a low risk setting. It also helps when students are paired with ones that speak their native language. It's also important to honor the silent period until students feel confident to talk as well as allowing students to write in their first language will make them feel like they are participating in writing or math even if they can't read or write. Vocabulary instruction is incorporated in all core content areas. Certain vocabulary words are directly taught by either giving the direct meaning or the meaning in context, showing them picture supports and/or videos. Exposure to vocabulary is differentiated by omitting words that are not essential to understanding the larger topic at hand. Sentence frames are also used to practice with academic language. This shows students how to structure language in a formal way. They are posted in highly visual spots and require students to refer to them during whole class and small group discussions and in their writing. There is also constant communication with the ELL provider who works with students during stand alone and integrated instruction. Classroom teachers are in constant collaboration with the ELL provider to support students and build solid back and forth support. Based on student needs and depending on the subgroup students (ELLs and ELLs with IEPs), are receiving stand alone minutes the utilize targeted interventions such as Sound Sensible, Spire and Teachers College phonics to support academic language and student growth.

b. SIFE

In case we do have a SIFE student they will have access to grade-level texts and tasks. Teachers will craft entry points and the appropriate scaffolds so these students can engage with the grade-level content. We will create a rich, supportive learning environment and a coherent, consistent experience by supporting them to cultivate a sense of ownership and belonging in the school environment.

c. Newcomers

School-wide protocols, regardless of setting have shared and inclusive expectations. Possible placement in DL program is considered, if the home language is Spanish. Students are screened for targeted supports such as Sound Sensible, SPIRE, Great Leaps, and/or Heggerty. Our Newcomer Ells are ensured access to and engage with grade level content by using students real interests, connecting what is being taught to real life, providing students with choice and teaching students self monitoring skills. Visuals such as pictures, charts, graphs and videos are used when necessary. Students are encouraged to interact with each other by pairing them up with peer partners that speaks their language when possible. Opportunities are created for students to engage in sharing their home cultures and their own expertise to foster a positive attitude about their firsts language and learning experiences. Teachers help students to build background knowledge, target vocabulary development, increase access to grade level texts, use home language supports, and use peers as resources.

d. Long Term ELLs

NA

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

When designing teacher schedules, all teachers on the grade have the same core subject blocks at the same time, to promote our ability to flexibly program students in the least restrictive environment. ELLS with IEPs have the same access to the core and curricular materials as GE students do. Instruction is differentiated based on academic needs as detailed in their IEP. These students are flexed into their least restrictive environment based on data and classroom performance in both ELA and Math. This flexing allows students to experience the general education curriculum amongst their general education peers. Paraprofessionals are trained in SPIRE and Great Leaps to promote our ability to reach as many students as possible across multiple settings while remaining in classrooms. 4 out of 6 ICT classes have an ENL certified teachers so that students who are ELLs and/or ELLs with IEPs can remain within the classroom to receive mandate service. When possible, the ENL service provider pushes into classrooms. All self contained ELLs with IEPs are serviced through push-in/pull-out services depending on their academic needs in accordance with their IEP and their goals.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

Multilingual texts are incorporated into instruction to support the home languages spoken. The dual language classes are in the process of looking into implementing HMH's Arriba La Lectura that will support students with rich content and resources that support instructional goals. The Dual Language team meets monthly to assess program effectiveness based on how student respond and are developing within the program. Next steps are discussed and adjustments are made based on their findings. In the ENL classes, some supports include students sharing linguistc expertise by sharing how to say words in their home language, listening to a variety of music sung in different languages and helping them make connections with what they know in their language with new information in English.

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

NA

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

There are systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for ELL program models at our school.
Teachers attend professional development on co-teaching strategies while working on the needs of our ELLs as well as supporting language development. Teachers are allocated joint planning time to work on co-delivering instruction, assessing student work, collecting resources and reflecting on teacher practice. There is an emphasis on looking at curriculum and planning lessons, gathering materials to help integrate language and content instruction and looking at what worked or didn't. Administration also aides in providing resources, fosters a culture of collaboration and supports teachers as needed.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

Our school-wide focus is in alignment with Advanced Literacies. Teachers will be trained in using data to support the adjustment of Tier I instruction and targeted small group instruction. Administration receives support from the district (bi-monthly) in using assessment data to make adjustments to the professional learning plan to support Tier I adjustments.

Teachers that have ENL and Dual Language students are implementing data driven systems and structures in order to meet the needs of their students. A calendar of data dives has been created to progress monitor and make necessary adjustments. Teachers will be meeting once a month to discuss and communicate progress. Teachers will review the supports in place and consider how they can help their students during Tier I small group instruction. They will also review available i-Ready resources to support Tier II instruction.

Some professional learning topics will include an analysis of NYSESLAT Data and next steps, how to support Newcomers and building vocabulary and background knowledge with our ELLs.

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154 (15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

Teachers are offered professional development learning opportunities through the District and Central Offices office. They provide access to professional development that focuses on best practices in crafting and delivering instruction according to the needs of MLs/ELLs. Teachers are provided with access to grade level texts and tasks by creating high leverage scaffolds. Teachers that attend these training then turn key the information to other teachers and discuss next steps. Currently there in 1 teacher attending the ELL Liaison Meetings and professional development is being conducted by them to the rest of the staff.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

ELA
Acadience in grades K-2. Acadience allows us to target the specific needs of students. We have implemented Heggerty as part of the instructional core based on this data. Based on the results from I-ready, Acadience will be used to further drill down into specific areas of need for grades 3 & 4 to further target instruction.
Observation cycles in grades K-2 include reviewing Acadience data and providing next steps around the use of this data to adjust lessons and support targeted small group lessons.
I-ready is grades 3-5 is used to make Tier I adjustments and support small group instruction.

MATH
I-ready is used across grades K-5

Dual Language Program
Spanish Running Records

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

Intervention programs used:
ELA: SPIRE, Great Leaps, Sounds Sensible, double dose of Heggerty

Math: Great Leaps

These programs are offered in English. We have an AIS specialist who is bilingual in Spanish who utilizes speaking to students in their native Spanish language to support and develop English language development.

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

Acadience data in grades K-2 is used to target needs both for the adjustment of Tier I and small group instruction. To support the MTSS model, teachers must provide evidence of targeted cycles of support before engaging in the referral process. Acadience data is used as an additional screener for students in grades 3-5 to further determine area of need. If necessary, students are screened using SPIRE and sound sensible, and based on this data students will receive instruction using either SPIRE or Sound Sensible depending on where they score.

I-Ready data in grades 3-5 is used to guide instruction, analyze student performance and create lessons to identify individual and class-wide needs. This information helps create targeted interventions through small groups and also provides extra practice in struggling areas,

Teachers use he i-Ready to look at specific reports and tools for instructional groupings and can link directly to lessons that match student needs.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

ELA
- TCRWP running records for benchmarking and growth
- Spanish running records for dual language classes
- Student work from reader's notebooks in grades 3-5 and stop and jots from grade 2
- iReady which combines formative assessments with curriculum in reading and math, to support individualized instruction for learners
- Progress monitoring with Acadience (additional formative assessments for specific small groups of students to monitor progress in between formal windows)
- Pre and post unit assessments
- Short quizes
- Open ended discussions
- Peer assessments
- Class discussions

MATH
- Exit tickets
- Pre and Post unit assessments
- Short quizes
- Open ended discussions
- Peer assessments
- Class discussions

HLA Assessments
- classroom observations
- background information
- verbal reporting, retelling
- portfolios
- self assessments

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

Teachers use strategies to incorporate students' native languages into classroom instruction to increase their metalinguistic awareness. Students in the dual language program are assessed in Spanish. We use Teachers College running records to assess reading and comprehension skills in Spanish. Translated material are given when available, assessments have been given in home languages for math, also the use of bilingual dictionaries are offered.

For the DL programs we will consider using HMH Arriba la lectura end of unit modules to assess student's language skills in their HLA.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

We use the NYSESLAT and ELA scores (for upper grades) to help instructional design and to make curricular decisions. We also use the EDAT report to better design programs for ELLs and make data-driven decisions that accelerate achievement. From the data collected, our focus during this time will be to develop reading skills to improve vocabulary and language skills. We will also focus on writing skills to make connections between concepts and synthesizing information.

In order to evaluate the effectiveness of our ML/ELL programs, specific ELL students were selected to monitor their progress throughout the year. Reader's Notebooks are collected and analyzed for student growth and effectiveness. Teachers are provided with feedback on what was noticed and instruction is adjusted based on these observations.

The NYS Math Exam is used to measure student mastery of the Next Generation Learning Standards and determining if students are meeting their progress targets. These results inform instruction by highlighting specific student strengths and weaknesses, identifying areas where curriculum or teaching methods may need to be improved, and determining the appropriate level of support or interventions for individual students.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

NYSESLAT Administration Plan

The ENL Coordinator is responsible for:
- Ordering the exams
- Secure testing locations
- Create schedule for students to be tested with limited disruptions to their mandated hours
- Secure and train 5 ENL and/or common branch teachers to administer the exam

- Distribute exams and answer sheets to teachers on testing day
- Keep completed tests in a secure location
- Secure and train 5 staff members (separate from the testing ones) to score the exam
- Oversee the scoring of the exam
- Scan testing answer sheets
- Package and return all used and unused test booklets and materials
- Continue to provide push-in and/or pull-out services to ELLs

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

NA

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

Parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs are provided information about the three ML/ELL program models in the language the parent best understands. This orientation is either conducted one on one or in small groups with families speaking the same language. The orientation talks about program options, goals, and requirements, as well as New York State's learning standards, assessments, and school expectations. The parent's watch the Parent Orientation video in their native language and all questions are answered before they make their decision as to which model they prefer for their child.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note: this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

During the annual individual meetings some discussions include language development progress, NYSESLAT results, and goals and expectation of each individual child. Language development needs in all content areas are also discussed as well as available services and program entitlements The meeting is an opportunity for parents to meet individually with teachers, administrators, guidance counselor or ENL teachers, to discuss specific progress the child has made and services provided.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

During enrollment, families complete a Home Language Identification Survey to find out each family's primary spoken and written language preference. Then when we need to translate or interpret we use the Office of Language Access (OLA) to provide families with these services. We also provide written translations of all critical documents, including report cards, health forms, school event flyers, and special education documents. We use communication such as class DOJO to talk to parents and let them know what is going on in school, share any messages teachers have to inform parents, and to create a stronger connection between teachers, students, and parents to build a classroom community. All information can be translated on the spot. Parents can call school and speak with the parent coordinator or office staff, who have immediate access to on-demand over-the-phone interpretation services in over 200 languages.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

To ensure family empowerment, we want to be as inclusive as possible while embracing and valuing their diverse perspectives. We want to make time for individual families so as to meet their unique needs. We also want to integrate the families together by connecting and aligning them with an educational system that supports their needs and empowers families to support their children's success. This includes face-to-face meetings, either individual or in group, with parents/guardians as well as telephone conversations in their native language as well as written correspondence in their native language. This can include emails and ClassDojo with parents/guardians.

To foster family empowerment, schools can organize events that leverage family expertise, such as cultural sharing days or multilingual family advisory councils. To determine community needs, schools can use surveys, focus groups, and interviews conducted in families' home languages and analyze existing data like attendance records and test scores to identify specific challenges.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

The school provides translated materials, using multiple communication channels such as offering translation and/or interpretation services at meetings. We also work together with the ENL Coordinator, parent coordinator, guidance counselor and the secretaries to create a welcoming environment by asking families how they prefer to be contacted and making the information easy to understand. We work together to make all information accessible to our families.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

As a school, we build culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships through strategies like translating all communications and providing interpreters for meetings. When the parents association hosts meetings, they try and find guest speakers that reflect diverse backgrounds. We try to involving families as experts and decision-makers through initiatives like the school leadership team and parent corp.

Part VII: Additional Information

Additional Information

Include any additional information that is relevant to your LAP and would further explain and highlight how your school supports MLs/ELLs. This form does not allow graphics and charts to be pasted.

NA

Part VIII: ELL Identification Attestation and Principal Certification

Identification Plan

For additional information, refer to ELL Identification Attestation Professional Learning Module.

1. What are the titles of the members of your ELL identification team? Note: Members of the ELL identification team must be pedagogues.

Joanna Antoniou Tetro ENL Coordimator
Mary Luley SETSS/IEP
Patrisel Lafontaine Dual Language Teacher
Emmanuella Fradelakis ENL Teacher
Maria Archodis Assistant Principal
Rebecca Heyward Principal

2. Describe the structures and process in place for identification of ELLs year-round as required by the NYC DOE Policy & Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, including your school's identification plan for any incoming students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Include:

- How your school proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs,
- Who is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process, and
- School's plan for ensuring ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated instruction.

In order to proactively plan for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs, the ENL coordinator and the pupil accounting secretary schedule appointments with incoming students during a time that they are not servicing students. The ENL Coordinator, Joanna Antoniou Tetro is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process and ensures that in case any mandated hours of instruction are missed that they are made up with in the same week.

Principal Certification

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, I, attest that the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to, and staff are trained on the items listed below.

- The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).
- Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined:
  a. If a student has been in New York State public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.
  b. If a student has been outside of New York State public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL Identification Process as part of reentry.

- The home language of the student is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue.
  a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

- An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.
- Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.
  a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

- Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.
- Notification letters are sent to the parent/guardian in their preferred language.
  a. Parent is notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

- If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish Language Assessment Battery (LAB).
- Student with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources.
- If a student is a newly identified ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.
  a. The parent orientation meeting provides parents/guardians with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents/guardians are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

- ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.
  a. If the bilingual program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that bilingual program in accordance with NYC DOE transfer policies.
  b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a New Language and our school keeps track of parent selection so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

- Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).
- If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.
- Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in the students' cumulative files.

Chancellor's Regulation A-663 establishes procedures for ensuring that Limited-English-Proficient (LEP) parents of students enrolled in the New York City public schools are provide with a meaningful opportunity to participate in and have access to programs and services critical to their child's education. To this end, schools must review and complete the annual LTI Plan to address its language assistance needs consistent with the requirements of this regulation.

The LTI Plan requires information on the following:

- Name of person designated as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC).
- Identification and assessment of LEP parent population.
- Identification of Critical Communications and standing, in-person meetings throughout the school year that require language assistance services and how the school plans to respond to these needs.
- Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.
- Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

Designation of a LAC
Name of person designated and trained as the LAC.
At the start of each school year, each principal is required to designate at least one staff member to serve as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC), responsible for overseeing language assistance services within the school.

We have pre-populated the following information based on our records. Please confirm that the designated staff member(s) are your school's Galaxy-designated LAC(s) and provide the date(s) they attended the OLA Language Access Coordinator Training. Note that this training is in addition to the mandatory asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. If any information is missing, please provide the requested details.

As a reminder, LACs are internal staff designations and are not meant to serve as the primary point of contact for families regarding language access-related matters. The Parent Coordinator, or another designated staff member, should remain the main contact for families regarding all issues, including language access.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

Title III ELL Summary

Provide a summary of each program funded under Title III ELL for SY 25-26: For each program, describe:

- When the program takes place (i.e., after school, before school, Saturday academy)

- Activities ELLs will engage in and how these activities will enhance instructional opportunities for ELLs
- How ELLs will be grouped for instruction and specify the number of student groups. Include total number of student groups and total number of ELLs in each group, for each program
- How instruction will be delivered (e.g., team teaching, parallel teaching, etc.)
- How the program will be supervised and whether this will be funded by Title III ELL. Please note: If supervision will be funded using Title III ELL funds, you must include the supervisor's regular work day hours and the hours the supervisor will get paid per session.

After School Title III Program:

PS 17Q's Title III Program will provide English Language Learners with supplemental instruction in 2 day a week program. ELLS were invited with the target of students being entering and emerging students. The program will run from November - May. Delivery of instruction will be in English only. The program will run from 2:30 through 3:30 every Tuesday and Wednesday between the allowed dates and excluding holidays/vacations. The supplemental instruction will be administered by a total of 3 certified ENL and /or content specific teachers, that provide direct small group instruction to 35 ENL students in grades K, 1, 2, 3, and 4. Each grade band will have no more than 12 students in it.

For eligibility, we look at most current EDAT data, NYSESLAT data, ELA data, iReady and Acadience data. We are targeting students who are scoring lower on the reading and writing sections. Most recent data shows that students who have lower reading and writing scores are scoring higher on the listening and speaking sections. Our focus during this time will be to develop phonemic awareness skills and reading skills to improve vocabulary and language skills. We will also focus on writing skills to make connections between concepts and synthesizing information. We will target our focus even deeper by splitting up students in different sessions so we can target Entering/Emerging students.

The supplemental help and materials we use will focus on reading and vocabulary skills that are aligned and required to master the Next Generation Learning Standards specifically in the four modalities of the English language which are listening, speaking, reading and writing as well as the New Language Arts Progressions and Home Language Arts Progressions. Using ENL strategies, skills and methodologies, our teachers, will provide rigorous instruction and activities to promote English language proficiency. Teachers will provide equitable access to students that foster literacy skills, academic language and requisite content knowledge by grade level. Students will be exposed to texts that are detailed and rich in vocabulary. This will support oral language development and allow for students to have accountable talk and social interactions. Through these texts, we will foster group work while differentiating instruction. Other skills that will be reinforced include, authors purpose, drawing conclusions, figurative language, inferencing, main idea, prior knowledge, prediction, problem-solving, sequencing, word meaning, fact/details, moral/lesson and picture/word ID. This will help students develop English comprehension and fluency of oral language and reading skills. Basic and higher order thinking skills are incorporated into each lesson and vocabulary and language development are an inherent part of this program.

We will use Sound Sensible for our beginning or struggling readers that provides hands-on instruction in foundational skills like phonological awareness, alphabet knowledge and letter sound relationships.

Spire will be another component used in the program. It is a multi-sensory, intensive reading intervention program designed for our struggling readers and English Language learners. It uses a 10 step, systematic lesson plan that integrates phonics, phonemic awareness, spelling, vocabulary, comprehension and fluency. The goal is to instill a strong foundation in reading by breaking down skills and building on them through explicit sequential instruction.

Another aspect of the program includes the implementation of the Getting Ready for the NYSESLAT book for grades K through 4. Separate grade level instructional books will be used to provide maximum practice for this exam. These comprehensible instructional guides include activities in all performance developments for students on levels that include Entering, Emerging, Transitioning and Expanding. Students will be able to practice speaking, listening, reading and writing skills through broad-based content themes. Students will use individual student progress charts to track their achievements. These books reflect the format, content and item type of questions on the NYSESLAT exam. This will allow students to be fully prepared to score higher or proficient on the NYSESLAT exam.

We will also use the NYSESLAT Rehearsal Plus Instruction books levels A-E. These books are designed to mirror the NYSESLAT exam. The books first review an instructional unit, helping students become familiar with the test format and question types that students will encounter on the exam. There are also two rehearsal tests that measure students English language proficiency.

The ENL Coordinator will notify all ELL parents/guardians if their child is eligible to participate in the Title III program, conduct teacher workshops, send parent invitations/notifications in the parent/guardian preferred language and outreach to parents if students are not attending. Teachers will create a DOJO classroom to communicate with parents and take attendance. Progress will be monitored by weekly check-ins with the teacher and a review of student work. The goals and expectations of the program are that students achieve a higher level of proficiency on the NYSESLAT exam and/or proficient level of commanding on the NYSESLAT. This program and its materials will be at the cost of the Title III funds.

Separate grade level instructional books will be used to provide maximum practice for this exam. These comprehensible instructional guides include activities in all performance developments for students on levels that include Entering, Emerging, Transitioning and Expanding. - Describe how your school will maintain records of your school's Title III ELL funded program, including evidence of parent notification in their preferred languages, student attendance records, evidence of teacher certifications for teachers supporting the program, record of parent engagement activities, records of professional development activities, purchase orders and invoices to date. For additional information, please refer to the Title III ELL FAQ.

The ENL coordinator will maintain records of all students information, correspondence with parents and work completed in an office filing cabinet that remains locked at all times.

For eligibility, we look at most current EDAT data, NYSESLAT data, ELA data, iReady and Acadience data. We are targeting students who are scoring lower on the reading and writing sections. Most recent data shows that students who have lower reading and writing scores are scoring higher on the listening and speaking sections. We will target our focus even deeper by splitting up students in different sessions so we can target Entering/Emerging students together and Transitioning/Expanding students together.

In October, parents and/or guardians will received notices in their prefferred language to sign up for the after-school program. Phone calls and Class DOJO messages will be used as follow-up for parents who haven't returned their slips in the parents prefferred language.

Part C: Professional Development

Professional Development Summary

Provide a summary of your school's plan for professional development under your Title III ELL program. Please make sure to describe:

- Professional development to be provided,
- Activities that teachers will engage with by topic, and
- Whether the professional development provided will be funded by Title III ELL funds. Please note: If PD will be funded by Title III ELL funds, vendor cost is calculated as part of OTPS and must not exceed 20% of the total allocation; teacher per-session is calculated as part of PD and must not exceed 10% of the total allocation.

The 3 supplemental ENL teachers will attend professional development that will focus on ELA/ENL instruction. Professional support includes, two days of per session training two hours each (totaling 4 hours) at the cost of the Title III program. Professional support will take place in the beginning of November for the first session. The second session will be in the beginning of February. In the first meeting, teachers will develop an in-depth understanding of the resources that will be used to support the programs. The second meeting will be used to assess data and regroup students according to needs.

Professional development in November will include teachers designing and preparing an instructional program to develop skills in listening, reading, writing and speaking in English. Lessons will integrate academic literacy content appropriate for students age, grade level and English language skills. Teachers will become familiar in research-based early interventions that can prevent literacy difficulties before they turn into long-term challenges. Professional support will also include the implementation of vocabulary words to help improve comprehension through direct instruction and/or words in context. Lessons will integrate academic literacy content appropriate for students age, grade level and English language skills. Teachers will become familiar in research-based early interventions that can prevent difficulties before they turn into long-term challenges.

The second PD will be in February. Teachers will share best practices and will be provided with opportunities to work together to determine how to integrate these strategies into successful instructional supports for the duration of the the program.
We will use the expertise of our ENL coordinator, Joanna Antoniou Tetro who will serve as a staff developer to familiarize the teachers with the books and resources, as well as the implications for instruction so that the program is delivered by professionals who have been properly trained.

Teachers will also attend PD that will be provided by the District and Central Offices to develop a toolkit of methods to support ELLS in becoming stronger readers and writers. This information will be shared with the rest of the staff during ENL meetings.

Attendance, agendas and materials will be maintained and stored by the ENL Coordinator in a secure location. The in-house professional development provided will be funded by Title III ELL funds.

Rationale for Professional Development

Describe the rationale for the professional development to be provided. For each activity, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis (e.g., patterns and trends identified) that support the need for the professional development, and
- Data sources (e.g., school survey teacher responses, in-house teacher surveys, teacher observation data) used to justify the professional development.

The 3 supplemental ENL teachers will attend professional development that will focus on ELA/ENL instruction. This professional development is essential for teachers because it will improve instructional effectiveness, while directly supporting student success and academic achievement. Working together allows the teachers to share best practices and to stay current on what the students needs are. The purpose of these PDs are to improve student learning outcomes and enhance instructional effectiveness.

In the first meeting, teachers will develop an in-depth understanding of the resources that will be used to support the program. We will look at the materials we use and identify patterns and trends from how the students scored in each domain of the NYSESLAT exam. The FURBY allows us to look at this overview and plan grouping of students and lessons accordingly. Teachers will familiarize themselves in research-based early interventions that can prevent literacy difficulties before they turn into long-term challenges.

The second meeting will be used to assess data and regroup students according to needs. We will use classroom observations and student work to assess teaching practices and how well the students are engaged. Teachers will share best practices and will be provided with opportunities to work together to determine how to integrate these strategies into successful instructional supports for the duration of the the program.

We will use the expertise of our ENL coordinator, Joanna Antoniou Tetro who will serve as a staff developer to familiarize the teachers with the books and resources, as well as the implications for instruction so that the program is delivered by professionals who have been properly trained.

Teachers will also attend PD that will be provided by the District and Central Offices to develop a toolkit of methods to support ELLS in becoming stronger readers and writers. This information will be shared with the rest of the staff during ENL meetings.

Teachers to Receive Professional Development

Include information on the teachers to receive professional development. Please specify how all teachers working in the Title III ELL program will receive ongoing professional development related to the Title III ELL program.

Professional development in November will include teachers designing and preparing an instructional program to develop skills in listening, reading, writing and speaking in English. Lessons will integrate academic literacy content appropriate for students age, grade level and English language skills. Teachers will become familiar in research-based early interventions that can prevent literacy difficulties before they turn into long-term challenges. Professional support will also include the implementation of vocabulary words to help improve comprehension through direct instruction and/or words in context. Lessons will integrate academic literacy content appropriate for students age, grade level and English language skills. Topics to be covered

For each Title III ELL professional development activity, include topics to be covered.

Topics will include teachers being presented the instructional program to develop skills in listening, reading, writing and speaking in English. Teachers will be guided on how to integrate academic literacy content appropriate for students age, grade level and English language skills. Teachers will become familiar in research-based early interventions that can prevent literacy difficulties before they turn into long-term challenges. Professional support will also include the implementation of vocabulary words to help improve comprehension through direct instruction and/or words in context. Maintaining Records

Describe your school's plan for maintaining documentation (e.g., agendas, attendance sheets) of all professional development provided as part of your Title III ELL plan; please specify which activities were funded by Title III ELL funds.

Attendance, agendas and materials will be maintained and stored by the ENL Coordinator in a secure location. The in-house professional development provided will be funded by Title III ELL funds.

Part D: Family Engagement Activities

Family Engagement Summary

Provide a summary of your school's family engagement activities under your Title III ELL program. Describe the activities that families of ELLs will engage with by topic. Please make sure to include whether the activities will be funded by Title III ELL funds.
Please note: If family engagement activities will be funded by Title III ELL funds, vendor cost is calculated as part of OTPS and must not exceed 20% of the total allocation; teacher per-session is calculated as part of family engagement and must not exceed 10% of the total allocation.

To ensure family engagement, we want to be as inclusive as possible while embracing and valuing their diverse perspectives. We want to make time for individual families so as to meet their unique needs. Culture day is an annual event that helps explore the various cultures that make up of our school community. This event is held in the Spring and is hosted by parents and teachers. Everyone comes together as a community of diverse cultures to share through the generations a continued experience and understanding of what it means to be human. Celebrating the school's cultural diversity brings our learning community together while providing an opportunity to celebrate the richness and benefits we get from being such a diverse community. One of the greatest reasons for all of us to organize this celebration at our school is the opportunity it offers students, teachers and families to encounter one another in celebration while strengthening the academic connections to student's prior knowledge and background experiences.

Respect for All week will also host a variety of activities promoting acceptance and understanding by targeting diversity and acceptance amongst our school community. We are committed to keeping our families feeling safe, supportive and free of discrimination.

Attendance, agendas and materials will be developed and stored in a secure location by the ENL coordinator. The activities that will take place out of school hours will be at the cost to the Title III Funds.

Funding follows similar guidelines for Title III funds established by the Office of Multilingual Learners (OML) and can only be used to provide supplementary services to immigrant students, who may or may not be English Language Learners (ELLs).

Please note: Immigrant students are not necessarily English Language Learners (ELLs), and ELLs may or may not be immigrants. For the purpose of this funding, immigrant students are defined as individuals who were not born in any U.S. state (this includes the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico); and have not been attending one or more schools in any one or more states for more than three full, academic years (the months need not be consecutive).

Priority areas for the use of Title III, Part A - Immigrant Funds are as follows:

The program will target our immigrant students as well as our immigrant ELL students who are at the transitioning and/or expanding level.

The program is intended to provide explicit instruction to help students with the ELA and math state exam. Practicing for these exams is crucial because it will familiarize students with the format, build confidence, reduce anxiety, and identify knowledge gaps. The focus will be on studying the weaker areas for better performance and mastery of essential test taking skills for academic success.

Students will be grouped by grades. There will be a 3rd grade group, a fourth grade group and a fifth grade group. There will be about 10 - 12 students to a group. Instruction will be delivered by one teacher. Rationale for Title III Immigrant Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III Immigrant funded program:

For each program, include:

We looked at school wide data from our immigrant students when choosing students for the program. We also looked at state exam test scores where applicable as well as NYSESLAT test scores for our ELL immigrants to further determine need. We chose the students that were scoring one year below grade level.

We met with teachers to further discuss our findings as well as had conversations about what they are seeing in the classroom. Students were then chosen based on all this information.

Immigrant families were invited in the beginning of the school year to meet a variety of staff members that will be most helpful for them to know. Monica Reyes the guidance counselor, Joanna Antoniou-Tetro the ENL Coordinator and Shaquia Shepard the parent coordinator conducted need assessment surveys and family interviews to see where assistance was needed most. Families attended a meeting where they met with the parent coordinator and received their school email addresses and were guided on how to download and use DOJO for family and school communication. This took place in October on either a one on one or small group setting. We have had two separate clothing drives coordinated by Shaquia Shepard the parent coordinator, and the PTA in October and November that were for basic necessities, schools supplies, clothes, shoes and coats.

In late November, we invited families to get to know each other and other families in the community during our thanksgiving feast that was only open to our immigrant families.
