Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

Section 4: School Summary

Accountability Status

Accountability Status: LSI

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

At P226M, our mission is to ensure that every student achieves his or her potential through rigorous instruction that promotes high expectations for ongoing cognitive, social-emotional, and physical development, in order to become a lifelong contributing member of society.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

P226M is a special education cluster school comprised of ten sites housed in community buildings and schools. P226M serves students from 2.9-22 years of age with diagnoses including autism, emotional disturbance, intellectual disabilities, language delays, multiple disabilities, and hearing impairment. At P226M 51% of our students are Hispanic, 36% are Black, 6% are White, 4% are Asian, and 3% are other. In addition, 15.5% of students are English Language Learners. P226M strives to address the needs of our children and their families as they progress through our school from early childhood to the young adult ages. We believe that every child deserves a rigorous, quality educational experience in the least restrictive learning environment.

Briefly summarize the key initiatives your school will implement this school year.

In the school year 2025-26, P226M will continue our focus on writing. We focus on having our students with severe cognitive delays complete extended writing tasks. Students will follow the ELA units of study making sure at the end of a two-month unit, students had extended writing tasks. The goal is for students to write for different purposes and audiences over the year. Each student fulfills the same components of the task, but entry points for each student are based on individual needs and IEP goals.
Teachers will have a weekly, one-hour collaborative planning to develop lessons that will focus on the student's writing. Teachers will use Thinking Maps as a tool to develop their planning. During instruction, teachers will follow the workshop model.

What are the primary digital and/or print curricula/programs used for ELA and Math:

Indicate the content area, grade band and any adaptations made.

Content Area (Indicate ELA and Math Only)	Grade Band	Digital and/or Print Curricula/Program	Adaptations

Math	6-12	EveryDay Math
Math	K-5	Envisions
Math	6-12	Attainment

- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
2024-25 HMH Data has shown an increase in overall skills but not specifically accuracy and comprehension	New Curriculum requires teacher training to be implemented and adapted appropriately	increase student reading accuracy and comprehension

This includes utilizing Title I funding for at-risk speech and/or counseling services, all-staff training in supporting students with autism, sensory materials, summer institute geared at the development of executive functioning skills, and/or inclusion coaching support. Schools may also consider utilizing Title II funds to reduce the ratio of students with IEPs to typically developing peers in ICT classes.

Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Directions: Complete the chart and identify Tier 2 or 3 MTSS Academic supports. Any Tier 2/3 interventions should be in addition to the foundational work being done at Tier 1.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

Number of students in temporary housing who are:

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:
- Living in a hotel/motel:
- Other

*Note: In keeping with established practices regarding personally identifiable information, use the letter "s" to identify a number less than five (5).

We have 29 students in Temporary Housing

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

After outreach from parent coordinator on a monthly basis we will identify the needs of families living in temporary housing. We will use our funds to provide Items of clothing and shoes necessary for participation in classes. We will continue providing personal school supplies such as backpacks, notebooks, and devices such as internet and/or laptop/tablet. Parent coordinator in collaboration with teachers and administration will provide outreach to state agencies such as YAI, AHRC, and other organizations serving students with disabilities.
Either virtually and or in person, we will re-start our parent meetings, where counselors, related service providers and outside agencies will provide support and guidance to parents to access needed services for their children.

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

How many students in foster care are currently enrolled at your school? Provide a detailed breakdown of the social-emotional and academic supports available to them.

What targeted supports are in place for students in foster care, including those newly transitioning into the foster care system? How does your school ensure these students receive the necessary interventions to promote stability and success?

After analyzing historical demographic, attendance, and achievement data for students in foster care, what trends have emerged? How can these insights be used to improve the services and support provided to this population?

What specific strategies does your school implement to ensure students in foster care, particularly those in transitional grades, receive targeted Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) support? How do these strategies help address academic and behavioral challenges?

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the school community. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, the school will:

- actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents. When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

Does your school have a bilingual program (Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE)?

Yes

Provide the number of classrooms for each bilingual program, by grade, at your school for the 2025-26 school year. If submitted before the 2025-26 school year begins, this should be the anticipated number of classrooms based on anticipated enrollment. Each language and program model--Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE)--is considered a separate program. In the second column, please indicate if the program is General Education (GE), Integrated Co-Teaching (ICT) special education, Special Class (SC), or Mixed-Group Class (MGC) special education. If a classroom bridges two grades, list as 0.5 classrooms for both grades.
Please include the total number of classrooms for each bilingual program in the last column.

Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

For ENL instruction, we use an integrated (push-in) model whenever possible. Students are grouped by homogeneous proficiency levels. Students with no more than a three contiguous grades that are grouped together, and we follow student's IEP staff ratio when grouping. The work done during these sessions typically targets the specific needs of the students in a certain subject area. It is always connected to the work they are doing in their regular classroom and it is used as a time of intensive practice or skill development. This stand-alone model is used for students to be able to generalize and apply the information they are learning in one-on-one sessions back in the classroom.

Integrated ENL:

For ENL instruction, we use both the integrated (push-in) and stand-alone (pull-out) model. Using the integrated model, the ENL teacher and the classroom teacher collaborate and co-teach to implement adaptations for the student during whole class instruction. In this model, the ENL teacher spends blocks of time in the classroom with the mandated student(s) and his/her classmates. As the classroom teacher is instructing the full class, the ENL teacher is specifically targeting the goals of the ENL students. Both teachers plan collaboratively to provide the appropriate instruction for ENL students.

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)
Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

N/A

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

P226 will engage in a one-way Dual Language Bilingual Education model to develop bilingualism and biliteracy based on high proficiency levels in English and a partner language. ELL's will be grouped according to their home language, the class will be taught by one teacher with a bilingual extension who will teach in two languages (Spanish and English) and is fluent in both languages. Language instruction will be separated by content and/or day, while students engage and produce in the language of instruction, they can access and use their languages flexibly and strategically to use their entire linguistic and communication repertoire.

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

At P226M, we strive to have our K-8 students receive the CR Part 154 mandated minutes for ENL services at the beginner level (360 minutes) using both stand-alone and integrated model, as well as a minimum of one 45-minute period daily of interventions, imparted by special education classroom teachers. However, given that P226M is a multi-sited school with a high percentage of our ELL students on an entering level and 100% of our students with an IEP, these students are served to the fullest extent possible given staffing and location constraints, with ELLs grouped strategically in classes whenever possible so that integrated ENL is delivered most efficiently. Similarly, our aim for our high school students is to receive up to 540 minutes of ENL, using both models, as well as instructional interventions for a minimum of one 50-minute period daily by special education classroom teachers who have received Jose P. Training. Within the context of our multi-sites school organization and staffing constraints, our ENL providers group students in order to maximize the number of possible minutes.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

P226 will engage in a one-way Dual Language Bilingual Education model, with the BSE teacher providing ELA, ENL and HLA during the three-period literacy block. Additionally, students in the ENL program will receive ELA from their special education teacher and ENL from their ENL teacher via integrated and/or stand-alone.Since students' data is used to identify the language of allocation, primarily English language proficiency level, the language allocation for a particular grade/class can change year to year and within the school year as new arrivals enter the classroom throughout the year. Coursework and assessments will be used to assess time allocation and the results will fall within the ranges: Beginning (ENL Stand-alone & ENL Integrated: One unit of study in ENL:180 min), Emerging (ENL Stand-alone: 0.5 unit of study in ENL, 90 min/ ENL Integrated: One unit of study in ENL/ELA, 180 min.) or Transitional (ENL Integrated: 0.5 unit of study in ENL/ELA, 180 min) and all ENL teachers will teach using an integrated model during ELA instructional periods.

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

P226 will engage in a one-way Dual Language Bilingual Education model to develop bilingualism and biliteracy based on high proficiency levels in English and a partner language. ELL's will be grouped according to their home language and the class will be taught by one teacher with a bilingual extension who will teach in two languages (Spanish and English) and is fluent in both languages. ELL's in this program will have multiple opportunities to interact with non-ELL's during recess, mealtimes, dismissal and the various whole school activities held throughout the school year. Initially, the DLBE instructional day will follow the 80/20 percent model, with 80% of instruction being given in the students partner language and 20% given in English, with the goal being a move towards a 50/50 model.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

English/Spanish

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

We currently do not have any transitional bilingual education programs.

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

Our students receive instruction in English through ENL methodologies by special education teachers. Instruction is differentiated for each one of the students depending on their performance skills and their disability. Presently we have 20 ELL newcomers this equals 40.8% of our ELL population. The school plan for new ELL students entering the English Language School System includes providing a nurturing environment to facilitate language production via an experienced special education teacher and alternate placement paraprofessional that are familiar with bilingual and ENL techniques. These techniques are learned through in-house trainings, professional development opportunities offered at the District 75 office, and ongoing collaboration with ENL teachers. When possible, we also group students that share the same first language. This facilitates communication among students and helps assimilation to the school system. Strategies and instruction are focused around providing students with access to classroom instruction related to grade level standards, with adaptations as needed. Instructional materials include Core Curriculum resources in ELA, Math, Science, and Social Studies, Mayor-Johnson visual supports, technology devices for mandated students, and leveled libraries. Most materials are presented in English, translated with the support of the alternate placement paraprofessional who speaks their assigned students' home language. At P226M, we strive to create a rich, supportive learning environment and a coherent, consistent schooling experience for all ELLs. As our Developing and Long-Term ELL's have had years of exposure (a minimum of four years are needed to be considered Developing), they receive similar instruction to our Newcomers, modified to reflect their years of experience in the NYCPS system and targeted based on their NYSESLAT scores. When possible, we pair our Developing ELLs with Newcomers who share the same home language, allowing for a valuable experience for both students. In this model, the Newcomer ELL gets language support and a student perspective, while the Developing ELL is able to dive deeper into the content by breaking it down for a peer. Developing ELLs can also be paired with Long-Term ELLs and monolingual students in collaborative work, allowing them to learn from each other's points of view.

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

We currently have one student identified as SIFE. This Newcomer SIFE, will receive the same supports provided to the Newcomers ELLs.

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

40.8% of our current ELLs, 20 students, are considered Long-term. These students receive the same rich, supportive learning environment and coherent, consistent educational experience as our Newcomer and Developing ELL's. In addition, these students receive support in various areas including job sites, ADL, and community based instruction. Students in this subgroup have received years of language services, and as such, may find themselves at different points along the multilingual continuum, in regards to receptive and productive language, academic and social languages, or oral and written language. These levels will also be directly affected by the students IEP driven needs. For some students, the emphasis of instruction will shift from classwork to community-based learning, to prepare students for their post-secondary transitions, for others, the emphasis remains on academic language development.

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

We have 1 former ELLs (0.4%). This student receives additional support in various areas including job sites, ADL, and community based instruction as well as a minimum of 0.5 units of study (90 minutes) per week of integrated ENL instruction to monitor and support the students language development. The emphasis of instruction has shifted from classwork to community-based learning, to prepare students for their post-secondary transitions.

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

100% of P226M ELLs are considered at risk. There are currently 17 ELLs with 3 at-risk indicator, and 12 ELLs with 2, 6 with 4 and 4 with 5 at-risk indicators. These results are greatly influenced by students' language and processing deficits related to the their diagnosis of autism or intellectual disabilities.

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

There are currently 1 former ELLs with 4 at-risk indicator. These results are greatly influenced by students' language and processing deficits related to the their diagnosis of autism or intellectual disabilities.

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

Currently 43 of our 49 ELL's are identified as having Spanish as their first language. To support these learners, our students receive instruction in English through ENL methodologies by special education teachers. Instruction is differentiated for each one of the students depending on their performance skills and their disability. P226 supports these families using Class Dojo, which allows for communication in the families home language, translation services and through our bilingual parent coordinator, who is available to assist our families in both English and Spanish.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

42 of our 49 ELLs are Hispanic. Of our Hispanic ELLs, 4 are American Indian or Alaskan Native, 5 are Black, 6 are multiracial, and 25 are White. 7 of our 49 ELLs are non-Hispanic. Of our non-Hispanic ELLs, 2 are Asian, 4 are Black, and 1 is White. ELLs are being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education through the intentional selection and use of instructional materials. Technology supports, such as Boardmaker and digital cameras, are integrated into ENL and the content areas. Multi-sensory and multi-cultural materials are infused throughout all aspects of instruction. The classroom library includes a variety of books at all levels reflecting the backgrounds, needs and strengths of ELLs. P226 utilizes NYCPS culturally responsive curriculums, including Readtopia, Readtopia Go, Fundations, and Envision Math for elementary and HMH, Everyday Math and Equals curriculum for middle school and high school. In the high school, for those students ages 18 to 22, we utilize a culturally responsive Transition Curriculum developed by a group of P226M teachers. Components of the Syracuse Curriculum and other resources specifically designed to address the very special needs of our transitioning ELL students are also utilized. Additional ENL support is provided in areas including job sites, ADL, and community-based instruction. Culturally responsive community-based experiences, field trips, and inclusive Adaptive Physical Education complete the program for our ELL students.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

P226 has an ELP growth of 1. 4 students met ELP sufficient progress and 32 did not meet ELP sufficient progress. The largest factor impacting these results is that 100% of our ELLs are students with IEP's and the majority of P226 students are Alternately Assessed.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

The NYSESLAT results from Spring 2024 reveal that 23 ELLs scored at the entering level, 11 scored at the emerging level, 6 scored at the transitioning level and 0 students scored at the expanding level. This data shows that the scores of most of our ELLs are low due to language and processing deficits related to the students' diagnosis of autism or intellectual disabilities. The result of the NYSESLAT suggested that we needed to shift our focus to differentiating our instructional resources and communication strategies to better meet the needs of each individual learner.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

Most of our English Language Learners in grades 3-12 participate in the New York State Alternate Assessment (NYSAA) and in the ongoing P226M portfolio assessment. As a result, new assessment-based tasks are always being developed. These tasks are designed collaboratively by the special education teachers, related service providers, and the ENL teachers. To assess early literacy skills and to demonstrate literacy growth, our data is based on the ABLLs, DRA, Brigance, P226M Writing Continuum, student work, rubrics and updates to student goals in the IEP. ENL teachers meet with an administrator and a district ENL coach to review assessments, student work samples, and monitor progress toward individual annual goals. ENL teachers create portfolios to track student progress.

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

The NYSESLAT results from the 2023/24 school year reveal that 23 ELLs scored at the entering level, 11 scored at the emerging level, 6 scored at the transitioning level and 0 students scored at the expanding level. This data shows that the scores of most of our ELLs are low due to language and processing deficits related to the students' diagnosis of autism or intellectual disabilities. The largest factor impacting these results is that 100% of our ELLs are students with IEPs.

10. (For grades 9-12 only) Please review your data in the Insight Tool and STARS to answer the following questions:
a. How many ELLs are on-track towards graduation?

0 - The vast majority of P226 students work towards Skills and Achievement Commencement Credential, rather than a diploma.

b. How many ELLs in grades 11-12 have a documented postsecondary plan in STARS or ATS?

c. What targeted strategies and interventions are in place to support ELLs who are currently off-track to graduate in four years?

All of our ELL high school students are alternately assessed and will received instruction until 22 years old.

d. What specific strategies, engaging approaches, and interventions are implemented to support and retain students who are not on track to graduate within four years, ensuring they remain enrolled and are guided towards a successful graduation in the future?

All of our ELL high school students are alternately assessed and will received instruction until 22 years old.

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

P226 utilizes a variety of curricula to address the different needs of our students, including HMH, Readtopia Go, Everyday Math, Envision Math, Attainment, Passport to Social Studies, STEMscopes, Fundations, and Handwriting Without Tears. Instruction is differentiated in all content areas following the Next Generation Learning Standards to address the individualized needs of every learner.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

ELLs are considered in the schools instructional design through the assessments and curricula we adopt and the ways in which we adapt them. Administrators and school-based coaches attend trainings to assess and evaluate the appropriateness (racially and culturally sensitive material, linguistic supports, etc.) of new programs for our ELLs.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

We differentiate instruction in all content areas following the Next Generation Learning Standards to address the individualized needs of every learner. We utilize a variety of curricula to address the different needs of our students, including HMH, Readtopia Go, EveryDay Math, Envision, Attainment Passport to Social Studies, STEMscopes, Fundations, and Handwriting Without Tears. We have also created a Transition Curriculum for our students ages 18-22. We address the social skills of our students by implementing the 'Social Skills In Our Schools' Curriculum by Dr. Michelle Dunn, the P226M Universal Positive Behavior Support Protocols (CHAMPs), and Emotional Literacy. Teacher dialogue with parents and guardians include a discussion of students' home language literacy levels. This information strongly influences English Language Arts curriculum design and individualized language development strategies.

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

All of our students have IEP's and have been labeled with a disability. We differentiate instruction of all kinds in areas following the next generation learning standards to address the individual needs of every learner. We utilize a variety of curricula to address the different needs of our students, including HMH, Readtopia Go, Everyday Math, Envision, Passport to Social Studies, STEMScopes, foundations, and Handwriting Without Tears. We have also created a transition curriculum for students ages 18 to 22. These address the social skills of our students by implementing the 'Social skills in our schools' curriculum by Dr. Michelle Dunn, the P226M universal positive behavior support protocols (CHAMPs), and emotional literacy. Teacher dialogues with parents and guardians include a discussion of students' home language literacy levels and the strategies and/or materials used to promote understanding and communication. This information strongly influences English Language Arts curriculum design and individualized language development strategies.

b. SIFE

The same supports offered to Newcomer ELLs are also offered to SIFEs.

c. Newcomers

Presently we have 20 ELL newcomers. The school plan for new ELL students entering the English Language School System includes providing a nurturing environment to facilitate language production via an experienced special education teacher and alternate placement paraprofessional that are familiar with bilingual and ENL techniques. These techniques are learned through in-house trainings, professional development opportunities offered at the District 75 office, and ongoing collaboration with ENL teachers. When possible, we also group students who share the same first language. This facilitates communication among students and facilitates adaptation to the school system. Strategies and instruction are focused around providing students with access to classroom instruction related to grade level standards, with adaptations as needed. Instructional materials include Core Curriculum resources in ELA, Math, Science, and Social Studies, Mayor-Johnson visual supports, technology devices for mandated students, and leveled libraries. Most materials are presented in English, translated with the support of the alternate placement paraprofessional who speaks their assigned students' home language.

d. Long Term ELLs

We currently have 20 students who have been receiving ENL instruction for 7 or more years. These students receive additional support in various areas including job sites, ADL, and community based instruction. For these students, the emphasis of instruction has shifted from classwork to community-based learning, to prepare students for their post-secondary transitions.

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

Most the students at P226M are classified as having autism and are placed in classrooms with a student to staff ratio of 6:1:1 or 8:1:1. Three classrooms include students classified with Intellectual Disabilities and Emotional Disturbances, with a student to staff ratio of a 12:1:1. Students spend time with non disabled peers during the lunch period and during specific designated instructional times to promote appropriate social skills. ENL teachers schedule their sessions in order to push-in whenever possible and provide direct support in the classroom and integrate with classroom learning.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

Students recommended for bilingual instruction are placed in DLBE and monolingual classrooms with bilingual teachers/paraprofessionals that speak the students' native language. Our bilingual education program is designed to continue developing students' home languages, as well as English language skills, throughout schooling. Students are assessed using curriculum based assessment tools in their home language when available and teacher developed assessment tools when curriculum tools are not available, administered by our bilingual/ELL teachers with paraprofessional support.
Our ELL's have a rich academic and social knowledge on which to build, and we strive to create a rich, supportive learning environment and a coherent, consistent schooling experience for all. We accomplish this by cultivating a sense of ownership and belonging in the school environment, by encouraging the use of students' home languages in school and by including the families in meaningful engagement, learning and leadership opportunities within the school community. Our classroom libraries include a variety of books at all levels reflecting the background and language of our ELL students.

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

All of our students are exempt from the LOTE requirement due to their IEPs.

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

All learning tasks are designed collaboratively by the special education teachers, related service providers, and the ENL teachers. Twice a week, teachers meet in their teacher teams to evaluate student work and identify instructional next steps. ENL teachers meet monthly to evaluate student work and identify next instructional steps as it relates to ENL annual goals. Additionally, special education teachers, ENL teachers and coaches participate in monthly unit planning to collaboratively adapt and revise curricula, tasks and student assessment tools to best meet the needs of our ELLs. ENL teachers utilize the integrated (push-in) model in order to instruct ELL students in the context of the classroom. Both the ENL teacher and the classroom teacher plan collaboratively to provide appropriate instruction for ELLs that specifically targets their ENL goals.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

We continue with the support and professional development provided so teachers can master the teaching strategies, curriculum practices and behavioral approaches which address the particular needs of our ELL students. We provide staff support by encouraging attendance at District, City, and Statewide seminars focusing on the education of ELLs with severe disabilities. We also provide ENL trainings during our full days of Professional Development to all our staff members. Most members of our teaching staff have participated in the mandated 10 hours of Jose P. ENL staff development. Records are kept in the Main office with agendas and attendance records from their professional developments. ENL teachers collaborate with classroom teachers, paraprofessionals and related service providers to collaboratively plan ELA units and supplemental supports differentiated for individual learners using the Thinking Maps unit planning structure.

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154 (15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

Administration insures that all staff members registered for required professional developments offered through the District 75 Professional Development Course Catalogue, as well as through various community-based organizations. Information about CTLE ELL specific hours is communicated through the principal's weekly emails as well as through Unit Meetings, staff orientation and training days.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

Screening assessments include MAP and SANDi. Once a baseline is collected, ENL teachers meet regularly with an administrator and a district ENL coach to review assessments, student work samples, and monitor progress toward individual annual goals. Data on student performance is used to create new assessment-based tasks, designed collaboratively by the special education teachers, ENL teachers and related service providers, including councilors, occupational therapists, physical therapists and speech language providers.

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

P226 utilizes NYCPS targeted intervention programs to provide access to all appropriate interventions available. These include NYC Reads, which supports ELLs by providing phonics-based, science-of-reading-aligned instruction which includes focus on foundational skills, aiming to improve literacy for all students and NYC Solves, a quality, research-based mathematics curricula which supports all students, including ELLs, to build essential skills for career and economic security.

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

Once a baseline is collected, ENL teachers meet regularly with an administrator and a district ENL coach to review assessments, student work samples, and monitor progress toward individual annual goals. Data on student performance is used to create new assessment-based tasks, designed collaboratively by the special education teachers, ENL teachers and related service providers, including councilors, occupational therapists, physical therapists and speech language providers. Twice a week, teachers meet in their teacher teams to evaluate student work and identify instructional next steps. ENL teachers meet monthly to evaluate student work and identify next instructional steps as it relates to ENL annual goals. Additionally, special education teachers, ENL teachers and coaches participate in monthly unit planning to collaboratively adapt and revise curricula, tasks and student assessment tools to best meet the needs of our ELLs. ENL teachers utilize the integrated (push-in) model in order to instruct ELL students in the context of the classroom. Both the ENL teacher and the classroom teacher plan collaboratively to provide appropriate instruction for ELLs that specifically targets their ENL goals.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

To assess early literacy skills and to demonstrate literacy growth, our data is based on the ABLLs, DRA, Brigance, P226M Writing Continuum, student work, rubrics and updates to student goals in the IEP. ENL teachers meet with an administrator and a district ENL coach to review assessments, student work samples, and monitor progress toward individual annual goals. Most of our English Language Learners in grades 3-12 participate in the New York State Alternate Assessment (NYSAA) and in the ongoing P226M portfolio assessment. As a result, new assessment-based tasks are always being developed. These tasks are designed collaboratively by the special education teachers, related service providers, and the ENL teachers.

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

Our bilingual students are placed in BLSE/monolingual classrooms with alternate placement teachers/paraprofessionals who speak the students' native language. The alternate placement paraprofessionals through informal assessments evaluate students in their native language and with the collaboration of the ENL and special education classroom teacher design the instructional lessons to accelerate English language development. In addition, our bilingual special education students are again evaluated at triennial conferences with the SBST and a bilingual psychologist to ensure the appropriate placement.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

Most of the ELL population at P226M is not eligible to take standardized assessments. Instead they participate in the NYS Alternate Assessment. In the 2023-24 school year, 96% of ELL students in grades 3-12 who took the NYSESLAT also participated in the NYSAA. Students in alternate assessment do not take standardized tests due to the severity of their language and/or cognitive impairments, as the data collected would not be meaningful. Nonetheless, these students are required to take the NYSITELL and the NYSESLAT, including those who are served as per their IEPs. Consequently, the results of the NYSITELL and the NYSESLAT do not reflect the true abilities or progress of our students. The NYSAA scores from these ELLs students range from 3 and 4. This means the these students meet the Alternate Grade Level Achievement.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

In the months leading up to NYSESLAT, an assistant principal communicates information about relevant workshop opportunities to ensure that all staff involved in the administration of the NYESLAT are properly trained. An assistant principal uses one of the regularly scheduled ENL cohort meetings to plan with ENL teachers for the administration of the NYSESLAT. Materials are organized, student accommodations are reviewed and a recordkeeping documents are created to monitor assessment dates for each student. We brake up NYSESLAT administration into multiple days and ENL teachers make rounds across our multi-sited school in order to minimize student fatigue. Scoring is conducted by a group of trained pedagogues, including our 2 ENL teachers, our instructional coach and an Assistant Principal. During collaborative team meetings that take place before the start of the testing period, ENL teachers provide classroom teachers with materials and resources to utilize with ELLs during the testing period. During NYSESLAT testing, both ENL teachers prioritize testing and immediately resume services as soon as all testing is complete.

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

All newly identified ELL families attend a P226 intake interview, given by a lead teacher and ELL teacher. At this intake, the various types of program models and explained and families as well as the systems in place to support both families and students. Parents are given information on Class Dojo, which is used to communicate in their home language, allowing them to ask questions that may arise after the orientation. The lead teacher provides access to all NYCPS ELL resources including parent brochures and orientation videos. In addition, parents are encouraged to attend P226 family information sessions, with translation services on site, during the school year to support their child's progress during their time at P226.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note: this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

P226 parents are provided multiple opportunities throughout the school year to meet with their child's ENL teacher. Parent teacher conferences, held twice a year, always include the ENL teacher. ENL teachers are mandated to attend their students IEP meeting to discuss progress and goals for the coming year. In addition, parents are invited to an annual individual parent meeting with the ENL teacher to discuss continued goals for the program, their child's progress and the results of any testing that has taken place. Parents are also directly connected to their child's ENL teacher on Class Dojo which allows for communication in their home language. Aside from these individual meetings there are many other opportunities for parental involvement. We host monthly "Family Friday" visitations to the classroom, Parent Association events, School Leadership Team meetings, Art Shows, a Science Fair, and our annual Spring Fling. DOE translation services and funding are utilized to translate school-specific written material into the home language of our families, to provide them with full access to all school publications and information sources.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

To ensure maximum parental involvement, P226 utilizes DOE translation services and all official communications from the school are sent in the families home language. In addition, P226 uses Class Dojo as a daily communication tool to contact parents. Class Dojo offers an automatic translation tool, allowing parents to receive all class communication in their home language, with their responses also automatically translated.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

Parental involvement is a key element in P226 educational philosophy and as such, we offer many avenues of engagement for all parents, including families of ML/ELLs. Parent events, including field days, spring fling, science and social studies fairs, worksite fairs and arts showcases are held throughout the year, with parent involvement encouraged. In addition, ML/ELL parents are involved during the Title III program. Two Workshop sessions are provided for parents of students who participate in the Title III program. These parents are invited to attend the instructional sessions with their child. Our ENL teacher, in collaboration with the visual arts teacher supported by our parent coordinator, provides direct training to parents by modeling in the classroom with the students during the sessions of the Title III after school program, in order to help parents create a consistent approach to language practice by using ENL strategies at home and school. In this way, parents can practice with their children in English and their native language.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

All parents are encouraged to engage in as many P226 family leadership committees as possible, including the school leadership team and Community Education Council. To facilitate this involvement, all communications are sent in the families Home Language and translation services are available for those families interested in joining the school leadership committees. P226 believes that partnership with our families is the best route to success for all our students.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

P226 has partnered with Advocates for Children of New York, YAI, OPWDD and The Children's Aid Society among others.

Part VII: Additional Information

Additional Information

Include any additional information that is relevant to your LAP and would further explain and highlight how your school supports MLs/ELLs. This form does not allow graphics and charts to be pasted.

Part VIII: ELL Identification Attestation and Principal Certification

Identification Plan

For additional information, refer to ELL Identification Attestation Professional Learning Module.

1. What are the titles of the members of your ELL identification team? Note: Members of the ELL identification team must be pedagogues.

The ELL identification team is comprised of trained teachers and administrators. At the start of each school year, an administrator and our 2 ENL teachers attend a district professional development for ELL Compliance where they receive training on the ELL identification process. Training is then provided to each site coordinator, and remaining administrators during unit meetings and ENL cohort meetings.

2. Describe the structures and process in place for identification of ELLs year-round as required by the NYC DOE Policy & Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, including your school's identification plan for any incoming students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Include:

- How your school proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs,
- Who is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process, and
- School's plan for ensuring ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated instruction.

At P226, intake interviews are conducted by site-based Lead teachers with ENL teacher support whenever possible. Interviews, including Home Language Identification Surveys, are typically scheduled for times when ENL is available to participate, however if required, Lead teachers are available throughout the school day to meet the needs of our ELL parents. Once identified as an ELL, an ENL teacher will contact the families to go over program details, requirements and expectations.

Principal Certification

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, I, attest that the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to, and staff are trained on the items listed below.

- The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).
- Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined:
  a. If a student has been in New York State public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.
  b. If a student has been outside of New York State public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL Identification Process as part of reentry.

- The home language of the student is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue.
  a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

- An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.
- Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.
  a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

- Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.
- Notification letters are sent to the parent/guardian in their preferred language.
  a. Parent is notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

- If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish Language Assessment Battery (LAB).
- Student with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources.
- If a student is a newly identified ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.
  a. The parent orientation meeting provides parents/guardians with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents/guardians are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

- ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.
  a. If the bilingual program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that bilingual program in accordance with NYC DOE transfer policies.
  b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a New Language and our school keeps track of parent selection so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

- Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).
- If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.
- Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in the students' cumulative files.

Chancellor's Regulation A-663 establishes procedures for ensuring that Limited-English-Proficient (LEP) parents of students enrolled in the New York City public schools are provide with a meaningful opportunity to participate in and have access to programs and services critical to their child's education. To this end, schools must review and complete the annual LTI Plan to address its language assistance needs consistent with the requirements of this regulation.

The LTI Plan requires information on the following:

- Name of person designated as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC).
- Identification and assessment of LEP parent population.
- Identification of Critical Communications and standing, in-person meetings throughout the school year that require language assistance services and how the school plans to respond to these needs.
- Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.
- Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

Methods for the school to solicit and implement feedback on its provision of language assistance services.

Designation of a LAC
Name of person designated and trained as the LAC.
At the start of each school year, each principal is required to designate at least one staff member to serve as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC), responsible for overseeing language assistance services within the school.

We have pre-populated the following information based on our records. Please confirm that the designated staff member(s) are your school's Galaxy-designated LAC(s) and provide the date(s) they attended the OLA Language Access Coordinator Training. Note that this training is in addition to the mandatory asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. If any information is missing, please provide the requested details.

As a reminder, LACs are internal staff designations and are not meant to serve as the primary point of contact for families regarding language access-related matters. The Parent Coordinator, or another designated staff member, should remain the main contact for families regarding all issues, including language access.

Describe the resources and processes your school will use to communicate with parents who speak a language other than English during an emergency (e.g., lockdown, fire, student attendance, nurse/hospital visit, etc.), or when a parent needs to contact the school in an emergency, ensuring communication is in their preferred language.

The P226M parent coordinator, all teachers and administrators are signed up for Class Dojo. Information is communicated via Class Dojo allowing multiple families members to receive live updates from staff and automatic written translations in their home language. The parent coordinator provides translation services for Spanish speaking parents at each meeting and to communicate student specific events. For languages not spoken by a school staff member, NYCPS Interpretation Service (phone) is utilized. Parents utilize private messaging with the Class Dojo app, which translates messages between English and parents' home language, for direct communication with the school. Parents contacting the school via telephone will be connected to a conference call with the NYCPS Over the Phone Interpretation Services.

Part D: Staff Awareness

Staff Awareness

Plan to ensure staff awareness of language access requirements and available resources.

1. Describe how your school will ensure that all staff members complete the required asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform, and are familiar with the Best Practices for When to Provide Translation of Critical Written Communications to Parents and Best Practices for When to Provide Interpretation for Critical Oral Communications with Parents. Additionally, explain how your Galaxy-designated LAC will disseminate future language access resources and updates to all staff members.

All P226 staff members complete NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff as mandated during the school year. Participation is monitored by administration and time is provided for staff to complete trainings as required by NYCPS guidelines. Best practices guides are included in the P226M staff handbook which is distributed at the beginning of every school year. The parent coordinator attends workshops on Chancellor's Regulation A-663 compliance and implementation. She distributes pertinent information and documentation (i.e. posters) to each site and staff member regarding translation services through the DOE. The school-based coach also communicates the goals of Chancellor's Regulation A-663 during staff training. The parent coordinator is also available throughout the school year to assist staff in translating written documents. During the Title III program, staff will complete a binder each week, containing records of student attendance, staff attendance, topics covered and parental participation. All future Language Access Resources will be shared with ELL teachers, unit coordinators and any other staff members required as soon as they become available at our biweekly unit meetings.

Part E: Parental Notification

Parental Notification

Provision of notice to parents on the available language assistance services.

1. Describe how your school will inform parents about available language assistance services in their preferred language. Include any of the following:

- Translated signage
- Brochures, flyers, or letters shared with parents
- Parent engagement events where language assistance services are highlighted (e.g., PTA meetings, international parents' night, etc.)
- Messaging applications

- Language Access for NYC Public Schools Families brochure

All information, including translation signage, posters and flyers, is posted at each P226M site and distributed to parents as needed. The parent coordinator also informs parents of resources that enable them to receive information in their preferred language during parent teacher conferences, IEP meetings, school-wide events, and as needed. All P226M teachers and administrators are now signed up for Class Dojo. As of June 2025, 97% of parents were also signed up and able to receive live updates from staff and automatic written translations in their home language. Additionally, the Parent Coordinator will continue to organize events for parents where information about the school and other related issues are relayed. We plan to continue including such information on the P226M web site, as well as increasing class, school and NYCPS communications delivered through Class Dojo, allowing for easy access and translation.

Part F: Monitoring

Monitoring

Methods for soliciting and implementing feedback on language assistance services.

1. In addition to the feedback received from parents via OLA's Translation & Interpretation Feedback Survey, describe the methods your school will use to gather feedback from parents regarding the language assistance services they receive in their preferred language.

We will obtain feedback from parents via P226M targeted end-of-year surveys and qualitative comments and recommendations. We also offer the parent survey via language access. The SLT team and parent coordinator work together to meet with parents and provide open forums for feedback with translation services. P226 also holds various Parent Training Events throughout the school year. During these events, parental feedback is solicited through provided translators, regarding best practices to improve language services within our school.

2. How has your school worked to improve its language assistance services? Share any feedback results and outline your plans for further improvements in the upcoming school year.

P226M has implemented feedback from parents regarding language services by continuing the procedure that parents expressed to be most useful and convenient, the Class Dojo application, which can be accessed on a computer or on a mobile device, provides translation services and live updates between families and all staff members. Next year, we will increase communication updates on class dojo to weekly posts, all major school wide, District and NYCPS events as well as site specific family events. P226 will continue our Parent Training Events throughout the school year, following positive feedback from parents. During these events, parental feedback is solicited through provided translators, regarding best practices to improve language services within our school.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

Title III ELL Summary

Provide a summary of each program funded under Title III ELL for SY 25-26: For each program, describe:

- When the program takes place (i.e., after school, before school, Saturday academy)

- Activities ELLs will engage in and how these activities will enhance instructional opportunities for ELLs
- How ELLs will be grouped for instruction and specify the number of student groups. Include total number of student groups and total number of ELLs in each group, for each program
- How instruction will be delivered (e.g., team teaching, parallel teaching, etc.)
- How the program will be supervised and whether this will be funded by Title III ELL. Please note: If supervision will be funded using Title III ELL funds, you must include the supervisor's regular work day hours and the hours the supervisor will get paid per session.

During each session of the program, the students will work to create a piece of art based on a theme (for example, principals such as balance, emphasis, unity, movement, proportion, variety and pattern or elements like line, shape, color, value, form, space and texture) or artist (such as Fred Tomaselli (Collage), Hilma af Klint (Mixed Media Collage), En Ewamura (Sculpture), Victoria Villasana (Photography/Collage), Ugo Rondinone (Sculpture), Sam Gilliam (Painting), Gelli (Printmaking and Plate Transfer Prints) that the staff have studied during the virtual trainings provided by Google. Both teachers will utilize ENL methodologies, supporting strategies and specific writing activities designed to foster English language acquisition. Art books from Knowledge Industries will be used as a resource to support instruction. All instructional activities will complement ENL services required under CR Part 154, which our students are receiving during the regular school day. The groups will consist of 12 ELLs with 6:1:1 instructional ratios will be divided into 2 instructional groups of six students each and the teachers will team teach to deliver instruction. The program will be supervised by an on-site AP who will be paid through the Title III program. P226M will use a number of assessment tools and rubrics in order to determine the success/impact of the support provided to our students. Bulletin boards will showcase art work and instructional activities from the program.

Rationale for Title III ELL Funded Programs

Describe the rationale for each Title III ELL funded program. For each program, include:

- Qualitative and quantitative data analysis that support the need for program, and
- Data sources used to justify the need for the program

As a District 75 school, 100% of P226M students have an IEP, 100% of our students receive speech therapy and the majority of our students are non-verbal or have severe language delays and require specialized systems to support their communication. ELL students succeed when instruction is focused on communication (Krashen, 2006) and the Title III program is designed to develop students' vocabulary and expressive language skills in English using art as a motivation and delivery strategy. The rationale for choosing this population is to reach students with significant communication needs by utilizing a number of creative approaches embedding ENL strategies in the areas of literacy and visual arts in order to extend participating students' reading, writing, speaking and listening skills. We have found that art is a great motivator for students to learn core subjects. This multifaceted approach will be the basis of the P226M Title III plan, in order to facilitate students' acquisition of language/communication skills

Students and Grade Levels to be Served

For each Title III ELL funded program, describe the students that will be served. Include:

- Total number of ELLs for each program,
- Grade levels for ELLs in program, and
- ELL Subgroups (e.g., Newcomer) and/or proficiency levels (e.g., Entering, Emerging, etc.).

P226M's Title III program will service 12 ELLs with a 6:1:1 ratio in grades 3rd, 4th and 5th and will be open to all ELL subgroups.

Schedule and Duration

For each Title III ELL funded program, include:

- Start and end dates/months,
- Total number of sessions,
- Days of the week the program will be offered, and
- Time and duration of sessions.

The students participating in our program are from our upper elementary site (P226M@P185) in Upper Manhattan. The program will consist of 17 two-hour sessions that will take place on Wednesdays from 3:00pm to 5:00pm from January 2026 to June 2026 (excluding holidays and school closures). An administrator will be on hand to supervise all sessions and will be remunerated from 3:30pm to 5:00pm. The administrator's regular work day ends at 3:30 pm.
