Section 1: Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Overview of Comprehensive Education Planning

Comprehensive Education Planning (CEP) is a structured, data-driven process that guides schools in assessing their needs, identifying areas for growth, setting strategic goals and implementing targeted actions to improve student outcomes. Collaboratively developed by the School Leadership Team (SLT) in accordance with the requirements of Chancellor's Regulation A-655, the CEP meets New York State Education Department (NYSED) requirements under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and aligns with NYC Public Schools' (NYCPS) system-wide priorities. By engaging all stakeholders—school leaders, teachers, families, students and community members—schools can create a data-informed, equity-focused roadmap for student success and continuous improvement.

Schools should focus their CEP on the five system-wide priorities below, connecting their planning to the data discussions and conversations with stakeholders held as part of the school's needs assessment:

- Priority 1: All students learn to read well
- Priority 2: All students are physically and emotionally safe
- Priority 3: All students have a high-quality academic experience
- Priority 4: All students graduate college and career ready and have a strong plan and pathway to economic security
- Priority 5: All districts and schools are more inclusive and responsive for parents and families, including having more families choose NYC Public Schools

The Education Planning Process

The CEP follows an equity-driven, continuous improvement cycle, rooted in the system-wide priorities. This begins with a comprehensive needs assessment of the school's most current data to identify priority needs and root causes. Next, the SLT establishes specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and timely—SMART goal(s) aligned to each priority and determines targets to measure progress toward meeting the annual goals.

The SLT and instructional leaders define key evidence-based key strategies, professional learning activities and parent, family and community empowerment efforts. They monitor the implementation of those strategies and activities and track progress through measurable targets. Then, the SLT aligns the school-based budget with human and instructional resources to support action plans.

As schools set goals, develop key strategies, and plan action steps, they provide opportunities for all children to meet NYSED's proficient and advanced levels of student academic achievement. These include evidence based instructional strategies that address the educational needs of historically underserved populations and tackle structural inequities. Schools indicate how the plan addresses the needs of Multilingual/English Language Learners (ML/ELL) through development of the school's Language Allocation Policy (LAP) & Title III Application (if applicable) and the Language Translation and Interpretation (LTI) Plan, that are required as part of the CEP. Schools also address the needs of Students with Disabilities (SWD) through the High Quality Inclusive & Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities section of the plan. SLTs also develop a plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absenteeism.

Guidance on Conducting a Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Directions: Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment for each Priority. The information below provides guidance for reviewing and analyzing student and school performance trends to uncover root causes for low student achievement.

1. Review Multiple Data Sources: Use the most current and available information including, but not limited to, the following sources of formative and summative data, as applicable:

- Qualitative and quantitative data, including enrollment and class size trends
- 2024-25 ESSA Accountability Data
- Instructional Leadership Framework (ILF), Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) Inventories, and NYC School Survey results
- Quality Review Reports, NYSED and NYCPS CSI or A/TSI Support Visits, Receivership Quarterly Reports, and Diagnostic Tool for School and District Effectiveness Framework (DTSDE)
- NYC School Quality Guide, Insight, New Visions, NWEA MAP and/or other formative assessment data, IEP Review Survey Data, Progress on IEP Goals Data, Program (SESIS-STARS Linkage) Reports, Mandated (Related) Services Reports, and NYCPS Tools for Understanding Your Data for student subgroup information

2. Analyze Data Trend(s) to Identify Areas of Strength and Need: Identify data trends by grade, cohort, and content area(s) to surface gaps and inequities. Compare data sets to identify instructional and school practices that are impacting student performance. Guiding questions to consider:

- What does the data reveal about improving and declining student performance trends within grades, cohorts, and student subgroups?
- What inequities are evident between highest and lowest performing student subgroups? Which subgroup(s) scored at Level 1 based on NYSED ESSA accountability indicators?
- What does the data suggest regarding the effectiveness (or ineffectiveness) of current school programs, practices, and/or strategies/initiatives? What areas may need to be strengthened?
- Are there any differences in student performance between program delivery models for ML/ELL and SWD? (e.g., for special education: special class, ICT, SETSS, related services only; for ML/ELL: Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) vs. Dual Language, etc.)
- How does delivery of instruction factor into data trends? What are the implications for teacher quality and professional learning?
- What inequities in special education referral and school disciplinary practices (e.g. suspensions, removals) are evident between student subgroups with IEPs?

3. Identify Root Cause(s): After analyzing the data, engage in a process for uncovering root causes or contributing factors for low student and school performance. Develop theories or hypotheses to explain why these needs exist and why your school is getting its current outcomes. Root causes could be related to gaps and inequities in areas such as curriculum & instruction, school systems & structures, student support services, school climate & safety, and family & community engagement. Focus on the causes, rather than the symptoms. Use the 5 Whys Method or other methods for identifying root causes. Consider the questions below:

- What theories or hypotheses explain the current student and school outcomes?
- Are there root causes specific to certain subgroups, grades, cohorts, or content area(s)?

Additional resources and supports are available below.

- Use this CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to help your SLT and stakeholders identify appropriate data sources, data trends, root causes and priority needs.
- For guidance and best practices on engaging stakeholders in a comprehensive needs assessment and root cause analysis, see this deck.
- A current list of all CEP/Title I resources can be found on the iPlan Portal Public Resources Page.

School Summary

Directions: Complete this CEP Summary to serve as the "at-a-glance" narrative that provides contextual information about your school's unique characteristics. This summary and the entire Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) should be shared with your school community. Please note that this summary and the CEP will be made available to the public through the iPlan Portal, an online space where school stakeholders can go to collaborate in the development of the school's education plans.

Provide your school's mission statement:

We create an atmosphere of high expectations and academic excellence which emP.O.W.E.R.s students by incorporating their interests and tailored instruction with a curriculum anchored in collaboration, critical thinking, problem solving and 21st century skills.

Develop a narrative summary that includes contextual information about your school's community and its unique/important characteristics and partnerships:

Include demographic information about your school's student population.

277Q is a District 75 program comprised of 12 sites throughout Queens consisting of 107 classes. Our students span grades K-12 and we also service students until the age of 22. Of our total 848 students. 19% of students are in 6:1:1/6:2:1 classrooms, 3% are in AIMS classes, 30% are in 8:1:1 classrooms, 38% are in 12:1:1 classrooms and 11% are in inclusion settings.

277Q was founded with a Structured Teaching model and aspects of structured teaching are consistent across classrooms depending on the need of the students. Visual schedules are a key characteristic of our classrooms that support effective executive functioning and minimize off-task behaviors which may arise during transitions.

- 100% of our teachers scored effective or highly effective in 2A: Creating an Environment of Respect and Rapport on the Danielson Rubric. We utilize a variety of other pedagogical strategies and programs to engage our students which include:
-Explicit reading comprehension instruction for all elementary and middle school students in our 8:1:1 and 12:1:1 classrooms through Into Reading curricula.
-An intensive Verbal Behavior program in our elementary 6:1:1 classrooms through a partnership with Re-Think and district-level BCBA for the AIMS program.
-The use of EfL and job site training in our Middle School and High School classrooms to ensure students have the key "must have" skills to advocate for themselves and prepare for post-school life. Some of our in-house job training programs include a working Cafe, a mock studio apartment, a Riverview SWAG shop, horticulture class, an iced coffee cart and a copy center. We also have job off-sites at locations including Old Navy, Costco, Pizzeria Uno, and St. Mary's Church. We also utilize PAES curricula for students who are not ready to engage in vocational tasks so they can practice and determine their interests and aptitudes.
-Into Reading, Into Literature, Fundations, Readtopia, and Fountas and Pinnell Running Records are utilized to drive literacy instructional decisions both for individual students and on a school-wide level. Fountas and Pinnell Shared Reading, Guided Reading and Reading mini-lessons are utilized in all 8:1:1 and 12:1:1 classrooms to provide access to Standards Based, rigorous literacy instruction.
- We stream Fundations elementary classrooms to group students across site/ratio according to level at two of our elementary schools.

-Language for Learning for both students who demonstrate readiness in our 6:1:1 classrooms to prepare to move LRE and as an intervention for our 8:1:1 and 12:1:1 students who struggle with comprehension as evidenced by Continuum and Running Record data.

- We engaged in several arts partnerships including CEI, EPIC Players, Queens Theatre, Musical IQ, Inside Broadway and Arts Horizon.

-EnVision Math is utilized in all 8:1:1 and 12:1:1 classrooms to ensure rigorous access to Standards based math instruction. Digital components have been developed and tailored to support technology use for both remote and in-person students.

-Our school values collaboration and has a model to ensure all teachers have a voice in decision-making which includes providing structured time during the school day as well as engaging a large number of diverse staff members on other goal-specific teams. These opportunities include:

-Inquiry teams which focus on our ILF priority area and allow 100% of teachers time to analyze site-based and school-wide data and explore a problem of practice through professional texts and action research. Many school-wide systems and programs have been adapted as a result of this work including our use of the EfL curriculum and adoption of the Reading and Writing Continuum for school-wide literacy data collection.

-Our Curriculum team which meets a minimum of once a week and which consists of related service providers, teachers, paraprofessionals and administrators who represent all sites and populations who develop our yearly scope and sequence across subject areas and provide adapted digital and print resources to compliment all units and lessons. Feedback from site-based teams is gathered from surveys multiple times throughout the year and is represented in all unit plans and curriculum decisions.

-Our Equity Team which consists of related service providers, teachers, paraprofessionals and administrators who represent all sites and populations meets bi-monthly to provide resources, professional development and suggest school-wide improvements. In the 2021-22 school year, this team facilitated was featured on 277Q's own Riverview Revue where cultural monthly themes were celebrated each week through read alouds and videos shared by both staff and students. This type of representation ensured representation of all student and staff cultures in text and lessons.

-Our Grant Writing team which meets bi-monthly utilizes survey feedback from staff and families to apply for grants to widen opportunities for our students. Recent grants have included Lowes and Plant Learn Grow for gardening programs including a greenhouse improvement project at 485, the Reso-A grant, and the Re-Imagine grant. The Re-Imagine Schools grant allowed us to create a fully functioning apartment within our high school site for students to work on independent living and transition-based skills. The Reso-A grant allowed 277Q to update their current technology and the greenhouse at one of our sites at 485.

-Our School Improvement Team which consists of our Student Data and Special Events Coordinator, our Technology Coordinator and our School-Based Coach meet weekly to plan and implement CTLE approved professional development. In the 2023-24 school year, they provided necessary professional development to staff members to assist in the appropriate implementation of the different curricula offered at 277Q. Professional development was also supportive in providing targeted assistance to 277Q staff members.

Priority 1 Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
MAP Growth scores from K-2 students decreased by 27 points from the 2023-2024 to the 2024-2025 school year.	Incoming K students, new teachers	PD for teachers on testing, targeted skill gaps for students, embedding those skills into IEP goals with fidelity.

Priority 1

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for literacy outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for Literacy

- Implement the strategies outlined in NYC Reads, including foundational phonics curriculum for grades K-2
- Implement dyslexia screening, professional learning, and program pilots (as applicable)
- Support literacy development through the integration of culturally responsive-sustaining texts and content

Priority 1 SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
Students with Disabilities (SWD)	133	By June, 2026, literacy will improve, as measured by a 5% Increase, from 133 to 139, of K-2 students RIT scores on the MAP Growth Assessment.

Priority 1 Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Identify what your school would expect to see at the end of each period to know if you are on track to reach the identified goal(s). The progress monitoring targets can be a percentage or a number and should reflect a sufficient improvement in outcomes to meet the goal. Note that all schools are required to enter results in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) on the iPlan Portal.

Priority 1 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

We will provide professional development to teachers in how to test students in MAP Growth. Additionally, students will use the BOY scores as a baseline for teachers to understand skill gaps. Throughout the year, student Reading IEP goals will be written in alignment with these skill gaps. Students will be grouped with similar achieving students in small group instruction.

Root Cause Addressed:

There were a lot of incoming Kindergarten students in the 2024-2025 school year. Additionally, there were a lot of teachers who were new and did not get training before administering the BOY assessment.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
PD for teachers surrounding MAP Growth testing provided by school coaches and Periodic Assessment office
Monitor groups of students for targeted AIS instruction
PD for teachers surrounding skill gaps and small group instruction
Weekly Data Meetings with teachers routinely to ensure they are able to "name the gap"

Priority 2 Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

We will provide further PBIS PDs for teachers and allow student voice in SEL planning and PBIS earnings. Student government will lead this initiative.

Root Cause Addressed:

Only 82% of 277Q students feel that the school works to develop norms that can proactively support student learning, setting high standards for students, encouraging supportive peer norms and providing strong guidance.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
PBIS PD for staff
SEL Curriculum Adaptations
Student Government input on PBIS earnings

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Root Cause Addressed:

We will address the concern that only 82% of our students feel that SEL norms proactively support student learning through incentives and PBIS earnings.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

1. Data Trend(s) (Cite Data Source & Year)	2. Root Cause(s)	3. Priority Needs
Student Participation in IEP Meetings	Student Advocacy	14% of 277Q Students Participated in their IEP Meetings in the 2024-2025 School Year

Priority 3

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing school data trends, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal for this Priority informed by the identified priority needs and the relevant systemwide focus areas for high-quality academics outlined below. Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for High Quality Academics

- Strengthen mathematics instruction, including via screener administration and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)
- Embed culturally responsive-sustaining texts and content (e.g., Hidden Voices, Black Studies Curriculum, etc.) in history, literature, and arts curricula to deepen civic engagement, enhance understanding of diverse cultures and provide relevant and affirming interventions in literacy development
- Ensure multilingual language learners (MLLs) are served and progressing in appropriate settings; expand bilingual programming and professional learning for educators who support MLLs
- Ensure students with disabilities are served and progressing in the least restrictive and most appropriate settings; improve delivery of mandated services and expand specialized programs
- Ensure that Students in Temporary Housing (STH) and Students in Foster Care access opportunities to receive tutoring and are purposefully engaged in new programs developed in the school
- Elevate health and physical education and activities for a reimagined and engaged student academic experience promoting social, emotional, and physical wellness and wellbeing
- Ensure teachers attend Physical Education and Health Education professional learning in order to provide quality instruction to be able to support and address the physical, mental, social, and emotional needs of the whole child in a safe and supportive learning environment
- Strengthen Early Childhood Education program utilization, quality, and ability to serve all students
- Elevate arts and civics for a reimagined and more engaged student academic experience
- Increase school staff diversity and retention
- Create new programs/schools in response to community need; expand high quality seats

- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

The 277Q DataWise project is to work on increasing student participation in IEP meetings to promote student advocacy and a voice in their learning. In turn, it should increase periodic assessment scores and curricular scores as students feel empowered to take ownership of their educational journey.

Root Cause Addressed:

Student voice is not exemplified or celebrated in our IEPs.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Messaging to staff and families about IEP meetings
Present data snapshot of participation along with testimonies taken of families and students and the importance of their educational journey.
Collect IEP attendance page data periodically
Get data and testimonies at the end of the year to see the difference and growth

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Root Cause Addressed:

Students are not participating in their IEP meetings. Only 14% of Riverview students are. Therefore, we must encourage more student voice in their education to higher academic performance.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps

Implementation Monitoring: Indicate your primary structures to progress monitor implementation of key strategies and action steps. Include specific data/evidence you will collect and use to determine progress and impact on instruction, student learning, and achievement.

Note: Implementation Progress Checks will be conducted in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in the iPlan Portal for the 2025-26 school year.

Our implementation monitoring will be periodically. We have baseline data and testimonies and we will take the end of year information as well.

September- review baseline data
November-January- look at IEPs, identify exemplars and speak with teachers in common planning about the DataWise project implementation and timeline
February- review IEP attendance pages, identify which teachers are ensuring participation, speak to those who are lowest student participation and discuss how to involve more students
March-May- look at the IEPs and attendance pages, identify exemplars and speak with teachers in common planning about the DataWise project progress
June- review IEP attendance page data

Use the SMART Goal builder in iPlan for support in developing your goal.

Systemwide Focus Areas for College and Career Readiness

- Expand career pathways and work-based learning, opportunities for early college credit and industry credentials, and college/career advising and awareness, including via the Career Readiness Modern Youth Apprenticeship and FutureReadyNYC (as applicable)
- Schools serving students in early childhood, elementary, and middle school settings should consider how they expose students to and prepare them for advanced (Regents-level) coursework, Specialized High School Admission Test (SHSAT) preparation, college awareness, career studies, etc.
- Integrate historical and contemporary contributions of culturally diverse professionals, scholars, and entrepreneurs into career readiness programs, ensuring students see diverse pathways to success
- Incorporate lessons on wealth-building strategies, cooperative economics, and financial independence to equip students with tools for long-term economic security
- Ensure the implementation of specialized support programs tailored for Students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, addressing their unique educational needs and challenges

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

PD for staff regarding appropriate student placement, supports, and needs. We will need to do monthly check in's at cabinet meetings surrounding student movement. Additionally, we will need to work with families to discuss data driven decisions regarding supports and student placement.

Root Cause Addressed:

Students have 1:1's and are in settings that are not appropriate or needed. We have to challenge our students, staff, and families to allow for their student to thrive within the school system independently and challenge them academically if appropriate. IEP meeting discussions surrounding 1:1s and related services must be data driven and student centered.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Discuss at town hall student movement and student successes
Review data with families and celebrations
Discuss at town halls

Key Strategy 2 (Optional):

Root Cause Addressed:

Our students are having 1:1s and related services when they do not always need to as parents are resistant to changing the IEP mandates.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Section 5: Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism Data Trends, Root Causes and Priority Needs

Priority Needs and Root Causes

Directions: After conducting your comprehensive needs assessment for this Priority use the chart below to:

- Summarize the data trends (gaps in student and school performance) for each priority. Use the most current data available and cite the data sources and years.
- Identify the root causes (and/or contributing factors, theories, hypotheses) that explain the current student and school outcomes.
- Indicate the high leverage priority needs determined by your school that, if resolved, will advance equity and result in measurable, positive impact on student outcomes.

Guiding Questions:
1. Data Trends: What did you see as you analyzed data trends? Cite data sources and years, including those available from NYCPS and NYSED.
2. Root Causes: What do you believe are the reasons within the school's control that are leading to these outcomes?
3. Priority Needs: What are the most important needs identified after completing your needs assessment?

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism

Directions: After conducting a comprehensive needs assessment by analyzing the school data, exploring your school vision/values/aspirations, and listening to students to surface priority needs and identify root causes, develop at least one outcome-focused SMART goal aligned to our systemwide focus on improving attendance and reducing chronic absenteeism.

Systemwide Focus Area for Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism: Develop and implement strengthened practices to improve attendance, combat chronic absenteeism and center equity. Note: For ESSA accountability purposes, NYSED will replace the Chronic Absenteeism indicator with the Attendance indicator, beginning in the 2025-26 school year. Learn more about the new Attendance indicator by reviewing this Fact Sheet.

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism SMART Goal(s)

Target Population	Baseline Data	SMART Goal
Students with Disabilities (SWD)	429 students, 50%	By June, 2026, the Percentage of Chronically Absent Students will decrease by 3%, from 50% to 47%, as measured by the Chronic Absenteeism Reports.

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism Progress Measures and Targets

Directions: It is expected that progress monitoring, based on interim outcome data, occurs at three progress monitoring periods during the school year. Identify what your school would expect to see at the end of each period to know if you are on track to reach the identified goal(s). The progress monitoring targets can be a percentage or a number and should reflect a sufficient improvement in outcomes to meet the goal. Note that all schools are required to enter results in the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) on the iPlan Portal.

Attendance/Chronic Absenteeism Action Plan

Directions: Identify the key strategy and progressive action steps your school will take to address the specific priority needs and root causes identified for this goal(s). More than one strategy can be indicated if multiple and/or differentiated needs for this priority have been identified.

- Key strategies should be key levers for success and may represent something that is new to the school.
- Action steps to operationalize key strategies should focus on new activities or initiatives and/or modifications to current initiatives (e.g., expanded to reach a wider audience or refined for greater impact on students).

Note: Routine activities your school does every year should not be included.

Key Strategy 1 (Required):

Students must come to school. Administration must speak with parents about attendance at every event. Attendance trackers will be in hallways and outside of classrooms to track site and classes with a visual representation. Letters must go home to families constantly with poor attendance. Additionally, team meetings with coordinators bi-weekly to target sub groups.

Root Cause Addressed:

Half of 277Q students are chronically absent.

Action Steps:

Indicate what your school will do specifically to implement each strategy to achieve this annual goal. Include both student-facing activities and professional learning for staff. Be sure to indicate how action steps will be introduced and rolled out.

Action Steps
Beginning of the year parent meeting regarding attendance, policy sent home
Track attendance with team bi-weekly
Send letters home to "at risk" students
Monitor attendance and conduct home visits if appropriate
Communicate regularly the importance with families and teachers who are tracking

Include:

1) a description of the school's supports and processes for students with disabilities;
2) a coherent mechanism is implemented for updating families on their child's progress towards measurable annual and post-secondary transition goals;
3) a procedure to ensure families are involved during decision-making for IEP development and implementation.

Schools are encouraged to think critically and strategically when considering resources that can support progress towards CEP goals for students with IEPs. This includes utilizing Title I funding for at-risk speech and/or counseling services, all-staff training in supporting students with autism, sensory materials, summer institute geared at the development of executive functioning skills, and/or inclusion coaching support. Schools may also consider utilizing Title II funds to reduce the ratio of students with IEPs to typically developing peers in ICT classes.

Section 6: Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS)

Academic Support

NYCPS Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) align with NYSED guidelines for providing Academic Intervention Services (AIS) to students who have not yet met state standards or are considered to be at-risk of not meeting state standards. The Multi-tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) framework, organizes supports into three tiers:

Tier 1 provides schoolwide, high-quality programming for all students, including SWDs;

Tier 2 offers data informed small-group interventions for at-promise students; and Tier 3 delivers intensive, individualized support for students with persistent needs.

This facilitates the strategic planning and necessary resource alignment to ensure their school community appropriately and adequately serves all students well, in partnership with students and families.

MTSS identifies the academic support services to be provided and ensures that students receive Response to Intervention (RtI) and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) strategies as needed. See NYSED's memo to view the criteria for determining AIS services. The Supportive Environment Framework (SEF) offers a wide range of evidence-based Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions and supports for student social-emotional, behavioral, physical and mental wellness, with particular attention to the unique needs of students in Temporary Housing and/or Foster Care, who may face additional challenges related to school stability, trauma and access to educational resources. A culturally responsive-sustaining approach to intervention embeds culturally relevant texts and historical narratives into literacy and social studies interventions, ensuring students receive the support that reflects their identities and lived experiences, increasing engagement and achievement.

Use the charts below and a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) to match academic, social/emotional, behavioral and instructional resources with student needs to provide targeted support for all learners, especially at-risk students who experience difficulty meeting state standards, including those living in Temporary Housing and/or residing in Foster Care placements. Indicate specialized materials, technology-based tools and/or extra instruction, including Expanded Learning Time that supplement school-wide systems & supports and/or classroom level supports. Ensure that interventions address the unique social-emotional, behavioral and academic challenges faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as those impacted by housing instability and child welfare system involvement.

Directions: Complete the chart and identify Tier 2 or 3 MTSS Academic supports. Any Tier 2/3 interventions should be in addition to the foundational work being done at Tier 1.

Family and Community Engagement Around MTSS

Describe how the school's essential components of MTSS are shared with families.

We provide an outline of our school and our classes/supports. Families are aware of the tiers their students are on. During teacher meetings we discuss with them the movement and ongoing status.

Describe how families receive updates on the progress of their child(ren) who receive Tier 2 targeted, or Tier 3 intensive interventions.

We send home updates during report card time along with periodic assessments as well as any time a student shows potential for movement. The classroom team will hold meetings when a student is approaching a tier movement.

Describe how families are involved during decision making regarding the progress of students receiving Tier 3 intensive intervention.

Families are given the option to include these supports at home. They are provided technology to do so. Additionally, parents are given meetings with counselors, classroom teams and at times, administration.

Students in Temporary Housing (STH) Support

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-STH Section and in accordance with the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and Chancellor's Regulation A-780, schools must identify, serve, and report on students living in temporary housing (STH). All Title I and non-Title I schools receive a Title I allocation for STH students. The Students in Temporary Housing (STH) website provides guidance on STH pupils and how these funds can be used to meet their needs, as well as restrictions. For more information on acceptable uses of the mandated Title I, Part A set-aside to support your STH population, please refer to the Title I STH Funds Toolkit.

Identify the number of Students in Temporary Housing who are currently attending your school and provide a breakdown of their temporary housing status. Since the number of STH children can change regularly, schools must carefully track this number to determine whether there has been an increase in need.

Number of students in temporary housing who are:

- Doubled up (with friends or relatives because they cannot find or afford housing):
- Living in a shelter or transitional shelter:
- Living in a hotel/motel:
- Other

*Note: In keeping with established practices regarding personally identifiable information, use the letter "s" to identify a number less than five (5).

40

After a careful analysis of historical demographic, attendance and achievement data for your STH population, what trends do you notice, and how can these trends inform the services and support provided for this population?

STH students are testing comparable to their peers. Trends noticed were that student attendance increased 1% and both ELA and Math scores decreased from the previous year by 10%. Interventions will be targeted and PD will be offered to families in content area.

Describe the services you are planning to provide to the STH population. How were those services selected to best meet students' needs? How will you (or did you) utilize the STH Title I Survey to select services aligned to need?

STH students perform at or above counterparts in 277Q as evidenced by periodic assessment and LRE data. In order to support our STH, we will continue to provide workshops for teachers on how to support families with student's academic and transition planning as supported by our Transition Coordinator and Parent Coordinator.

Prioritizing Students in Foster Care

As included in your school's Office of School and Youth Development Consolidated Plan-Child Child Abuse and Neglect Intervention and Prevention School Plan and in accordance with the federal Education Law 3244 – Education of Children in Foster Care (Effective 2018) establishes the rights of students placed, or moved, in foster care to:

- Continue attending school of origin if determined to be in their best interest, or, if not, attend school near foster care placement,
- Immediate enrollment, and
- Transportation, if necessary to attend school of origin

Please respond to the questions below.

How many students in foster care are currently enrolled at your school? Provide a detailed breakdown of the social-emotional and academic supports available to them.

What targeted supports are in place for students in foster care, including those newly transitioning into the foster care system? How does your school ensure these students receive the necessary interventions to promote stability and success?

After analyzing historical demographic, attendance, and achievement data for students in foster care, what trends have emerged? How can these insights be used to improve the services and support provided to this population?

What specific strategies does your school implement to ensure students in foster care, particularly those in transitional grades, receive targeted Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) support? How do these strategies help address academic and behavioral challenges?

Section 7: Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Directions: The Parent and Family Engagement Policy should describe how your school will plan and implement effective parent and family engagement activities and/or strategies to improve student academic achievement and school performance. The School-Parent Compact (SPC) is a component of the Parent and Family Engagement Policy (PFEP) that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share this responsibility.

The activities and/or strategies included in your school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy should align with current Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP) goals for improving student achievement and should be developed or updated with input and feedback from parent leaders and the Parent Coordinator. In addition, if the school community will be engaged in central parent engagement initiatives, such as Parent Academy, which will provide training for school communities to help strengthen family-school partnerships, please be sure to include these activities in the school's policy.

In Title I schools, the Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) represents the Title I parent community in supporting parent and family engagement. The Title I PAC Chairperson will serve in a consultative role with the SLT representing the school's Title I parents. Schools are encouraged to use the sample Parent and Family Engagement and SPC templates below (which meet federal Title I parent and family engagement requirements) as guidance for updating the school's current policy.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Educational research shows a positive correlation between effective parental engagement and student achievement. The overall aim of this policy is to develop a parent and family engagement policy that will establish expectations and objectives for meaningful parent and family engagement in the school community. [School Name], in compliance with Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is responsible for creating and implementing a parent and family engagement policy to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. The school's policy is designed to keep parents informed by actively involving them in planning and decision-making in support of the education of their children. Parents are encouraged to actively participate on the School Leadership Team, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), and Title I Parent Advisory Council as trained volunteers and welcomed members of the school community.

Support for Parents and Family Members of Title I Students

277Q will support parents and family members of Title I students by:
- providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their achievement level, e.g., literacy, math and use of technology;
- providing parents with the information and training needed to effectively become involved in planning and decision making in support of the education of their children;
- fostering a caring and effective home-school partnership to ensure that parents can effectively support and monitor their child's progress;
- providing assistance to parents in understanding City, State and Federal standards and assessments;
- sharing information about school and parent related programs, meetings and other activities in a format, and in languages that parents can understand;
- providing professional learning opportunities for school staff with the assistance of parents to improve outreach, communication skills and cultural competency in order to build stronger ties between parents and other members of the school community;

Parental Involvement and School Quality

The school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy was designed based upon a careful assessment of the needs of all parents/guardians, including parents/guardians of Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (ML/ELL), and students with disabilities. The school community, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy with Title I parents to improve the academic quality of the school. The findings of the evaluation through school surveys and feedback forms will be used to design strategies to more effectively meet the needs of parents and family members and enhance the school's Title I program. This information will be maintained by the school.

In developing the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy, parents of Title I participating students, parent members of the school's Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association), as well as parent members of the School Leadership Team, were consulted on the proposed Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and asked to survey their members for additional input. To increase and improve parent involvement and school quality, the school will:
- actively involve and engage parents and family members in the planning, review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the school's Title I program as outlined in the School Comprehensive Education Plan, including the implementation of the school's Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and School-Parent Compact;
- engage all parents in discussion and decisions regarding the required Title I, 1% set-aside funds, which are allocated directly to the school to supplement parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy and parenting skills;
- ensure that the Title I funds allocated for parent and family engagement are utilized to implement activities and strategies as described in the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the School-Parent Compact;
- support school-level committees that include parents who are members of the School Leadership Team, the Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council. This includes providing technical support and ongoing professional learning, especially in developing leadership skills;
- maintain a Parent Coordinator (or a dedicated staff person) to serve as a liaison between the school and families. The Parent Coordinator or a dedicated staff person will provide parent workshops based on the assessed needs of the parents of children who attend the school and will work to ensure that the school environment is welcoming and inviting to all parents. The Parent Coordinator will also maintain a log of events and activities planned for parents each month and file a report with the central office.;
- conduct parent workshops with topics that may include: parenting skills, understanding educational accountability grade-level curriculum and assessment expectations; literacy, accessing community and support services; and technology training to build parents' capacity to help their children at home;

- provide opportunities for parents to help them understand the accountability system, e.g., ESSA/State accountability system, student proficiency levels, Annual School Report Card, School Quality Report, Quality Review Report, Learning Environment Survey Report;
- host the required Annual Title I Parent Meeting each school year to advise parents of children participating in the Title I program about the school's Title I funded program(s), their right to be involved in the program and the parent and family engagement requirements under Title I, Part A, Section 1116 and other applicable sections under ESSA;
- schedule additional parent meetings, e.g., quarterly meetings, with flexible times, such as meetings in the morning or evening, to share information about the school's educational program and other initiatives of the Chancellor and allow parents to provide suggestions;
- translate all critical school documents and provide interpretation during meetings and events as needed.

Encouraging School-Level Parental Involvement

The school will further encourage school-level parent and family engagement by:
- hosting educational family events/activities during Parent-Teacher Conferences and throughout the school year;
- encouraging meaningful parent participation on School Leadership Teams, Parent Association (or Parent-Teacher Association) and Title I Parent Advisory Council;
- supporting or hosting Family Day events;
- establishing a Family Empowerment Center including the presence of a lending library and instructional materials for parents;
- encouraging more parents to become trained school volunteers;
- providing written and verbal progress reports that are periodically given to keep parents informed of their children's progress;
- developing and distributing a school newsletter or web publication designed to keep parents informed about school activities and student progress;
- providing school planners/folders for regular written communication between /teacher and the home in a format, and to the extent practicable in the languages that parents can understand.

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

School-Parent Compact (SPC)

277Q, in compliance with the Section 1116 of Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), is implementing a School-Parent Compact to strengthen the connection and support of student achievement between the school and the families. Staff and parents of students participating in activities and programs funded by Title I, agree that this Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff and students will share responsibility for improved academic achievement and the means by which a school-parent partnership will be developed to ensure that all children achieve State Standards on assessments.

Language Allocation Policy Outline

Language Allocation Policy Outline

2025-26 Language Allocation Policy (LAP)

This submission form supports schools with organizing a well-conceived school-based Language Allocation Policy (LAP) that describes high quality programs for Multilingual Learners/English Language Learners (MLs/ELLs). This is an annual plan of how your school will support the linguistic and academic needs of MLs/ELLs and must be completed yearly. The Language Allocation Policy (LAP) is a part of schools' Comprehensive Education Plan (CEP).

This is a living document. Any school-wide changes involving the instruction of MLs/ELLs, such as the addition or expansion of a Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) or Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) program, should be updated in this form.

Agenda, minutes of LAP meetings, and LAP team members' attendance at meetings should be kept readily available on file in the school with all other ML/ELL critical documents. When preparing your school's submission, provide extended responses in the available spaces.

For additional information, refer to the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs. For additional support with ML/ELL policy, please reach out to your respective ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance Performance Specialist; for support with ML/ELL instruction, please contact your ML/ELL Services Administrator.

Part III: ML/ELL Programming

Please refer to New York State Commissioner's Regulation (CR) Part 154 Units of Study Tables as you describe academic programming for MLs/ELLs at your school below. Please do not leave any fields blank and indicate "N/A" for any fields that are not applicable.

Describe your English as a New Language (ENL), and if applicable Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE), and Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs. For each program, include:

- How stand-alone ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How integrated ENL is implemented as per CR Part 154
- How students are grouped (e.g., block [class travels together as a group], ungraded [all students regardless of grade are in one class], heterogeneous [mixed proficiency levels], homogenous [proficiency level is the same in one class]).

a. English as a New Language (ENL)
Stand-alone ENL:

Our ELL students are in self-contained classrooms and some receive D75 SETSS and are grouped heterogeneously by proficiency level for standalone ENL. The stand-alone ENL sessions are done in small groups in which instruction are delivered outside of the classroom or in a separate location. Each group will maintain the appropriate 3 contiguous grades and IEP Ratio (12:1:1, 6:1:1, & 8:1:1).

Integrated ENL:

Our ELL students are in self-contained classrooms and some receive D75 SETSS and are grouped heterogeneously by proficiency level for the integrated ENL/ELA model. Each group maintains the appropriate 3 contiguous grades and IEP Ratio (12:1:1, 6:1:1, & 8:1:1). The ENL teacher and the classroom teacher co-plan to provide the Integrated ENL model collaboratively. The integrated ENL sessions are used to help build English skills through content instruction.

b. Bilingual Education (If applicable)
Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE):

Not applicable

Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE):

Our school follows the Dual Language Program. Our bilingual students are in self-contained classrooms. The Home Language for our students in this program is Spanish. Majority of our bilingual students are at the Entering level. They receive 1 Home Language Arts class every other day and a minimum of 2 bilingual content area subjects per week.

2. How does your school ensure the mandated number of instructional minutes are provided according to students' English language proficiency levels in each program model?

In each model, the ENL teachers will provide a detailed schedule to the Principal and Assistant Principals. Our students receive the maximum number of possible ENL minutes given the staffing and geographical constraints of our organization. This is in accordance with explicit CR Part 154 regulations. We have Dual Language classes and those students have one HLA class every other day and a minimum of 2 bilingual content class per week.

ENL teachers work in collaboration with classroom teachers to align instruction and support student progress in all five proficiency levels (Entering, Emerging, Transitioning, Expanding and Commanding). Classroom teachers are also provided with ENL schedules to support coordination.

3. How are ENL, English Language Arts (ELA) and if applicable, Home Language Arts (HLA) instructional minutes delivered in each program model?

In our DLBE classes HLA period is 50 minutes every other day and there are two 50 min ELA periods a week. ENL in the integrated model is delivered for one full period (50 minutes) with the co-teacher. ENL in the stand-alone model is delivered 50 minutes in a separate location.

4. For schools with Dual Language Bilingual Education (DLBE) programs:

a. Which Dual Language Bilingual Education model is implemented? Explain how much of the instructional day (percentage) English proficient students and ELLs are integrated.

At 277Q, we implement a One-Way Dual Language Bilingual Education Program. This model serves students who share the same home language of Spanish. All our participants are English Language Learners (ELLs). Instruction is provided in both English and Spanish, with the goal of developing bilingualism and biliteracy. Since all students are ELLs with the same home language, they are integrated for 100% of the day. Language allocation is 50% English and 50% in Spanish.

b. In which language(s) is each core content area taught?

The content areas that are taught bilingually are Math, Science and Social Studies.

5. For schools with Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE) programs:

a. Which core content areas are taught bilingually?

Not applicable

Part IV: Data Analysis

Data Analysis

After reviewing and analyzing school demographic and assessment data, answer the following questions. The ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) provided by the Office of Multilingual Learners can assist with identifying these data points.

For additional information, refer to Data Analysis Professional Learning Module and ELL Data Analysis Tool (EDAT) Professional Learning Module.

1. What is the composition of the ELL subgroups at your school?
What percentage of ELLs are Newcomers? How does effective instruction for Newcomers differ from those provided to Developing or Long-Term ELLs?

Currently, 47% of our ELLs are Newcomers. These students receive ENL instruction aligned with CR Part 154, with a strong focus on the four modalities: listening, reading, writing and speaking. Instruction for Newcomers is differentiated to meet their unique needs and includes multi-sensory materials and technology supports such as the Promethean boards, iPads and educational software to promote language acquisition and comprehension.

Unlike Developing or Long-term ELLs, Newcomers receive increased scaffolding and initially more home language support, which is gradually reduced as their English proficiency improves. Instruction for Newcomers also emphasizes building connections between their background knowledge, culture and meaningful learning experiences.

What percentage of ELLs are Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE)? How do you differentiate effective instruction for SIFE?

Currently, 3 of our ELLs are identified as SIFE, representing approximately 0.9% of the ELL population. These students receive ENL instruction aligned with CR Part 154, with targeted support across the four language modalities: listening, speaking, reading and writing.

Instruction for SIFE is differentiated to address academic gaps and language development needs. This includes the use of multi-sensory materials, scaffolded instruction and technology supports such as the Promethean boards, iPads and educational software to promote language acquisition and comprehension. We also prioritize building on students' background knowledge, culture and experiences to create meaningful connections between their home language and English, fostering both academic and linguistic growth.

What percentage of ELLs are Long-Term ELLs? How does effective instruction for Long-Term ELLs differ from instruction designed for Developing ELLs?

Currently, 22.9% of our ELLs are classified as Long-Term ELLs. Instruction for these students is guided by their IEP goals and the school-based curriculum. ENL teachers and instructional staff adapt content and instructional methods to meet individual needs, ensuring access to rigorous academic standards while continuing to develop English language proficiency.

Effective strategies for Long-Term ELLs include cooperative learning, intensive literacy and language instruction, flexible scheduling, small group instruction, graphic organizers, and a print-rich environment. Additional methods such as brainstorming, discovery and expository learning, role play, and targeted differentiation help address both academic and linguistic needs.

This differs from instruction for Developing ELLs, who may still require foundational language support, including the use of their Home Language, as they build basic proficiency in English.

What percentage of students are former ELLs? How is your school providing mandated instruction to former ELLs?

Former ELLs represent 0.7% of our student population. In alignment with state requirements, students in their first and second year after reaching Commanding proficiency on the NYSESLAT continue to receive mandated support. This includes Academic Intervention Services (AIS) and a minimum of one-half unit (90 minutes) of ENL instruction per week through an integrated co-teaching model.

ENL teachers closely monitor student progress using classwork, assessments, and quizzes to identify areas for support and determine appropriate next instructional steps.

2. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of ELLs at your school?

At 277Q, at-risk ELLs are most commonly identified at the Entering proficiency level on the NYSESLAT. These students often require increased academic and social-emotional support compared to their peers. Contributing risk factors include limited prior schooling, inconsistent attendance, and difficulty accessing content due to limited English proficiency.

A noticeable trend is that attendance significantly impacts the success of at-risk ELLs. Students with chronic absenteeism tend to demonstrate slower progress in both language acquisition and academic achievement. This highlights the importance of consistent attendance and targeted interventions to support the academic and social development of at-risk ELLs.

3. Examine all at-risk levels that might adversely affect former ELLs at your school. What trends do you notice about the at-risk levels of former ELLs at your school?

At our school, former ELLs may face academic challenges once their mandated two years of ENL support (half a unit per week) conclude. A key at-risk factor for these students is absenteeism, which negatively impacts their ability to keep pace with grade-level instruction. We've also noticed that some former ELLs still need extra support even after their two year period ends. Without consistent attendance and continued support of ENL teachers, former ELLs are at risk of falling behind, particularly in content-area classes where academic language demands increase.

4. What are the home languages of ELLs with the largest representation at your school? What staff, structures, and processes does your school have to support communication and learning that values these home languages?

At 277Q, the most commonly spoken home languages among our ELLs are Spanish, Bengali and Chinese. We are fortunate to have multilingual staff members who can communicate with students and families in their home languages when needed. To further support communication, we utilize tools such as Remind, Google Translate, and the NYCDOE Office of Language Access. Our school website is also translatable to ensure accessibility to all families.

In addition, our school has an active Equity Team that serves as an Equity Collective. This team reviews existing structures and implements culturally responsive practices that acknowledge how student differences impact access to education. We also offer a Title III after-school program that celebrates and incorporates the languages and cultures of our students, reinforcing our commitment to honoring students' backgrounds and promoting inclusive learning.

5. What are the racial and ethnic classifications of ELLs at your school? How are ELLs being included in planning and delivery of Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE)?

At our school, 73% of ELLs identify as Hispanic, 20% as Asian, and 4% as Other. In planning and delivering instruction, teachers consider students' racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds to ensure learning is inclusive and affirming.

Culturally Responsive and Sustaining Education (CR-SE) is integrated into lesson planning through the selection of diverse instructional materials, activities that reflect students' lived experiences, and adaptations based on individual needs, including those outlined in the IEPs. Staff work to ensure the learning targets from the school based curriculum are relevant, meaningful, and respectful of students' cultural identities.

6. What trends do you notice in reviewing English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth at your school? How many students met ELP sufficient progress? How many students did not meet ELP sufficient progress?

Upon reviewing the English Language Proficiency (ELP) growth data, we observed that the majority of our ELLs did not meet sufficient progress. Specifically, 88% of our ELLs did not meet their ELP targets.

Only 1 student (0.5%) met sufficient progress and exited the ENL program, while 25 students (11.6%) met their annual progress targets but did not yet test out. This trend highlights the need for continued support and targeted interventions to accelerate language development and help more students reach proficiency.

7. When you look at the results of the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT), what stands out? What trends are there for each modality?

According to the EDAT, a significant portion of our ELLs are performing at the early stages of English language development. Specifically 55.3% of students scored at the Entering level, while 29.3% scored at the Emerging level. When examining performance by modality, trends vary by grade level. In Grade 2, students showed progress in the Listening modality. In Grades 3 and 5, students showed progress in the Writing modality.

8. What is the relationship between students' performance on the NYSESLAT and other state assessments such as the ELA assessment, the Math assessment, and the Regents exams?

Many of our students participate in alternate assessments (NYSAA) and therefore do not take the standardized state assessments. For those students who do take standardized exams, we analyze their performance on the ELA and Math assessments in relation to their NYSESLAT proficiency levels. Overall, we find that the students' performance on the ELA and Math assessments aligns with their NYSESLAT proficiency levels. Students scoring at high proficiency levels on the NYSESLAT tend to perform better on the state assessments, while those at lower proficiency levels demonstrate more limited achievement.

9. What are trends reflected in the NYSESLAT results of ELL subgroups such as ELLs with IEPs and SIFE? What do you think is impacting the results for these subgroups?

All of our English Language Learners (ELLs) have Individualized Education Programs (IEPs) and a few are Students with Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE). The NYSESLAT is a standardized assessment, and the majority of our students participate in alternate assessments due to their disabilities. We observe that the disabilities significantly impact their ability to develop language acquisition skills, which in turn affects their performance and limits progress through the proficiency levels. In addition, SIFE students face challenges due to both their disabilities and gaps in prior schooling, which further impact their language development and performance on the NYSESLAT.

10. (For grades 9-12 only) Please review your data in the Insight Tool and STARS to answer the following questions:
a. How many ELLs are on-track towards graduation?

b. How many ELLs in grades 11-12 have a documented postsecondary plan in STARS or ATS?

not applicable

c. What targeted strategies and interventions are in place to support ELLs who are currently off-track to graduate in four years?

not applicable

d. What specific strategies, engaging approaches, and interventions are implemented to support and retain students who are not on track to graduate within four years, ensuring they remain enrolled and are guided towards a successful graduation in the future?

Part V: ML/ELL Instruction

Tier 1: Core Instruction

For additional information, refer to ML/ELL Instruction Professional Learning Module.

Tier 1 Core Instruction

1. How does your school provide ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that leads to deeper learning?

Our school is committed to providing ELLs with a high-quality academic experience that fosters deeper learning through several key strategies. We implement differentiated instruction to meet the diverse needs of our students and promote meaningful engagement with academic content. Sheltered instruction is used to deliver content in a way that supports both subject matter and English language development.

We offer professional development for teachers to enhance instructional practices for multilingual learners. Our ENL and Bilingual teachers attend District 75 professional developments. Additionally, we have three bilingual self-contained classrooms that follow a Dual Language Program model, providing instruction in students' home language.

Across all sites, we integrate technology to support 21st century learning. Digital tools are used to promote research, foster collaboration, and engage students through interactive learning platforms, helping to build both academic knowledge and language proficiency.

2. How does your school's leadership team ensure ELLs have access to core instruction/curriculum?

At our school, the leadership team works collaboratively with ENL teachers to ensure the English Language Learners have full access to core instruction and curriculum. Data is collected and analyzed through Inquiry Leadership Framework (ILF) meetings, curriculum team meetings, and common planning sessions. These meetings focus on key priority areas: strengthening core instruction, knowing every student well and using a shared, inclusive curriculum.

Based on data and discussion, we develop targeted plans and implement intervention strategies to support ELLs' academic and language development. Our teachers actively participate in and lead professional development sessions to continuously improve instructional practices for multilingual learners. Additionally, we offer a New Teacher Institute to support incoming staff in addressing the needs of ELLs and navigating instructional challenges.

3. Describe how core content is delivered in each program model. Specify language, and the instructional approaches and methods to foster language development and meet the demands of the Next Generation Learning Standards.

At our school, core content is delivered through both ENL (stand-alone and integrated) and Dual Language program models. In the ENL model, content instruction is supported through collaboration between ENL and content-area teachers during curriculum planning and implementation. This collaboration ensures that instruction is aligned with the Next Generation Learning Standards and designed to support English language development across disciplines. Integrated ENL classes allow English Language Learners (ELLs) to access grade-level content while receiving language support through co-teaching and push-in models. In stand-alone ENL classes, students receive targeted language instruction focused on building foundational literacy and communication skills.

In the Dual Language program, core instruction is delivered in both Spanish and English. The goal is to support students in developing bilingualism and biliteracy. Instruction is scaffolded to support content learning in students' home language as they acquire English proficiency.

Across both models, instructional approaches include cooperative learning, small group instruction, Think-Pair-Share, discovery-based learning, role-play, differentiated instruction, expository and demonstration methods, brainstorming, and the Learning Experience Approach. These strategies are intentionally chosen to support both language acquisition and content mastery.

To further support student success, Alternate Placement Paraprofessionals provide home language assistance when available and appropriate. ENL teachers also utilize differentiated, teacher-created materials and adapted texts to ensure accessibility and engagement with grade-level content.

4. What instructional strategies and grade-level materials, including technology, do teachers of MLs/ELLs use to provide access to grade level academic content areas and accelerate English language development? Include core content area and language materials with consideration to specific ELL subgroups.

a. ELLs with IEPs

At 277Q, all English Language Learners (ELLs) have IEPs and instruction is intentionally designed to meet their diverse language and learning needs. To support access to grade-level academic content, teachers implement a range of scaffolding strategies including the use of visual supports, graphic organizers, sentence frames, and hands-on multi-sensory activities. These approaches are used across all core content areas to ensure content is accessible while also promoting language development.

Technology plays a key role in supporting both content learning and English language acquisition. Promethean Boards are used for interactive whole-group instruction, and students use laptops for individual learning activities such as interactive vocabulary development, listening and speaking practice, and reading comprehension tasks. ENL teachers also use HMH Tabletop Mini lessons for English Language Development.

Instruction is aligned with students' IEP goals and incorporates both accommodations and modifications based on individual needs. Teachers differentiate instruction using adapted texts, bilingual glossaries, visuals, and scaffolded questions to ensure that language does not become a barrier to mastering grade-level standards. Collaboration between ENL and classroom teachers ensures that instruction is cohesive, targeted and personalized for each learner.

b. SIFE

To provide meaningful access to grade level academic content and accelerate English language development for ELLs, including SIFES, we implement a combination of targeted instructional strategies, scaffolded materials and purposeful technology integration. SIFE students benefit from multi-sensory and multicultural approach. Other key strategies include: cooperative learning structures, print-rich and language rich environments and differentiated instruction.

c. Newcomers

Newcomer ELLs are taught using grade level standards with lessons modified by our ENL teachers to meet their needs. Teachers use visuals, graphic organizers, and hands-on activities to help students understand the content. When helpful, home language support and bilingual materials are used to build understanding.

To support English development, the ENL teachers focus on building vocabulary and using sentence frames, word banks, and modeled writing. Technology like iPads, and learning platforms (BrainPOP and Nearpod) help reinforce both language and content. Strategies are always adjusted based on student language level and needs.

d. Long Term ELLs

Long-term ELLs receive instruction aligned to grade-level Next Generation Learning Standards. ENL teachers adapt curriculum and instruction to meet their academic and language needs. Their strategies include: visual supports, scaffolded instruction, and modified assignments to help meet IEP goals and content standards.

Technology tools support both content access and English development. Instruction is adjusted to focus on strengthening academic vocabulary, reading comprehension and writing.

5. What supports does your school provide to ELLs with IEPs to achieve their IEP goals and attain English language proficiency within the least restrictive environment?

Our school provides ELLs access to English language instruction and special education services within the least restrictive environment by using flexible curriculum, instruction and scheduling. Instruction is delivered through both integrated and stand-alone models.

Students benefit from low student to staff ratio, allowing for personalized instruction and targeted scaffolding. ENL and classroom teachers collaborate to provide visuals, graphic organizers, videos and individualized work based on IEP goals. Instructional strategies include activating prior knowledge, modeling through mini lessons, and building vocabulary through visuals supports.

SETSS teachers also collect academic and behavioral data through pre/post assessments and behavior contingency plans to monitor progress in academics, socialization and independence. Cultural responsiveness and student diversity are central to all planning and instruction.

6. How is home language assessed in each program model (DLBE, TBE, and ENL)?

In our ENL program, home language support is assessed through collaboration between ENL staff and multilingual staff. Staff language proficiency is evaluated to ensure they can provide appropriate academic support in the students' home languages. Home language support is minimal and only used when necessary.

In our Dual Language program, both English and Spanish are used equally for instruction. Students' proficiency in both languages is monitored through classroom assessments and teacher observation. Materials and instruction are delivered in both languages.

7. (For grades 6-12 only) What language electives are offered to MLs/ELLs? How is your school preparing MLs/ELLs to obtain the New York State Seal of Biliteracy?

277Q does not offer language electives.

8. Describe systems and structures for supporting co-teaching and collaboration among teachers for all ELL program models available at your school (e.g. integrated co-teaching, Dual Language Bilingual Education teacher partnerships, etc.).

To support co-teaching and collaboration across all ELL program models, 277Q provides regular professional development for all staff, including ENL and classroom teachers. Weekly PD sessions on Monday and ongoing trainings throughout the year promote shared learning and consistent instructional practices.

ENL teachers also meet weekly during common planning to align instruction, share strategies and support each other. They work closely with classroom teachers to follow the same curriculum and assessments and share technology tools and resources. These collaborative structures are in place across integrated ENL, co-teaching models and the Dual Language program.

9. Describe how your overall, annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff – including administrators, teachers and -non-pedagogical staff – incorporates learning specifically related to the academic and social emotional needs of MLs/ELLs. Professional learning topics might include co-teaching strategies, or integrating language and content instruction.

Our annual professional learning plan ensures that all staff, receive training focused on the academic and social-emotional needs of English Language Learners. ENL teachers regularly attend District 75 professional development sessions centered on language acquisition, co-teaching strategies, and integrating language and content instruction. They share key takeaways with the full school staff and scheduled PD hours.

At least 50% of ENL teacher's PD hours are dedicated to language acquisition and ELL specific strategies. Topics also include addressing the social-emotional needs of ELLs and supporting diverse learners with adapted materials. Classroom teachers are encouraged to attend ELL-focused PDs alongside staff to promote practices and collaboration.

10. Describe your school's professional development plan in order to meet the mandated Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) ELL specific hours for certification renewal as per CR Part 154 (15% of total hours for all certified faculty [holders of professional certificates in the classroom teaching service, educational leadership service and level III teaching assistant certificate holders] and 50% of total hours for bilingual education/ENL teachers receive ELL-specific professional development).

At 277Q, our professional development plan aligns with CR part 154 requirements to ensure all certified staff meeting their Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) hours, with a specific focus on ELL related content.

We dedicate at least 15% of total professional development hours to ELL-specific topics for all certified staff, including classroom teachers, administrators and paraprofessionals. These sessions are planned and led by our ENL teachers and include topics such as co-teaching strategies, content instruction and understanding the needs of ELLs.

Sign-in sheets and agendas are maintained by clerical staff to ensure accurate tracking of participation. ENL and bilingual teachers fulfill the mandate of 50% ELL focused CTLE hours through district workshops and school based PD sessions. Certificates of completion are collected and stored for documentation purposes.

Assessment

SCREENERS

11. Which screening assessments (e.g.iReady, MAP Growth, Acadience, or STAR Reading) does your school use to guide instructional planning for your ELLs?

At 277Q, we use a range of screening assessments to guide instructional planning for our ELLs. Our SETSS providers utilize Lexia Core5 for grades PreK-5 and Lexia PowerUp for grades 6-12 to support reading interventions. These programs help identify gaps in reading skills and provide individualized resources for instruction. MAP growth assessments are used in our 8:1:1 and 12:1:1 elementary and middle school classes to monitor academic progress and inform instruction. In our 6:1:1 classes, we use the ABLLS and Fountas & Pinnell assessments to evaluate foundational skills and reading levels. For newly admitted ELLs, our ENL teachers administer the NYSITELL to assess English language proficiency and the Spanish LAB is used when applicable. These tools collectively support data driven instruction tailored to the academic and language development needs of our multilingual learners.

12. For all grades, list and describe your targeted intervention programs for ELLs in ELA, Math, and other core content areas (specify ELL subgroups targeted). Include the language(s) in which the intervention services are offered.

As a District 75 school, RTI does not apply to our student population. Instead 277Q offers a specialized program designed to meet the unique needs of all ELL subgroups. Targeted intervention programs are provided across all core content areas. In ELA and reading, we use programs such as Fundations, Wilson Foundations, JARS, Headsprout, Lexia Core5 and Power Up. For content support in science and social students, we use Scholastic Magazine, Weekly Reader, BrainPOP and Ablenet Focus on Science. All intervention services are provided in English and aligned with Next Generation Learning Standards (NGLS), with ENL teachers and Alternate Placement Paraprofessionals offering language support as needed.

13. For all grades, describe how your school uses data to guide instruction for ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). Refer to the Instructional Leadership Tool for MLs and ELLs and MTSS Guide for MLs and ELLs to help in the development and implementation of your school's plan for MLs/ELLs.

At 277Q, we use a data driven approach to support ELLs within a Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) to meet the diverse academic, linguistic, and behavioral needs of our MLs/ELLs. The ENL team works in collaboration with classroom teachers to analyze data such as the NYSESLAT, SANDI, IEP goals, teacher created assessments, and daily observations to identify students strengths, gaps and needed supports.

FORMATIVE

14. Which formative assessments (e.g. NYC performance Tasks, ELL Periodic Assessment, HLA Assessment, DRA, teacher-created assessments, etc.) are used to inform and drive instruction?

Our school uses a mix of formative assessments to guide instruction for ELLs. We use TCRWP running records, Wilson Fundations, TeachTown, MAP Growth, EnVision Math, and HMH into reading end-of -module assessments. For our K-12 ELLs who take the NYSAA, we use SANDI/FAST and classroom based assessments. Teachers also rely on observations, rubrics, student self assessments, and their own classroom data to adjust instruction as needed.

15. How do you ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages throughout the year?

At 277Q, we ensure that MLs/ELLs are appropriately evaluated in their home languages through a combination of staff support and multilingual assessment tools. Bilingually mandated students receiving instruction in monolingual settings are supported by Alternate Placement paraprofessionals fluent in the students' home language. These paraprofessionals not only assist with instruction but also conduct informal assessments when needed.

In our Dual language program students are evaluated using SANDI, Fundations and MAP growth. The MAP growth offers Spanish language assessment options while for SANDI and FUndations, teachers provide home language interpretation or translation. Related service providers also conduct evaluations in students' home languages when appropriate. Additionally ENL teachers, classroom teachers and administrators collaborate to review informal assessment data and school psychologists conduct home language evaluations as part of a students' mandated triennial reviews. This system ensures that language is not a barrier to accurately understanding student progress and needs.

SUMMATIVE

16. Which summative assessments (e.g. NYSESLAT, ELA, Math, Regents, etc.) are used to evaluate the effectiveness of your ML/ELL programs and how does it inform instructional design and curricular decisions? (Refer to the ELL Data Analysis Tool).

At the end of each year, 277Q reviews data from the NYSESLAT, NYSAA, Equals and SANDI/FAST to evaluate the success of our ELL programs. We compare current scores to past performance and monitor progress toward IEP goals. This data helps us identify what's working and where we need to adjust instruction, supports or curriculum to better meet students' needs.

17. What is your NYSESLAT administration plan? How does your school ensure that all ELLs are tested with the NYSESLAT annually? Include the titles of the staff that will administer and score the assessment. Please describe your plan to ensure that all ELLs and former ELLs continue to receive mandated instruction during the testing period.

At 277Q, ENL teachers train licensed pedagogues at each our of 12 sites to help administer the NYSESLAT. This approach reduces the need for ENL teachers to travel between sites, speeds up test administration and ensures all ELLs are tested on time. ENL teachers create and follow a detailed testing schedule to stay organized and compliant. By distributing the responsibility, our ENL teachers are able to continue providing mandated instruction to both current and former ELLs during the testing window.

18. How does your school ensure that current and former ELLs receive necessary accommodations for state assessments, including the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) if applicable?

As a District 75 program, accommodations for current and former ELLs are discussed and determined annually during IEP meetings. These accommodations are based on individual student needs and are documented in their IEPs to ensure they are applied consistently across all state assessments.

Part VI: Family Partnership

Family Partnership

Required Meetings Under CR Part 154

Describe your schools' plan to ensure families of ELLs are provided with the required meetings specified below as per CR Part 154. Include:

- Topics discussed during these meetings
- How your school ensures families receive necessary translation/interpretation supports to meaningfully engage in the meetings
- How your school schedules these meetings to facilitate attendance, and how your school maintains evidence of these meetings as required per the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs.

a. ELL Program Orientation to inform parents/guardians of newly identified ELLs of ELL program options, including the program goals and requirements for all three ML/ELL program models: Dual Language Bilingual Education, Transitional Bilingual Education and English as a New Language regardless of whether the school currently has either type of bilingual program and provide a high-quality orientation section on the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations for English Language Learners.

Our school provides an annual ELL Program Orientation for families of newly identified ELLs, as required by CR Part 154. The meeting covers ELL program options (Dual Language, Transitional Bilingual and ENL), program goals, the Next Generation Learning Standards, assessments, and school expectations.

We ensure families receive interpretation and translation in their preferred language through DOE resources or bilingual staff. Meetings are scheduled at flexible times, with virtual options available to support attendance. Our ENL teachers use the 55 minute parent engagement to speak to the parents. We document attendance, provide and collect Program Selection Forms, and keep records of all materials and interpretation services in line with NYCDOE policy.

b. Annual Individual Meeting to discuss goals of the program, language development progress, language proficiency assessment results, and language development needs in all content areas. Note: this meeting is separate from and does not include the mandated ELL program orientation meeting and DOE-scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

The families of our ELLs are provided with an annual meeting to discuss the individual language needs of the student as required by CR 154. The ENL teachers use the parent outreach time to set up and hold the meetings.

Interpreters will be provided when needed.

Family Engagement

2. Beyond the mandated meetings and orientations, describe how your school:
a. Ensures families receive all school communications and documents in the language they best understand. How are families able to respond or initiate communications in languages other than English?

Home languages are gathered through a comprehensive screening which includes Home Language Identification Surveys, phone calls and Parent teacher conferences. Home language is documented and used whenever information is sent home. We use multilingual staff and Language Line Solutions.

b. Develops activities that foster empowerment for families of MLs/ELLs. Include how your school determines the needs of your community.

Our parent coordinator sets up workshops for parents and provide language translations. Our school determines the needs of our community through surveys and questionnaires given out by our parent coordinator. Respect for all PDs that are geared toward educating our multicultural staff on our diverse community. Our school develops activities like the Back to School night. Parents and students are exposed to outside organization vendors to support their needs.

c. Ensures families of MLs/ELLs are aware of family leadership opportunities (such as Parent Association (PA), School Leadership Team (SLT), Community Education Council (CEC), etc.)

Our parent coordinator and respect for all liaison holds meetings to inform parents of the family leadership opportunities. The parents receive translated flyers about meetings in the backpack and also reminded on Class Dojo, Remind and in an email.

3. What culturally and linguistically responsive partnerships do you currently have that support the needs of your school community?

Our school works with local organization such as LEAP, to provide learning opportunities that are culturally responsive and inclusive. We facilitate interpretation between community organizations and families at events and workshops.

Part VII: Additional Information

Additional Information

Include any additional information that is relevant to your LAP and would further explain and highlight how your school supports MLs/ELLs. This form does not allow graphics and charts to be pasted.

Part VIII: ELL Identification Attestation and Principal Certification

Identification Plan

For additional information, refer to ELL Identification Attestation Professional Learning Module.

1. What are the titles of the members of your ELL identification team? Note: Members of the ELL identification team must be pedagogues.

The 7 ENL teachers, Pupil Accounting Secretary and Unit Coordinators oversee the intake of the ELLs. The ENL teachers conduct an informal interview with the parents and administer the HLIS. These interviews are done when the parent accepts placement at 277Q. The Pupil Accounting Secretary and Unit Coordinators assist this process by providing the ENL teachers with the appropriate documents and information to make sure the process runs smoothly.

2. Describe the structures and process in place for identification of ELLs year-round as required by the NYC DOE Policy & Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, including your school's identification plan for any incoming students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Include:

- How your school proactively plans for the ELL identification process so that it does not interrupt the provision of mandated ENL and/or bilingual instruction to current, former and potential ELLs,
- Who is responsible for each step of the ELL identification process, and
- School's plan for ensuring ELLs and former ELLs will continue to receive mandated instruction.

At 277Q the 7 ENL teachers and Unit Coordinators work closely with the Pupil Accounting Secretary to be proactive about the ELL identification process. The Pupil accounting secretary alerts the ENL teachers when there is a new student enrolled in our school. This helps the ENL teachers to complete the necessary paperwork in a timely manner.

Principal Certification

In accordance with New York State's Commissioner's Regulations Part 154 as outlined and implemented in the NYC DOE Policy and Reference Guide for MLs/ELLs, I, attest that the following ELL identification procedures and activities are adhered to, and staff are trained on the items listed below.

- The ELL Identification Process is completed for each student within 10 school days of enrollment (20 school days for students entering with IEPs).
- Enrollment status of each newly admitted student is determined:
  a. If a student has been in New York State public schools within the past 2 years, our school contacts the previous school to obtain ELL status, relevant assessment scores, and English language proficiency level.
  b. If a student has been outside of New York State public schools for more than 2 years, our school administers the ELL Identification Process as part of reentry.

- The home language of the student is determined by a trained and licensed pedagogue.
  a. The parent completes the Home Language Identification Survey in the parent's preferred language; translation services are provided by a bilingual staff member, the DOE's over-the-phone translation services, or an alternative, high quality translation service.

- An interview with parents and students in English and the home language is conducted. This includes reviewing documents, prior assessments, and academic experience. An assessment of the student's abilities and/or work samples determines the student's literacy and math level in his/her home language.
- Eligibility for the NYSITELL is determined.
  a. If the newly enrolled student is entering with an IEP, the school's Language Proficiency Team (LPT) recommends eligibility to the principal, who obtains final approval from the superintendent.

- Students are administered the NYSITELL, if eligible.
- Notification letters are sent to the parent/guardian in their preferred language.
  a. Parent is notified of their child's ELL status and results of the NYSITELL.

- If the student is identified as an ELL and the student's home language is Spanish, the student is administered the Spanish Language Assessment Battery (LAB).
- Student with Interrupted/Inconsistent Formal Education (SIFE) status is determined using New York State's resources.
- If a student is a newly identified ELL, the parent is invited to the parent orientation meeting.
  a. The parent orientation meeting provides parents/guardians with an explanation of each ELL program model offered in NYC; the parent video describing the three programs is presented (in parent's preferred language); parents/guardians are encouraged to ask questions so that they are informed about all ELL programs; translation and interpretation services are provided throughout the meeting.

- ELL is placed in the ELL program that the parent selected.
  a. If the bilingual program that the parent selected is not available, the parent is offered a transfer to a school with that bilingual program in accordance with NYC DOE transfer policies.
  b. If the ELL remains in the school, the ELL is placed in English as a New Language and our school keeps track of parent selection so that when minimum thresholds are met, we can open the ELL program of choice.

- Parents are notified that they have 45 days to appeal the ELL status of their child (ELL Re-identification Process).
- If the ELL Re-identification Process is implemented for any student, the principal reviews the decision of any student whose ELL status was changed because of the ELL Re-identification Process within 6 to 12 months.
- Copies of documentation regarding ELL identification, including letters and parent notifications are kept in the students' cumulative files.

Designation of a LAC
Name of person designated and trained as the LAC.
At the start of each school year, each principal is required to designate at least one staff member to serve as the Language Access Coordinator (LAC), responsible for overseeing language assistance services within the school.

We have pre-populated the following information based on our records. Please confirm that the designated staff member(s) are your school's Galaxy-designated LAC(s) and provide the date(s) they attended the OLA Language Access Coordinator Training. Note that this training is in addition to the mandatory asynchronous NYCPS Language Access Training for School-based Staff on the WeLearnNYC learning platform. If any information is missing, please provide the requested details.

As a reminder, LACs are internal staff designations and are not meant to serve as the primary point of contact for families regarding language access-related matters. The Parent Coordinator, or another designated staff member, should remain the main contact for families regarding all issues, including language access.

Title III Outline

Title III Supplemental Program for ELLs for SY 2025-26

REQUIREMENTS

Title III supplemental services for English Language Learners (ELLs) must include the following three components:

- Direct instruction activities must be used to support language development, English and home language instruction, high academic achievement in math, and/or high academic achievement in other core academic areas. The Title III supplemental instructional services must be based on student need. These supplemental services should complement core bilingual and ENL services required under CR Part 154. Direct supplemental services should be provided for before school, after school, and Saturday programs. Teachers providing the services must be bilingual education and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) certified teachers.
- High quality professional development that is "of sufficient intensity and duration to have a positive and lasting impact on the teachers' performance in classrooms." Professional development activities should be well-planned, ongoing events rather than one-day or short-term workshops and conferences.
- Parent engagement and supports must ensure that there are appropriate translation and interpretation services to meet community needs. These are in addition to mandated activities, such as parent orientation during ELL identification process or annual ELL parent meetings.

Note: The Title III ELL program planning ratio is as follows: 60% to direct instruction, 10% to professional development (if funded using Title III ELL funds), 10% to parent engagement (if funded using Title III ELL funds), and 20% to OTPS (if funded using Title III ELL funds).

For more information on Title III requirements, please see the School Allocation Memo or contact your ML/ELL Director or ELL Compliance and Performance Specialist. Any updates or revisions to this plan must be made through the iPlan portal.

We will provide English-language instruction through a virtual tour of the many cultures and communities represented in Queens, NY, where participating ELLs and their families reside. We will explore the world-wide nations and communities from which our students and their families hail, using Google Earth. We will incorporate rotations throughout the program. The rotation includes: literacy, art and social emotional learning.

Learning Through an Expanded Arts Program (LEAP) will incorporate the arts by introducing world music, and asking students to express their experience through a variety of media (drawing, digital art, collages, movement, etc.). We will also encourage active engagement from participating students by asking them to share realia from their home cultures. The LEAP program has a foundation in Social Emotional (SEL) skills development.

The Title III program will serve a total of 68 students in grades K-12, divided into 7 instructional groups. One teacher and one paraprofessional will instruct each group. There will be an additional five paraprofessionals (1:1) as required by the IEPs of five participating students.
